In 1842, the Legislature authorized the printing of the JOURNAL OF THE NEW YORK PROVINCIAL CONGRESS, which work was accordingly published in two volumes folio. The first volume contained the Journal, proper; the second consisted of Correspondence.

During their Sessions sundry papers were laid before the Congress and placed on file, reference being occasionally made to them in the minutes. These papers consisted of Credentials of Delegates; Lists of persons who had signed, or refused to sign, the Association to sustain the Continental Congress and Provincial Convention; Petitions; Proceedings of the Military Committee; Military Returns, and other Miscellaneous Papers, which were not printed in the Journal.

JOHN MCKESSON, one of the Secretaries of the Congress, having deposited these Manuscripts in the office of the Secretary of State, they were ordered, in 1822, to be bound, and were accordingly included in sixteen volumes. Unfortunately, however, no chronological order was observed in the arrangement of the papers, which were mixed up promiscuously, without any reference to dates, and, in many instances, documents were separated, part having been bound in one volume, and part in others.

After much study and labor, copies of these papers have been brought together in proper order and chronologically arranged as now printed, and a few Petitions and Muster Rolls have been added from the unpublished "Assembly Papers" in the office of the Secretary of State.

The title and number of the manuscript volume, as well as the page, are given at the head of each document, in order that the original may hereafter be consulted, in case such reference be found necessary.

A General Index will be found at the end of the second volume of this work, which will facilitate any research or inquiry Historical or Genealogical writers may desire to make.

NEW YORK REVOLUTIONARY PAPERS.

The Plot Discovered.

COMMUNICATED BY A LETTER FROM A WORTHY AMERICAN PATRIOT IN LONDON, TO HIS FRIENDS IN THIS COUNTRY, DATED MARCH 15, 1775.

Lord NORTH has brought into the House of Commons, a Bill, to confine the trade in every individual article, of New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, and South Carolina, to Great Britain, Ireland, and the British West Indies, so that not one bushel of grain, or any trivial thing can be carried by water from any of those colonies, or the four New England governments, to any other colony or part of the world, except as before mentioned. New York is designedly left out, in hopes of making that colony secede from the general American system of opposition, and secure it to assist in the abominable ministerial measures, for which end nothing is left untried. Several of the majority in the Assembly, all whose names I have not yet learnt, had actually received a bribe, in money, £1,000 sterling a man, to vote as they did in the Assembly in January last, against taking into consideration the proceedings of your Congress. The Delanceys, Watts, Coldens, and the leaders of the party are to be rewarded much higher, by places of honour, profit, and pensions, viz., Watts to be Lieutenant-Governor, in the room of old Colden, who resigns on a pension. Cruger to be of the Council, also a young Colden, McEvers, and some of the Watts's. Large grants of land are also to be given; and in a little time a Bishop will certainly be appointed in America; Dr. Cooper, of New York, is fixed for the man, who is the ministerial writer there. These men are most assuredly assisting the ministers in devising plans for disuniting America, which are communicated by Colden officially, and privately by a certain Parson Vardill, a native of New York, who has been here above a twelvemonth, a ministerial writer against America, under the signature of Coriolanus, and is lately appointed King's Professor in the College of New York, with a salary of £200 sterling per annum, and a Major Skeene from New York, who is appointed Governor of Crown Point, and Surveyor of the woods, with a grant of 120,000 acres of land.

It will be of infinite importance to have all this known publicly in New York, before their general election, if it gets to hand in time, to prevent the Delancey party from getting a majority; for if they do, the ministry openly avow, they are sure the colony will in its legislative capacity take a decisive part with them, in all their measures; and that Delancey's moving a remonstrance in the last session of their Assembly, was only a piece of policy, to gain popularity, and thereby obtain a majority in the next Assembly, which being done, they will throw off the mask, and assist the ministry in every measure, for the ruin of their country. Is it just and proper, good heavens! that such parricides should live? The minister's majority in this House of Commons is much the same as the last, but still a vast majority of the people at large, are extremely alarmed and exceedingly averse to the measures now carrying on against America, therefore every artifice is used to exasperate them against you, for fear of their resentment against the ministers rising so high as to bring them to the gallows and scaffold; and they mean by every insult and provocation to force you into violence, that they may have some cause for executing the horrid plan they have concerted. This was part of the design of the infamous address, and the orders to seize by violence several persons in Massachusetts Bay and to bring them over here, which orders, I suppose, are now countermanded, for they resolve and re-resolve ten times in a week, that it is with respect to the mode, but the plan of despotism never varies. Some regiments from hence, with double the quantity of field artillery than we had in Germany any time in the last war, will go to Cork as soon as the wind permits, there to take in three regiments of foot, and one of Light Dragoons, for Boston, and four regiments for New York. The regiments have more than a full complement of officers, as General Gage tells them 3,000 men may be raised in Massachusetts Bay. They talk of preventing the meeting of Congress, for this you should be prepared; but with all their bravadoes I believe they are not very anxious to begin the battle; they try threats, and are using every art and bribe to seduce you, for they know well what Lord Chatham told them, to be true, that the first drop of blood they shed in America, will cost them their heads.

CIRCULAR.

COMMITTEE CHAMBER, NEW YORK, April 28, 1775.

GENTLEMEN,

The distressed and alarming situation of our Country, occasioned by the sanguinary measures adopted by the British Ministry, (to enforce which, the Sword has been actually drawn against our brethren in the Massachusetts), threatening to involve this Continent in all the horrors of a civil War, obliges us to call for the united aid and council of the Colony, at this dangerous crisis.

Most of the Deputies who composed the late Provincial Congress, held in this City, were only vested with powers to chose Delegates to represent the Province at the next Continental Congress, and the Convention having executed that trust dissolved themselves: It is therefore thought adviseable by this Committee, that a Provincial Congress be immediately summoned to deliberate upon, and from time to time to direct such measures as may be expedient for our common safety.

We persuade ourselves, that no arguments can now be wanting to evince the necessity of a perfect union; and we know of no method in which the united sense of the people of the province can be collected, but the one now proposed. We therefore entreat your County heartily to unite in the choice of proper persons to represent them at a Provincial Congress to be held in this City on the 22d of May next.—Twenty Deputies are proposed for this City, and in order to give the greater weight and influence to the councils of the Congress, we could wish the number of Deputies from the counties, may be considerable.

We can assure you, that the appointment of a Provincial Congress, approved of by the inhabitants of this city in general, is the most proper and salutary measure that can be adopted in the present melancholy state of this Continent; and we shall be happy to find, that our brethren in the different Counties concur with us in opinion.

By order of the Committee.

GENERAL ASSOCIATION.

[Associations, &amp;c., 30: 1.]

GOSHEN, ORANGE COUNTY, April 29th, 1775.

A General Association, agreed to, and subscribed by the Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Orange in the Province of New York.

PERSUADED that the salvation of the Rights and Liberties of America, depends under God, on the firm union of its inhabitants, in a vigorous prosecution of the measures necessary for its safety, and convinced of the necessity of preventing the anarchy and confusion which attend a dissolution of the powers of Government, WE the Freemen, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Orange being greatly alarmed at the avowed design of the Ministry, to raise a revenue in America, and shocked by the bloody scene now acting in the Massachusetts-Bay, DO in the most solemn manner resolve never to become Slaves, and do associate under all the ties of Religion, Honour and Love to our Country, to adopt and endeavour to carry into execution whatever measures may be recommended by the Continental Congress or resolved upon by this Provincial Congress for the purpose of preserving our Constitution, and opposing the execution of the several arbitrary and oppressive acts of the British Parliament, until a reconciliation between Great-Britain and America, on constitutional principles, (which we most ardently desire,) can be obtained; and that we will in all things, follow the advice of our respective Committees, respecting the purposes aforesaid, the preservation of Peace, and good order, and the safety of individuals and private Property.

White Plains, in the County of Westchester the 11th day of April 1775.

On the 28th day of March last, the following Gentlemen having received letters from the Chairman of the Committee of the City and County of New York relative to the appointment of Deputies for this County, met at this place for the purpose of devising means for taking the Sense of this County upon the Subject. Viz:

Col Lewis Morris,
Thomas Hunt,
Abraham Leggot,
James Horton, Jr. Esq.,
Stephen Ward,
Abraham Guion, Esq.,

Theodosius Barlow, Esq.,
William Sutton, Esq.,
Capt. Joseph Drake,
James Willis,
Benjamin Drake,
Moses Drake.

who having taken the Same into consideration, agreed to send the following notification to the principal freeholders in the different Towns and districts in the County, viz—

March 28th 1775.

“Sir. A number of gentlemen from different districts in the county of Westchester having this day met at the White Plains to Consider of the most proper method of taking the Sense of the Freeholders, of the Said County, upon the Expediency of choosing Deputies to meet the Deputies of the other Counties, for the purpose of Electing delegates to represent this Colony in the General Congress to be held at Philadelphia on the 10th of May next, are of opinion that the best way of proceeding for that purpose, will be to have a general Meeting of the Freeholders of the Said County.

“As this County is very Extensive we take the liberty of recommending the meeting to be held at the White Plains on Tuesday the 11th day of April next at ten o'clock in the forenoon at the Court House, and therefore do desire you, to give notice of the Same to all the freeholders in your district, without exception, as those who do not appear and vote on that day, will be presumed to acquiesce in the Sentiment of the majority of those who vote.

We are &c.”

The above notice having been generally given and distributed, a very numerous body of the Freeholders of the County assembled at the Court House at the White Plains, on this day, and chose, Col. Lewis Morris for their Chairman.

An inconsiderable number of Persons (among whom were many tenants not entitled to a vote) with Isaac Wilkins, Esq., and Col. Philipse at their head, then appeared, and Mr. Wilkins in their behalf as he said, declared that they would not join in the business of the day or have anything to do with Deputies or congresses, but that they came there, for the sole purpose of protesting against such illegal and unconstitutional proceedings, after which they departed.

The following Question was then put to the people by the chairman, viz:

“Whether they would appoint Deputies for this county, to meet the Deputies of the other counties at the city of New York on the 20th of April instant, for the purpose of electing delegates to represent this colony in the general congress to be held at Philadelphia on the 10th day of May next.”

To which Question they unanimously answered that they would.

They then appointed the following eight persons, or the majority of them, to be the deputies of this county, for the purposes aforesaid, viz :

Col. Lewis Morris,
Stephen Ward,
Samuel Drake Esq.,
 Col. James Holmes.

John Thomas, Jr. Esq.,
Jonathan Platt, Esq.,
Robert Graham Esq.,
 Major Philip Van Cortlandt.

The two following Resolves were then unanimously Entered into, viz :

Resolved, that the thanks of this Body be given to the virtuous minority of the general Assembly of this Province, and particularly to John Thomas and Pierre Van Cortlandt, Esqrs., two of our representatives for their firm attachment to and zeal, on a late occasion for the preservation of the Union of the Colonies and the rights and liberties of America; and that this Resolve be communicated by the chairman, to every gentleman of whom that minority consisted.

Resolved, That the thanks of this country is due to the delegates who composed the late congress for the Essential Services they have rendered to America in general, and that this Resolve be forthwith published.

After the business of the day was thus concluded, the people gave three Huzzas for our gracious Sovereign and dispersed quickly without the least disorder.

LEWIS MORRIS, Chairman.

But notwithstanding this, we the Committee appointed for said town, do hereby Certify to you Gentlemen, that we approved of you, to be the deputies for Ulster County to meet in the provincial Congress to be held at New York on the 20th of this instant, and do confide in you, Gentlemen, and repose the same trust as the other towns and precincts of our County have done, who had their deputies present on your appointment, whilst we remain Gentlemen Your Most Humbly Servts,

JACOB HORNBECK
JOCHAM SCHOONMAKER.

To Levy pawling, Charles Dewitt & George Clinton, Esqrs.

[Cred. of Del. 24: 43.]

Whereas, a number of persons did on the 7th day of April, instant, meet at the town of the New Paltz in this County, and did then and there assume to themselves the style and title of committees, elected by the inhabitants of the Several Precincts and districts within this county, with authority when collectively assembled to elect and appoint deputies to meet in provincial Congress at the city of New-York for the purpose of nominating, Electing and appointing delegates to meet those of the other Provinces on this continent, subject to the Dominion of his Britannic Majesty, our leige Sovereign, at the city of Philadelphia the 10th day of May next in Continental Congress; And whereas the said pretended Committees, did then and there nominate Charles De Witt George Clinton and Levy Pawling Esqrs, as their deputies for the purpose aforesaid; And whereas a great majority of the said persons so presumptuously assuming the style, title and authority of Committees as aforesaid, were not duly elected by the Freeholders and inhabitants of the precincts and districts, for which they pretended so to have been chosen and appointed, but some of them privately without any election or even the knowledge of the one hundredth part of the persons they pretended had constituted them; others by deceptive arts, after having given public notice by advertisements to the inhabitants and appointed a day for meeting for the purpose of electing deputies, but on finding a great majority against the measures, privately anticipated the day of their election, by proposing to themselves free adherence, and declaring they would go as Deputies to the Paltz if only three persons in the Precinct choose them, —And whereas we do profess and acknowledge that we are the subjects of His

Most Excellent Majesty George the Third, we are Entitled to all the Rights, privileges and Immunities of Inborn Englishmen, and whereas the Honorable House of Assembly, our only legal Representatives have as the faithful guardians of our Liberties, with wisdom, that will immortalize their names, taken constitutional measures for obtaining a Redress of our Grievances and re-establishing peace and harmony between this country and the Parent-State, on the efficacy of which we do with fullest confidence rely; And whereas the Election of delegates to meet either in Provincial or Continental Congress, even conducted with that candor, firmness, and justness, which all elections ought to be, is a measure unwarranted by law, and unknown to the British Constitution, repugnant to the Genius and Spirit thereof; subversive of every principle of alienated Monarchy, an Invasion of the rights and Privileges, power and authority of the Honorable House of Assembly our legal Representatives; and has a direct tendency to Sap, undermine and destroy our most Excellent Constitution, and introduce a Republican Government with its Horrid concomitants, Faction, Anarchy and finally Tyranny; And whereas we conceive that such measures will only tend to widen, instead of healing the breach between this Country and its Parent State, and bring on us, all the calamities of an unnatural civil war, which will Inevitably terminate in the total abolishing of all our liberties;— We do therefore hereby publicly protest against the same, (That is to Say) against the proceedings and assumed authority of the persons calling themselves deputies, when met at the Paltz, on the day before mentioned, and against any Provincial Conventions, that may meet at the City of New York or elsewhere in this Province, as well as against all, and all manner of proceedings, acts or deeds of any Illigall Congresses whatsoever; and we do hereby declare that we will not pay any obedience to any of their resolutions or illegal Mandates; But as the faithfull Subjects of a most excellent King, firmly attached to our Parent State, and the British Constitution, will pay obedience only to the good and wholesome laws of the land, and these we will at the Hazard of our lives support and defend.

Ulster County 14th April 1775.

PETER DU BOIS,
WALTER DU BOIS.

[Associations, &c., 30 : 386.]

This printed paper, published by desire of many principal Gentlemen of Queens County, contains an explicit Declaration of the Sentiments and Intentions of the People of this County; and as such it is hoped will give satisfaction to all persons whatsoever.

Wherefore the Gentlemen now met from different Parts of the County do not apprehend it will be necessary to do anything farther at this time.

[American Archives, 4th series, 2 : 273.]

HEMPSTEAD, April 4, 1775.

At this critical time of publick danger and distraction, when it is the duty of every honest man and friend to his Country to declare his sentiments openly, and use every endeavour to ward off the impending calamities which threaten this once happy and peaceful land, we, the Freeholders and Inhabitants of Hempstead, in Queens County, in the Province of New York, being legally assembled on the first Tuesday in April, 1775, have voluntarily entered into the following Resolutions :

1st. That as we have already borne true and faithful allegiance to His Majesty King George the Third, our gracious and lawful Sovereign, so we are firmly resolved to persist in the same line of duty to him and his lawful successors.

2d. That we esteem our civil and religious liberties above any other blessings, and those only can be secured to us by our happy Constitution; we shall inviolably adhere to it, since deviating from it and introducing innovations, would have a direct tendency to subvert it, from which the most ruinous consequences might be justly apprehended.

3d. That it is our ardent desire to have the present unnatural contest between the Parent State and her Colonies amicably and speedily accommodated on principles of constitutional liberty, and that the union of the Colonies with the Parent State may subsist till time shall be no more.

4th. That as the worthy Members of our General Assembly, who are our only legal and constitutional Representatives, have lately taken the most rational and effectual measures to bring about this much wished-for accommodation, by petitioning his most gracious Majesty, a Memorial to the House of Lords, and a Remonstrance to the House of Commons; we are determined, therefore, patiently to wait for the issue of these measures, and carefully avoid everything that might frustrate those laudable endeavours of our Representatives.

5th. That as choosing Deputies to form a Provincial Congress, or Convention, must have this tendency, be highly disrespectful to our legal Representatives, and also be attended, in all probability, with the most pernicious effects in other instances, as is now actually the case in some Provinces — such as shutting up the Courts of Justice, levying money on the subjects to enlist men for the purpose of fighting against our Sovereign, diffusing a spirit of sedition among the people, destroying the authority of constitutional assemblies, and otherwise introducing many heavy and oppressive grievances, — we therefore are determined not to choose any Deputies for such Provincial Congress or Convention, nor consent to it, but do solemnly bear our testimony against it.

6th. That we are utterly averse to all mobs, riots, and illegal proceedings, by which the lives, peace, and property of our fellow-subjects are endangered; and that we will, to the utmost of our power, support our legal Magistrates in suppressing all riots, and preserving the peace of our liege Sovereign.

HULET PETERS, Town Clerk.

[Cred. of Del., 24: 9.]

Whereas the unhappy Disputes between our Mother Country and the American Colonies, we humbly conceive, hath arisen from an assumed power claimed by the British Parliament, to pass laws binding upon us in all cases whatsoever (and in many instances have exercised said power) hath given us Great uneasiness, and as we conceive that unanimity, amongst the inhabitants of the several Colonies who are affected by the same, is the only means under Providence to secure to us the essential Rights and liberties of Englishmen, and in Order, that the inhabitants of the different Colonies should know each others sentiments, and to form General plans for the Union and Regulation of the whole, it is necessary there should be delegates appointed from each Colony to meet in general Congress, and whereas the Committee of Correspondence of New York, did by notification request the people of Queens county to choose Deputies, to meet in Provincial Convention, on the twentieth of this instant, April, at New York to appoint delegates to represent the Colony of New York in a Continental Congress, proposed to be held at Philadelphia on the tenth day of May next. In Consequence thereof, on the fourth of said April, there was a town meeting at Oyster Bay in Queens county for the appointing of one Deputy for the purpose aforesaid, but there appearing a majority at said meeting against it, yet nevertheless, we the subscribers, freeholders of said Oyster Bay being determined to do all in our power to keep in Unity with you, and the Colonies on this Continent, and desirous of being in some manner represented at the General Congress, do hereby nominate, constitute, appoint and empower Zebulon Williams our Deputy; Giving and Granting unto him, full power and authority to act in our behalf, in the premises aforesaid. In Confirmation hereof we have hereunto set our hands respectively, April 12th 1775.

Persuaded that the Salvation of the Rights and Liberties of America Depends under God on the firm union of its inhabitants in the vigorous Prosecution of the measures necessary for its safety, and convinced of the necessity of preventing the anarchy and Confution which attend a Dissolution of the powers of Government.

We, the Freeholders and inhabitants within the Bounds of the 4th Militia Company of Brookhaven, being greatly alarmed at the avowed Design of the ministry, to raise a Revenue in America, and shocked by the Bloody Scene now acting in the Massachusetts Bay, DO in the most solemn manner resolve never to become slaves; And do associate under all the ties of Religion, Honour, and Love to our country to adopt and endeavour to carry into Execution Whatever measures may be recommended by the Continental Congress, or resolved upon by our Provintial Convention, for the purpose of preserving our Constitution, and opposing the Execution of the severall arbitrary, and oppressive acts of the Brittish Parliament, until a reconciliation between Great Britain and america, on constitutional Principles (which we most ardently desire) can be obtained, and that we will in all things follow the advice of our general committee respecting the purposes aforesaid, the preservation of peace and good order, and the safety of Individuals and private property.

In testimony whereof we have ordered the Clerk of said Company to subscribe our names in the presence of each other the 8th of June, 1775.

N. B. Those who chose more time for Consideration or do Dissent herefrom are Distinguished by a Cross thus, + affixed to their Names.

Suffolk County, ss.

At a Town meeting of the Freeholders and Inhabitants of the Precint of Islip in the said county, on the 13th day of May, anno Dom. 1775, it was agreed upon by the Subscribers to assent to and acquies in the measures prescribed by the foregoing association. But from the Small Number of us, think it Inexpedient to send a Deputy, but Chuse rather to abide by the determination of the other Deputies of the County; [and, as Some of us are of the People called Quakers, we mean to act no farther than is consistant with our Religious Principals.]

Not one of the Quakers Signed the Association.

ASSOCIATION.

[Associations, &c., 30: 124.]

PERSUADED that the salvation of the Rights and Liberties of America, depends under God, on the firm union of its inhabitants, in a vigorous prosecution of the measures necessary for its safety, and convinced of the necessity of preventing the anarchy and confusion which attend a dissolution of the powers of Government, We the Deputies of the different Counties of the Colony of New York in Provincial Congress convened being greatly alarmed at the avowed design of the Ministry, to raise a revenue in America, and shocked by the bloody scene now acting in the Massachusetts Bay, DO in the most solemn manner resolve never to become Slaves, and do associate under all the ties of Religion, Honour and Love to our Country, to adopt and endeavour to carry into execution whatever measures may be recommended by the Continental Congress or resolved upon by this Provincial Congress for the purpose of preserving our Constitution, and opposing the execution of the several arbitrary and oppressive acts of the British Parliament, until a reconciliation between Great Britain and America, on constitutional principles, which we most ardently desire, can be obtained; and that we will in all things, follow the advice of our respective Committees, respecting the purposes aforesaid, the preservation of Peace, and good order, and the safety of individuals and private Property.

[Petitions, 31 : 166.]

GENTLEMEN The agitation of this Town respecting M<sup>r</sup> Rivington as a printer has given this Committee much Concern, Some of the warm Friends of Liberty Seem not to be fully Satisfied that his former Offences as they were against the whole Continent are within our authority and we are concerned that nothing less than a Determination of the General Congress will give full Satisfaction on that Head, much less Securing him in his Person & Property, we have therefore Resolved to refer his Case to your respectable Body & would beg leave Strongly to urge it as a Subject of their Consideration. We have adopted temporary Expedients; but as they are merely Temporary in Effect as far as Concerns him, we beg the Direction of that Body whose Determinations we doubt not will be a Law of the Continent. His Transgressions are known to your whole Body. He has Subscribed our Association, and we know not that he has Since his Subscription done any thing contrary to its true intent and meaning.—Those Expedients we have gone into to preserve present Peace & good Order will appear from the inclosed. We pray the Directions of the Congress on this Matter and are &c —

Whereas the Subscriber by the Freedom of his publications during the present unhappy disputes between Great Britain and her Colonies, has brought upon himself much public displeasure and resentment in consequence of which his life has been endangered, his property invaded and a regard to his personal safety requires him still to be absent from his family and business; and whereas it has been ordered by the Committee of Correspondence for the City of New York, that a report of the State of his case should be made to the Continental Congress, that the manner of his future treatment may be submitted to their directions he thinks himself happy in having at last for his judges Gentlemen of eminent rank and distinction in the Colonies, from whose enlarged and liberal Sentiments he flatters himself that he can receive no other than an equitable Sentence, unbiased by popular clamour and resentments.

He Humbly presumes that the very respectable Gentlemen of the Congress, now sitting at Philadelphia, will permit him to declare and as a man of honour and veracity he can, and does solemnly declare, that, however wrong and mistaken he may have been in his opinions, he has alway meant honestly and openly to do his duty as a servant of the public. Accordingly his conduct as a printer has always been Conformable to the ideas which he entertained of English Liberty warranted by the practice of all printers in Great Britain and Ireland for a Century past under every administration, authorized as he conceives by the Laws of England, and countenanced by the declarations of the late Congress.

He declares that his press has always been open and free to all parties, and for the truth of this fact appeals to his publications, among which are to be reckoned all the pamphlets and many of the last pieces that have been written in this and the neighboring Colonies. However having found that the inhabitants of the Colonies were not satisfied with this plan of conduct, a few week ago he published in his paper a short apology, in which he assured the public that he would be cautious for the future of giving any further offence. To this declaration he resolved to adhere, and he cannot but hope for the patronage of the public so long as his conduct shall be found to correspond with it.

It is his wish and ambition to be a useful member of society; Although an Englishman by birth, he is an American by choice, and he is desirous of devoting his life in the business of his profession, to the service of the Country he has adopted for his own.

He lately employed no less than Sixteen workmen at near one thousand pounds annually, and his consumption of printing paper, the manufacture of Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut and the Massachusetts bay has amounted nearly to that sum. His extensive foreign correspondence, his large acquaintance in Europe and America, and the manner of his education are circumstances which he conceives, have not improperly qualified him for the station in which he wishes to continue, and in which he will exert every endeavour to be usefull.

He therefore submits his case to the consideration of the Honorable Gentlemen now Assembled in the Continental Congress, and begs that their determination may be such as will secure him, especially as it is the only thing that can effectually secure him in the safety of his person, the enjoyment of his property and the uninterrupted prosecution of his business.

May 20, 1775.

JAMES RIVINGTON.

[Cred. of Del. 24: 117, 129.]

Brooklyn in Kings county, within Nassaue Island and province of New York this 20th day of May 1775.

At a general town Meeting regularly warned the Majestrates and Freeholders meet and voted Jeremiah Remsen Esq. into the Chair and Leffert Lefferts Esq. Clark.

Taking into our serious consideration the expediency and propriety of concurring with the Freeholders and Freemen of the city and county of New York, and the other counties, townships and precincts within this Province. For holding, continuing and maintaining a Provincial Congress of Deputies chosen out of the whole Province, to advise, consult, consider, watch over, protect and defend, (at this very alarming crisis) all our civil and religious rights Liberties and Privileges according to their collective prudence.

After duly weighing and considering the unjust plunder, and inhuman carnage committed on the Property and Persons of our Brethren in the Massachusetts; who with the other New England Colonies, are now deemed (by the Mother country) to be in a State of actual Rebellion by which declaration, England hath put it beyond their own power to treat with New England, or to propose or receive any terms of reconciliation untill those Colonies will submit as, or will become a Conquered Country; The first effort to effect which was by military and naval force; the next attempt is to bring a famine (a dreadful engine of war) amongst them, by depriving them of both their natural and acquired Right of Fishing, natural by their situation, acquired by their Joint Exertions to acquire the Sovereignty of those Fisheries.

Further contemplating the very unhappy situation to which the powers at Home, by oppressive methods, have driven all the other protestant provinces (in which we are included) we have all evils in their power to fear as they have already declared all the provinces aiders and abettors of Rebellion, it remains only with the infallibility and omnipotency of Parliament to determine how the Crown of England can propose too, or accept of any conditions of accommodations from any of these protestant provinces Therefore

Resolved First That Henry Williams and Jeremiah Remsen Esqrs be now elected and chosen, and Deputed by us, and in our behalf Deputies for this township, to meet and associate with all the Deputies of the Cities, Counties, Townships and precincts within this province of New York in a Provincial Convention intended to be holden in the city of New York on Monday next, the twenty-second day of this present instant, May, and so to continue to meet from time to time, and at all times according to the adjournments the said provincial convention; and then and their, to consider, consult, agree, determine, act and do all prudential and necessary business accordingly.

Secondly, Resolved, That we confiding in the wisdom and equity of said convention collectively Do consent agree, and conclude, to observe, abide by, and fulfill all necessary and warrantable acts, associations orders, and directions as the said provincial Congress shall in their Prudence require, direct, & enjoin.

Petition of Captain Samuel Tudor.

[Petitions, 31: 220.]

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress of New York :

The Petition of Samuel Tudor, Captain, and the other officers of the Independent Company of Artillery, in the City of New York. Humbly sheweth—

That they have made considerable progress, in forming, training and exercising the said Company; and flatter themselves, that, if properly supply'd, they may, at this critical period, prove of signal service to the Province.

There are no carriages for even such Cannon as they have pitched on to use until brass Field Pieces be provided.

Quite destitute of Ammunition, and the necessary Apparatus, they cannot exert themselves with that effect for the defence of the Colony, which they are emulous of contributing to.

They, therefore, pray you will take the matter into consideration, and grant such relief in the premises, as in your wisdom shall seem fit.

IN PROVINCIAL CONGRESS, NEW YORK, the 31st May 1775.

SIR, You will receive enclosed the association and Resolution of this Congress upon the subject matter of it together with a letter from this assembly pointing out the reasons that they hope will induce the inhabitants of your County to Sign it as well as all other persons in this province.

You see the mode prescribed and that the Congress would not have any idea of force held up to compel people to Sign it. By this time we presume you have formed Committees in your County; and as the Congress have it much at heart that there should be a full representation in this Board of every County in the Colony, We therefore expect and recommend it that you appoint Deputies without delay to attend and act in conjunction with us. We are Sir

Your Most Humble Servants.

The Memorial of John Sparding Living at Ticonderoga Landing The North End of Lake George June 1st 1775 Humbly Sheweth,

That your memorialist has for upwards of Six Years Past, been at a Great Expense in Providing Boats and Carriages for the ease and Convenience of Persons Traveling This way with their Baggage and Effects over the Lake and Carrying Place at an Easy Rate, Likewise In Providing Battoes on Lake Champlain for the Conveniency Of Gentlemen and Others, Traveling to Canada, the unhappy Differences now subsisting between the Colonies and the Mother Country, having put an Intire stop to any Business Your Memorialist was formerly Engaged in, Your Memorialist has ever since the Tenth day of May, the Day on which The Fort at Ticonderoga was taken assisted with his Boats Men &c in Transporting the Troops With their Baggage and Provisions, over Lake George and the Carrying Place upon no other security than a Verbal agreement with Colonel Arnold, for Twenty shillings Currency per day: For a Pettyaugre Capable of Crossing the Lake with Seventy men Besides a Quantity of Provisions and a Battoe for Carrying Expresses, and when there was not a sufficient Loading for the Pettyaugre to have the Privilege of Conveying such Private Property as might Offer Of which Your Memorialist is at Present Deprived, Your Memorialist having Likewise Carted the Greatest Part of the Baggage and Provisions over the Carrying Place; The whole amount of which to this day near Seventeen Pounds and as the Gentlemen Appointed here, have this day Intimated to your Memorialist that his teams are not To be any more Employed they having Brought Teams over the Lake For said Service, Your Memorialist therefore trusting in Known Justice and Humanity of the Gentlemen in New York, Who Scorn to Let any Individual Suffer which must Inevitably be the Case of Your Memorialist unless Your Goodness Prevents it, by Confirming the Agreement made By Col. ROBERT MURRAY, JOHN MURRAY.

To the Honble the Continental Congress now Sitting at Philadelphia.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 63.]

The Memorial of Robert Murray and John Murray of the City of New York Merchants Humbly Sheweth

That the Memorialists being owners of the Ship Dutchess of Gordon and expecting She would be in London by the time their orders could arrive there did, on the 7th of September last by a letter to Philip Sansom direct him to put certain Articles on Board the said Ship on account of the Memorialists together with what Freight he could procure for her, and to dispatch her immediately for New York, as may appear by an Extract of the Letter hereunto annexed marked N<sup>o</sup> 1.

That the Memorialists so far from Entertaining any Design to Counteract the measures recommended by the late Continental Congress did as soon as they were informed thereof, Countermand the abovementioned orders except as to such goods, as might in Consequence thereof have actually become the Property of the Memorialists and their Partner the said Philip Sansom for the truth of which they beg leave to Refer to the annexed Extract of a letter to the said Philip Sansom Dated the 5th of October 1774 mark'd N<sup>o</sup> 2.

That in pursuance of the above Directions there were Shipped on Board the Beulah (a Vessel belonging to Memorialists) at London Sundry Goods on account of the Memorialists and their Partner with which Goods the said vessel Sail'd for New York on the 5th or 6th Day of December last and arrived there the 16th or 17th Day of February following.

That on the arrival of the said Vessel and Cargo which happened after the time limited by the Congress for the continuance of our Importation, the Memorialists having no Intention to Land their goods contrary to the Terms of the Association would have cheerfully submitted to what they conceived to be the Spirit and Design thereof and were therefore willing and did offer to unload their Cargo and Ship it in another Bottom under the Inspection of some of the Committee here and to send it to some place not within the Restriction imposed by the Congress and the Memorialist beg Leave to Refer to the annexed Copy of their Letter sent to the Committee upon this Subject marked No 3 containing more at large their proposal and the Reasons on which it was founded.

The Memorialists beg leave further to observe that they did really believe their Construction of this part of the Association was consistent with the Spirit and Design thereof and had the Committee here been of that opinion such a Mode of Compliance would have greatly alleviated the Loss of the Memorialists as they might in that Case have Shipped their Cargo away in a small vessel instead of sending it in a vessel not above 1-3 full.

That reduced as they thought to an unnecessary hardship & chagrined with the Disappointment The Memorialists rashly formed the Design of secretly Landing some small part of the Cargo and were so imprudent as to carry the same into Execution. That before a discovery was made thereof and at a time when the Memorialists had great reasons to suppose the place where the Goods were deposited would not be discovered to wit the 13th March last they made a Declaration of the Fact and offered to give the Committee a full account of the particulars on Oath which they accordingly did on the 15th of the same Month, when all the Goods Landed had been delivered up to the Committee of Elizabeth Town and the Disposition thereof submitted entirely to the Directions of the Committee, at New York all which particulars will more fully appear from Holt's New York Journal of the 23rd March hereunto also annexed to which the Memorialists refer.

The Memorialists having proceeded thus far and manifested their Intention to satisfy the public in any reasonable way that could be expected as well as to Express their Contrition for the hasty and imprudent measure they had taken, and to prevent their future Commercial Intercourse with others from becoming the means of other Infractions of the Association. The Memorialists did Shut up their Store, discontinued all Trade, Shut up their own Goods under the Seals of certain Persons here Transferred their Commission Business to others and gave up their Wharfs as free for the use of the Navigation of the City untill they should be relieved in the premises by the Interposition of the Congress, as Vouchers of these Facts the Memorialists refer to the annexed printed publications marked N<sup>o</sup> 5 & N<sup>o</sup> 6.

The foregoing is a true State of the Facts relative to this unhappy affair in which the Memorialists are involved and as their Commercial Concerns were large and extensive at least amounting to £50,000 per annum this total dereliction of Business has become an immense Loss to them and if unrelieved cannot but terminate in their Ruin. That M<sup>r</sup> Philip Sansom their Partner who has been distinguished for his warm attachment to American Liberty tho not concern'd in the indiscreet Step taken by the Memorialists is yet involved in all its fatal Consequences That besides the weight of Distress and Sufferings to which the Memorialists themselves have been exposed not only from their great Losses but the Resentment of an incensed People their present Scituation must be attended with a train of Evils to the Innocent who are connected with them in Business. Their Creditors must suffer Those who depend on their large Commercial Business for Bread are turned out of Employ and the Public deprived of the advantages which necessarily flow from a continuance of their Trade and Commerce. That the Memorialists presume the American Congress from the great and important ends of their Convention will move only on Public principles and therefore think it improper to address their tender and benevolent feelings not doubting but every generous and humane sentiment towards the Memorialists which is consistent with the public good will have their due influence in a determination of this Subject in which the Memorialists are so deeply interested. Permit them then to hope that this August and respectable Body, from a consideration of the Conduct of the Memorialists in this affair from their most earnest endeavours to atone in some measure for their indiscretion from the great and Complicated Distress they have already sustained, from the Circumstance that the Innocent are deeply involved in their sufferings, and that a continuation of their sufferings can only perpetuate their Calamities without advancing the important Ends of public Safety, will in their Wisdom reinstate the Memorialists in their Scituation with respect to their Commercial Priviledges.

JOHN MURRAY.

As we expect the Duchess will be with you by the time this reaches thy Hands we have thought it most prudent to order out some Bulky Articles such as we apprehend will pay a good freight In consequence of which we have now Inclosed the a List of such Articles as we would have the send out in her immediately, with what Freight offers.

No. 2.—Extract of a Letter to Philip Sansom.

Dated 5th October, 1774.

The foregoing is a Copy of our last per the Thetis to the contents of which refer you She sailed the 2<sup>d</sup> Current Since which we find it to be the Sence of the Congress that all orders that are gone may be susended or Countermanded in consequence of which we desire that all our Orders sent may be Countermanded except such as are already become our Property Those we would have you Ship immediately by the first Vessel for this Port giving the preference to one of our own if there.

No. 3.

GENTLEMEN :

We being sole owners of the Ship Beulah from London do propose (with your approbation) that the Ship be regularly entered at the Custom House, In which case we pledge to you, our word and honour that no part of the Goods shall be Landed in this Province but the same shall be forthwith reshipped and sent off in some other Bottom If it shall be thought more satisfactory we consent that any Number of your Body be on Board the Ship while here to see that the above engagement is strictly observed This proposition we think must appear reasonable as being not inconsistent with the Resolution of the Congress and therefore we are lead to hope it will meet not only with your approbation but that of the inhabitants of this City in general The Congress having been silent as to what Bottom the Goods shall be returned in probably meant to expose the Owners of the Ship and Cargo to as little Inconvenience as possible by leaving that Matter to there Discretion which from the Terms in which their Resolve is Expressed seems evidently to be the Case their Words are — If any Goods Wares or Merchandizes shall be Imported after the first Day of February the same ought forthwith to be sent back again without breaking any of the Packages thereof— This we conceive manifestly declares that the Goods (which are the object of this Resolve) are to be Imported after the first Day of February but as there cannot be a Legal Importation without an Entry at the Custom House it follows that such Entry is presupposed and implied in their Resolutions and the more especially as they direct that the Packages shall be sent back unopened for as opening the Packages without an Entry would make the Ship Liable to a Seizure The Congress could hardly have thought such rash conduct in the Owners to be probable and therefore from this prohibitory Clause they must have considered the Goods as in a Scituation in which the Packages might be Lawfully opened which plainly includes the Idea of a previous entry at the Custom House — By permitting therefore such Entry under the Guards proposed We think that not only the Letter but the Spirit and Intention of the Resolutions of the Congress will be fully compli'd with.

It has and probably may again be insisted on against this Construction of the Resolve that the first Article of the Association prohibits the Importation of goods from Great Britain &c. after the first Day of December and therefore that it must be absurd to suppose that the Congress could intend an Importation after the first day of February in the sense we contend for as it would imply a Contradiction — Whatever force there may appear to be in this Argument at first View it is entirely taken off by the Explanatory Clause in the Tenth Article which declares that in Case any Merchant Trader or other Persons shall Import Goods after the 1st Day of December and before the first Day of February the same ought forthwith at the Election of the Owners to be ither Reshipped or delivered up to the Committee of the County &c. That an Importation in the proper and Legal Sense of the Word is here meant cannot admit of a Doubt since neither of the Alternatives imposed on the Owner of Reshipping or delivering the Goods to the Committee can possibly take place without an actual unloading of the Cargo for which purpose an Entry was absolutely necessary and therefore must have been intended by the Congress As to the objection that proper Evidences cannot be given to the Neighbouring Colonies that the Goods are sent back unless they go in the same Bottom We think it must be effectually removed by having the Matter Transacted under the Inspection of some of the Committee in the way we propose Besides we cannot help observing that the Grand Object of the Congress seems to have been the sending the Goods back and as it must be immaterial in what Vessel they are carried this may well account for their Leaving that Circumstance to the Discretion of the owner — And as we are disposed to comply not only with the Express Words of the Congress but likewise with the very Spirit thereof— We shall therefore think ourselves ill used if we are obliged to carry the goods back in the same Bottom which will be laying a very heavy Burthen on that we and many more believe was not intended by the Congress We have no objection to your publishing this Letter as we are free the Public should have an opportunity of Judging thereof— We may further inform you that the proprietors of the Goods are quite free that they be Reshipped in the manner here proposed.

At a full meeting of the delegates from the several towns in the county of Cumberland and Colony of New York,—convened at Westminster June 6th 1775.

This County of Cumberland having received certain intelligence from Mr Isaac Low, Chairman of the Committee of Correspondence at New York, that it is the Desire of the said respectable Committee of Correspondence at New York that the sense of the People in the said county of Cumberland should be fully known, with regard to the Hostile measures that are using by the British Parliament to enforce the late cruel, unjust and oppressive acts of the said British Parliament, through the British Colonies in America.

We the Delegates from the several towns and districts in said county of Cumberland being chosen by the freeholders and Inhabitants of the same, to exhibit to the Provincial Congress the sense and Voice of the People with regard to the unjust proceedings of the British Parliament &c Do pass the following Resolves:

1 Resolved, N. C. That the late acts of the British Parliament passed in order to raise a Revenue in America are unjust, illegal and Diametrically opposite to the Bill of Rights and a fundamental Principal of the British Constitution which is—“That no person shall have his property taken from him without his Consent.”

2 Resolved, N. C. That we will resist and oppose the said acts of Parliament in conjunction with our Brethren in America at the expense of our lives and fortunes, to the last extremity, if our Duty to God and our Country require the same.

3 Resolved, N. C. That we think it needless to pass many Resolves, exhibiting our sentiments with regard to the unhappy Controversy, subsisting between Great Britain and America. Let it Suffice therefore, that we fully acquiesce with what our Brethren have lately done at New York in their late association, and it is hereby Resolved that the late association entered into at New York is perfectly agreeable to the Sentiments of the freeholders and Inhabitants of this county, and that they fully acquiesce in the same.

4 Resolved, N. C. That this county is at present in a very broken situation, with regard to the Civil authority, we therefore sincerely Desire that the advice of the Honorable Congress might be, by our delegates transmitted to us, whereby some order and Regularity might be established among us. We therefore should take it as a favour, if the honorable Congress would particulary recommend to us, in this county some measures to be pursued by us the Inhabitants of the same ; for we are persuaded their advice herein would have great weight to influence our people universally to pursue such measures as would tend to the peace, safety and good order of this county for the future.

5 Resolved, N. C. That we the Inhabitants of this County, are at present in an extremely defenceless state with regard to arms and ammunition, we sincerely desire the honorable Provincial Congress would consider us in this respect, and from their Generosity and Goodness, would do what in them lies for our Relief in the Premises. We have many brave Soldiers, but unhappy for us, we have nothing to fight with.

6 Resolved, N. C. That in Pursuance to the honorable Isaac Low's (Chairman of the Committee of Correspondence,) Desire and request for this county to send Delegates to the City of New York, in order to ascertain the Sentiments of the People in the County, concerning the unconstitutional Measures lately adopted by the British Parliament against the Americans in general,—and some other matters, and so forth. We hereby Do Vote and Resolve that Col John Hazeltine, Doctor Paul Spooner, and William Williams Esqr be our delegates to meet and join the other Respectable Gentlemen Delegates, Convened at New York, to represent the affairs of this County in Said Congress at the City of New York.

Your Committee appointed to examine into the complaint laid before this house by Capt Banker, Do most humbly report that the conduct of the field officers in this affair appears to your Committee unexceptionable strictly conformable to general agreement as well as military rule.

That Capt Banker has with drawn his complaint and shown all the inclination becoming a good citizen, to cultivate that harmony & union so essential to the public safety — But that upon his former refusal to join the battallion his place having been filled up by another company that cannot be prevailed upon to relinquish it Capt Banker must for the present remain an independent Captain.

Petition of Joseph Johnson, an Indian Preacher.

[Petitions, 31: 202.]

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress of the Colony of New York:

The humble Petition of Joseph Johnson a licensed preacher of the Gospel Amongst seven different Tribes of New England Indians, and the Oneidas.

Humbly Sheweth that your Petitioner hath for several years been engaged Amongst the Indians; for some years as a Schoolmaster Amongst the Oneidas and since that time in preaching the Gospel to several different Nations of New England Indians, and to the Oneidas, and in endeavouring to persuade the Indians to a Civilized Life, and to embrace the Christian Religion. Also your Petitioner humbly Sheweth. That a number of New England Indians of seven different Tribes having become poor, and few in number were adopted by the Oneida Nation, who gave them a Tract of land to settle on. That your Petitioner with a number of the said New England Indians removed to the Oneida Country to settle on the Lands given to them, and were very kindly received; and had got Cornfields planted and gardens made. That false reports were lately spread to the westward, that your Petitioner and the New England Indians who were with him had moved to the westward in pursuance of a design formed by the people of New England to settle in that western Country, and that they might thereby have an opportunity of gaining the favour of the upper nations and bring them to their way of thinking. That the New England Indians were afraid that ill disposed Persons whose hearts might be full of Jealousy and prejudice, might induce some of the distant Indian Nations, to Credit such false Reports, and set them at variance with, and cause them to fall on, and take up the Hatchet against the new settled Indians. That therefore the New England Indians with the consent and advice of the Oneidas, thought best for their Safety and the Peace of the Country to return for the present from whence they came, until the present Troubles shall be ended.

That most part of the said New England Indians are returned, and that your Petitioner with three others of the said Indians are now on their way to the Eastward intending to proceed by the way of New London, which is near their former place of abode. That your Petitioner and his three Companions sensible of the present Troubles, and difficulties in every part of the Country, are fearfull of traveling without a passport or a Letter of safe conduct, which may afford them peace, and protection in their Journey: And are also so poor, and destitute that they are utterly unable to pursue their Journey, without the Charitable aid, and relief of the Benevolent, and the Humane. Your petitioner therefore humbly prays that a passport, or a Letter of safe Conduct, and Protection may be graciously given to him for James Shattock, John Skevack, Samuel Tallman, and himself to pass to New London in Connecticut, and also for such small sum to aid them in their Journey to New London aforesaid, as to this honorable Congress in their wisdom shall seem meet. And your Petitioner on behalf of himself and his above named Companions as in Duty bound shall ever Pray &c &c ance with the Resolutions of the Continental Congress, and that you would communicate to us the state of your Powder mill that we may give the proper Directions for Transmitting to you the materials that may be collected.

GENTLEMEN: The Congress have recommended unto us not to give Bounty or Clothing to our Troops. We have to inform you that we have prepared an arrangement of three thousand men, and have not the least Doubt that we shall be able to complete our Levies of strong, able and spirited soldiers in a fortnight or three weeks at farthest. But we must observe to you that It will be very difficult to get men unless we may cloathe them. The Expense of this will be about Four Pounds Ten shillings per man arms and accoutrements as much more, this will make up nine Pounds York money, that is for the whole twenty seven thousand pounds, deducting one months pay which is eight thousand Pounds, the remainder of nineteen thousand Pounds we conceive to be necessary nay an indispensable Expense upon the raising our Troops which nevertheless we will not presume upon without the advice of the Congress. At the same time we must observe that unless the Troops have a proper uniform such is the nature of them they will not act with that spirit becoming True Americans and certainly the Officers will be unable to preserve that degree of Cleanliness which is essential to Health. You will see Gentlemen that even upon this score the York Troops will not be so expensive as others already raised and to whom the Bounty, and two months Pay is eight Pounds and for three thousand men twenty-four thousand Pounds. You will further observe gentlemen that the raising a number of men in the Service will become more easy and advantageous to this Colony, than to most others by the stoppage of our Trade which will leave a number of hands unemployed amongst us and therefore it is an object well worthy of your private attention both for the Interest and the Honor of our Colony, that a very considerable Body of men be raised here, since at all Events many of them will be maintained at the Public charge.

To the President and Members of the Provincial Congress of the Province of New York. The Memorial of William Elphinston, Conductor of Ordnance Stores Humbly Sheweth.

That your Memorialist was taken Prisoner at Crown Point on the 11th of May last by a detachment of the Provincial Army. After which event finding that those persons who formerly were very desirous of purchasing his Bills, refuse to purchase any more. He obtained a pass for coming to New York, Since his arrival here, he finds that the Continental Congress have published a Resolve forbidding any one to negotiate Bills for the Pay of any Officer in the Army or Navy. By this means your Memorialist is reduced to the want of every thing. The neat Amount of your Memorialist Pay is one Guinea per week; Therefore your Memorialist earnestly entreats you will be so good as to take his case into Consideration and to allow him so much Subsistence as to your Wisdom and Goodness shall appear reasonable, untill such time as permission is granted for negotiating Bill in the usual way.

That your Petitioner is a German by Birth and hath heretofore served as an officer in the King of Prussia's Army upwards of fourteen Years, that through the Course of Your Petitioner's Experience in the Art of War he hath found that a Body of Rifle men properly Equip'd to preceed the Grand Army have been of great use to annoy and confuse the Enemy.

That your Petitioner being well versed in the Exercise of such men would with the appointment and sanction of this Honorable Board undertake to raise a Regiment to contain Six Hundred able Bodied men from Paxton and other parts of the province of Pennsylvania, many of them already provided with their Rifles, and the whole Number in a very short Time might be compleat and ready to go on such Service as should be found necessary. That your Petitioner hath very lately been in that part of Pennsylvania before mentioned, and is well satisfied that if this Honorable Board should see fit to appoint or Cause him to be appointed to the Command of such a Regiment he could in a very short time Compleat the same and would use his most indefatigable endeavours at all Times to approve himself worthy of the Honor conferred upon him, and your Petitioner most humbly requests that this Honorable Board will take the premises into consideration and appoint such time for hearing him further therein as shall be found Convenient, when he will most punctually attend, and in the mean time remains this Honorable Boards most Dutifull and very devoted Humble Servant,

Petition of Jacob Vredenburg.

[Petitions, 33: 2.]

To Peter Van Brugh Livingston Esq<sup>r</sup> President of the Provincial Congress for the Province of New York.

The Petition of Jacob Vredenburg Peruke maker Humbly Sheweth :

That your Petitioner some time in the year 1770, had a certain lad named John Lion duly Indented to him to serve from the date of the said Indenture 8 years and 7 months to learn the art Trade or mystery of Periwig Making and Hair Dressing. But that some evil minded person or persons, taking advantage of the unnatural disputes which unhappily at present subsists between Great Britain and her Colonies have seduced the said apprentice as your Petitioner hath reason to believe to enlist into one of the Companies of the Army now raising in this province, which Inlistment your Petitioner humbly begs leave to say is contrary to the express order of the Honorable the Continental Congress, and as the said apprentice has still but three years or thereabouts to serve your Petitioner unless redressed by the Honorable Congress, will be deprived of the only useful time of his service and thereby greatly injured in his Business.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly begs the Honorable the Provincial Congress would be favorably pleased to take his case into consideration, and by an order from this Board Command that the officer in whose service the said apprentice may be discharge him forthwith and that he return to his service.

And your Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

JACOB VREDENBURGH.

Your Petitioner begs leave to inform this Honorable Congress, that he would have taken the steps pointed out by Law for the recovery of Damages against the said Herington, but as he was in public Employ, and as M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>c</sup> Dougall one of the members of this House informed your petitioner that upon a proper Representation of the matter, he would receive ample Satisfaction from this Honorable Congress, Your Petitioner thought proper to rely on its Justice and Equity, well hoping that this Honorable House will not permit an Individual to Suffer while it has the power of giving Redress and humbly prays this Honorable Congress that he may be permitted to Sell the Horse on their account, and charge the first Cost of the Horse with the Expences which have accrued on him, or that the Damages by Reason of the premises, may be ascertained by M<sup>r</sup> Delancey, another member of this Honorable House, from whom your petitioner bought the Horse, and who saw him on his return from Philadelphia, or that your petitioner may be relieved in any other way that may seem meet to this honorable House and your Petitioner shall ever pray &c

Copy of a letter w<sup>out</sup> a signature: supposed from J. Adams dated Philadelphia July 24 to J. Warren, President of the Provincial Congress.

[In Confidence.]

DEAR SIR: I am determined to write freely to you this time. A certain great Fortune and piddling Genius, whose Fame has been trumpeted so loudly has given a silly cast to our whole Doings. We are between Hawk & Buzzard. We ought to have had in our Hands a Month ago, the whole Legislative, Executive and Judicial, of the whole Continent, and have compleatly modelled a Constitution; to have raised a naval Power and opened our Ports wide; to have arrested every Friend of Government on the Continent & held them as Hostages for the poor Victims at Boston; & then opened the Door as wide as possible for Peace & Reconciliation. After this they might have petitioned, addressed &c If they would. Is all this extravagant? Is it wild? Is it not the soundest Policy? One piece of News: 7000 lbs of Powder arrived last Night; we shall send away some of it as soon possibly we can; but you must be patient & frugal. We are lost in the extensiveness of our Field of Business. We have a Continental Treasury to establish, a Paymaster to choose & a Committee of Correspondence, or Safety, or Accounts, or something. I know not what that has confounded us all this Day. Shall I hail you speaker of the House? or Councillor? or what? What kind of an Election had you? What kind of Magistrates do you intend to make? will your new Legislative & Executive feel bold, or irresolute? will your Judicial, hang & whip, & fine, & imprision without scruple? I long to see our distrest Country once more, Yet I dread the sight of Devastation. You observe in your letter the Oddity of a great Man. He is a queer Creature, but you must love his Dogs if you love him, & forgive a thousand whims for the sake of the Soldier & the Scholar. Yours &c.

Another Letter To His Wife.

MY DEAR: It is now almost three Months since I left you; in every part of which my Anxiety for you & the children as well as our Country has been extreme. The Business I have had upon my Mind has been as great & important as can be trusted to Man & the Difficulty & Intricacy of it is prodigious. When 50 or 60 men have a Constitution to form for a great Empire, at the same time they have a Country of 1500 miles extent to fortify, Millions to arm & train, a naval power to begin, an extensive Commerce to regulate, numerous Tribes of Indians to negotiate with, a standing army of 27000 Men to raise, pay, victual and officer; I really shall pity those 50 or 60 Men. I wish I had given you a compleat History from the beginning to the end of the Journey, of the Behaviour of my Compatriots; no mortal Tale could equal it; I will tell you in future; but you must Keep it Secret. The fidgets, the whims, the Caprice, the Vanity, the Superstition, the Irritability of some of us is enough to—

Yours J. A.

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress for the Collony of New York.

The Memorial of Capt. David Lyon Humbly Sheweth:

That in the beginning of July he was Encouraged to expect that he would obtain a Captain's Commission in the service of this Collony, if he could raise a Company That your Memorialist immediately began to enlist Men and engaged that if they should be taken in to the service of this Collony, their pay and subsistance should commence from the time of their Enlistment. Petition of Merchants of New York.

[Petitions, 31 : 136.]

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress of New York.

The Memorial of Sundry Persons within the City of New York, Shewith :

That a Difference of Opinion hath arisen in this City with respect to the Propriety of shipping Flax Seed to Ireland from this Colony,—some urging that it was not the Intent of the Continental Congress, that any should be shipped and others insisting that the Contrary appears, not only from the Resolutions of the Continental Congress—but from the Declaration of several of the Delegates upon that subject.

The Memorialists are apprehensive that should Flax Seed be Shipp'd while this Difference of Sentiment prevails it might create some Uneasiness in this City, and being informed that some of the Continental Delegates have signified to this Congress, that the sense of the late Continental Congress respecting this matter, was that we were left at Liberty to Ship Flax Seed.

The Memorialists beg that the Congress will by some act or publication of theirs Declare whether the People of this Colony are or are not at Liberty to ship Flax Seed, as aforesaid, and also to satisfy the Public of the Sense of the Continental Congress, on that subject if such their Sense has been Communicated to this Congress, as Before Suggested.

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress.

We the subscribers, hereby beg leave to certify that, Philip Schurman carpenter one of the unhappy persons, that was taken by the American Army at Boston, was about twelve months ago seduced to that employ by Jonathan Hampton which was the more easily done as he is but a very young man, and had but just ended his apprenticeship at the time of his going to Boston. His friends here had wrote long ago pressing him to come home, & and are well informed that he wou'd have done so, provided any opportunity cou'd have been got.— His friends here many of whom are & always have been stedfast in the support of the Libertys of this Country are suffering much distress on his account, and propose to send his Brother John Schureman to the camp to morrow, in order to sollicit for his Liberty— And they Humbly request that this Congress will take the case of this poor young man into consideration, and favor them with a letter to General Washington in his behalf.

NEW YORK August 26th AD 1775.

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress of the Colony of New York.

I, Joseph Johnson an Indian of the Mohegan Tribe humbly offereth the few following lines for your Honors consideration.

Honorable Gentlemen, it is with great reluctance I present this humble petition, considering the unhappy situation of Publick affairs at this time, but pure necessity obliges me in this day of distress, in this day of confusion, to trouble your Honors a few moments. Your Honors doubtless have heard that for this some time past, poor me, hath been much concerned about my poor sinking, decaying Brethern the Indians that are scattered up and down amongst the English Inhabitants in particular in the New England governments, and that for this long time I have been unweariedly seeking their welfare, and in order that they might be truly benefited, I have endeavoured to get them unitedly willing to go westward, and there to settle together in peace and be under proper Regulations, and through Divine favour

I have after many weary steps, and after I have gone through many hardships got secured unto seven Tribes of my Indian Brethern that live amongst the English Inhabitants a Large Tract of good Land, bordering on your Frontiers. Honorable Gentlemen, many pleasing Prospects opened to my view, when this Design first came into my mind. I had had not only the hopes of having the pleasure of seeing my now poor Brethern in a prosperous way, but I had the hopes of our leading our western Brethern, by our example in the ways of Industry, Husbandry, and Civility and above all in the ways of wisdom, in the ways of Godliness; these and such like hopes, Honorable Gentlemen, hath, all along animated my Soul, and made me Comfortable in the most Severe hardships that I have undergone when I have been destitute, as it were of all other Comforts in the Wild desert.—Such was my pleasing hopes in times past; and this great good to my Indian Brethern not only in the Eastern parts, But in the Western parts of this Country. I have been eagerly, and still hope to persue. Honorable Gentlemen, I would inform your Honors that I have had no proper encouragement, I have had no particular Party or Board to look unto, for my support while engaged in such a good Cause, But never the less the gracious Lord in whom I trust, hath been pleased to give me able friends in different parts of the Country to Espouse the Cause and hath made them willing to contribute out of their abundance a little for my Necessitous Circumstances in times Past, and I bless the Lord for all the hitherto's of his goodness to me, and especially for his giving me favour in the eyes and hearts of his People in this Colony from whom I have received the greatest encouragements, and who hath greatly relieved me in times of my greatest distress; and Now Honorable Gentlemen, but this once more, I humbly and earnestly solicit your Honors kindness, hoping that I may not again have occasion to trouble your Honors in the like manner—doubtless it is necessary, that your Honors should know the true state of the Matter, which I will endeavour to acquaint your Honors in few words as poss'ble. Honorable Gentlemen, when I left this City last June, with my three Indian Companions, and safely arrived where my friends and relations dwell, I tarried with them about two weeks, then thinking it my indispensable Duty to return directly to the Oneida Country and amongst the rest of the Six Nations; without any hesitation I hastily, and chearfully ran in the Path of Duty. But in order for a quick Dispatch as then was thought most expedient, I was advised by several to hire or purchase a horse; to which I readily complied; seeing I could not hire any I was obliged to take a horse upon credit, expecting that the Colony of Connecticut, would consider of me, as I was repeatedly enformed by the members of the Honorable assembly, that I was verily Chosen, with another Indian of the same Tribe to which I belong, to carry a message of Peace to the Back Nations, and that the Expences of the Journey should be paid out of the Colony Treasury, and the Honorable Governor had given me Express orders, to be ready at an hours warning &c.

But two days before the appointed time that the Honorable Governor appointed that we should set out for the intended Journey, his Honor the governor was pleased to send a Letter to my intended Companion, who was older than myself informing him that there was no occasion of our going up, as he expected to have an opportunity to send the message with less expence; however it is known since that his Honor the Governor was disappointed in his expectations, his message was delivered only ten days ago, as it were to no purpose for the Western Indians had already been acquainted of the true state of affairs in this and in the other Country beyond the great Lake, and the six nations had already come to peaceable conclusions, and Honorable Gentlemen altho things happened as they did yet I thought it my duty, tho I have no encouragement from any to go to the back Nations, and do my uttermost to persuade them to peace altho at the Hazzard, or expence of my own Life, as it was then reported in the Country that they were disposed for Cruelty or for War. And according to my promise to this Honorable the Provincial Congress last June, I set out with all speed the 17th day of July last expecting to receive a Message at Albany from this Honorable Congress, for the six Nations. But when I arrived at Albany the Honorable M<sup>r</sup> Abr<sup>m</sup> Yates, and several other gentlemen enformed me that your Honors had not sent a Message as was intended last June, however the Honorable Committee of Albany thought proper, and did send by me a Letter of friendship to the back Nations, to whom I delivered the same in good time.—Honorable Gentlemen, I would Just inform you that when I left home I had only twenty shillings Lawfull money of Connecticut Currency and ten shillings of that money I left with my dear Companion in Life, how she and our only son hath fared since I know not, it is now six weeks lacking one day since I left them, and with the other ten shillings I made shifts to get to Albany, and the Honorable Committee after knowing my circumstance was graciously pleased to consider of me, and bountifully relieved me, helped me forward the intended Journey, and by their aid I have accomplished the Journey and returned thus far in peace, and comfortably,—and I had only five shillings this currency when I arrived here. I would made application to the Honorable Congress before but I thought the affecting Situation of affairs, did forbid, but now how to proceed or what to do I know not.—I am sensible that I am utterly unable to make satisfaction for the horse which was valued at £11.10 Connecticut Currency, and it is no ways likely that the Man will take the horse again upon any consideration, and what to do I know not, well had it been for me to proceeded as I intended in the first place, that is to have gone foot, but being put to the extreems, I am constrained this once, and but this once to try your Honors Benevolence, and now your Honors have heard of my true Circumstances, and may it please you to consider of me a moment, while I with all submission lay prostrate, as it were, at your Honors feet and while I chearfully resign my unhappy case to your great wisdom, confessing that if any favor, or encouragement in the least be granted it will be purely out of favour, and shall be received with the warmest gratitude, and I hope that so long as I live, your Honors may never see me lacking at any time from doing my uttermost as I may have oppertunity, or as I may be called in Providence to cultivate, maintain, and establish Peace, between you and yours, and my Brethern that inhabit on the Borders of your extensive frontiers—But I end hoping that the Lord who Knoweth all things, and hath all power in his hands may give me favour in the eyes, and hearts of this Respectable Body, the Honorable the Provincial Congress that I may go on my way rejoicing, and may the Gracious Lord order all things in great mercy concerning us all. I am Honorable Gentlemen with great esteem your well wisher, and yours to serve,

JOSEPH JOHNSON.

P.S. I also humbly beseech your Honors to grant me a Passport for myself, that I may return home unmolested in these perilous times, and if there should be occasion that I might Pass, and repass to and from the Country of the Six Nations to New England or elsewhere as business might call me at any time, the which if your Honors grant will much gladen the dejected heart of your Humble Petitioner. I am Ut Ante.

To the Honorable Provincial Congress, for the province of New York.

The petition of the subscribers Inhabitants of the Manor of Fordham and West Farms in the County of Westchester, Humbly Sheweth,

That we are summoned to appear at Westchester in Order to Choose Officers according to the Resolution of the Congress, it having been Represented (as we understand) that there was not a competent number of men in our District, to form a Company. We Therefore beg leave to inform that the Manor of Fordham and the West Farms have in the Militia always been considered as a district by themselves and that within their limits there is upwards of Seventy men fitt to bear arms. And that an attendance at Westchester upon the meeting of the Company will be attended with great Inconveniency to many of the Inhabitants and therefore Injurious to the service intended to be advanced from which Considerations your petitioners Humbly pray the Honorable Congress will be pleased to order that the Manor of Fordham and the West Farms have a Company within themselves and that they Elect their own Officers under such Inspection as the Honorable Congress in their wisdom shall think best. TRYON COUNTY COMMITTEE CHAMBER, Sept<sup>r</sup> 19th 1775.

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN: Your favor of the 6th Instant we received yesterday wherein we apprehend that agreeable to the Resolves and Directions of the Continental Congress there is one Major and a Quarter Master by each of our Regiments yet wanting, the voting of which we would have performed without Delay if the Members of our Committee were not so much distant from one another in their abodes. Therefore not to delay the Expedition of the Commissions in General without which we cannot act much here, with authority, we beg that you'll please to send us the Commissions, for those four Majors and Quartermasters blank which we would afterwards fill up at the next meeting of our whole Board, according to the Majority of Votes, and shall then make a return thereof to you immediately.

But in case this our request would be disagreeable and you could not consent to, the Subscribed Chairman with Eight Members of our Committee, made a choice of such Officers, according to their abilities, and enclose hereby the Nomination of them, no doubting, that those so nominated might get the Majority of Votes at the whole Board. We recommend them to you and expect the Commissions for our Militia Officers will be dispatched as soon as possible, not knowing, how soon we shall be in want thereof for the Defence of our American Cause, in our exposed frontier, and besides mixed with a valuable number of Tories ready with arms against us (we mean the enemies in Kingsborough).

In regard to our Resolve in Civil matters, we have not as yet transacted anything, and shall also agreeable to your order repeal the same at our Board.

We are urged to Remember again the utmost want of Ammunition, and in particular of Powder; We applied lately, therefore, to the Albany Committee, for some assistance but got a Refusal.

By Order

NICOLAS HERCHHEIMER, Chairman.

P. S. We also annex a Return of the Field Officers of our minute men, amounting to one Battalion in our County, although the enlisted men have not as yet in full performed their choices of the Captains, Lieu<sup>ts</sup> & Ensigns of their respective Companies. Petition of New York Officers.

[Petitions, 31: 80.]

To the Committee of Safety for the Province of New York.

The Petitions of the Officers belonging to the Battalions Commanded by the Colonels Lasher and Hyer, the Officers belonging to the Companies of Artillery, Light Horse, and Hussars, and of Sundry Officers belonging to the Different Beats in the City of New York. Sheweth

That in the present critical situation of the Publick affairs of the Colonies and Mother Country—They conceive it to be a matter of the utmost consequence to the Liberties of America, that every member of the Community capable of bearing Arms should acquaint himself with Military Discipline; in order (if possible) to avert the distresses which now are hanging over them.— And being Convinced that the safety of a Nation may be longer preserved by every Citizen being a Soldier, than by particular persons solicited for that purpose.

They cannot but view with great concern the late Regulation of the Provincial Congress respecting the times of meeting for the several Beats in this City, which they humbly conceive are too far distant from each other to answer the design the Congress had in view.—They therefore would beg leave to propose, and to solicit your attention thereto, that the times of meeting for the several Beats in this City and County should be at least, once a week, for three months ensuing—that a field day for each Battalion composed of the different Beats should be at least once a month, which they are humbly of opinion would effectually answer the intentions of their being embodied; otherways they fear it will in a great measure be defeated.

To The Honorable the Provincial Congress.

The humble Petition of George Nicholson Sheweth, that Whereas your Petitioner has done all that was in his power, for the good of America in the present struggle against Tyranny and Oppression, which your honors are sensible was attended with a great risque and Expence, and your Petitioner being resolved to render himself as serviceable as possible, takes this method to inform your Honors, that he has had experience from a Youth, both as a Surgeon and an Officer, having had the honor to be a Lieutenant in the 84th Regiment Commanded by Sir Eyre Coote in the East India Service, and has been in several engagements; flatters himself he may be serviceable in the Army now under General Schuyler; not only from his military knowledge but his being versed in the French language, he would immediately go a Volunteer, would his circumstances admit, but as it is not in his power, begs of your Honors if there is any vacancy, and your honors think he can be any way serviceable, in any of the above Capacities, that you would vouchsafe to employ him.

But rather than be neuter in so glorious a cause is willing to go as a Cadet provided your Honors will favor him with such Recommendations you think he merits, and allow him a necessary support.

Your Petitioner begs your Honors will take this into Consideration, and hopes that any place your honors may think meet to intrust him with, he shall acquit himself with Honor. And your Petitioner will ever pray.

NEW YORK, 28 Sep<sup>r</sup> 1775.

SIR: Being very desirous of my Wifes Inoculating for the Small Pox, in order to put her out of danger of that Fatal disorder in the natural way, as I purpose and my business calls me this Fall amongst the Westindia Islands, but was informed that there had been a resolution of the Honorable Congress of this Province not to Inoculate in it, but not being certain whether it extended to the whole, or a part I apply'd to Mr. J. Seares in New haven for better Information, who told me he thought it only respected this City & County, and was in consequence of the Connecticut Forces being so near this City, and advised our going, whereupon I hired a vessell, and carried with me my wife and Four other Ladies to Brookhaven, and applied to Doc<sup>r</sup> Muirison to Inoculate them, he then turned to a Resolution of your Honorable Congress of the 15th June Last, which respected the whole Province, and told me he should by no means act contrary to them, but taking my situation in consideration, and my Wifes extreme dread of catching it the natural way, he thought it best for me to make application to you, with assurance of his utmost diligence and care, of its not spreading as his hospital is detached ten miles from the County Road and remote from any other house or Road that can cause alarm, but as it has been suggested to me here that it might cause uneasiness to the Inhabitants Doc<sup>r</sup> Muirison had not the least doubt but that it would be agreeable to them shoud that be any Bar, I firmly promise, to drop the thoughts of it, but hope that my prayers may granted.

Petition of James Arden and others of New York.

[Petitions, 31: 86.]

To the Worthy and Respectable The Delegates assembled in Provincial Congress for the Colony of New York.

The humble Petition of James Arden, Richard Outen Bogert, John West and Six others, Tradesmen and Laborers of the City of New York. Most Humbly Sheweth:

That the distressed state of the public affairs of this Country, has put almost a total stop to all kinds of Business and employments amongst us; by which means your Petitioners are unhappily deprived of every expedient to procure a subsistence for themselves and families.

That your Petitioners are willing to engage in the Service of their Country in any Capacity in their power; and are ready, with the last drop of their Blood, to defend those Rights and Privileges wherewith God, Nature and Society have made them free; as well as to attempt, by every virtuous struggle, to recover the common blessings of Providence, of which, in a great degree, the hand of Power now most cruelly deprives them.

That several of your Petitioners are in such actual want of even the necessaries of Life that they know not where to go for another Day's Bread for their families — and to see the infant Arm, in vain stretched out for that Food which Love and industry cannot supply, is truly cutting to the Parent's heart.

Your Petitioners therefore most humbly pray, that you will be pleased to take their melancholy circumstances into your serious consideration; and not only grant them some speedy Relief from the present exigencies of themselves and families; but provide such further ways and means for their future support, as your Wisdom and Compassion shall graciously direct. And your Petitioners, as in Duty bound shall ever Pray &c —

Petition of Elizabeth White.

[Petitions, 81: 72.]

To the Honourable Members of the Committee of Safety conven'd in the City of New York during the recess of the Provincial Congress:

The Petition of Elizabeth White the wife of Alexander White, Esq. High Sheriff of the County of Tryon, Most Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioner in the Most respectfull manner thus presents herself to this Honourable Board, deeply Distressed both in mind and circumstances from the Misfortunes and unhappy Confinement of her Husband, the said Alexander White, in the Gaol at Albany upwards of five weeks past. That the first cause of his confinement proceeded from a charge of expressing himself unbecomingly and as an Enemy to the Liberties of America and thereon had left his place of abode to go for Canada, Whereas the cause as your Petitioner humbly apprehends and has reasons to believe was her Husbands having arrested one John Fonda by a lawfull authority whereupon great disturbance arose in so much that many shots were fired at your Petitioners Husband who was greatly in Danger of his Life and glad to get out of the way till the unhappy differences could be settled.

That your Petitioner does not presume further to enter into the particulars of any charge laid against her Husband but hopes they will appear false and trusts that the members of this Honorable Board will sympathize with the Petitioners real Distress and grant this her earnest, and humble prayer.

That the said Alexander White her truly unfortunate Husband may be discharged by the Order of this Honorable Board upon his Parole of Honor, not to act or do any thing that can give the least offence or otherwise that this Honorable Board will be pleased to refer whatever charge may be against her Husband to the Committee at Albany, that he may in the most convenient Time be heard thereon in order to obtain his enlargement; Or that this Honorable Board will use such means for the relief of the Petitioner and her Husband as in their Humanity and tender Consideration shall be thought Expedient; and your Petitioner as in Humble Duty Bound will ever pray &<sup>a</sup>

The following Plan for establishing a Linen Manufactory is humbly presented to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Provincial Congress :

It is unnecessary to point out to your Honors the necessity and Utility there is at present for establishing a Linen Manufactory and I have been carefully instructed in every branch of the Linen Manufactory from the sowing of the Flax seed until it is fit for the weaver and I am so fully convinced that Manufactories under proper directions can be carried on in this Country with equal advantage to that of any part of the World from a variety of reasons which if necessary I will explain, I have already drawn out a Plan which I have shown to a number of Gentlemen who all approve much of the scheme and has already subscribed as adventurers in it; some of your Honors from a principal of public spirit has informed me that they cou'd wish such a Manufactory cou'd be carried on in such an extensive manner as to employ a number of our Industrious Poor, and has requested of me to furnish your Honors with an estimate of said Manufactory. First I wou'd propose that the sum of £2000 shou'd be applied to the carrying on a Manufactory of Linens Cottons and sewing threads and coarse sheetings made of hemp. That a Treasurer shall be appointed and four or more Gentlemen who shall serve Gratis to inspect and enquire unto the state of the Manufactory; a Clerk to keep the Books and give out the Flax to the Spinners; the Treasurer is not to pay any money without a written order from one of the managers.

As I am fully convinced that the Manufactory may be carried on to advantage and the profits which appear by the annexed Estimate being rather under than over, I will undertake to conduct the whole Manufactory on receiving one half of the Profits which arise from the £2000.

I beg your Honors will be as speedy as possible in coming to a determination that I may know whether to relinquish my other Scheme or not.

JOHN HUNTER.

PLAN.

£—— to be appropriated by the Congress to the purpose of Setting up Manufactories of Linen, Woolen &c in the Province: This money to be raised (if raised at all) by a Lottery, let the Profits of the Manufactories be applied to public services.

It will not do to repay the £—— with the money arising from the sale of the goods, because this will very soon put an end to manufacturing.

To carry on the business properly it will be necessary to have a number of Inspectors or Superintendants whose business should be to see the raw materials and the manufactures properly taken care of, to inspect the Treasurer and Clerks accounts and see that nothing is embezzled, or carelessly destroyed or wasted.

The Treasurer should not be allowed to pay any money except for accounts or orders signed by the Clerk and countersigned by at least one of the Inspectors.

The Department of the Clerk should be to receive and deliver out raw materials and manufactures, to have the care and keeping of both; and to keep exact accounts of the Disbursements and Receipts of the manufactory. For these purposes he will need an assistant, and as the Clerk's office will be burthensome he should be allowed, besides an assistant a compensation for his trouble.

The work to be done at the Manufacturer's Houses.

NEW YORK, 18th October, 1775.

SIR: As I am Informed the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Congress has it under Consideration to fix the Rank of the City Artillery Companies, My Intreating it to be determined as soon as Convenient, and offering my sentiments thereon, will not, I hope be thought presumtous, My duty to you, myself and the Company I have the Honour to Command urge me thereto, To you sir that you be properly Informed, to myself and the Company, that in case we be deprived of our Right I shall stand Acquitted of Remissness.

I therefore beg leave to Inform you that my Company is of as long standing as Captain Rutgers's Commission. That is about three years, that his Company does not consist of half my members, that mine was always styled the first Company, And until now was the only Artillery Company, And that it has been kept up with great Expence and Industry for the Service of this Country which good Intention, I fear will be defeated should it loose that Rank which we, with Submission think it Justly Intitled to, of, remaining the first Company.

The event sir, I have some cause to Apprehend from Captain Rutgers Receiving an order for two pieces of Cannon, Whilst I with a much larger and deciplined Company have Received but one And am therefore disapointed in my early repeated Applications to your Honourable Body in the promise I had of being first Supply<sup>d</sup> and the pains I took to forward the Casting them.

ALBANY GOAL, Oct<sup>r</sup> 26th 1775.

SIR: I had the pleasure to receive an order by M<sup>r</sup> White from the Provincial Congress of New York; signed by you, wherein it is Resolved I am to be tryed by the General Committee of the County of Albany; which Committee M<sup>r</sup> White apply'd to, they will do nothing in it; until you send the Papers Concerning me; if you have any, I shall take it as a particular favour if you dispatch them here as soon as Possible; as it is disagreeable for me to be here; in so doing you'l much oblige Your Very Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

[Petitions, 31: 56.]

To the Honorable the Congress in and for the Colony of New York.

The Officers of the Independent Company at Poughkeepsie in Dutchess County beg to remonstrate to the Congress for that,

First. It will appear (as well) by the inclosed Copy of the Articles of Association of said Company as from the knowledge of some of the members in Congress for Dutchess County That this Company was established agreeable to their articles on the first day of August last as an Independent Company and that we never solicited Commissions on any other establishment.

Second. That by the rules and orders &c published by the Congress on the twenty second of same month in the first Resolve contained in said orders it appears that all Independent Companies established in this Colony prior to that date were excepted out of said Rules and orders And to abide the association by them entered into.

Third. That the Commissions sent by the Congress Embodies us as a Company of Minute men in Colonel Jacobus Swartwout's Regiment—Contrary to the Intent and meaning of our association which is what our men wish to abide.

Fourth. That we conceive the article Subscribed by us and the soldiers of our Company bind us and them as firmly To defend the Glorious Cause of American Liberty as the Rules and orders &c published by the Congress possibly can do.

These matters we request the Congress would take into consideration and favour us with their answer; if the association on which our Company is founded is permitted to stand good we presume it will give great satisfaction to the Company—if not we shall endeavour most concientiously to do our duty but doubt much whether we shall keep or be able to Inlist in this precinct a sufficient number of men. Should the Congress determine in favour of Our Association Commissions sent us for that purpose will be thankfully received and we trust duly executed.

We are Gentlemen your most obedient and very humble servants

JOHN SCHENK J<sup>r</sup>
JOHN CHILD.

POUGHKEEPSIE, 26th Oct<sup>r</sup> 1775.

Petition of Abraham H. Van Vleck.

The Petition of Abraham H. Van Vleck, Most Humbly Sheweth :

That your Petitioner having inadvertently Infringed one of the Resolutions of the Honorable, The Continental Congress, & for so doing, have made every kind of Concession, & satisfaction in my power, declaring at same time to Act in every respect agreeable to the salutary Resolves of the Congress; your Petitioner therefore most humbly intreats your Honorable Board to Exonerate him; that he may make his Peace with his Countrymen, & have an opportunity of proving himself a friend to his Country.

And your Petitioner, as in duty bound will ever pray, being with the most profound Respect your most oblig<sup>d</sup> hum. Serv<sup>t</sup>

BLOOMING GROVE, Nov. 7, 1775.

GENTLEMEN: Inclosed you have a Return of Officers, chosen in a Company of Minute Men, which has hitherto been Neglected thro' delay of the Inspectors who attended the Election, and as there is some talk of their being wanted at the New

We would be glad you would move, for<sup>d</sup> the Commissions as soon as possible, and have them sent up by the first safe opportunity. Committee of Tryon County to John Moore.

[Cred. of Del. 24: 57.]

TRYON COUNTY COMMITTEE CHAMBER, Nov. 7th 1775.

Mr JOHN MOORE, SIR: In conformity to your last letters of the 10th and 19th of October last, we voted at this our assembly two new delegates for our provincial Congress, thinking them sufficient in number to represent there our County, but by a majority of the Votes of the Freeholders assembled, the choice fell again upon your person to remain in that office, being hitherto well contented with your service, and with you, Isaac Paris was chosen as another member on that purpose. We shall be not oblivious to satisfy your request in regard to your stay at New York. Please to dispatch us the commissions for our Militia, and to procure us answers from the Congress, concerning our Voting of a Sheriff, and the Dangerous Crew in and about Johnstown, who under the authority of Sir John Johnson increase and behave actually in opposition to make use of our County goal for our want.

The Indian, William Johnson, is again here in the Canajohary Castle, and brags Very boldly of his hostile facts publicly, damneth the Committee, and threatened them to kill Every member and also to burn and destroy the Settlements along the Mohawk river and its neighborhood yet before fall. Pray lay these before the Honorable Congress, and procure us with speed their opinion or orders about those dangerous Circumstances. You will thereby much oblige the whole County, and in particular Sir Your Friends and Humble Servants,

By order of Committee,

Whereas this committee on the 11th instant from the return of the Polls of the several Elections held in the respective Districts in this county for Deputies to represent this city & county in Provincial Congress did declare Abraham Ten Broeck, Abraham Yates Junr., Jacob Cuyler, Francis Nicholl, Robert Yates, Henry Glen, Peter Silvester, Peter R. Livingston, John James Bleecker, Leonard Gansevoort, Henry Oothoudt and Robert Van Rensselaer to be duly elected and that they or any five of them represent this city and county in provincial Congress during the term mentioned in the Resolves of the Provincial Congress; But by reason of the inconvenience attending the attendance of that number, It is

Resolved that the said persons or any four of them attend said congress and represent this city and county during the time aforesaid.

[Petitions, 31: 25.]

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress for the Province of New York now convened at the City of New York, or during their recess to the Honorable the Committee of Safety.

The Petition and memorial of Bernard Romans most humbly sheweth.

That your petitioner and memorialist having since the 28th day of August last been employed on the business of erecting and building fortifications in this Province, and that on the 2<sup>d</sup> day of October last he was by the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee of Safety examined as to the situation and nature of the ground pitched upon for a fort in the Highlands, of all which your petitioner and memorialist gave ample information, and a plan; that the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee of Safety then directed your petitioner and memorialist to produce a draught of such works as your petitioner and memorialist thought most adequate and proper to be there erected, for the defence and obstruction of the navigation of the North river, as also an estimate of expence that might accrue in erecting the same, which plans were to his great satisfaction approved of.

That the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee of Safety then enquired on what terms your humble petitioner and memorialist would engage to build and erect said works, that in answer to such enquiry, he your humble petitioner and memorialist proposed to undertake the matter for a sum nearly equal to the sum mentioned in the aforesaid estimate which was for reasons unknown to him rejected, but in lieu thereof was by the said Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee appointed Engineer for the Province of New York with the rank and pay of Colonel, which appointment your petitioner and memorialist thought the height of favour bestowed on him and therefore accepted it without any consideration beyond those of gratitude and that it was a great honor that such a trust should be reposed in him, and your humble petitioner and memorialist only took the freedom to request knowing whether it was meant as an Establishment or not, to which your humble petitioner received an answer in the affirmative.

That your humble petitioner and memorialist expected a commission and instructions for a line of his Conduct, would have been granted to & made out for him & by the first opportunity sent up to him in full confidence whereof your humble petitioner and memorialist immediately repaired to the post intended where he has exerted himself to the utmost of his power under the limited circumstances he has been obliged to labor under.

That your humble petitioner has never received any such written appointment nor instructions, which makes him think that he labors under uncertain circumstances.

Your humble petitioner and memorialist thinking himself as projector entitled to be Director of the above works has found himself grossly mistaken, & his orders continually counter ordered & his plans contradicted especially in an erroneous distribution of labourers and artificers which he made complaint of to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee, the first time he appeared before that board, for the truth whereof he appeals to the memory of the members present & this distribution has since been still altered greatly for the worst & by this especially, expences have accrued, which he never intended should in any ways originate as also in the Building of a sudden addition of Barracks, which however was by your humble petitioner & memorialist judged to be in obedience to the orders of said Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee and therefore gave directions for the same, which have been by every method contravened & an erroneous plan substituted, your humble petitioner and memorialist has often expostulated with the commissioners on this head, remonstrating, that hereafter it would be asked, who was Engineer, but never who was Commissioners, & that he has at length delivered to them the annexed Instrument of Writing to which they have given him an answer & he again made a reply.

Your humble petitioner and memorialist therefore prays that you would give him his commission as promised, and take him out of this dreadful dilemma, where at first setting out his Character cannot fail to suffer & appoint him in the field or elsewhere, where his abilities may stand a fair tryal.

Your humble petitioner and memorialist is not one of those men, who consider themselves injured if the first appointment in the State is not conferred on them. No! but if it be thought requisite to continue him here he begs that it may please you to alter his appointment so that the Commissioners must consult him in every thing, that he may at least have some shadow of the dignity of the office he bears, for he knows, that in all States whatever an Engineer whose plan is once approved of, knows no Superior but in the execution thereof his word is law.

Your humble petitioner and memorialist does not mean to have anything to do in Money Matters, but he begs leave to observe, that had the Engineer been told "such a sum is to be expended, you must consider this, & regulate your plan accordingly & the Commissioners are directed to go by no means beyond those limits" in that case the Engineer must have been lost to all sense of honor if he had not fixed his Pride in making a good work, and endeavoured to contract the expence below the limits of his Estimate, but as your humble petitioner and memorialist is now placed the treatment he receives must grate a man of but a grain of spirit, as it makes him contemptible in the Eye of the Workmen, & continually places him in the situation of a man conscious of his own abilities under the absolute Command of a school boy.

Your humble petitioner begs leave to observe to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> house that his office is a very exercising one keeping body and mind constantly employed together & therefore humbly prays that an assistant may be granted to him & as persons in some measure acquainted with the art, are Certainly most proper for this purpose, he begs leave to request that he may retain with him in the service, a man of whose Talents and fidelity he has had an experience for years together & who is now with him, submitting this however to the discretion of the Hon<sup>ble</sup> house.

Your humble petitioner likewise prays, some allowance of provisions for the maintenance of a servant.

Your humble petitioner & memorialist hopes that this prayer & memorial may not any ways be construed as originating in ill will or other sinister intents against the Commissioners, by no means! his acquaintance with three of them at least forbids it, he judges them to be honest well meaning men, who in their Countrys cause have self not so much at heart, but would sacrifice life & property for liberty, yet their anxious care for the pecuniary affairs of their Country, leads them into such methods of saving, as a little experience will soon convince them & all the concerned are very expensive & this only has given ground to the premises.

By granting the above prayer to your humble petitioner & memorialist, he will ever think himself in duty bound &c.

HIGHLANDS, Nov<sup>r</sup> 15th 1775.

B. ROMANS.

Lord Stirling to Nathaniel Woodhull.

[Mil. Com. 25: 59.]

HEAD QUARTERS ELIZABETH TOWN, }
New Jersey, Decem<sup>r</sup> 5th 1775. }

SIR: By a letter of the 27th Ultimo from the President of the Continental Congress I am informed that he has wrote to the Convention of New York to furnish the Continental Troops under my Command in the Province with as many Fire arms as they can spare, and that he has desired them to be sent to me for their use. I should be very glad to know what number can be spared, and as I am ordered immediately to dispatch six companies of 90 each to the New Fort on Hudson's River in the Highlands, It would facilitate that service very much, if 300 stand of arms could immediately be sent over to me, and in order to avoid any dangers there may be in passing by water to this place, I will take care at any appointed time, to receive them with a proper guard at Hobocken, Whyhaken, or any other place on Hudson's River that may be thought most proper.

The Six Companies destined to Garrison the before mentioned new Fort I hope will be ready to move during this and the next week. I purpose to march them to Dobbs's ferry, where it will be necessary that two or three sloops should attend about eight days hence in order to embark and sail with them as they arrive; as soon as I can fix the day on which the first Company can be there, I will inform you of it.

Be pleased to inform me whether the Barracks at the new fortress be in readiness to receive the Six companies I am ordered to send there; and whether provision, firewood &c be provided. I shall use my utmost endeavours to furnish the Companies I send off with 24 Rounds of Powder and Ball. I hope your Congress will provide a further supply of those articles at the fortress.

I am Sir Your most Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

STIRLING.

NATHANIEL WOODHULL, Esq., Vice President of the late New York Provincial Congress.

[Mil. Com. 25: 57.]

MY LORD: We were honoured last night with your favour of yesterday upon the subject of Arms for your Troops and their marching to the new Fort and the making provision for them of fire wood and other necessaries. In answer to which we inform you that the Deputy Commissary General has orders to provide provisions for one thousand men, a considerable part of which is already sent to the Fort, and we have directed our Commissioners to purchase fire wood sufficient for the Barracks now built and to be built for the winter season. Those already built will not lodge more than three Hundred men and a great part of them are now occupied by the workmen; the remaining part will not Quarter above two compleat companies. Two incomplet Companies are now there and a third came from there a few days ago to guard the prisoners to Newark, when this Company was there the Barracks were much crowded. It is expected that in the course of the Winter additional Barracks will be built which with those already built will lodge about 1000 men. At present it will be impossible to Quarter the six companies you mention in the Fort; if they are sent up they must be Quartered in the neighbourhood. We have it not in our power to supply the Fort with any Powder or Ball, when it is we shall do it very chearfully. This Colony has been gleaned of its arms to furnish the troops raised in it many have been pressed for this purpose, and this city in particular has been striped of 550 of its best arms, so that we are very badly armed as a Colony, and have no arms in our power to spare. Our Colony has already put all its public arms in the Continental Service, and we hope our neighbours of Jersey have spared theirs before they called upon us. Striped as we are, our zeal to promote the public service has determined us to purchase about 100 muskets of our Citizens, of different bores with Bayonets and steel ram-rods for your troops, for which were we are to pay 80s. To prevent any misunderstanding in settling the Public accounts we expect the arms are to be on account of your Colony, or the Confederated Colonies. The muskets will be in order about ten days when they are finished we shall advise you.

We are with great truth and Regard, your Lordship's Obedient Humble Servants.

[N. Y. Col. Mss. CI. 123.]

NEW YORK, December 6, 1775.

[Yesterday the following Letter, and Address, to the Inhabitants of this Colony, was by his Excellency our Governor, sent to Whitehead Hicks, Esq.; Mayor of this city.]

SHIP DUTCHESS OF GORDON, }
New York Harbour, 4th Dec. 1775. }

SIR: I desire you will lay before the Corporation the inclosed Paper, containing my Sentiments on the present convulsed state of this Country; and that you will please to make the same Public.

I am, Sir, Your very humble Servant,

WILLIAM TRYON.

To WHITEHEAD HICKS, Esq.; Mayor of the City of New York.

To the INHABITANTS of the Colony of NEW YORK:

I take this public Manner to signify to the Inhabitants of this Province, that his Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant me his Royal Permission to withdraw from the Government; and at the same Time to assure them of my Readiness to perform ever Service in my Power, to promote the common Felicity. If I am excluded from every Hope of being any Ways instrumental towards the Re-establishment of that Harmony, at present interrupted between Great Britain and her Colonies, I expect soon to be obliged to avail myself of his Majesty's Indulgence.

It has given me great Pain to view the Colony committed to my care, in such a turbulent State as not to have afforded me since my Arrival, any Prospect of being able to take the dispassionate and deliberate Sense of its Inhabitants, in a constitutional Manner, upon the Resolution of Parliament for composing the present Ferments in the Provinces; A Resolution that was intended for the Basis of an Accommodation; and if candidly considered in a Way in which it will be most probably successful, and treated with that Delicacy and Decency requisite to the Cultivation of a sincere Reconciliation and Friendship, might yet be improved for the Purpose of restoring the general Tranquility and Security of the Empire.

I owe it to my Affection to this Colony, to declare my wish, that some Measure may be speedily adopted for this purpose; as I feel an extreme Degree of Anxiety, in being Witness to the growing Calamities of this Country, without the Power to alleviate them: Calamities that must increase, while so many of the Inhabitants withhold their Allegiance from their Sovereign, and their Obedience to the Parent Country; by whose Power and Patronage they have hitherto been sustained and protected.

WILLIAM TRYON.

SHIP DUTCHESS OF GORDON,

Harbour of New York, 4th Dec. 1775.Declaration of the Inhabitants of Queens County, New York.

QUEENS COUNTY, LONG ISLAND, December 6, 1775.

We, freeholders and inhabitants of Queens County, seeing, in common with our fellow-subjects, the deepest anxiety and distress from the most unhappy state of affairs between Great Britain and the American Colonies, and beholding with horror, every appearance of being involved in any the least unfriendly contention with our neighbors, countrymen, and fellow-subjects, have resolved to take every step in our power to prevent so destructive an event—an event which, if permitted to take place, will introduce misery and distress, and open wounds that many years cannot heal. Impressed with these ideas, and the most friendly disposition towards all our fellow-subjects, we make this public declaration of our sentiments and intentions, by which we hope to obtain the approbation of every real friend of liberty.

We declare that we have not the most distant design or inclination to injure or offend any of our fellow-subjects; but if, in exercising the essential privileges of freemen, we unfortunately differed with our brethren as to the mode of bringing the present troubles to a happy conclusion, we have carefully avoided every ostentatious display of that difference in sentiment and every irritating measure. We wish only to remain in peace, nor have we done aught to interrupt the quiet of others. So far have we been from harbouring a wish to offer violence to any, that we remained a long time destitute of the ordinary means of self-defence. We trusted that as we meant not to injure any man, so none would attempt to injure us. At length, however, we found too much reason to be apprehensive for the safety of ourselves, our families and property. Reports have been circulated, and messages delivered to us, importing that we are to be disarmed, and some of our principal people taken in custody; that we are, in short to be treated as enemies to our country. We call upon every man who values himself upon the inheritance of an Englishman, to say what he would do in such a case. Would he suffer himself to be disarmed, and tamely confess himself an abject slave? Certainly no. Can any one, then, who feels the spirit of liberty, impose that on us which he had rather die than submit to himself? Can he blame us for doing that which he most surely would do was he in our situation? Impelled by the most powerful arguments of self-defence, we have at last been driven to procure a supply of those means for protecting ourselves, of which we have been, till now, almost totally destitute; but we solemnly declare we procured them for the sole purpose of defending ourselves from insults and injuries.

And as many reports have been propagated, tending to excite the resentment of our countrymen against us, and to represent us as entirely inimical to them, we take this opportunity to declare that all such reports are wicked inventions and void of truth.

To remain peaceable and quiet, we again repeat, is our earnest desire; and breathing the most friendly disposition towards our neighbours, countrymen, and fellow-subjects, we entreat them to behold in us those endearing connections, and not suffer a difference in opinion, or mischievous and groundless reports, to hurry them into acts of violence against us, which the laws of God and man will justify us in resisting.

The above declarations are published as containing the sentiments and intentions of a large majority of the inhabitants of the County.

[Mil. Com., 25: 47.]

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> General Assembly Convened at New Haven on the 14th of Dec<sup>r</sup> 1775.

Whereas Capt Sam<sup>l</sup> Forbs & the subscriber were appointed by your Honours at your Cession in Oct<sup>r</sup> last, a Com<sup>tee</sup> to Examine and Explore a Lead mine at New Canan in the Province of New York and to Report & I the s<sup>d</sup> Subscriber ask leave to report that on the 7th of Nov<sup>r</sup> last on my journey to s<sup>d</sup> New Canan I expected s<sup>d</sup> Capt Forbs to join me, but he being Ill and unable to assist in s<sup>d</sup> business advised me to proceed, with which advice I complied and Repared to s<sup>d</sup> New Canan, when I found s<sup>d</sup> mine, the vein of oar in which appears about 50 or 60 Rods in length, lying north and south in a ledge of Rocks or Lime stone mixed with white flint at the south end of which the ground falls about twenty-six feet, below which the water cannot be drawn off by a level, which vein I found had been opened about one Rod in length and about three or four feet Deep; Where I employed a skillful miner to Blast the Rock but found no continued, or adherent vein, but found the Oar in Bodies in different shapes, about Three or four inches diameter lying about three or four feet distant, the s<sup>d</sup> miner also opened the vein in several places where it had not before been tried and it appeared to lie in the same manner. I also smelted Eight ounces of said oar and found when it was well refined it weighed five ounces and was very mallable and good, all which is submitted.

Your Honors most obedient humble servant,

JOSEPH HOPKINS.

N. B. The mine afores<sup>d</sup> lies in a tract of land called the Kings District, where the Fee has never been granted or Patent<sup>d</sup> to any person, and the Inhabitants claim to hold by possession only,—and I employed the miner aforementioned with others to labour in s<sup>d</sup> mine seven days about half of which time was spent in preparing to open the vein, and by the other half of the labour was raised one hundred weight of oar.

Yours as above,

J. HOPKINS.

IN PROVINCIAL CONGRESS, NEW YORK, December, 18th 1775.

GENT<sup>a</sup>: We take the liberty to enclose you the copy of a letter, we tho't proper to write to Governor Trumbull on the subject of a late Inroad made by some of the Inhabitants of Connecticut into this Colony, and also a Resolve of thanks for the friendly assistance given by them on another occasion at the request of the Committee of Westchester. By the first of those we conceive we have done what was necessary to support in a friendly manner, that Honor and independency with respect to every particular Colony, which we think necessary not only for our internal security, but also for maintaining our proper weight as a Colony, in the Scale of Continental Union. By the other we show our readiness to receive any assistance from our neighbors when properly afforded on requisition, and suitably to acknowledge such assistance.

You will observe Gent<sup>a</sup> that to prevent those jealousies which the introduction of parties of armed men from any neighboring Colony, unless properly requested will naturally beget, We give his Honor, the Gov<sup>r</sup> of Connecticut notice that we intend to apply to the Continental Congress, for a regulation on that head. Such a Regulation we think necessary for supporting the cause of Liberty, and to prevent its enemies from improving the want of security arising from Inroads by our neighbours to the prejudice of the Common Interest. We therefore request your endeavours to procure such a regulation by Authority of the Continental Congress. And are Gent<sup>a</sup> With Great Respect Your most Obed<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>ts</sup>. COMMITTEE CHAMBER, NEW YORK, Dec<sup>r</sup> 1775.

John Blackler having been confined for some time at the Upper Barracks, was this Evening Examined before this Board. It appeared by his Confession that he had been several weeks on Board the Asia Man of War; That his intention was to procure a passage to Boston, & from thence to England; & for that purpose requested the assistance of Governour Tryon. That he did not intend to Enter in the Ministerial Army, unless he could get the office he formerly had (a Lieut.) which was a Thousand to one against him, that upon the whole his intention was to go to England, by the way of Boston, as he could not readily get one from this place. That he did not desire a Comms<sup>a</sup> in the Army (meaning the Ministerial Army) That he took refuge on board the Asia to Avoid being taken & confined for Debt.

that the Law pass<sup>d</sup> by the late provincial Congress for this Colony, does not authorise this Board to determine thereon. The Question being then put, whether Blackler be remanded to the Guard House, & a State of his Case be Represented to the Provincial Congress? Carried Unanimously in the Affirmative.

By order of the Committee,

Captain Nordberg to the Provincial Congress.

[Petitions, 31: 15.]

The most respectable Gentlemen Provincial Congress in New York.

I beg leave to represent to the most respectable Congress this circumstance.

I am a native of Sweden, and have been persecuted for that, I have been against the French faction there.

I have been in His Britanick Majesty's service since January 1758.

I have been twice shot through my body here last war in America, and I am now 65 years old reduced of age, woonds, and gravels, which may be seen by Doctor Jones' certificate. 1773 I got permission in Jamaica to go to London where I petition to be an Invalid officer, but as a foreigner, I could not enjoy a Commission in England or Ereland. His Majesty was grasiouly pleased to give me the allowance for Fort George 7 Shilling Sterling per day, with liberty to live where I pleased in America, because the Fort has been abandoned this 8 year and only 2 men remain there for to assist any Express going between New York and Canada I arrived here in New York last year in September with intention to live in New York, as I heard nothing els then disharmony amongst Gentlemen which was not agreeable to my age, I resolved to go to Fort George and live there in a little Cottage as an Hermit, where I was very happy for 6 Months.

The 12 of May last M<sup>r</sup> Romans came and took possession of Fort George. M<sup>r</sup> Romans, behaved very genteel and Civil to me. I told that I did not belong to the army, and I may be considered as halfpay officer or invalid, and convinced him that I was plagued with Gravell. M<sup>r</sup> Romans give me his passport to go to New Lebanon for to recover my health, and he told me that in regard to my age, I may go where I pleased.

As I can't sell any bill for my subsistance and I can't live upon wind and weather, I therefore beg and implore the most respectable Congress permission to go to England, and I intend to go to my native Country, I could have gone away Secret so well as some others have done, but I will not upon any account do such thing. I hope the most respectable will not do partialy to refuse me, because Major Etherington, Captain Brown, Captain Kelly, which is in the Army have been permitted to go to England, and it may happen they return here again on Actual Service, which old age and infirmities render me incapable off.

As it is the costum among the Christian nations and the Turks, that they give subsistance to every Prisoner according to their rank, Should the most respectable Congress have any Claims upon me to be a prisoner here, I hope they will give me my Subsistance from the 12 May last, according to my Rank as Captain, I implore the favour of the most respectable Congress answer.

I have the honour to remain with great respect Gentlemen, your most obed<sup>t</sup> Servant

JOHN NORDBERG.

NEW YORK, Decemb<sup>r</sup> 1775.

15 Dec. 1775, Permitted to go Great Britain.

To the Honourable the Provincial Congress:

Your Petitioner humbly Desires to be employed in that usfull and much needfull Business of Nail making and as your petitioner has followed that business formally he hopes to give satisfaction to the publick and as the foresaid artikle will be much wanted in the spring he would set the business up immediately that the Publick might be punctually served in such usfull articles.

And whereas it will be nesecery to have a good Quantity of Iron and Coll which if not purchashed soon will render your petitioner unable to carry on the foresaid business, he having a family of seven children and having for some time past followed the Ship Smith Branch which is now at a stand, and as he is possessed of Tools and fires for eight men to work by which he will endeavour to get to the employ if not he will take boys and teach them which will be of great service to the Publick.

Your pettitioner Humbly prayeth the Honourable the Congress will take to consideration and allow him a little forehand cash to enable him to cary on the work and what work he gives in weekly will pay a moiety towards the advance money and the work dun at the lowest prices, if The above is agreeable and meets with acceptance your Pettitioner will for ever pray

Van Vleet, of the city of New York, load a vessel in said city with Provisions, for the Island above mentioned, in direct Violation of a Resolve of the Honorable the Continental Congress. And altho' the said provisions were Bona Fide intended for said Island, and there landed, agreeable to the express orders of the said A. H. Van Vleck, which orders were "to go out by the Hook & carefully avoid all men of war & Tenders," & which were punctually complied with by your Petitioner. Yet as loading & carrying the said Provisions was contrary to the aforesaid Resolve, as also to the intention of your Honorable House, & the sentiments of the good people of this Colony & America in general, your Petitioner is truly sensible of his crime in so doing, & sincerely promises not to act or do any thing in future in violation of the said Resolve, or any Resolves of their or your Honorable Houses, & humbly asks the pardon of all his Countrymen for this his first offense which he hopes may be granted, and that he may be restored to their former favor again, & have liberty to pass unmolested about his employm<sup>t</sup> And your petitioner will ever pray.

[Associations, &amp;c., 30: 214.]

We the Subscribers do most Solemnly declare that the claims of the British Parliament to bind at their discretion the People of the united Colonies in America in all cases whatsoever are in our opinions absurd unjust and tyrannical and that the hostile attempt of their Fleets and armies to enforce submission to those wicked and ridiculous Claims ought to be resisted by arms. And therefore we do engage and associate under all the ties which we respectively hold sacred to defend by arms these united Colonies against the said hostile attempts agreeable to such Laws or Regulations as our Representatives the Congresses or future General Assemblies of this Colony have or shall for that Purpose make and establish.

Petition of Thomas Place.

[Petitions, 32: 294.]

To the Honorable Committee of Safety of the Colony of New York.

The petition of Thomas Place of Queens County on Long Island Most Humbly sheweth.

That your petitioner by the persuasion of those whom he looked upon to be his friends voted against provincial Delegates in the last Election held in Queen's County for which he is extremely sorry and sincerely repents of his conduct.

That your petitioner without giving himself time to reflect upon the ill consequences of opposing the choice of provincial Delegates (the choosing of which he is now well convinced was Highly necessary for the preservation of the liberties and properties of the inhabitants of America) was by the Artful insinuations of designing men led to oppose the election. That your petitioner is a sincere friend to the Liberties of America and would go as far as any man in the defence of those Liberties; your petitioner therefore most Humbly prays That this Honorable committee would be pleased to take his case into consideration and restore him to the Good opinion of those who are friends to the liberties of this continent by declaring to the world that your petitioner is extremely contrite for his late conduct in opposing the choice of provincial delegates which your petitioner candidly acknowledges was occasioned by the Artful persuasion of others, and not from a principle of opposition in your petitioner or do such other things in the premises as to this Honorable committee shall seem meet for the Restoration of your petitioner to the favor of his countrymen.

The several petitions of Thomas Place & Gabriel Vancott of Queens County were presented and read.

Ordered that the said petitioners be restored to the state and condition they were before the passing of these resolves during their Respective Good behavior.

Examination of Allen Cameron and Alexander Bell.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 42.]

Allen Cameron one of the men taken in returning from the Transport ship, says he saw Jn<sup>o</sup> Douglass & Laughlen M<sup>c</sup>Donald on board that he saw nothing unloading from on board the sloop but wood that he believes there are ab<sup>t</sup> 40 men on board the Transport many of whom appear to him to be neither Soldiers or Sailors that he went on board to demand some money from Duncan Campbell but did not get it; Campbell told him he had ordered his wife to sell of his stock of Cattle to pay his debts.

Alex Bell carried his Trunk on board the Transport to go to Boston in order to get a passage to Britain—has been in this Country two months or better, came here from England, came in the Packet Capt Dillon. That a person in Town now on board of the Transport told him he would get a passage from Boston in a Kings ship free. That the soldier who carried his effects is a prisoner who lodges at M<sup>r</sup> Frazers in Stone Street. That the Bill he had he was desired to deliver to the Landlord at the Inn at the sign of the Marquis of Granby; that he rec<sup>d</sup> that Bill from a Gentleman in Green Cloaths in the Transport. That he has been up above Albany at Duncans—had leave to draw on John M<sup>c</sup>Intyre a Grocer in the Strand in London—was only once in the Transport.

[Miscel. Papers 30: 168.]

To the honourable Committee of Safety of the Colony of New York:

The Petition of Capt<sup>a</sup> Jacob Mott, Jackson Mott and Seaman Weeks of Queens County on Long-Island. Most humbly Sheweth.

That we your Petitioners by the persuasion of those whom we look<sup>d</sup> upon to be our friends, voted against Provincial Delegates in the Late Election held in Queens County, for which we are Extreemly Sorry, and Sincerely Repent of our Conduct.

That we your petitioners without giving ourselves time to reflect upon the ill Consequences of Opposing the Choice of Provencial Delegates (the Choosing of which we are now well Convinced was highly necessary, for the preservation of American Liberty) was by the artfull Insinuation of designing Men led to Oppose the Election.

We your Petitioners therefore most humbly pray that this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee will be pleas<sup>d</sup> to take our Case into Consideration & restore us to the Good Opinion of those who are friends to the Libertyes of this Continent by Declaring to the World that we your Petitioners are Extreemly Contrite for our late Conduct, in Opposing the Choice of Provencial Delegates, and to do such other things in the Premises as to this Honourable Committee shall seem meet, for the restoration of your Petitioners to the favour of our Countrymen.

Committee of Safety to Col. Isaac Nicoll.

[Miscel. Papers, 39: 367.]

[Jany 16, 1776.]

SIR: We enclose you a certified copy of an Order of the Continental Congress so plain that it can't be misunderstood.

You will please to take all the minute men into the fortifications if the Barracks & accommadations will admit of it. Keep none on Billet. Send home such as cannot be kept in the Fort. Please to exert yourself to keep your men in the best order and under the best government and regulations & pray do not let them be departing from the post and neglecting their Duty.

Report of Committee.

The Committee conceive that it will tend to the greater security of The Fortifications at the High Land, & the better Government & Discipline of the minute Companies who Garrison the said Fortifications, to appoint a Field Officer of the minute men to take the Command of the said Fortifications, and the Committee having great Confidence in the prudence, courage & activity of Co' Isaac Nicoll think him a proper person to take the Command there.

Therefore Ordered that the said Colonel Isaac Nicoll take the Command at the said Fortifications until he shall be relieved by a Continental officer or further order.

Petition of Town Major Leary.

[Mil. Com. 25: 610.]

To the Committee of Safety for the Colony of New York:

The Memorial of William Leary, Town Major, Humbly Sheweth, that since he has had the Honor of filling the Station he now holds by virtue of his appointment, he studiously endeavoured to preserve the Peace, good Order and well being of the City as much as was in his power—That for that purpose he has carefully attended the regular appointment of the nightly Guard according to the Instructions of the General Committee.

And this memorialist further showeth, that since his said appointment he has found the utmost remissness in Duty; and the greatest disrespectfulness towards Officers from Soldiers of the respective Beats; that he has repeatedly complained of Same to no Effect; that the few independent Companies which have been raised in this City have showed upon many occasions the greatest cheerfulness to render any assistance to their suffering Country; but that at present he observes a great Delinquency, even in them.

And this Memorialist further sheweth, that upon regular Complaint being made to the Field Officers of said Companies, they unanimously assign the following Reason for the Same. That they have been, and ever will be willing and ready to do their Part of their respective Duties; but the men, over whom they have Command, too justly assert, that good Nature is imposed upon; that the more they do, the more seems to be required at their Hands; that their Interest and Families have already suffered by their persisting in their former assiduity and they are fearful that Necessity will at length compel them to desist, unless their Fellow Citizens will step forth and aid them in the common cause.

And the Memorialist further sheweth, that the danger to which this City is nightly exposed, not only from the attacks of External and internal Enemies, but from the Malice and intemperance of any Individual who mounts Guard he has thought it his indispensable duty to lay before this Committee particular threats which he has heard from some individuals of those unruly Guards, who he has reason to believe wanted nothing but an opportunity of putting the same into execution “such as firing upon his Majesty’s ships now in the Harbour,” an act that must unavoidably bring unspeakable Distress upon the Inhabitants of this City.

The Countersign has been divulged, and those who were appointed as guardians of our Safety have exposed us to the greatest dangers from the Common Enemy.—He therefore humbly prays that this Committee will take the matter under their serious consideration, for if long neglected he is fully convinced a sufficient number will soon be wanting to do the Duty (tho even so badly) of this City.

January 19, 1776.

Whereas, we the subscribers, inhabitants of Queens County, on Long Island, in the Province of New York, have given great uneasiness to the good people of the neighboring Provinces and the Continent in general, by our not choosing a Committee agreeable to the orders of the Continental Congress, by our not paying that attention to the directions of our Provincial Congress, which we ought to have done, and by our opposing the General Instructions of the Continental Congress in almost all our conduct and actions. Therefore, (in order to relieve the minds of the virtuous inhabitants of America, and those of this County in particular, engaged in the common cause,) we, the subscribers, do most solemnly and sincerely promise, that we will, hereafter, in all cases, implicitly obey all orders and instructions enjoined on us by our Provincial and Continental Congresses,—that we will act in conjunction with the inhabitants of this and the neighbouring Provinces, in the defence of American liberty,—that we never will take up arms against the Americans,—and that we will not, directly or indirectly, countenance, aid, assist, or by any means join with, any of his Majesty's troops in the present contest between Great Britain and America. Petition of John Brickell.

[Petitions, 32: 232.]

To the Honorable the Delegates of the Provincial Congress for the Colony of New York.

GENTLEMEN: As this Colony has vested you with Legislative power, and you are the only parents to whom we as children look up for justice and Protection: I hope the application of an innocent suffering individual and a stranger, will not be considered as impertinent or treated with neglect.

On Wednesday the 12th instant, being abroad about my lawful business, some wicked persons taking advantage of the public disturbances, and of the opportunity which a number of soldiers and others being in the house where I lodge gave them, forced themselves into my chamber, and broke open my chest and cloths press, and robbed me of my linnen apparel and other things to the value of Ninety or one Hundred dollars—a loss, which in my present circumstances being at a distance from my friends, and having no means of obtaining a supply, is particularly grievous.

Now, gentlemen, have incontestible evidence that I have always spoken and acted as became a Friend to America since the commencement of this unhappy disputo with Great Britain, I am induced to hope you will take my misfortune into consideration and afford me such relief as may be consistent with the public Honour and Justice. I am, Gentlemen, your most ob<sup>t</sup> serv<sup>t</sup>

JOHN BRICKELL.

I the subscriber do certify that I have known John Brickell to speak and act since the commencement of our troubles as became a friend to American Liberty.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, NEW YORK, Jan<sup>y</sup> 21st 1776.

SIR: Thro' the misfortunes and indisposition of sundry members we are very few in number; we have only eight members when all met who are in the Town or can be collected.

We have had more cases than one in which we should have tho't it our Duty to have spared a member from the Committee for Important matters at some Distance if our number would have admitted us so to do.

Thus situated we think it our Duty to request you to come to New York and attend the Committee as soon as the situation of your health will admit.

[Mil. Com. 25: 51.]

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, NEW YORK,
 Sunday Evening 8 o'clock Jan<sup>y</sup> 21st 1776. }

MY LORD: By the Seizure of a man bro't up from the Hook by one of our Pilots from on Board a Transport we this instant have learned her being in a distressed Condition, and waiting there for direction and assistance from this Port. She has been out 13 weeks, destined for the Head Quarters of the Ministerial Troops, so that if she receives relief she will doubtless proceed for Boston. She is deeply laden with all kind of stores for the army. Our intelligence is from Letters found on the prisoner directed to certain persons under fictitious directions which were intended to be conveyed by him on board of the men of War. It would greatly serve the public cause could she be seized. There are the most evident reasons why we in New York ought not in point of prudence to do it, we have two ships of war lying here and our exports as yet happily uninterrupted by them. This Discovery cannot be kept long a secret and we deem it our duty to submit this case to your immediate attention.

Should it be known to the ships of war they will doubtless send down their Boats, which consideration has induced us by express to furnish you with this opportunity of serving the Public. The above reasons point out the propriety of keeping the source of your information a secret and to this end we beg you will destroy this as soon as read.

We are my Lord with great respect Your Lordship's most Ob<sup>d</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>.

By Order of the Committee.

P. S. She is a ship between three and four hundred Tons, a Galley built ship without a head, has yellow sides, Blue Quarter Boards, with the Trophies of War printed on the Quarter boards. She has six Three Pounders on her Quarter Deck. She has it is tho't a quantity of ammunition on board. She has about twenty hands and lies hovering off and on without the Hook and will not leave that station until she receives Intelligence from there. Cap<sup>t</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Rogers the bearer of this will be a proper person to take the direction of the undertaking.

[Military Committee, 25: 628]

Doctor Curtis's Compliments await M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>c</sup> Kesson and would be much obliged to him if he would inform the Honorable the Convention that he has left the Chirurgical Instruments and remaining medicines belonging to this State in the Care of Major Ledyard.

SIR: I flatter myself you will pardon this intrusion, but hope my present unhappy situation will be sufficient Apology.

I was unfortunately cast away on the 23rd of December last on Squan Beach in the sloop Polly & Nancy which Vessel was Leadend by his Excellency Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon for Boston with sundry articles as a present to General How, and imediately was taken prisoner by order of the Committee of Freehold in Monmouth County, as I only went Passenger by permission of his Excellency in order to get my son home to N. York, think it is cruel, my state of Health at present is such that if I have not my Enlargement soon I must inevitably perish.

I now presume to beg you will be kind enough to procure me at least a hearing, your compliance will be gratefully acknowledged by

Petition of John Blaikler.

GUARD HOUSE, 23 Jan'y, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: My long Confinement obliges me to beg you will let me know my doom if I have done anything deserving of Punishment let me suffer, I have now been deprived of Liberty 43 days. I was ingenious in my profession which is strictly true, every gent<sup>n</sup> must think it hard to be deprived of the benefit of enjoying a sufficient Competency for the remainder of his days. This is truly my situation was I but in England, as to my carracter here I hope it is beyond the reach of malice to traduce. Necessity has obliged me to take the method I did, without a thought of depriving any individual of the city of a Farthing. I never received a Remittance from Home but first I discharged my debts, which I believe my very Enemies will say my behaviour since under Confinement can be attested for by the whole Barrack.

As most of the Gentlemen on the Committee when I was first brought down knew me at the time I lived with M<sup>r</sup> John Arnul, and his own recommendation found in my pocket Book will I hope be a sufficient proof of my behaviour since my residence here.

I am gentlemen, your very Humble serv<sup>t</sup>

JOHN BLAIKLER.

To the Chairman of the Honorable Committee of Safety for the Province of New York.

HONOURED SIR, In doing a good-natured action to oblige one of my Customers, I have been unhappily drawn in to be suspected of being unfriendly to the Country that gave me existence, altho' what I did was without any other design than to serve my neighbour, and therefore inacent. Yet as I get my livelyhood by Keeping a Publick House and as this matter of my haveing been suspected of being an Enemy to my Country will become Publick and spread abroad, even among my Customers and country friends, and they not Knowing my Innocence, may avoid me, and therefore it may become prejudicial to my business.

I therefore Intreat it as a favour that whenever your Honourable Board shall be fully satisfied of my Innocence in the matter, That you will be pleased to give me such Certificate for me to publish to the World, of your being so satisfied, as shall Restore to me the good Opinion of the Publick, at least that I may be left as I was found which would greatly obliged Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sir, your most Obedient and very Humble Servant

Petition of Marbletown Company of Militia.

[Petitions, 32: 264.]

MARBLETOWN, January y<sup>e</sup> 30th 1776.

To the Honourable the Congress of the Colony of New York.

The Humble petition of sundry of the militia of Marbletown in the county of Ulster Sheweth,

That some time past they were formed into a Company consisting of about one hundred men and pursuant to the resolves of the Congress, Chose their officers of which Cornelius E. Weynkoop was Captain, who accordingly had their Commissions from the Honourable Congress. That since their being Commissioned, The said Captain hath been promoted to be a major, by which there is now a vacancy of the Captains post in this Company, That since that vacancy happened we have requested election to fill up said Vacancy; but the Committee of Marbletown have denied us the priviledge of voting in a captain and appointed three of the Committee of Marbletown to advertize and call the Company together, which accordingly was done and requested the opinion of the Company in this manner, To witt: that if the majority of the Company was for chosing an Ensign and the subaltering officers to be preferred they would allow Election for an Ensign, but if the majority was for Chosing a New Captain then to allow them No Election and requested their opinion in this manner whether they chose a New Ensign and the Subaltering officers preferred or wether they chose a new Captain and the Majority was for a New Captain 59 to 20. we therefore pray the directions of this house therein and we as in Duty Bound shall ever pray &c

Resolved: That Henry Smith and Samuel Barkly do attend the Election of Officers in the Company formerly Commanded by Cap<sup>t</sup> Colden (who had Declined Serving) On Friday the fifth Day of January next at ten o'clock in the forenoon at the house of James Rea.

And they attended according to the above Resolve when the Company Elected James Milligan Captain, John Hunter first Lieut., Mathew Hunter, second Lieut., and Robert Burns Ensign, agreeable to the Resolves of the provincial Congress.

ARTHUR PARKS, D. Chairman.

[Mil. Com. 25: 650.]

Chairman. That their answer to the order of the Committee occasioned this Conference—we think it inconvenient that Troops should come in without consent—unless under their direction.

An: That they were sent by Congress to consult with Gen<sup>l</sup> Lee and this Committee in pursuance of having received from Gen<sup>l</sup> Lee a copy of the Letter of this Committee. That Congress were before unacquainted with the matter.

That they were sent at the request of the Deputies of this Colony—That the Troops coming into Town to-night and something about stores were the reasons for sending for them.

Scott—We will always obey the orders of Congress.

1st But the Duty and Dignity due to our Constituents forbid the Introduction of Troops without our consent.

2<sup>d</sup> It is our duty to guard ag<sup>t</sup> Trouble and Inconveniencies.

We apprehend great Difficulties—Gen<sup>l</sup> Lee indisposed—we can't trust every man at the head of Troops.

Petition of Margaret Graham.

[Petitions, 32: 190.]

To the Honorable the Committee of Safety for the city of New York.

The humble Petition of Margaret Graham of the said city Humbly Sheweth.

That your petitioners Husband now lies a prisoner in the Barracks of this City afflicted with a most inveterate indisposition of Body, add to this his being surrounded with a part of his Honor General Lee's Troops. Your Honors well know his situation renders him obnoxious to severe and sharp invectives from them. What from his Company, and from his weakly and disorder'd habit of Body he is now brought to a truly deplorable state, to a state of the most striking and poignant despondency! His indisposition of Body can be evinced to your Honor's by Doctor Will<sup>m</sup> Brownjohn if necessary. Indeed his case is truly affecting! His life is now almost insupportable to him! I daily convey provision to him, but am prohibited from any conference with him; however I sometimes break thro' bounds impelled by Conjugal affection, and endeavor to soothe his affliction. But alas! 'Tis all in vain! He raises his head, views me with wild anxiety, with horror and despair imprinted on his face! I am order'd away severely reprimanded, my Heart rent with anguish to see the partner of my life reduced to—good God I can't describe to what. I want words. Sorrow drowns me!—Your honors in alleviating the distress which now envelops my poor emaciated Husband and myself, by either ordering him to be removed to the Common Jail of this city; or admitting him to Bail will ever have the prayers of a distress'd Woman; the plaudets of all the Great & Good; the admiration of the human, and the approbation of the Just God, who delighteth in mercy. I can assure your honor's that if my poor Husband is not soon reliev'd from his complicated calamities, he cannot in my opinion survive many days. In such case your Petitioner would be miserable beyond description. Your Honors in taking the premises into consideration, and granting the prayer of your Petitioner will lay your Petitioner and her poor Husband under the greatest of obligations possible. And your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray &c.

MARGARET GRAHAM.

NEW YORK, February 7th 1776.

This is therefore to beg of this Honble Bord that they will Permitt their Petitioner to take with him a small Parcell of Salt which he has on hand about 3 or 400 bush. as it will be attinded with grate inconvenience and expence to your Petitioner to attend the sale of so Inconsiderable a Quantity of Salt your petitioner having no other Business in this City at present.

Application of Colonel Samuel Avery.

[Petitions, 32: 206.]

To the Honourable the Provincial Congress for the Province of New York now Convened.

GENTLEMEN: The Dispute between the Mother Country (or rather the Ministry) and these devoted Colonys has arisen to such a heighth of Desperation, that I conceive every person is loudly called upon to stand forth and exert themselves in the defence of their country and the general cause of Mankind.

And having understood that there is four Battallions to be Immediately raised in this Province to act as occation may require for the General safety and Preservation of the united Colonys and being desirous to Join with my friend brethren and fellow Country men in the defence of the Liberties and Priviledges of this once happy Land, On which I conceive much depends the fate of our once boasted Constitution and the English Empire.

Therefore when an arangement of officers for the aforesaid Battallions shall be made by your Honourable House, I should be glad to be appointed a Lieutenant Col' of one of those Battallions if you shall Judge me a fit person for the office. You may be assured I do not want zeal in the cause of the Colony's, and I flatter myself I do not want capacity. But for Courage which is a very material matter, I cannot Promise, But am willing to try.

I am, Gentlemen, with the Greatest respect, Your most obedient and very Humble servant,

GENTLEMEN: In my application to you Gentlemen yesterday, I made no mention of any particular rank I would be glad to hold, humbly submitting that Matter to your Honours' Judgement, which I did not doubt was the case with the other Gentlemen, but I find that Companies & first Lieutenancy's have been particularly solicited for & as my silence on that head may be construed into an indifference in me, what rank I obtained, I take this opportunity for declaring my wish for as high a rank in the Army as your Honours may Judge my poor abilities capable of filling with propriety & to your satisfaction. [Petitions, 32: 256.]

To the Honourable the Provincial Congress of New York,

The humble petition of us returned from the Northward under the command of Cap<sup>t</sup> Johnson Sheweth,

That your petitioners having been a campaign in this inclement season as long as they were required to the Northward and were willing to continue or re-enter in the service but understand now since our return to this City not only that the said Cap<sup>t</sup> Johnson intends making a large Deduction of our wages (which we presume dearly earn'd) for our clothing which we conceived to be given as a Bounty, but also of stopping our pay from the 27th of Jan<sup>r</sup> then in Albany, since which we have been at great cost and time to come down and are now on Expences tho' not properly discharged—wherefore your petitioners pray this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board to take their case into consideration and give Directions to said Cap<sup>t</sup> Johnson for the payment of our arrears without deduction, and for our subsistence and pay 'till discharged which will give Resolution and activity to your petitioners to persevere in the defence of the Liberties of America until the same be permanently established. And your petitioners shall ever pray.

Elihu Marvin to the Committee of Safety.

[Mil. Ret. 27 : 220.]

IN COUNTY COMMITTEE, OXFORD, Feb. 15th 1776.

GENTLEMEN: When this Committee made report to your Honorable Board of the number of men they conceived this County would be Able to Raise for the Defence of the Colony agreeable to the Resolves of the Honorable Continental Congress for the purpose provided, it was a received opinion amongst them that the men were to be Inlisted for not more than one year certain, and a Continental Member then Present favoured the Opinion, but M<sup>r</sup> Seth Marvin whom they nominated and Returned for Cap<sup>t</sup> of one of the Companies Informs that there was no certain period of Inlistment, but that they were to Continue in the Service during the Pleasure of Congress and therefore declined taking his permit untill he had taken the further advice of this Committee. The Committee would therefore beg leave to inform your Honorable Board that they think it very unlikely that they will be able to raise the number of men they proposed, upon such principles, and if they can they are very sure that none but the lower Class of Mankind will Inlist and these they conceive not to be the men to be depended on, whereas, on the other Hand if men were to be Inlisted for one year only, they are very certain that there would be many Volunteers out of good families, men that might be depended on and that would fight upon principle if they were brought to a trial.

The Committee also conceive that a certain period is necessary to Inlist men upon and if it was Two or Three Years that it would be better than during the Pleasure of Congress, they would be glad therefore some certain time might be fixed upon—but if that cannot be done the officers are willing now to take their permiss and make trial but fear the Consequence.

Phillip Brooks to N. Y. Provincial Congress.

[Petitions, 32: 226.]

GENTLEMEN: Having had an opportunity of Feeling the oppression exercised by the minstry over Ireland, the place of my nativity, and as I have tasted the sweets of American Liberty, Before this unhappy contest, common sense directs in the choice I should make for myself and posterity.

Therefore as a young unmarried man I can neither think myself excusable, or a usefull member of society, while content with indifferently examining the public prints at home.

To act as I could wish among the Independents would not answer the frugality with which I am obliged to manage my time.

To enter among the Private Provincials would be agreeable could the generality of my companions be form'd to the agreemens of religious or even genteel Behaviour. But the contrary which is often the case would be very disagreeable to any person of any sensibility.

These considerations have urged me to apply for any commission in the service Beneath a captain, as I do not immagine myself capable of Conducting that Important Rank.

Your complying with this request shall be gratefully acknowledged and I hope suitably Improved by Gentlemen your Respectful Humble serv<sup>t</sup>

NEW YORK, Feb. 16th 1776.

PHILLIP BROOKS.

[Mil. Commit. 25: 692.]

[February 1776.]

SIR: Should anything that follows enable you to answer any matters objected to the care or conduct of the present Representatives of this Colony it will apologize for my giving the Trouble of this narrative—

On the 15th of January the Resolutions of Congress That the Troops in Canada should be formed into 2 Reg<sup>ts</sup> and to raise a Reg<sup>t</sup> for the service in Canada with the Gent of Albany for Field Officers came to hand; on the next day a copy was forwarded to Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler. Some time after the Committee of Safety were informed that Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler had a prior copy of that Resolve and had issued warn<sup>ts</sup> Sundry Resolutions of Congress passed at different times from the 8th to the 20th of Jan<sup>y</sup> inclusive, among which is the direction for Raising for Regim<sup>ts</sup> came to hand on the 23<sup>d</sup> in the Evening, & Copies were that night prepared & next morning dispatched to Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler.

The Committee of Safety few in number could not fix on proper persons for Officers in each County, nor determine the numbers the respective Counties would probably raise & to wait the meeting of the Convention would create delay & was uncertain. Therefore as fast they could be prepared Letters were dispatched to the County Committees, directing them with the advice of the County Deputies, where it could be obtained, to recommend proper Officers and report the numbers of men who could be raised for the Service in their respective Counties & on the 27 the Terms of pay &c, Instructions for enlisting and Warrants for the Officers were printed & ready On the 31st Jany. the 12500 Dollr<sup>s</sup> for Colo van Schaick's Canada Reg<sup>t</sup> Sundry Officers in it passed into the Colony Treasury.

The Committee having had the information abovementioned as to Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler's Warrants; and for many reasons Exclusive of Economy being of opinion that the Reg<sup>t</sup> would be most easily raised in the northern parts of the Colony, on the 6th of Feby dispatched the money for that Reg<sup>t</sup> to Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler.

On the 12th Feby a Letter was rec<sup>d</sup> from the Gen<sup>l</sup> dated on the 6th mentioning the Companies he had ordered to be raised for Garrisoning Crown Point, Ticonderoga, fort George &c that the Committee would probably receive Instructions from Congress that they should form part of that Reg<sup>t</sup> & soon after the resolve of Congress of the 5th Feby directing the Gen<sup>l</sup> to Compleat the appointm<sup>ts</sup> in that Reg<sup>t</sup> came to hand.

From this state of facts, Sir, you will see that only three weeks elapsed from the first notice received by the Committee about Colo van Schaick Reg<sup>t</sup> until it was taken out of their hands. They would willingly undertake any Duty to relieve Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler, but few in number, at a great distance in the midst of winter, without any member from Albany or the northern part of the Colony in which alone a Regim<sup>t</sup> for those Gentlemen would be raised, they had nothing in their power. The season of the year, the Distance & the assembling County Committee's required time for answers.

On the 15th Feby, the Convention being assembled, amongst other things Resolved that a sufficient number of Officers should be appointed in each County to Command the men to be raised in the same and that in the appointing of such officers those who served their much Injured Country in the last Campaign ought to have the preference. The Convention considered the returns of those which had made Returns, apportioned the four Regim<sup>ts</sup> and issued Warrants to the Officers, or dispatched them with the said resolves to the County Committees.

On the 22<sup>d</sup> Inst was received the Resolution of Congress of the 15th that such of the officers who served faithfully in Canada the last Campaign as are willing to continue there be preferred in the new Levies of the Colony of New York to others.

The resolution for forming two Reg<sup>ts</sup> of the troops in Canada (however difficult to be executed) remain'd, in full force and not superceeded—and this occasioned the Letter of the 22<sup>d</sup> from the Provincial Congress to know who of them were provided for before they appointed Field officers.*

* See Journ. of N. Y. Prov. Congress, I 317, 319.

Calo McDougall on the spot in a constant Tour of duty and Lieut Colo Courtland in West Chester ready when required, allowed the more time to determine.

I expect the officers will in some places recruit fast—and should a few of them fail some Gentlemen has offered full Companies for whom there is at present no vacancy.

[On the back of the above are the following.]

Feb'y 6 money sent to Genl Schuyler—Feb'y 12th Letter Gen<sup>l</sup> S. of 6th that he had issued warrants—rec<sup>d</sup> of 12th

22<sup>d</sup> Resolve to employ the Officers in Canada—& the former resolve of putting them into reg<sup>t</sup> unrepeld tho Impossible to execute, occasioned Letter of 22<sup>d</sup> to the Delegates.

Post on the Subject have come to the following Resolve which they beg leave to report:

Resolved, That Mr P. T. Curtenius the Commissary of this Colony be ordered to furnish from time to time such quantities of Timber as may be necessary for executing the works now carrying on in this City & its environs by the Continental forces, provided the whole does not exceed five hundred Loads, each load to contain forty cubic feet.

With respect to the Carpenters from Connecticut which General Lee informs are ready to work at lower wages than the Citizens demand, provided this Congress will furnish the Tools—The Committee are of opinion it will be most advancive of the public Service to compleat the enlistment of the Company of Artificers with all possible expedition, and that they should furnish their own tools, but upon enquiry the Committee find it is totally impracticable, unless the proposed wages are advanced, they therefore submit to the Congress the propriety of allowing the artificers twelve dollars per month, which they are assured will induce the best Journeymen in this City immediately to enlist.

All of which is humbly submitted.

[Petitions, 32: 155.]

To the Honourable Representatives of the Province of New York in Provincial Congress assembled.

The petition of David Shaddel of the City of New York Coach Maker Humbly Sheweth:

That your petitioner being well affected to the Cause of his Country has on all occasions exerted himself when ever called on to the utmost of his Power and Abilities.

That on Sunday the eighteenth day of February last, while he was assisting in removing the Cannon from of the Battery, he had the misfortune to have his hand & arm crushed in a terrible manner, so that he has ever since been incapable of earning anything for the support of his Wife & Family, and what adds more to his unhappiness is that he has no prospect of getting better for some weeks.

That your petitioner for the want of work these few months past is so far reduced in his circumstances as not to be able to support the encreasing expences which this accident has laid him under without having recourse to the Benevolence of the Charitable and well disposed.

Your Petitioner therefore humbly hopes (that as he now suffers in the cause of his country) this Honorable Congress will take his case into their consideration, and grant him such relief as they in their wisdom shall think proper

And your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray, &c.

NEW YORK, March 4th 1776.

I do hereby certify that the foregoing account of the hurt David Shaddel received 18th ul<sup>e</sup> is true.

Petition of Abraham Lott.

[Petitions, 32: 306.]

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress of the Colony of New York in Congress convened.

The Memorial of Abraham Lott, Treasurer of said Colony, Humbly showeth,

That by a law of the Legislature for this Colony, passed the 16th day of February in the year 1771, one hundred and twenty thousand pounds in bills of credit were ordered to be, and were accordingly emmitted put out on loan: That the Interest money arising therefrom should yearly be paid to the respective loan officers on the Third Tuesday in April: And that One Tenth part of the Principal Sum should be paid in, on the Third Tuesday in April, in this present year 1776 and so on, one Tenth part annually until the whole Principal is paid off; which respective Tenths are by the said law ordered to be annually sunk.

That the memorialist has been informed by some of the Loan officers, they apprehend it will be impracticable at this time for the Borrowers of the money to procure New York currency to pay off the Interest and one Tenth of the principal sum borrowed, as none of that money now passes, and are totally at a loss how to act, whether to receive any money now current, or whether to insist on payment in the Currency the Law directs?

The memorialist therefore in behalf of the Loan officers as well as of himself, humbly requests the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Congress will be pleased to give it as their opinion, whether the Loan officers, and consequently himself, shall receive any money that now passes current in this Colony, or whether payment must be insisted on in the money required by the said Law? And your memorialist as in duty bound shall ever pray, &c.

SIR,—Whereas the 1st Lieutenant of the Militia Company of this district did refuse to accept of the Commission, and as it was thought Inexpedient to Supercede the Inferior Officers against the General Sence of the Company, it therefore Became the part of prudence to Choose the three Lower Officers anew, We therefore recommend them as duly Elected, agreeable to the Recommendation of the Hon<sup>l</sup> Provenical Congress of this Colony and Return them for Commissions Accordingly, Viz, Tho<sup>s</sup> Mitchell 1st Lieutenant Aspinwell Cornwell 2<sup>d</sup> Lieutenant, Andrew Onderdonck Ensign.

By Order,

BENJ. SANDS, Chairman.

[Mis. Papers, 35 : 563.]

DISTRICT OF COW NECK GREAT NECK, &c., March 9th 1776.

SIR: The committee have received a letter from your honorable body of the 15th of February* & as far as lay in their power complied with its contents—But surely you could have collected more proof than all this? the answer is ready, their meetings were confined to their own party, their conclusions kept as secret as possible added to our living in a remote part of the County rendered our abilities unequal to the task. We are however able to give an imperfect account of our own district wherein lives but one of the prescribed j. e. Daniel Kissam Esq & as this great man has been supposed by many the main spring in keeping up the Divisions in this County it may be a sufficient excuse for our being tedious on this head. We shall therefore with the utmost humility proceed to put our scattered materials in order for the Consideration of your honourable body—soon after this Gent<sup>l</sup> left the Genl. assembly he appears in the light of

Dani. Whitehead A Disperser of the Queens County Freeholder the dissign of this Kissam, Cow paper is glaring on its whole surface.
Neck.

He next appears the author of the Hempstead resolves and as the John Birtis Queens County Freeholder Leveled its whole force at the very essence
Tanner, of Cow of a Continental Congress so these resolves struck at the total over-
Neck. throw of provencial ones.

Henry Stocker & that the Bostonians fired first on the Kings troops, and that more of Capt. Richd. the Bostonians were killed than the Regulars, but as the publick
Thorn, Great prints gave the lye to this proposition it became necessary to erect a Neck. new Battery—hence he asserts.

The newspapers are Lyes, he had private information that might be Obadiah Demelt, depended upon.
Cow Neck.

But this having no other foundation than his own assertion, the means were unequal to the end, here with an air of importance equal to its absurdity asserts.

Capt. McDougal says it is necessary to print untruths to keep up the Anna Repalle, spirits of the people, & Capt. Stephen Thorn is my author who heard Cow Neck. him say so.

The populace took fire like hasty combustibles & altho Capt. Thorn denied the Essential part of the charge yet it was impossible fully to prevent its effects.

Soon after the order of the Respectable Committee of safety for collecting some arms in Queens County this Gentleman attacked the Right.

And openly declared that they were an unconstitutional body who
John Birtis, had no legal existence & that he was determined to resist the order,
Tanner, Cow but had it been the Contential Congress he would have submitted
Neck. publickly for he did not deny their authority but spoke Respectfully of them.

But what is to be done for our friends in Boston the Friends to order and Good Government & Loyal Soldiary that are supporting the rights of the state & the very being of the constitution, who are starving by means of a Restrictiary act, Why this, says He, I'll do.

GARRET ABEEL, Chairman.

Return of Officers for Kings County Regiment.

[Mil. Com. 25: 857; Mil. Ret. 27: 160; Miscel. Papers, 39: 378.]

At a meeting of the Committee of Kings County the 11th of March 1776, Elected the following persons field officers of the Kings County, of Militia, To wit:

Rutgert Van Brunt,	}	Coll	Johaunes Titus, first Major,
&			John Vanderbilt, second ditto,

Reasons assigned by Col<sup>o</sup> Van Brunt for granting Commissions to the Gentlemen appointed by the Field Officers of Kings County to the Company raised by drafting one fourth part of the Militia to serve in Col<sup>o</sup> Smiths Regiment, pursuant to the Resolutions of the Convention of this State of the 20th July last.

1st The field officers exerted themselves to prevail on some of the officers to go Volunteers into that service, but were unsuccessful with them.

2<sup>dly</sup> The Gentlemen nominated by the Committee for that Service, are Volunteers and cheerfully offered their services to their Country in their present stations.

3<sup>dly</sup> The Gentlemen appointed by the Committee are much better qualified for the stations to which they were nominated than most of the officers in that County; those young Gentlemen having besides the advantages of Education, given their attention to perfect themselves in the military art (particularly Mr. David Clarkson, nominated for Captain) which enables them to train and properly discipline their men sooner than officers unacquainted with their Duty.

4th The Officers nominated by the Committee are very acceptable to the Militia they now command; and a good Harmony subsists in the Company, which must evidently be an advantage to the Service.

5th Those Gentlemen have now been for some time past exercising the offices to which they were Nominated, and they have been named both to General Green and Col<sup>o</sup> Smith as the officers of that Company.

6th General Green was much pleased with the nomination of David Clarkson Jun<sup>r</sup> as Captain, and said he was a proper person; and Colonel Smith has declared his full approbation of all the young Gentlemen as officers in his Regiment which has induced them to endeavour to exert themselves in their Duty hitherto.

The Gentlemen nominated and now officiating in that Company, are:

Mr. David Clarkson, Jun<sup>r</sup> Captain.
Mr. Nicholas Van Brunt, 1st Lieutenant.
Mr. Micheal Van Cleef, 2<sup>d</sup> Lieutenant.

Mr. Hermanus Casper to be a Lieutenant to command twenty men if so many should remain to make one fourth part of the militia—he has by the returns about 16 or 17 men.

R. VAN BRUNT.

Officers who refused to enter Voluntarily into the Service:

Rem Williamson, Capt.	Gerritt Williamson, Do.
Jeremiah Vanderbilt, Capt.	Oliver Stombout, Do.
Cornelius Vanderveer, Capt.	Thomas Elsworth, Do.
Hermanus Bairacks Low, Lieut. [Barkulo.]	Peter Lefferts, Do.
Adrian Hagerman, Do.	John Vandine, Do.

I do hereby Certify that David Clarkson was appointed a Captain, Nicholas Van Brunt first Lieutenant, and Michael Van Clief 2nd Lieutenant of a Company belonging to Col<sup>o</sup> Josiah Smith's Regiment, and Hermanus Casper a Lieutenant for 20 men for the same Regiment, none of the Militia Officers consenting to serve. The above appointment was made by the Field Officers of my Regiment.

[Mil. Ret. 32: 130.]

To the Honorable the Provintial Congress for the City and County of New York.

GENTLEMEN: At the request of Colonel Drake I beg leave to acquaint you I have now eighty-two gun<sup>s</sup> unspiked and within three weeks from this date doubt not but I shall be able to Compleat the whole.

Though, gentelmen, pleas to observe the assistance I expected to have from Mr. Bartly's Gard I could not obtain, they Declaring their agreement with M<sup>r</sup> Bartley was to gard the guns from seven o'clock in the evening to six in the morning for which they received 10 shillings per week per man and find themselves, the Gard consists of six men. Being thus Dissapointed was oblig'd to give one of his Gard's thirty-six shillings per week, and others at that rate accationly, to assist in the fires which is generally composed of two or three cords of wood in which the guns is to be raised and tended both night and day in order to soften the spikes.

My Brother who left the Cannon last Thursday informs me the assistance of gard<sup>s</sup> was ask'd in moving the guns from M<sup>r</sup> William's and Dinied and countenas'd by M<sup>r</sup> Bartley.

Therefore, gentelmen, beg leaf to offer my service once more to gard the guns which I am willing to do, at one half of what M<sup>r</sup> Bartley gets whils<sup>t</sup> I am unspikeing the cannon, and as much longer as you shall think fit as their is a number of cannons not spiked but loaded and stopped with stones and other Rubbish, at the same time mean to employ such men for gard<sup>s</sup> as will Clear the guns and fit them for service. Concius under such a circumstance the Buisness will not want assistanc nor unworthey men receive your favor. From your obedient and hum<sup>ble</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

MARBLETOWN, March 1776.

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress for the Province of New York,

The Petition of Jasiah Roberson, Johannis Tack, &c., of Marbletown, in the County of Ulster and Province of New York, Humbly Sheweth, That whereas the township of Marbleton formerly contained a sufficient number of men for three distinct companies of Militia which altho' Encreased Since that time, was by the committee of said town for Local conveniences only Divided into two Beats or Districts and Now forms two companeys of upwards of one Hundred men each, And whereas certain Dissatisfactions have arisen about the choice of a Cap<sup>t</sup> in the South West district of said township, which we Humbly conceive may have an evil tendency to disunite the good people of this town, if some suitable remedy be not applied in time.

And whereas it is judged that the most effectual method for removing Dissatisfactions from amongst us would be for to raise a company of Granadiers under the command of Charles W. Brodhead Capt<sup>s</sup>; Jacob Delamater 1st Lieutenant; Moses M. Cantine 2nd Lieut., and Jacob Chambers Ensin.

We therefore (having obtained the previous approbation of the commanding officer of this Regiment together with y<sup>e</sup> committee and y<sup>e</sup> officers of y<sup>e</sup> militia of said township) Humbly pray that we may be Imbodyed into a company of Granadiers in said Regiment, and that the said Charles W. Brodhead, Jacob Delamater, Moses M. Cantine and Jacob Chambers may be commissioned as above mentioned, and your petitioners shall ever pray.

The Humble Petition of Bernard Romans sheweth, That your humble petitioner was sometime since at Philadelphia with the honourable the Continental Congress upon the Business of his then office, & that he then and there had the pleasure to meet with an entire approbation of his conduct.

GENTLEMEN: Conscious of my own Innocence as to acting any ways deragatory from the rules established by the Congress, I am embolden'd to flatter myself my Crime cannot be of so heinous a nature but that my present Punishment is sufficient, I have been now confined upwards of one Hundred Days without the least prospect of enlargement on the one hand, and my inevitable ruin on the other, had I ever directly or indirectly been employed in the present unhappy Contest, I should not have murmer'd, but on bare suspision to be sent away from my Friends, and the means of support, surely is cruel, the term limited by the Honourable the Continental Congress for a Capital Offender is but three months Imprisonment, that time (if I am made to appear in that light) is expired. All I crave is Liberty to return to my native Country in order to live peaceably if possible, or should not that be agreeable, permission to seek a living within any bounds you may think proper to allow, and on the breach of such restriction, my life shall pay the forfeit. Should I be so happy to merit your attention it shall ever with a most grateful Heart be acknowledged by Petition of Samuel Loudon, Printer.

[Petitions, 32; 110.]

To the Honourable the Committee of Safety of the Colony of New York.

The memorial of Samuel Loudon of the City of New York printer Sheweth,

That some weeks ago a manuscript composed by a gentleman at some considerable distance, and sent in order to be printed here in Answer to the celebrated pamphlet entitled Common Sense, was put into my hands by a gentleman of this City who desired me to print it. As a publication of this nature required mature deliberation, I did not incline nor did the gentleman require me to comply with his proposal till I should be convinced that the manuscript was written with decency, or did not express or even imply any disapprobation of the proceedings of the Honourable Continental Congress or the glorious Cause, in defence of which Americans are spending their blood and treasure. Being satisfied as to these particulars, I agreed to print the Manuscript on my own account.

Having made some progress in printing off the sheets, I advertised the publication of the pamphlet in M<sup>r</sup> Gaines Gazette not imagining that any offence could Justly be taken by my fellow citizens. But to my great surprize, I soon found that the advertisement had given disgust to some of the Inhabitants, who highly resented it. On the evening of the 18th ult<sup>o</sup> I received a message to attend on the Committee of Mechanics: I attended accordingly and was interrogated by M<sup>r</sup> Christopher Duyckinck the chairman. "Who was the Author of the manuscript I was printing, and who gave it to me." I told them I did not know the Author, and that I got the manuscript from a Gentleman of this city, whose name in my opinion they had no right to demand. Displeased at this reply, they threatened to burn the Pamphlets blaiming me in strong terms for printing it. I expostulated with them on the impropriety of condemning a book before they had read it, proposed to send them the sheets that were printed, for their perusal, and to refer the whole affair to the Committee of Safety, and abide by their determination. They did not however think it proper to regard any of my proposals, but sent six of their number to my House who nailed and sealed up the printed sheets in boxes except a few which were drying in an empty House, which they locked, and took the key with them. The following evening they returned the Key and informed me that they had referred the matter to the General Committee of Inspection. Same evening I received a note to wait on that committee: I attended, and was informed by the chairman, Col. Broome, that a complaint had been prepared against me for printing An Answer to the pamphlet intituled Common Sense, and the committee advised me not to persist in publishing it at present, as my personal safety might be indangered. I thanked the committee and promised to comply with their advice. This availed nothing for my security, for some time after 10 o'clock the same night, the before mentioned M<sup>r</sup> Duyckinck without any commission from the Committee, attended by a considerable number, to appearance more than forty persons, who rushed into my House, some of them ran up stairs to the Printing Office (while others guarded the Door) and took away the whole impression of said Pamphlets being about 1500, which at a very moderate calculation amounts to £75. They carried them to the Commons and there burnt them as I have been informed.

Your Memorialist conceiving the above mentioned Transactions a violent infraction of the Liberty of the Press and an unjustifiable attack on his private property; Prays that the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee will take such measures, and give directions in the premises as may secure the liberty of the Press, protect private property, prevent such insults for the future, and enable your Memorialist to recover damages adequate to the injuries he has sustained. And your memorialist, &c.

[Mil. Commit. 25: 684, 736, 740.]

LITTLE NINE PARTNERS, April 10, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: In compliance with the Request of the Committe of Safety, I applyed to M<sup>r</sup> Moses Harris who undertook to make discovery of some Lead Mines in the Nine Partners.

M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Donald and myself accompanied him to a Lime Stone Hill, where about 20 years since a Company of adventurers had sunk several shafts or pits in quest of copper as I am informed. M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Donald made several tryals and Discoverys both of Lead and Copper, and has drawn a Report the truth of which as far as I could judge may be depended on. We also applyed to one M<sup>r</sup> Fish on whose Land M<sup>r</sup> Harris had made an advantageous discovery of Lead, for Leave to dig but he would not gratify us, so that M<sup>r</sup> Harris' chief Discovery was not explored by M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Donald. I am told the mines are now the property of a Company and that some of the family of the late Coll. Hoofman, a M<sup>r</sup> Bogart and Tiebout of New York are some of them of whom it is probable the Committee may be informed of every particular. I am,

Your most Humble Servant,

To the Committee of Safety, New York.

JONTH LANDON.

Report.

To the Honourable Provincial Congress or Committee of Safety for the Province of New York.

I John M<sup>c</sup>Donald, miner, who was appointed by your Honours with the most punctual Instructions relative to Lead Mines, accordingly have performed in Compliance with the Request which contained in said Instructions therefore proceeded with all convenient Dispatch to the Little nine partners where with Care full Complied and prepared myself with all Sincerity in working & Examining for lead & Copper in order to bring the true information of the State and Quality of the same which at Large Reported as Specified in the following manner.

Jonathan Landon Esq<sup>r</sup> to whome I was recommended to for directions Conducted me to a Lime Stone Hill wher at Random took the Demention from the North East to the South West being one mile in Length Included from both fallings of the ground in each end of said Hill the Breadth is half a mile and about 40 Rods Height there I found said mines the Veins of Ore in which appear inclining or lying west & East in Ledges of lime Stone mixed with white flint. Some years ago a company of adventurers had sunk several pits or shafts in persuite of lead and Copper and that amongst the tryals are two pits one of which is 15 foot deep The other is 50 foot Deep and in the bottom of said pits left a promising discovery of about 7 inches Diameter Solid Ore and that of a continued vein Unfortunate the Company being under the necessity of giving up their proceedings on account of the under water Rising anent which we are fully informed of all the particulars by Mr. Harris. The principale method of preventing the Damage done by the water is to drive a level from its advantageous situation to the discoveries made which will clear away the water The Timber which supported the pits from the beginning of sinking broke by the age and want of Repairing thereby is fill to the Top with Rubbage &c: Mr. Harris undertook Chearfully to make discovery of Lead therefore the said Jonathan Landon Esq<sup>r</sup> Applied to one Mr. Fish on whose property Mr. Harris has made a prosperous Discovery of Lead for leave to open & search the ground but he instrumented the freedom of breaking the ground so that Mr. Harris's best discovery was not Explored. I made tryals in several places and discovered a Small quantity of lead Ore in each Vein The Bounds wherein the Mines lye is extraordinary well situated for pursuing the necessary tryals according to minery. The above mentioned Length, Breadth and Height will be a sufficient Declaration to any person that proposes to have a particular Skill & Knowledge in Conducting lead mines Regularly in all its Branches. My Sincere advice to your hon<sup>rs</sup> is to employ some hands and provide them with tools in order to clear & Draw the Rubbage &c out from the said two pits and supporting them well with Timber and by accomplishing the Clearings of Rubbage from these shafts will make your honours to have the satisfaction to know the thruth of Mr. Harrisses description if it approves to be depended on The Workmen must prepare to procecute the Discovery of the said lead mines according to the Directions of the Inspector appointed and if it be carried on properly they will follow my foresaid directions. I surveyed some mines near marble town which is not worthy to Report I am fully informed by Severals that there is a good mine explored in Rod Chester Patent in Ulster County which a company of adventurers wrought at about 50 years ago and that they rised some Hundred Tons of lead Ore the full truth of which mine Colonel Pallen Chairman to the Committee Board of Marble Town was to Acquaint your honours the common part of the neighbouring Inhabitants was declaring their Seeing two foot Diamater of Solid Ore and great many tryals made your honors may or may not carry on these tryals to execution all can be said that such promissing discoveries likely for the publick good ought not to remain dead and useless in the Bowels of the Earth without tryals to be properly executed.

All which is humbly submitted by Your Honours' Most Obedient and Humble Servant,

JOHN M<sup>c</sup>DONALD, Miner.

Reflections on the Crime of Pamphlet burning. By SAMUEL LOUDON.

[Petitions, 32: 147.]

I would not anticipate the reflections that will natively arise in the mind of every candid and dispartionate reader of the plain and impartial narrative I have given in the memorial to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee of Safety but Justice to the public and myself requires me to subjoin a few remarks.

As the question concerning American Independence, hath not to the best of knowledge been decided by the Continental Congress nor by any legal subordinate convention, there can be no criminality in publishing the arguments for and against it; and as it is a question of the greatest importance it should not be decided before the arguments are fully discussed.

Though a formal answer to the pamphlet intituled, Common Sense hath been published in Philadelphia,* the printer hath not fell under the resentment of the Continental Congress, which is a decisive evidence that the Representatives of North America do not Judge him to be a transgressor. My zealous, well meaning, misguided oponents would have acted a consistent part had they paid a due deference to the wisdom and good sense of that Honourable Body of men, whom they have solemnly promised to support, by suspending all proceedings against me till the Philadelphia printer had been called to account, and condemned by them.

The public will determine whether by not suffering any other person to publish their sentiments but the Author of the above mentioned pamphlet, and such as have adopted his way of thinking, many thousands of steady friends to the common cause of America are not deprived of one of their essential priviledges the liberty of declaring their opinion upon a subject of the greatest moment and in which they are unspeakably more interested than the supposed Author of that Pamphlet.

It is at any rate self evident that if any set of unauthorised men shall be permitted to assume the power of legislating for their fellow citizens, and punishing them as they please, our legal conventions and committees, with all the precious liberties for which we are contending will be in effect annihilated, and we will be in a more miserable slavery than would arise from the most successful exertion of all the tyranic acts of the British parliament.

The freedom of the press is now insulted and infringed by some zealous advocates for liberty. A few more nocturnal assaults upon printers may totally destroy it, and America in consequence may fall a sacrifice to a more fatal despotism than that with which we are threatned.

I have no consciousness of guilt in the affair for which I have been persecuted. It is well known that I have always been a steady friend to the liberties of America, and I am resolved to risque my all in their defence, and Chearfully submit to every determination of the Continental Congress, of the provincial Congress of this Colony and the general Committee of this City, that is not contrary to the Dictates of religion, Justice, and humanity; hoping at the same time that the reputation of American Councils will never be contaminated by any determination of such an iniquitious kind. I only claim common Justice; and desire that for the future all political publication issued from my press be legally and impartially tried by the publicly avowed principles of the Colonies met in CONTINENTAL CONGRESS. If at any time I shall publish principles opposite to these under any other predicament than that of common news, let me be treated with all the severity which an enemy to his country deserves.

GENTLEMEN: In obedience to a Letter and Resolve of Congress of the 4th of March Last I have enclosed to you a state of my Regement, and Lament that I was not able to Do it sooner and that they are not better acquiped (but as Necessity Covers Many Wants) I hope the Committee will impute the Latter, to that, and the Impossibility of obtaining some of the Necessary Articles Rather than their want of Zeal for the Cause.

I have not the Least Reason to Doubt the Willingness of my officers and soldiers to March on the shortest Notice But am Sorry to Informe you that the Regiment Seems to have a general aversion to the Minute Service, that a great Deal of Pains has been taken by My Captains to turn out their proportion of Minute Men by Volenterry Inlistments but to no purpose and to Draft, Gentlemen, must be an arduous task to an officer While a general Reluctance prevails among the people, have Therefore omitted it at the present, and if it must be Done, hope the Committee will favour me with a Line to that purpose.

You will Pardon the Digression gentlemen In my saying that I am much afraid the good End the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Continental Congress had in Veiw will never be well answered in the Minute Men — if they go on in general throughout The Confederated Colonies as they have Ever Done in this part of Orange County I think I Dare without the Spirit of Propheesy say We must not lay any great Stress on what they will Do for Us in the present Contest. All of which is Humbly Submitted.

I have the Honnour to be Respectfully Gentlemen your obedient and very Humble Ser<sup>ts</sup>

DEAR SIR: I take this oppertunity per Lieutenant Roe to inform you that we held our Elections to chose a Deputy for the next Convention day before yesterday and chose Archebald Little, Esq<sup>r</sup> for Cornwal Precinct; who is chosen in Goshen I know not.

Sir, you may remember that not long since I wrote a line to the Committee in behalf of Lieut. Roe, he is down now on the same Business as he wants to know what he may depend on as the Season of the year is far advanced. I think if there is a vacancy he is as suitable a man for Captain as I could Recommend in the County if it should be agreeable to you I hope you will give him both your advice and assistance if he should succeed, it is likely he will inform as to under officers. Sir, pardon my boldness, and permit me with great Esteem to subscribe myself, Your most Humble Servant,

[Petitions, 32: 167.]

To the Honorable the Committe of Safety for the Colony of New York.

The Memorial of John Dunlap of the City of New York, Humbly Showeth,

That your Memorialist is desirous to demonstrate his attachment to the Liberties and cause of his Country in any manner in which he may be most servicable to the public weal.

That he has spent upwards of three weeks at the public works in and about this city, until the Inhabitants were dismissed that service.

That your Petitioner has been many years engaged in such Business as habituated him to accounts, and flatters himself that he might be useful to the public in any station that required his attention in that way.

That the number of his family and his circumstances are such as require that the fruits of his service might render a small allowance towards their support.

Your memorialist humbly prays that the Honorable Committee will be pleased to apoint him to any such station or employment as they may think fit, and judge him qualified to execute for the Benefit of his country and consistant with circumstances above mentioned.

And your memorialist shall ever pray,

NEW YORK, April 21st 1776.

Alexander Moncrieff to Colonel McDougall.

[Petitions, 32: 145.]

NEW YORK, 24 April, 1776.

HONOURABLE S<sup>r</sup>: I went according to your direction to Col<sup>o</sup> Mefflin I gave your Compliments to the Col<sup>o</sup> Desiring if he would be pleased to hear my Complaint on the Provost Martiall of the Army and to give me Redress for the abuse he gave me, His Honour was pleas'd to say he would look into it, & put a stop to the rude proceedings of s<sup>d</sup> Provost Martiall.

Whether Col<sup>o</sup> Mefflin has spoke to him on that subject I cannot tell, but still the s<sup>d</sup> Provost goes on at me, with most scandalous Abuse that the Like I never gott since ever I could remember myself. So much of this Abuse proceeds from Clashes & Lies that Tho<sup>o</sup> Varnom, Hatter, now a Prisoner in Jail told on me to the s<sup>d</sup> Provost, That when I had the Prisoners in charge that I us'd them ill & Barbarously Abused them, likewise Drew money from the Treasury for Prisoners & never gave s<sup>d</sup> moneys to them but they were obliged to mantain themselves This the Provost Martiall Obruids me with, in a clamorous & santerick manner by the bare report of that Infamous Liar Varnom, & when this matter is try'd and examin'd I will prove s<sup>d</sup> Varnom to be an Infamous Fellow, and for my part is confident that I am Innocent of what is laid to my charge and will prove myself to be a Person faithfull to Trust & an Honest man.

Requesting of your Honour to Bring this matter to a triall or examination. The Provost Martiall is very much Concern'd about Varnom he finds a vast many faults with the Committee of Safety for Detaining of s<sup>d</sup> Varnom in Prison & promise him that he will Apply to the Commander in chief for his Enlargement on Releasement out of Prison.

I am your most obedient servt

Petition of Dirck Lefferts.

[Petitions, 32 : 45.]

To the Deputies of the several Counties of the province of New York in the Honorable provincial Congress or Committee of Safety of the said province.

The memorial of Dirck Lefferts of the city of New York, Merchant Sheweth,

That sometime in the month of February last past a party of the Minute Men of the County of West Chester under the Command of Colonel Drake came to the Country house of your memorialist and upwards of thirty of them were quartered upon him at his house where he frequently furnished them with many necessaries and conveniencies Viz<sup>t</sup> firewood, Vegetables, Cyder &c. That the said men have Continued at his said house untill now, or very lately. That after they had been there for some time the said men by order of Engineer Smith (as he supposes) went upon the woodland of your memorialist, which he had purchased for his own particular use, to supply his Family with firewood : and Cut down and destroyed a great part of the trees then growing on the said Land and almost entirely ruined the young wood there. And though the said wood may have been cut down to be used in building the Fort at Hoornshook (as your memorialist supposes it was) Yet as he has sustained great loss and been put to great expense by the said Men having been quartered upon him and having cut down and destroyed his wood whereby greater part of the Burthen hath fallen upon him than is his part in proportion with his fellow citizens He prays the Congress or Committee of safety to take the Matter into their Consideration and to grant him such redress and Compensation as they in their discretion may think Reasonable and adequate to the Loss and damage he hath sustained.

THOMAS VERNON.

(Indorsed.) Petition of Tho<sup>s</sup> Vernon, a very wicked prisoner.Order to put Counterfeiters in Irons, and their Examination.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 617; 35: 634.]

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this Congress that Isriel Youngs Isaac Youngs Henry Dawkins & Isaac Ketchum committed to the custody of Guards appointed by General Washington at the request of divers members of this Congress on suspicion of counterfeiting the Continental money & that of the neighbouring Colonies are meditating their escape—

Ordered that the said Persons be forthwith put in Irons & kept in the place where they now are & that the Guards be directed not to permit any person to have access to them without license from this Congress till the further order of this Congress.

May 1776.

Isaac Youngs Examined says that he did suspect that Dawkins was making money—That his Brother Isrel once told him that Dawkins said he could make money—That he then told his Brother that he would not pass any of it or Countenance it—That his Brother said the same—That one day saw Dawkins have a piece of Copper in his hand but never saw him Engraving—That he the Examinant knew nothing of the rolling press until it was found by Cap<sup>t</sup> Wool & his party.

Philip Youngs being Examined says, that Dawkins was mostly employed in Drawing pictures for Children—That he does not know that Brown printed any Bills for any person—That he asked Brown whether he could not print a little congress money That Brown said he could if he had a press but looked on it to be a great sin, That he enquired what a press would Cost That Brown said about 30 or £40 That Brown said he could not cut the plates—That he the Examinant said if Dawkins could cut the plates he could not print the Bills—that the Examinant did tell Brown to consider of it and say nothing about the affair—That all this was meerly to try Brown as he had suspected him because he was a printer & Dawkins had said he could cut the plates to make any money.

That his father owns one Quarter of the Mills, & Israel Youngs & Isaac Youngs each a Quarter & John Hulet a fourth part.

Israel Youngs being examined says that he never had any hand in Counterfeiting money—That he suspected Henry Dawkins was about Counterfeiting money—1st Because he sent by him to New York for a rolling press & 2nd Because he once a Bill in the Chamber laying on a Bed unsigned—That it was a 40s Connecticut Bill—That he never asked Dawkins any Questions about it That Dawkins paid him the most part of his money which became due for his Boarding, paid him mostly in Contentental money, and Boarded with him near two months—That he never saw him engraving—That he was frequently drawing pictures—That he the Examinant offered one 40s Bill in payment to a woman in New York for some Tea which she suspected & which he took home again That he does not know of whom he received that Bill That the Door leading to the Stairs to go where the press was put, was made before he Knew the House—That the Stairs were there also before he came to that house.

The Letter Henry Dawkins sent for the press was signed by the name of Cox—That he the Examinant did not inform Woolhaupter that the person who wrote the Letter was not named Cox—That Dawkins sent forty Shillings for the press which the Examinant then paid & and when he rec<sup>d</sup> the press paid the residue—That the press cost Eleven pounds twelve Shillings—That Dawkins has not repaid him what he advanced for the press.

Protest of William Raddon.

North Carolina, }
Edenton. } ss.

By this public Instrument of Protest and writing, bearing date hereafter mentioned, Be it known and manifest to all whom it may concern, that on the twenty-fifth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-six, Before Me Thomas Jones notary Tabellion Public residing at Edenton, in the province aforesaid, by lawful authority duly admitted and sworn according to Law personally appeared William Raddon, late master of the sloop Joseph, and made oath on the holy evangelists of Almighty God before me as notary aforesaid, that on the ninth day of January last past, He, this deponent sailed with the said sloop Joseph, from the city of Philadelphia bound to Savanah in the province of Georgia, and proceeded down to Reedy Island in the river of Delaware, where the navigation was obstructed by the Ice untill the eleventh day of february last past, when this deponent sailed with the said sloop Joseph on his intended Voyage. That early in the morning of the thirteenth day of the same month the said sloop Joseph then being in the Latitude of 35 d. 10 m, and about fifteen leagues from the land, this deponent discovered a Vessel on the weather quarter steering down for her, That this deponent made immediately all the sail he could from the said Vessel, and it being smooth water ran very fast from her, That in the afternoon it fell calm when this deponent discovered a boat rowing from the said Vessel (she then being about a league astern) and about five o'clock in the evening the said boat came along side the said sloop Joseph, That this deponent hailed the people on board the said boat and requested to know what was the Vessel astern, they informed him she was the armed sloop, General Gage, Commanded by George Sibles, bound from Boston to Cape fear, and then immediately boarded the said sloop Joseph, being eight in number compleatly armed with muskets and Cutlasses. That as soon as they got on board the officer who Commanded them ordered this deponent to get into the boat and go on board the said sloop General Gage with his papers, which this deponent accordingly did. That when this deponent got on board the same, he delivered his papers to the Commanding officer who after perusing them told this deponent that the said sloop Joseph was a good prize "papers or no papers" as he had orders to seize every vessel he met with on his passage, and then directed this deponent to remain on board the said sloop General Gage where this deponent was put into the hold with the Common seamen. That on the same evening the mate and seamen belonging to the said sloop Joseph were taken out of her and put on board the said sloop General Gage, and a mate and six men were sent on board the said sloop Joseph to navigate her into Cape fear. That on the twenty-first day of the same month the said sloop General Gage got into Cape fear river, and on the twenty-second of the same month the said sloop Joseph also arrived and was moored under the guns of the Faulcon sloop of War, Commanded by John Linzee then Commodore of the fleet laying at Fort Johnson. That the next day after the arrival of the said sloop Joseph, one John Collett who came passenger in the said sloop General Gage from Boston, and who, as this deponent was informed, had a commission as Captain of "loyal sensible Americans" went on board the said sloop Joseph with the commander of the said sloop General Gage, and broke open the hold of the said sloop Joseph and took out a butt of porter, a parcel of loaf sugar and cheese, that a few days after the purser of the Scorpion sloop of War came down from Brunswick with an order from Josiah Martin, Esquire, late Governor and Commander-in-chief of the province aforesaid, to take a large quantity of provisions out of the said sloop Joseph, being part of the cargo of the same. That this deponent remained a prisoner on board the said sloop General Gage until the fourth day of March instant, when he made his escape with Joseph Wood, part owner of the said sloop Joseph, and several other persons who had been detained prisoners with this deponent by special orders given by the aforesaid John Linzee to the Commander of the said sloop General Gage.

Wherefore the said William Raddon late master aforesaid, before me did protest against the said George Sibles Commander of the said sloop General Gage the said John Collett, the said John Linzee Commander of the Faulcon sloop of War, and the said Josiah Martin, late Governor and Commander-in-chief of the province aforesaid, and all other persons with them concerned for all losses, costs and damages whatsoever, that hath or may accrew to the owners, Freighters or insurers, or any person or persons whatsoever concerned in the said sloop Joseph and the Cargo on Board the same for the reasons herein before mentioned. Whereupon I the said Thomas Jones notary as aforesaid at the instance and request of the said William Raddon, did and do hereby solemnly and in due form sign and attest this present protest of, for, and concerning all and singular, the premisses aforesaid in the particular manner herein before mentioned and expressed as if the same were herein again particularly mentioned and repeated.

NEW YORK, 7th May 1776.

Honourable Gentlemen of this Proventional Congress or Committee of Saffety.

This I am to acquaint you That I am under the necessity of Resigning the office of being your Jail Keeper, which this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board Confer'd on me the 24th Aprile .776, where I do Return my sincere thanks to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board for the preferment.

Be pleas'd to give me an audience befor this Honourable Convention, & I will give my Candid Reason for my desire of Resigning—

Joseph Blanchard to Committee of Safety.

[Petitions, 32: 93.]

NEW YORK, May 7th 1776.

Gentlemen of the Committee of safety now convened in the city of New York.

As I am under an accusation of carrying on a communication with some of the persons on board the ships lying near sandy hook, I hope you will Indulge me in laying the matter before you which I will do according to the Best of my remembrance, Cap<sup>t</sup> Darby's Evidence which you have minuted is very Just as to what I said about there being a Comunication from Persons in this city to those ships, if he said any thing about my sending Books on Board that is wrong for I neither bought or sent any nor anything else Except a small memo<sup>m</sup> Blank Book  $\frac{1}{2}$ ° Goose quills & one small Bottle Turlington's Balsam which I sent Col<sup>l</sup> Fanning by M<sup>r</sup> Nixon—The Books were bo<sup>t</sup> of one Green by the Col<sup>l</sup> negrow as I have learn't today from M<sup>rs</sup> Hatch I never saw them but heard her say they were sent while M<sup>r</sup> Nixon went on board the Dutchess, I often wrote to Col<sup>l</sup> Fanning my letters were always delivered to him open nor did I ever send one to him sealed since he went on Board, the last Letter I rec<sup>d</sup> from him is dated the 20th april (I think) and Inelo<sup>d</sup> an order I had sent to receive some money for me from one Pell who I tho<sup>t</sup> was on board the Asia I gave an order to this Pell to Receive of M<sup>r</sup> Banyar and bring to me £15 expecting him back Imediately with the money But instead of bringing me the money he went on Board the Asia as I learn'd afterwards by the man, that Caryed him—By the last letter I rec<sup>d</sup> from the Col<sup>l</sup>° I had some small hopes of getting the money which was the occasion of my sending him the Last Letter Inclosing the order as before and the map he wrote for which letter contained nothing but a Desire to him to use his utmost to get that money and to send up a return of a warrant of Survey executed by M<sup>r</sup> Banker and myself I did not think there was any harm in this small piece of negociation as not one word was wrote about anything but about the money the return of Survey that his Deed was ready for him and that I hoped he had rec<sup>d</sup> the quills, &c. Not one word of News or anything about Polliticks was ever hinted in any letter either from him to me or me to him in any letter that ever passed between us as to the Governor I never wrote him one word nor never rec<sup>d</sup> any kind of message from him of any kind whatsoever Cap<sup>n</sup> Gibbs says I could tell what I was arrested for though he never mentioned anything of the reason to me. When he was examining over my papers he saw a letter Directed to the Governor which he spoke something about and viewed it with more attention than he had other papers and my calling to mind the Discourse I had with Cap<sup>t</sup> Darby and that I had sent letters on board Concluded it must be that. That I had carry'd on a Correspondence on board is not deny'd but then it will not follow that it was criminal unless it was so, in sending the Last letter after the committee had resolved to the contrary he also mentions that he found in my room General Sulevans Marching Orders—That is true and at first I did not Recollect much about it but after a Little while I remembered that I picked it up in Lieu<sup>t</sup> Fishers House which was much frequented by the Jersee officers what Led me to look on it particularly was my seeing General Sullivans name to it and as I knew him when he was a young man I Look'd to see the hand writing, I have not the Least remembrance of Putting it into my Pocket nor do Remember anything of it afterwards till I saw it on the Table when M<sup>r</sup> Gibbs found it but this I can Positively declare that I never did nor tho' of making any kind of use of it in any respect except it was just to look it over out of curiosity nor do I conceive what use could be made of it that could not have been as well affected without it, for those orders were as publick as anything in town nor was the Least scersey observed about them the Business wrote about to Lord Sterling I affected by letter to Col<sup>l</sup> Fanning so Major Roger said there was no occasion of Delivering it. I knew the contents and went several times to my Lord on purpose to deliver him the letter but could not see him. As to my using the officers ill that informed against me (If I did) it was occasioned by my being confined in such a manner that had any of them Come to me for information about conveyance I wou'd have Freely given them all the information I was possess'd of which in short I had done before which I tho' they would not have disputed on the Least Reflection on the openness which appeared in me in our Former Conversation on that head. My ill Treatment of them is much Exaggerated neither were they altogether silent in their retorts, as to every Tittle of what I have wrote above I can be quallify'd to the truth and will if Deser<sup>d</sup>.

That when any man's tryal depends on his own Confession the whole should be taken and not any one part. My political principals are kown by some of this Committee and I defy Even Envy it self to say that I ever said or did any thing Dissapproving of the measures now persuing by the Continant to Free America from the oppression designed her by Great Britain, but always tho' and often said that the American Opposition was Just and hartily wish'd it success. I will cheerfully attend the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Committee whenever they shall see fit and give any satisfaction to them in my power Concerning these matters and Rest their most obed<sup>t</sup> and most humble ser<sup>t</sup>,

JOSEPH BLANCHARD.

Your Supplicant Humbly beg<sup>s</sup> the Hon<sup>ble</sup> House would give him such a Certificate as he may pass unmolested with his Merchandize, and in Duty bound shall every pray.

William Floyd to John McKesson.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9th 1776.

DEAR SIR: I have this morning Received a letter from Thomas Everit acquainting that he was offering to his Creditors the payment of one-half down provided he could have letter of licence for two years and half, if there is no better chance and the Creditors in General agree to it, I believe you had as good do it in my behalf, but I leave the matter wholly with you to conduct it as you would your own, and I shall be content. Two men of war yesterday came up the River with some tenders and prize vessels with them between Wilmington and Chester, they were met by 13 Roagalleys of this place when a Battle Ensued which lasted most all the afternoon, with very heavy firing on both sides. I have not heard the Galleys have suffered any dammage. The Roe Buck which is the largest Ship was obliged to stop the Bullet holes around her side and at highwater ran aground, while the men of war was Engaged. Our vessel the (Wasp) went out of Wilmington River and Retook one of the prize vessels. The Provence ship mounting 16 or 18 guns, full maned, is gone to the assistance of the Galleys—we have no news this morning from them—but expect every moment to hear.

The preparations which are making by our Enemies on the other side the water, from the Intelligence we have, appear to be very Considerable, which makes it necessary that all the Collonies should be in a situation best calculated to Exert its whole strength.

I think it cannot be long before our Provencial Congress will think it necessary to take up some more stable form of Government than what is now Exercised in that provence.—the two Carolina<sup>s</sup> have done it—and Virginea I expect will soon do the same.

As to Commissioners coming to treat of peace we have little or no hopes of it, therefore we ought to be in a situation to preserve our Liberties another way—my complements to all friends.

I am Sir, Your most Obed<sup>t</sup>

Provincial Congress to the Committee of Queen's County.

GENTLEMEN: Being informed that the Inhabitants of your County have appointed a County Committee, and that Committees are likewise chosen in several Districts, for the Purpose of carrying into Execution the Resolutions of the Continental and this Congress—and considering the absolute necessity of having all the Friends of the Country in a Capacity of defending it and themselves against the relentless Hand of Tyranny. We do earnestly recommend it to you to use all possible Diligence in forming the Inhabitants of your County who have signed the Association and are friendly to the American Cause into Military Companies and Regiments according to the Resolves of the Provincial Congress for regulating the military of this Colony—and that you recommend to us as soon as possible suitable persons for field officers—and a Major of Brigade.

We are, Gentlemen, with the greatest Respect, Your very Humble Servants.

By order.

May 12th 1776.

May it please your Excellency :

I make bold to acquaint your Excellency that being the Officer of the Guard at the Old City Hall over the prisoners confined by order of the Provincial Congress, I was very disagreeably surprised by a very tumultuous noise ; occasioned by the Mob bringing a certain Charles Oliver Bruff, on suspision of being a Tory, who is now in my custody, but as I have no orders to receive him the said Bruff, most humbly refer the matter to your Excellency for further orders. Your Excellency Complying with my Request will greatly oblige your Excellency's most devoted Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

PETER CLAYES,

Petition of William Duer.

[Petitions, 32: 85.]

To the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the President and Members of the Provincial Convention of the Province of New York.

The Humble Petition of William Duer of the County of Charlotte humbly sheweth,

That your Petitioner on the 16th of April last was regularly chosen one of the Deputies to represent this County in Provincial Convention for the ensuing year by a very large Body of the principal Freeholders and Freemen who have all signed the General association and are unfeignedly attached to the cause of American Liberty.

That John Williams, Alexander Webster and William Malcolm (of New York) have been likewise chosen for Deputies in several Districts and that the Elections in none of the Districts where such persons were chosen were held either on the Day or in the manner appointed by the Provincial Regulation of the 12th of March last, but, that on the contrary the most malicious Falsehoods, Arts & Threats were made use of to influence the minds of the Electors by the very persons who held the poll in some Districts and that many persons were admitted to vote by no means qualified as the law directs.

That the Committee of the County of Charlotte met on the 1st of May and notwithstanding the Irregularity of the Election in the Districts of New perth, Skeens borough, Black Creek and Granville, they decided the election in favor of the persons above mentioned without waiting for the poll lists from several Townships in which your Petitioner was elected or granting a scrutiny agreeable to his earnest application although the union of the County much depended on an impartial Decision of the merits of this election.

That the only reason which your petitioner has ever heard offer'd for this precipitate step, was the non attendance of the Members for the Districts of Kingsbury &c in order to produce their Poll lists on the first of May although no positive order to that effect was (as your petitioner is credibly informed) at the preceding meeting of the 29th March ever entered in the minutes of the Committee. A strange Conclusion! from which it may be inferr'd that the orders of the Committee however irregularly specified are to be inexorably observ'd like the laws of the Medes and Persians even at the Hazard of the union of the County whilst the positive Ordinances of your honourable Body may be dispens'd with by the mere caprice by the Chairman of the County Committee.

Your Petitioner further begs leave to represent, that some members of the County Committee instead of Judges made themselves Parties to the merits of the election by which means the Jealousies and Dissentions which have arisen in this County from the designs of turbulent, interested, and ambitious persons and from an inadequate Representation of the Freeholders, and Freemen in the County Committee have much increased.

That your Petitioner at the earnest request of several of the Principal Freeholders and Freemen of this County offer'd himself a Candidate to represent the min Convention flattering himself that from an impartial Representation of the Political management of affairs in this County, the inhabitants might be rescu'd from that anarchy and oppression with which they are threatened.

That the most wicked and false aspersions have been thrown out to discourage his exertions by the arts and Influence of men who are strangers to integrity and the true Principles of Civil liberty and that the Committee have unhappily given their sanction to such unworthy attempts. That your Petitioner is nevertheless conscious of his zealous attachment to the Grand Cause and Pledges himself to prove to the satisfaction of your honorable House the Truth of these assertions and the Purity of his zeal for the happiness and union of this County.

He therefore humbly prays that the Deputies now offering themselves for this County may not be permitted to take their seats in your honorable House as the legal Representatives of this County and that any Proceedings with Respect to your Petitioner, and the Committee of this County may be suspended till his arrival in New York which he flatters himself will be about the 14th Inst.

Your Petitioner is at present engaged in procuring true lists of the Qualified Votes in the different districts and in Collecting other Material to prove to the Satisfaction of this House the lamentable State of this County and the urgent necessity there is that the wisdom of your Body should interfere, to save it from anarchy and oppression. Your Petitioner therefore flatters himself that this may plead in Excuse should he not be present on the first day that the New Convention meets. This Petition is presented in behalf of upwards of two hundred of the principal Freeholders and Freemen of the County to the westward of the New Hampshire Grant whose Sacred right of Election your Petitioner esteems it his Duty to defend from the usurpation of any body of men whatsoever.

They were the legal majority at the close of the poll, had a regard for Justice and the ordinances of your house prevailed he therefore considers himself as one of their legal Representatives

And your Petitioner &c.

W. DUER.

Appen<sup>r</sup> The Election in the different districts where John williams, Alexander Webster and william Malcolm were chosen open'd on the following days at the Places undermentioned: New Perth 23rd April, Black Creek 22nd April, Skeens borough and Granville on same day betwext the 1st and 16th of April.

[Petitions, 32: 5.]

May it please the honorable committee.

HONOURED GENTLE<sup>n</sup>: Wee the prisoners of his Majesty's Ships the Phynex & Savage humbly implore of your Honors to allow us a proportion of provisions to live upon.

The Keeper M<sup>c</sup>Cleep gives us but six pence star<sup>ts</sup> per day we are all most perished for it is impossible for us to live at this rate. Wee cant say Gentlemen had your Honours been notified before you would make us a sufficient of provisions.

Therefor Gentlemen here follows for instance The proportion of provisions that is Allowed to prisons taking by his Majesty's Ships of warr taken from the Honourable Congress. The proportion per week: Bread, 7 lbs.; Beef, 7 lbs.; peas, 1 qt.; oatmeal, 1½ qts.; Brandy, 1¼ Do; Butter, ¾ lbs.; flour, 2 lbs.; suet, ½ lbs.

Now Honoured Gentlemen, Compute the current price of provisions Never deviates from the above proportion on board his Majesty's ships by whatsoever Nation he may take prisoners from much more a natural fraternity as wee all cant say the reverse the market is in this port is so that by it wee cant live. The mid-shipman taken with us you allow 18<sup>s</sup> per week & wee are to live upon 6<sup>d</sup> sterling per day. Had the highest commander of france or Spain been taken by the said Majesty have no more of provisions to be allowed them than the seamen on board the respective ships Had any commander in Chief been taken at this your honourable causes side they would be no proportion of provisions made than the said proportion Now gentlemen consider this. Been myself stuard and Clerk in the Naval service these 6 years. I am your honour's humble servant

John McDonald to Provincial Congress. LEAD MINES

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 240.]

GENTLEMEN: After exploring the mines both in Orange and Dutchess County have brought the full Reports to your Honourable House on the 26th April 1776, the day there after some of the Members desired me to wait on the gethering of as many members as might be sufficient to make a full and compleat house, to Determine upon the matter and that I would be rewarded for the attendance and thereby has been kept in suspence from time to time waiting for the Boards further Instruction Relative to Lead mines. Now expects that the Board will Clear me of all reasonable Demands as I am a poor man with a small family and Illey able to loose much Time.

Gentlemen, if my reports should meet with your approbation and thereon it should be Resolved to proceed to open said mines, it would be necessary to be furnished with an sufficient Instruction and therein to be authorized to Dig for mines in any part of the Colony, or the Neighbouring Colonies according to information, further to be impowered to call for any assistance that can be afforded by any Committee where occasion offers concerning the business in case any Gentleman would not gratify to break his Land to Explore mines for the Public Purpose with the greatest submission I beg the favour to let me know if I may depend on the mining employment, or if I must look for business where Providence may provide me, I expect your Good morals and acquaintances with the Disappointment I met with by the Request of Collonel Chandler in this Country, which Rendered me under all the Disadvantages of a stranger will excuse my freedom in giving this trouble, and am with the greatest submission and good wishes to your undertaking.

Petition of Israel and Isaac Youngs.

[Petitions, 32: 65.]

To the Honourable the Members of the Provincial Congress for the Province of New York convened in Congress.

The petition of Israel Youngs and Isaac Youngs of the township of Huntington, on the Island of Nassau, in the province of New York Humbly Sheweth.

That some time in the month of February last Henry Dawkins late of this city engraver, came to the dwelling house of your petitioner the said Israel Youngs, and desired to board with him for a week or two which he consented to, that at the expiration of that time he desired to continue Boarding with him for a longer time which he agreed to, that the said Henry Dawkins some time after being at his house acquainted him that if he had a printing press he could make a very good living there, for several of the Hatters had spoken to him to print papers to put in their hats and sundry other matters which he could print, by which he could make a good living and wrote a letter by your petitioner the said Israel who was then going to New York to buy wheat to a person in that city whom he desired to send him a printing press by your petitioner the said Israel, that your petitioner the said Israel delivered the said letter to the said person to whom it was directed, who accordingly sent a printing press put up in a box by your petitioner the said Israel, that after the said Henry Dawkins had got the said printing press, and not before he told your petitioner the said Israel that he could make as good money as ever was, undiscovered, which your petitioner, the said Israel told your other petitioners, the said Isaac Youngs of, who replied that he thought that if he could it would be a sin, and that he would have nothing to do with it which your petitioner the said Israel also declared, that your petitioners have ever supported the character of honest men, and Friends to the liberties of This Country, of which they can produce undeniable proof untill it was their misfortune to fall in with the said Henry Dawkins in manner before mentioned, that they are ready to prove their Innocency whenever this Honourable Congress shall be pleased to direct an inquiry to be made for that purpose which they most ardently pray for, and that in the mean time they may be admitted to give Bail or security for their appearance.

Your petitioners therefore most humbly pray that the Honourable Congress would be pleased to take their Case under consideration and appoint some short day for their trial or admit them or such one of them as they shall be pleased to Bail for their appearance untill they can be tried, or grant such other Relief in the premisses as in their Justice and Wisdom shall seem fit, and your petitioners as in Duty Bound shall ever pray.

Petition of Thomas Loosley and Thomas Elms, Paper Makers.

To The honourable Congress of the Province of New York.

GENTLEMEN: Whereas by the Rules and Orders lately published by your Honourable House For Regulating the Militia of this Colony which rules & orders from our particular Circumstances being unable to comply with we have been subjected to several Fines which we have paid for non attendance on the Days appointed for publick exercise and are according to the said Rules and orders still liable to the penalty of being advertized and held up as enemies to the Country tho' we have ever been hearty Friends to it and are constantly labouring to the utmost of our abilities, in our professions, to promote its interests as well as our own by carrying on and perfecting a most useful manufactory to supply the country with an important and absolutely necessary article for which great sums used annually to be sent abroad and as in these times of general Difficuly this honourable house has shown a particular attention to the encouragement of useful arts & manufactories among which paper making is a very considerable one, We humbly hope your honours will take our case into consideration and not only grant us an exemption from the impending penalty before mentioned but relieve us from the severity of the times to which we at present stand liable tho' we do not desire to be wholly exempt from contributing to the publick expense in the necessary Defence of the Country against the invaders of our common rights & Liberties We humbly beg leave to represent that we were regularly bred in England to the business of Paper Making which we understand in all its Branches and have carried to higher degrees of perfection than ever it arrived before in America where we have been the means of increasing the number of Paper Mills, improving their construction, and moderating the price of paper But, the work being carried on at a great expense no less than 20s per day for rent and a number of hands who require our constant oversight and direction we could not attend the forementioned military Exercises but at an excessive Disadvantage & expense which would certainly either ruin the Business or oblige us to discontinue it For the rent would still go on & the water run to waste. The workmen left to themselves might neglect or spoil the work, Disorder and habits of Idleness take place & and effectually put an end to that attention, Care, Industry & Frugality that are absolutely necessary to give success to this Business Nor would it have been in our power to supply you gentlemen with paper for provincial money nor the printers with whom we have contracted, with the quantities necessary for their Weekly publications which will not admit of Disappointments.

For the foregoing reasons Gentlemen we hope you will grant our Request especially in an exemption from the Military Service for which we are no way qualified nor provided with arms But though we cannot be servicable in a Military Capacity we hope in the Business of our profession we may prove ourselves usefull members of society and that therefore a service will not be insisted on that would oblige us to drop our Business and quit the place.

Petition of the Vestry of New York.

[Petitions, 32: 83.]

To the Honourable Provincial Congress of the Colony of New York.

The memorial of the Vestry of the City and County of New York, Humbly Sheweth,

That we have been elected to the office of Assessors to lay the tax for the maintenance and support of the poor of this City and County for the current year.

That the money annually raised for several years past for that purpose amounted to Five thousand Pounds, a sum barely sufficient for the purpose and in some years inadequate to the end.

That there are now at least near four hundred Poor in the Alms house in this City & the Buildings adjoining which number will in all probability be encreased from the Calamitous Circumstances of the times.

That as great numbers of the inhabitants & generally those who are the most opulent have retired to the Country: we deem it impracticable (should we proceed to the execution of our office) for the Collectors to raise a sum in any degree adequate to the exigencies of the Poor under our care: that these Poor consist of the Blind & the lame; numerous helpless orphans, tender distressed Infants, Foundlings & decrepid old age in its last stage, the sick in body & distempered in mind, many of whom have by various means fallen into this City as well from different parts of this colony as from other colonies & countries.

Prompted therefore by the feelings of humanity we have thought fit to lay before you the present difficulties and our apparent inability to procure a support for so great a number of Poor, hoping that in your wisdom some means may be found to secure these unhappy objects from all the Wretchedness of Poverty & disease.

Your memorialists therefore pray that by order or resolve of this Honourable Congress the sum of Five Thousand pounds may be advanced or lent to the City of New York for the support of the Poor or such other relief granted in the premisses as may be adequate to the present Distress.

And your memorialists shall ever pray, &c.

Committee of New Windsor to Provincial Congress.

[Mil. Com. 25: 554.]

IN COMMITTEE, NEW WINDSOR, 31st May 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We have this day ordered back to the City of New York a certain Isaac Demilt who lately came here without a certificate from his Colonel or Commanding officer as directed by the Congress. We find on Examination that he is a person who may well be suspected as inimical to the Liberties of his Country, never having signed the General Association, and his coming here contrary to the Orders of Congress (of which he did not pretend Ignorance) confirms this oppinion. He goes back under care of Lieut. Anthony of the New York Militia.

There are some persons in this District who (though they have signed the General Association) we have great reason to suspect as unfriendly to the Cause of Liberty and America; and as we have no reason to expect any aid from those Persons, it would we conceive it to be prudent to put it out of their Power to injure us by leaving them possessed of Arms which we much want and they may use against us when most needed; we wish therefore to know whether the Resolve for disarming Suspected Persons in the City, and administering a certain Test to them extends to the Province at large, and who are vested with the Power of executing the same.

It gives us pain to find any Person counteracting the Orders of Congress and more especially so when it happens with those who profess Friendship to the common cause. This has lately been the case with a certain M<sup>r</sup> Lawrence, wife of Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Lawrence who is a Commissioner under Congress at Fort Constitution, and his son a Clerk there both in the pay of the Continent. M<sup>r</sup> Lawrence early in the Spring settled in this Precinct and opened a shop here, then knowingly contrary to the Resolve of Congress has retailed Bohea Tea at 8 shillings per lb., and to evade the Resolve in that Respect pretends to sell her Tea at 6 shillings per lb., but will not let the purchaser have the Tea unless they take a paper bag to put it in at 2 shillings, and so in proportion for a greater or less quantity.

There is something so disingenious in this kind of conduct that we view it in a worse light than an open violation of the Rule. Upon having this complaint laid before us, we thought proper to Depute one of our Members to wait on M<sup>r</sup> Lawrence (In Tenderness for her sex) and treat with her on the matter, by letting her know that if she would desist from her present conduct in that particular, and return the money Extorted to the Persons from whom she received it, and sell her Tea at the price fixed by Congress, in that case we would make matters as easy as we Consistently cou'd. But she has refused to comply with this Reasonable and Indulgent Proposal, and the remainder of her Tea (as we are informed since) been removed to Fort Constitution under the care of her husband and son, which has much Disgusted the Inhabitants as they conceive it as kind of Insult to have that Fortress made an Asylum for that useless Herb and the Illegal venders of it. We thought it proper, as also being in duty bound to inform you of this Matter, that what is right may be done therein, that in future the Resolve of Congress may not be violated or evaded in this manner for want of punishing those who have already transgressed. We have the Honor Gentlemen to be with all due esteem your most obd<sup>t</sup> Humble Servants,

By Order of the Committee.

THURSDAY MORNING, [May 1776.]

SIR: Norwood, who is the provincial Store Keeper, informs me that Co<sup>l</sup> McDougal has directed him to deliver no arms out of his Custody to any other than himself & that all the arms he has are for him. This appears extremely strange to me that I should be precluded from receiving a Part of them, as I have a large Body of men in Town & hardly a musket to put in their Hands. I shall be glad you'd obtain an order for me to receive a proportion if not all the arms which are & may come in Store.

I am your humbl Serv<sup>t</sup>

I conceive Col McDougall at present dont stand as much in need of arms as I do from the number of his men in proportion to mine.

Proceedings respecting Unlawful Sale of Tea.

COMMITTEE CHAMBERS, May 25, 1776.

WHEREAS, Information has been given to this Committee that a Report is circulating greatly to the prejudice of John Alsop, Esq., respecting the sale of some Tea and his refusing Continental money for the same,

Resolved, That Mr. Dunscombe and Mr. Berrian wait upon Mr. Alsop and acquaint him therewith.

Mr. Dunscombe and Mr. Berrian having waited upon him, report that Mr. Alsop is desirous to be called before this Committee, requesting at the same time that Coll Lott and Mr. Van Alstyne (from whom the report was said to have originated) might be ordered to attend also.

Coll Lott attending this Committee says: That Mr. Alsop told Mr. Van Alstyne that he cou'd not sell this Tea for less than six shillings per lb., being a Company concern. Mr. Van Alstyne replied, what can I get then by retailing it again. Mr. Alsop then answered, that he could not tell, but that he had been told some persons charged for bags and twine, that Mr. Alsop said he would be glad to receive  $\frac{1}{2}$ hard money for the Tea to pay a debt contracted by Congress in Canada. Mr. Lott told him he had about £300 in New York and Jersey. Mr. Alsop answered that he would rather take Continental as that would pass better at Philadelphia.

Mr. Van Alstyne attended the Committee, and says that he went with Coll Lott to Mr. Alsops to purchase Tea, that Mr. Alsop told him it was six shillings per lb., half hard money, that he wanted to procure hard money for the Congress to discharge a debt contracted in Canada. That the examinant asked Mr. Alsop how he could sell the Tea for six shillings if he paid six shillings for it. That Mr. Alsop made answer that he might sell the Tea for six shillings and charge for the bags. Mr. Alsop being sent for attended and confessed the truth of Mr. Lotts Evidence but does not remember that he told Mr. Van Alstyne he might sell the Tea for six shillings and charge for the Baggs as mentioned in Mr. Van Alstynes Information but might have said he heard it was done, and if he had said so it was not right and he was sorry for it.

The Committee taking the above matter into consideration and Debates arising thereon the following questions were put :

1st Wether Mr. Alsop had violated the Resolves of Congress in the sale of Tea. Carried in the Negative.

2<sup>d</sup> Wether Mr. Alsop had violated the Resolves of Congress in asking hard money on the sale of Tea? Carried in the Negative.

Mr. Alner then moved, seconded by M. Harper, that the minutes of this Committee should be published, Debates arising thereon and the question being put, it was carried in the Negative.

Fryday June 7, 1776.

WHEREAS, Several persons who have been called before this Committee for violating the Resolves of Congress in the sale of Tea and depreceating the Continental Paper Currency alledged in their Justification, the Example and Recommendation of John Alsop Esq., a member of the Continental Congress,

Resolved, Therefore that the minutes of this Committee relative to the enquiry made into Mr. Alsops conduct be handed up to the Provincial Congress.

Extracts from the minutes:

Petition of Thomas Wooley.

[Petitions, 32 : 21.]

To the honourable the Provincial Congress or in their Recess to the Committee of Safety for the Colony of New York.

The petition of Thomas Wooley of Cowneck in the township of Hempstead Humbly Sheweth,

That although your petitioner rather from inadvertency than any design to offend may have rendered himself obnoxious to this honourable Body and draw on himself as well their resentment as that misery and distress from which only the innocent can claim an exemption (being confined in close goal by an order from this honourable Board) yet he humbly conceives that the punishment he has already suffered is fully adequate to his crime.

That however unworthy a member of society your petitioner may have been represented or conceived to be, he has yet the full confidence to assure this honourable Board that there yet remains in him that virtue that can distinguish him as a friend to his native country (a greater love for which no man can have) especially when every tender tie and affection that can endear him to his family & connections, inspires his Breast with the warmest wishes for their happiness & welfare That should the most cordial Declaration of your petitioner fail to excite Commiseration for his present unhappy Circumstances, he has only that Consolation left which innocence always affords the distressed.

That your petitioner never meant to Counteract or in the least oppose the authority of this or any other honorable Congress but on the contrary cautiously (as he thought) avoided every infringement and therefore prays that he may be released from his present imprisonment.

And your petitioner shall ever pray &c.

JAMAICA GOAL, June 9th 1776.

THOMAS WOOLEY.

[Mil. Commit. 25 : 582.]

June 10 — 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Your Letter of the 8th Instant, by Express have been communicated to the Congress.

They are unanimously of opinion that you are not authorized by your Instructions to give the sense of this Colony on the Question of declaring it to be & continue an independent State nor does this Congress incline to instruct you on that point, it being a matter of doubt whether their Constituents intended to vest them with a Power to deliberate and determine on that Question. Indeed the majority of this Congress are clearly of opinion that they have no such authority.

As measures have lately been taken and are now pursuing for obtaining the consent and authority of the People for establishing a new and regular form of Government the necessity of which seems generally to be acknowledged — This Congress think it would be imprudent to require the sentiments of the People relative to the Question of Independence lest it sh<sup>d</sup> create Divisions and have an unhappy Influence on the other.

The earliest opportunity will however be embraced for ascertaining the sentiments of the inhabitants of this Colony on that important Question, and of obtaining their consent to vest the Congress of the Colony for the time being with authority to deliberate and determine on that and every other Matter of General Concern, and to instruct their delegates in Continental Congress thereupon.

[Mr Jay and Col — were a Committee to draft the above letter. Journ. I. 490.]

Petition of William Tillou.

[Petitions, 32 : 19.]

NEW YORK, 8th June, 1776.

William Tillou of this city, Joiner, from the decay of trade, is under the necessity of laying his case before the honourable the provincial Congress, imploring them upon an impartial survey of his situation, to afford him the aid he requires, which is to grant him a certificate to the Committee of Charlotte precinct Dutchess County that he may be permitted to reside in that precinct (as he is promised a good deal of Work there) and endeavour by honesty and application to maintain himself, and small helpless family.

WILLIAM TILLOU.

The aforesaid William Tillou has a wife who is Lunatic by which she is rendered utterly incapable of serving herself much more of minding her two small children in this condition beside the want of employ should the ministerial troops invade this city this poor family must undergo all the miseries of war not having wherewith to sustain themselves not able to assist one another.

The above is attested as a truth by the subscribers

Petition of John Hylton.

[Petitions, 32: 23.]

To the Honorable the Provincial Congress for the Colony of New York in the city of New York now convened.

The memorials of John Hylton, Master of the ship called the Betsy and Polly, now lying in the harbour of the said city, Humbly Sheweth,

That your memorialist on the thirty first day of May last, obtained from M<sup>r</sup> Robert Ray (who officiates as an officer for that purpose) a permit to take on board the said ship, a lading of Beef, pork, flour, &c., and also 450 Shaken Hogsheads, & in pursuance of said permission the said ship is now completely freighted therewith except about 200 barrels of Bread & flour to be taken on board.

That the greatest part of the said Beef and pork has been purchased at a very exorbitant price, and now lies at the Bottom of the said ship and in a few hours the said ship would have been ready to depart this province had not your memorialist been informed that a resolve of this honorable house so late as this very day, prohibited the same, to the very great injury Loss & disapointment of your memorialist and his owners, who fairly and openly shipped the said provisions with permission of an officer acting under the immediate authority of this hono<sup>ble</sup> house.

Your memorialist therefore in tender consideration of the premissies, humbly prays he may be permitted to complete his cargo and depart this port and such farther relief as shall seem Just & reasonable and your memorialist shall ever pray, &c.

NEW YORK, 11th June 1776.

JOHN HYLTON.

Petition of George Youngs.

[Petitions, 33: 182.]

NEW YORK, June 12th 1776.

To the Honorable, The Speaker and Members of the Provincial Congress.

The Petition of George Youngs of the Township of Huntington on Nassau Island, Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioner concieves himself at present greatly distrest in his Business on acc<sup>t</sup> of Sundry Bonds, Papers and Cash, being Detained from him, as has been reported by order of this Honorable House as it totally deprives your Petitioner from transacting his Bussiness as several of the said Bonds and Notes are already become Due and the People do not chuse to settle as they cannot take up their Notes &c your Petitioner therefore humbly hopes that the House will take his case into consideration, and order his said Bonds, Notes and Cash to be returned to him. Your Petitioner further begs of this Honorable House to consider what must be the situation of a Father to see all his sons in close confinement and some of them so close in Irons that they cannot possibly shift themselves during this warm season as the unfortunate Prisoners are in danger of being troubled with vermin, as some of them are already crippled with their Irons as there has never been any occasion for such hard usage by their ever being refractory or even making the least attempt to escape and if it should seem meet to this Honorable House to order them to be taken out of Irons they are willing to give sufficient security for their good behaviour your petitioner therefore humbly begs a hearing before this Hon<sup>ble</sup> House as speedily as possible, which favor shall ever be gratefully acknowledged by their most Obedient Hum Serv<sup>t</sup>

GEORGE YOUNGS.

Petition of Mangle Minthorne.

[Petitions, 32: 27.]

To the provincial Congress in the province of New York.

The memorial of Mangel Minthorne Humbly Sheweth,

That some short-time before the Publication of a resolve of the Continental Congress regulating among other articles the price of Bohea Tea, and fixing the same at six shillings the pound he purchased a quantity of Bohea Tea of Capt<sup>n</sup> Deal, that said Tea cost him more than the price affixed as aforesaid by the Continental Congress that said Minthorn has sold the said tea at a higher price (since the publication of the resolve of the Continental Congress which took away the power from the several respective Committees of regulating any Articles except green Tea than was stipulated by said Congress) that in so doing he looked upon himself as only acting similar to others and not in the least degree inimical to his country. That he professes the highest respect for the continental Congress, and as he has by the committee of this city been advertized in the public Gazette as an enemy to this country for selling said Tea as aforesaid (a stigma which he would ever wish to avoid) he hereby declares that he is sorry for the same that he did it ignorantly and that he humbly hopes this Congress will by reinstating him in the good opinion of his fellow citizens put it once more in his power to convince them how much he is a Friend to the Liberties and Privileges of America.

GEORGE TOWNSEND, *Cheerman.*Confirmed this 24th of July, 1776.Petition of Alexander Robertson and Others.

To the Honourable Provincial Congress of New York,

The subscribers actuated by a real concern for the welfare of their Country are willing to erect and carry on proper works in some convenient and safe place or places on the Sound, for the purpose of Manufacturing the best blown Salt, they can deliver from one pan, if not interrupted, 126 Bushels per week, and if they shall be enabled to set up a sufficient number of pans, they will engage to make as much of said salt as shall be wanted in this and the neighbouring provinces, at present they intended only to erect one Furnace unless it shall be Judged necessary that they erect more, as the expences necessary for such an undertaking will be too great to be entirely risked by Individuals at this critical time, they Beg leave to make the following proposals to the Honourable Congress, viz<sup>t</sup>

That as the erecting of the works will cost upward of £1000 and a considerable expence will be required to carry on the same and notwithstanding all the care of the proprietors, as well as providing a place of safety and otherwise, it may so happen that the Works may be destroyed by the enemy, The subscribers therefore humbly propose that the sum of £500 be advanced by the Congress to us without interest for one year and a-half towards enabling them to erect our Furnace, and that the Congress accept their Conjunct Bond for said sum, payable only on this condition that the design of the undertaking shall not be defeated within the above mentioned time by accident arising from the precarious and unsettled state of Publick affairs, as the subscribers would be still greater sufferers should such an accident happen, that they could not carry on the said Salt Works for the space of 18 months altho' they were freed from the burden of paying back the Money they had received from the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Congress, as this undertaking is more for the benefit of this province than any private advantage to themselves. They therefore hope that the Hon<sup>ble</sup> Congress will give them such encouragement as to enable them to sett the manufacturing of Salt agoing, as they are willing to risk their own private property along with the publicks for the general good of these distressed Colonies, and this Province in particular.

[Miscel. Pap. 35 : 627.]

On the night of the 18th inst about 11 o'clock the said William Smith coming past the Guard House, at the corner of the Fly Market was hailed by the Centry and gave the countersign rather too loud, on which the Centry took him to the Guard House, where the said Johnson was Capt of the Guard who immediately without any other provocation gave orders to have him confined up stairs, with two or three Vagabonds in the dark, saying (if the Rascall did not know his duty, he would bring him to a sense of it) when he by accident broke some glass Windows that were in the way, from thence he was orderd into close confinement, Johnson not allowing him even to sit down on the stairs, or to write to his wife to inform her where he was, which usage so irritated him that he could not refrain from Cursing him as he readily acknowledges, when Johnson struck him with his fist, in this place he was confined till about Nine o'clock the next morning a Negro man standing Centry over him, whom Johnson commanded several times to run the said William Smith thro the Body with his Bayonet, which he can bring a witness to prove. He therefore as a Citizen humbly requests the Hon Provincial Congress to take the above into Consideration and desires thro their means Satisfaction for the same.

Petition of John Carpenter and Others.

[Petitions, 32 : 41.]

To the Honorable members of the Congress at this time Convened for the Province of New York.

The Humble Petition of John Carpenter Sen<sup>r</sup> and Mathew Gleves, Victuallers and Willbur Wood Drovier Sheweth,

That the said Willbur Wood has been employed by the said John Carpenter and Matthew Gleves as a drovier to purchase Cattle for them in the Country. That he had purchased eleven head of neat Cattle, for them and on the sixteenth of June instant set out with them from his place of abode in Dutchess County in this province; that yesterday evening about four oclock after said Wilbur Wood had delivered the Cattle at Richard Verians the Bull's head in the Bowery lane for said Carpenter and Gleves he went over to acquaint them of his having brought such Cattle and where he had left them; that on his return to New York near the Fly Market he met with one M<sup>r</sup> Daniel Inslow and two other persons who invited said Willbur Wood to go with them and drink some Beer, which he did as having been before acquainted with said Inslow, when in discourse said Wood was asked if he did not bring down Cattle for said Carpenter and Gleves which he answered in the affirmative; they then replied that Carpenter should have none of them for if he had said wood would meet with trouble and directed him to Come to said Beryan's at this day at two oclock in the afternoon and he should be paid for them by said M<sup>r</sup> Inslow. That said Carpenter and Gleeves have frequently supplyd the Continental troops with provision and said Carpenter at this time supplys two of the Hospitals and if these Cattle are wanting for the troops they are very willing they should part with the Cattle for that purpose, but if that is not so, your petitioners most humbly pray that this Honorable Board will be pleased to take the premisses into their Consideration and make such order as shall appear necessary for the said Cattle being restored to your petitioners John Carpenter Sen<sup>r</sup> and Matthew Gleeves, who wait on this honorable Board with their humble petition to give such further account and satisfaction in the premises as this Honourable Board may require.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 565, 607, 631; 39: 474.]

At a meeting of the Joint Committee of Brookhaven, Manor of Saint Georges and Patenship of Meriches convened on the 13th of May 1776.

John Woodhull Esq in the chair & 20 members present —

Sundry Evidences being called to discover the secret plots & misconduct of sundry evil minded Persons.

Daniel Nash being sworn, deposeth that he heard Andrew Patchin say (as he was going home from General Training) the Congress goes on as they ought not to Do and dam'd the Congress in all their unlawful proceedings & used much more unfriendly discourse.

Mr. Nathaniel Finch being sworn deposeth that he heard Andrew Patchin vs. Andrew Patchin. Dam the Congress and used them with very abusive Language and was a mind that all present (being a considerable number) should agree with him to resist and oppose the Congress & all military Officers and others holding commissions under the Congress. He perticularly Dam'd Col. William Floyd, saying he came from the Congress on purpose to make Disturbance and the Divil would have him, for he would go to hell for what he had done, & so would Captain Nathan Rose & Lieutenant W<sup>m</sup> Baker; and persuaded all present to agree to go to no more trainings, saying neither he, or any of his should; and said all those who would not so agree was worse than Infidels.

At another meeting of the Committee aforesaid convened on the 23<sup>d</sup> of May 1776, John Woodhull Chairman and 16 members present,

Mr Joseph Ruland being sworn deposeth that he being with his Vessell a few days passed in the South bay against Hempstead and being on shore a man to him a stranger, offered him the said Ruland nine Dollars to carry him the said stranger on board the ship Dutchess of Gordon to see Governor Tryon; and that said stranger enquired vs. Nathan Gyer. of him the said Ruland if he knew one Nathan Gyer of Blew Point and sd deponent answered yes; upon which said stranger asked him if there were not some men with said Gyer and if s<sup>d</sup> Gyer had not carried them on board the ships of War, saying those men were his, belonging to his Company, which he said was then full; to which said Ruland answered that there was a considerable number of men (said to be from Connecticut) in the neighbourhood of said Gyer & he believed Gyer had carried them off in his Boat, but he did not know where.

Mr Henry Hulse junior being sworn, deposed, that he was an apprentice to Stephen Fountain who was gone from home & Carried his Gun & Powder, & had sent him vs. Stephen Fountain. the deponent home to his father's, to stay until times were settled; & that a number of New England people had staid in that Neighbourhood being to him strangers, who were often in private conference in Private places with said Fountain, & would not let him the Deponent come near them, nor hear what they said, & that they now are all gone, he supposeth in company with Stephen Fountain.

Mr. Seth Scribner being sworn deposeth that Lazarus Gyer (son of Nathan Gyer) vs. Laza. Gyer, Eber. Scribner, Eliakim Jones, Stephen Fountain, Jonathan Baker, Jun., Joseph Scribner, and Andrew Patchin. came to his house & staid all night with his Brother Ebenezer Scribner and were much together in private and that now they are both missing, and that a number of others are gone also namely Eliakim Jones, Stephen Fountain, Jonathan Baker Jun, Joseph Scribner, Andrew Patchin & others, but he knows not where; & says that if there were any private plots amongst them they would not (he supposeth) let him know of it.

Mr. John Smith (of Winthrop's Patent) Deposeth that Nathan Gyer & his wife, told him the said John Smith, that Capt. Jonathan Baker had urged said Gyer to go vs. Jonathan Baker. off speedily with his Vessell, least he should be taken; & that said Baker told s<sup>d</sup> Gyer he came to him on Purpose to hurry him the s<sup>d</sup> Gyer off, least a mob (meaning a party of Minute Men sent by the Committee) would ketch him; this being the last time said Gyer went from Blew Point with his vessel; and that the time before he the s<sup>d</sup> Gyer told the Deponent that s<sup>d</sup> Baker (as a Committee Man) gave him the s<sup>d</sup> Gyer liberty to go out with his vessel & hurried him away, saying Humphrey Avery, one of the members of this Committe, had a Warrant from this Committe for him the s<sup>d</sup> Gyer.

Mr. Daniel Davis junior being sworn Deposeth, that he was not long since at the south side of the Island in company with Capt Jonathan Baker, whome vs. Johnathan Baker. he heard say he must go up & see the Tories, & being in discourse one word brought in another until Capt Jonathan Baker said with a Resolute Voice & in a Disaffected Manner that if the Congress threw off Dependance, on Great Britain he would oppose them; and swore by the living God that made him, he would beat up for valenteers to raise a Company to oppose the Congress in that case, and would do it if they quartered or cut him in inch pieces for so doing.

At another meeting of the said Committee assembled on the 4th of June 1776.

Fifteen members being present and Josiah Smith being chosen Chairman Protcmpany.

Mr. Annanias Smith being sworn deposeth that Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker in Discourse with him owned he give Nathan Gyer liberty to go out with his vessel the last time but one, and that said Gyer and his wife told him so too, and that when said Gyer was geting ready to go the last time, he, the Deponent was very uneasy having heard very credibly that several strangers were in the place, whome he feared said

Gyer had agreed to carry on board the ships of War, and went to Mr. Humphrey Avery to have the vessel of said Gyer prevented from going out, which not being likely to be effected, he to be further satisfied went and watched the shore until about 9 or 10 o'clock in the evening when he saw the Boat of Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker go from Daniel Nashe's Landing (whome he had expected had harboured these Tory strangers) full of men (as he took it) and went around until against the House of Nathan Gyer, and along side of said Gyers vessel which he thinks they went on board off and thereupon heard a Gun fired on Board said Vessel, which he supposeth was a token for said Gyer and others to know they were got on Board, and for them to come also. And said Deponent saith, that the wife of said Gyer told him since, that her Husband with two strangers and others went out of the house to go on board the same time the said Gun was fired, and that (in justification of her Husband) she said that Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker, one of the Committee, had given her Husband leave and liberty to go this last time with his vessel and Passengers; and that Deponent declares that from the foregoing and the manner and citation in which he saw the Boat of Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker next morning, and many other circumstances which were to him very strong and convincing, he judges and does verily believe that Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker lent his Boat for that purpose. And said Annanias Smith doth further declare that he is a neighbour to Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker and hath dayly observed his language, maner of Department and general conduct, and doth seriously believe from what he has seen of him, and from his general character, that he hath for months past spent the chief of his time in promoting of, and carrying on a correspondence with our common enemies, and helping such amongst us to go on board the King's ships of War and dayly busy in promoting disaffection amongst the Inhabitants to the cause of America, and intirely believes him to be our inveterate enemy. And hath heard him say, there was no order in this Committee (of which he was a member) nor never had been.

Ephraim Marvin, Adjudent, being sworn, Deposeth that being sent by this Committee to Rockaway to see whose guns were on board the vessel of Nathan Gyer when taken there by the Riflemen, and to apprehend Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker and others, and give orders to others to apprehend and secure them if hereafter to be found: the Deponent saith that on his way thither he saw the Horse of said Baker tied behind the House of Daniel Hart, and the Deponent being alone and apprehending said Hart would resque said Baker from him the Deponent, should he attempt to imprison him, therefore the Deponent went forward without discovering himself until he came to the Rifleman at Rockaway, who let him go on board the vessel of Nathan Gyer, which they had there taken with Nathan Gyer, Lazarus Gyer and Ebenezer Scribner on board; and the Riflemen showed him a number of Guns taken on board from which they conjectured others had escaped from on board before they had taken the vessel; and the Deponent saith that upon examining and viewing the Guns he saw the Guns belonging to, and commonly used by Cap<sup>t</sup> Jonathan Baker aforesaid, and Stephen Fountain, also the Guns of Eliakim Jones and Josep Scribner, and a number of other Guns that he did not know, one of which was a Holland Gun with the upper side of the Barrel flat from the lock to near the muzzle, and another that was a short muskit with a brass round the stock below the lock.

And the said Deponent saith that with three Riflemen, he went in persuit of said Baker, and coming near the house of James Morris, he saw said Baker start from the fore door and ran as he supposeth through the house and from the back door northward towards the woods, but was ketched by the Rifle Sergeant.

And the said Deponent declares that from the best Circumstances he could learn said Baker and Fountain & all the above named men, with many others had been on board the Vessel of Nathan Gyer in her to have a passage to the ships of War in the King's service.

Upon Adjudent Marvin's declaring that the Gun of Capt Jonathan Baker was amongst those taken on board the Vessel of Nathan Gyer, Capt Baker said he did not know how it came there & that this was the first that he knew or had heard of his gun's being from home, and said it was then at his hours, upon which it was alledged that before the sailing of Gyer's vessel he had told Jehiel Weed (not now present) that he was going across his Corn & saw Crows pulling it up, and went into his house for his Gun and it was gone, but who took her he did not know, nor could not find out, but wished he could, saying he would not take Ten Dollars for it; which allegation said Baker offered to declare was false, & that s<sup>d</sup> Weed if present would say so to, and to settle the truth of the Dispute.

Mr Josiah Saturly was Call'd & sworn, & Deposed that being at the house of Justice Samuel Tobey on the 23<sup>d</sup> May 1776, he heard Capt Jonathan Baker there tell Jehiel Weed, I was going the other day across my Corn & seeing the Crows pulling it up, I went into the house to get my Gun and it was gone, but who took it he said he did not know, but wished he did, saying he would not take Ten Dollars for it, and Mr Samuel Saturly saith after being sworn, that he was also present and heard the same discourse of Capt Jonathan Baker as above related by said Josiah Saturly.

Ensign Benjamin Woodhull being sworn Deposed that William Albertson of Ketchaboniack on his return from Queens County told the Deponent that he there met Captain Jonathan Baker who after other discourse asked said Albertson if he knew Ludlee the Boatman at Ketchaboniack? and if he would hire said Ludlee and his Pettiauger for the use of some Gentlemen belonging towards the West end of Long Island, and that said Albertson said he told the s<sup>d</sup> Baker, he did not think Ludlee would be hired with his Boat, as the times were very difficult and that s<sup>d</sup> Baker said tell him to apply to me and I will insure her, this being after the Vessel of Nathan Gyer was taken at Rockaway—

Mr Garret Degroat being sworn deposeseth that while he was a Soldier had with Francis Bartoe, the Care of Captain Jonathan Baker, being ordered to keep him in custody & soon after taken said Baker upon coming to the fire in the house of Justice Samuel Tobey he saw s<sup>d</sup> Baker pull a Paper out of his Pocket, saying it was not a letter I have received from the men of War, & and the Deponent seeming to hesitate or Scruple the truth of his word thereupon the s<sup>d</sup> Baker offered to let the s<sup>d</sup> Deponent read it, but as the Deponent reached out his hand to receive it to read, s<sup>d</sup> Baker flung it in the fire saying you shall not read it, for it is only a letter I received from Mr William Smith and the Deponent saith the writing was learge & Black, but said he did know the hand writing neither did he read a word of it—

Mr Francis Bartoe being sworn saith he only besides Garret Degroat was present when Capt Baker burnt the letter or Paper as related by s<sup>d</sup> Garret Degroat & that he the s<sup>d</sup> Bartoe was not very nigh to nor in reach of s<sup>d</sup> Baker when he burnt said letter nor observed whether it was learge or small writing nor whether there was much or little of it but saw it burn.

Mr Phillip Akely being sworn deposeseth that his son John Akely is from home he knows not where nor what after and hath not seen him since Fryday last: he says his son seldom goes much abroad & that the last time he was from home before now, he was not gone more than six days if so long & that his sons Gun is a short Muskitt with a Brass around the stock below the lock (& Agrees with the Description Adjudent Marvin gave of one he saw amongst those taken on board of the vessel of Nathan Gyer) and the last time he saw it or knew of it was sometime past when it was carried to the shop of Stephen Fountain to be repaired.

Mr. Stephen Akely being sworn Deposeth that Benjamin Smith has been much abroad lately & that the last time he came home he had been gone several days & he understands he is gone again and says it was reported he went to go on board the ships of war. He saith the Gun of this Benjamin Smith (son of John Smith) is such an one as Adjudent Marvin described on bord the Vessel of Nathan Gyer when taken having the upper side of the barrel flat from the lock to near the Muzzle & is what is called a Holland Gun, And Alexander Smith doth declare the same.

Lieutenant William Clarke being sworn Deposeth, that from all appeances & circumstances & what he could learn, Stephen Fountain went on board the vessel of Nathan Gyer for a Passage to the ships of War as an Enemy to his Country.

Mrs. Hannah Hawkins being sworn deposed, that Capt Jonathan Baker came to vs. Jonathan their house when her husband was gone abroad & she was telling him
Baker. that she was very uneasy about the times, and amongst other things she asked him, supposing there is Tories amongst us when the Kings Troops shall come: how will they get to them? to which he answered that 140 had asked him that question already; he also said tell your husband to come & see me & do you come also: he also said he advised all the Tories to obey all orders of the Committee & sign all their papers whatever: and by all means be still at Present; she saith that she at that time did not think he meant an'y harm.

Mr. Robert Homan being sworn deposed, that Capt Jonathan Baker came to his vs. Jonathan house & asked him if he would not come down with Mr. Samuel Baker. Conkling & help take the gard of Minute Men stationed at Blew Point, saying it was a poor notion of the Committe to send them there & said that as they were young men that did not know their duty he believed that a few old men would take their Guns from them all.

Mr. Mathew Beal being sworn Deposed that the Common report of Capt. Jona*vs. Jonathan* than Baker is that he is an unfriendly person to the common cause of Baker. America: yet saith he doth not know him to be an enemy, yet he does verily believe him one from circumstances he hath observed in his department, & the manner of his spending his time amongst others who bear the same unfriendly character.

Mr. Humphrey Avery being sworn Deposeth that he knows nothing of Capt vs. Jonathan Jonathan Baker of his own absolute knowledge that does postively Baker. prove him an Enemy to his Country but that he hath observed many circumstances in his behaviour that hath given him, the Deponent, strong suspicion that he is an enemy to his country & is so deemed by common report —he saith that he heard said Baker say there was no order in the committee and Dis-pised their Conduct.

This may certify that the 13 foregoing pages consist of true copies of the Evidence of the 22 Aforementioned Witnesses, who were all regularly sworn and examined before the Joint Committee of Brookhaven Manor of Saint Georges and Patent Ship of Meriches and the evidence of each Witness recorded upon the Record of the said Committee, And that at the examination of each of the said Witnesses the sum and substance of what each declared was then so carefully recorded, as that upon distinctly reading to each witness what was recorded as his or her evidence that each of them declared that the Record so read was truth & agreeable to their respective meanings.

Capt. Jonathan Baker and Stephen Fountain being brought before the Committee, and a great number of Evidences being sworn, and examined and Cross-examined, and at the close of a fair tryal, they stand charged by the state of the Evidence against them, of being Enemies to their Country, and as such, had taken up arms and held correspondence with our Enemies, on board the ministerial ships of War; and had very much promoted discord amongst the Inhabitants, and had seduced many to forsake the cause of their Country; and had been with many others on board the vessel of Nathan Gyer which they had procured for the purpose of going on board the ministerial ships of War, from on board which vessel, while on their passage, they had fled on shore, while she was persued and that they were taken while they were privately lurking in secret places on shore after said vessel with their Guns &c., on board, had been taken by Continental Troops in the South Bay off against Hempstead and since condemned as a Prize.

The foregoing is extracted from the Minutes by me,

Report of the Committee to prevent the dangers to which the Colony is exposed from persons disaffected to the American cause.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 577.]

WHEREAS, the honorable the Continental Congress by their Resolve of the sixth day of October last did recommend to the several provincial Assemblies or Conventions & Councils or Committee of Safety to arrest and secure every person in their respective Colonie whose going at large might in their opinion endanger the safety of the Colony or the Liberties of America, and

WHEREAS, his Excellency General Washington hath lately exhibited to this Congress sundry Informations & Evidences from which it appears that the enemies of American Liberty have a general Communication with each other thro' this and part of the neighbouring Colonies by reason whereof the Influence of the British Government is much extended and the minds of the People poisoned by false Reports and suggestions. And

WHEREAS, many ill disposed persons have lately resorted unto and a great number dwell in Queens County, particularly in the Southern and Eastern parts thereof, and there are also several ill disposed Persons in the City and County of New York, in Kings County, Richmond County and in sundry other parts of this Colony many of whom will most probably take up arms on the Part of our Foes whenever they shall see a prospect of success. And

WHEREAS, from the various Reports and the best Intelligence which can be obtained from Europe, as also from the positive assertions of the disaffected throughout this and the Neighbouring Colonies & from the Measures by them taken there is no room to doubt that a large hostile armament will soon arrive this Colony. And

WHEREAS, many of those who now hold offices and Commissions under the Crown and many others who are generally reputed inimical to American Liberty will be liable to suffer Injuries from the Resentment of the People, and the Colony in general exposed to great Danger from the active exertions of those among us who are determined to assist in the subjection of America.

Wherefore as well out of regard to the safety of Individuals as for the general welfare of America, it is highly and indispensably necessary to take speedy and effectual Measures to prevent the hostile intentions of our Foes, to stop the channels of Intelligence and Communication among the disaffected and to quell the spirit of opposition which hath hitherto prevailed.

For which purposes it is hereby Ordered that the following persons be apprehended by the assistance of the Continental Troops now stationed in and near this City, to wit:

That _____ be a committee to confer with the commander in Chief now here upon the subject of apprehending the persons above named & to superintend the taking of them.

That upon and after the apprehending of the said persons such of them as shall give good and sufficient security on oath and otherwise as the said Committee shall think proper, that they will not be concerned in any measures taken or to be taken against the United American Colonies or any or either of them & that they will disown all measures taken or to be taken against the said Colonies or any or either of them as far as the same shall come to their knowledge, respectively be permitted to go at large —

That as to such persons as Shall refuse such security it shall be in the Discretion of the said Committee to admit as many of the said persons as may in the Judgment of the said Committee be safely trusted on their parole or word of honor to reside in such part of one of the Neighbouring Colonies as shall be chosen by the said respective persons approved of by the said committee, such persons giving their parole or word of Honor respectively to the said committee to reside in the place marked out as aforesaid for their residence until the further orders of the Continental Congress and to be subject to such order as to their removal to any other place.

Your Committee do propose that for these purposes it will be proper to take the assistance of his excellency Genl Washington and to march several detachments of the troops under his Command into Queens County & disarm the Inhabitants excepting those who shall subscribe the following declaration, Viz

“ We, the subscribers, Inhabitants of _____ in Queens County in the Colony of New York do voluntarily & solemnly engage under all the ties held sacred amongst Mankind at the risk of our lives & fortunes to defend by Arms the United American Colonies against the hostile attempts of the fleets & Armies belonging to or in Pay of Great Britain, until the present unhappy Controversy between the two Countries shall be terminated, provided always that this declaration shall not be construed to bind us to defend in person any other than the Colony of New York or for that purpose to March out of the said Colony.”

That all such persons as are required as aforesaid to be disarmed shall on pain of Imprisonment take the following oath or being of the People called Quakers the following affirmation —

I, A. B. Do swear or solemnly affirm and declare that I have not now in my possession nor in the possession of any other Person or Persons or deposited or secreted in any place or places any arms which have not been delivered up to this committee or their order—neither have I the arms of any other Person or Persons or for any use or purpose whatsoever—now in my possession so help me God.

That all those who before the taking of the said oath shall voluntarily deliver up any arms as aforesaid, shall receive a generous price for the Arms by them respectively surrendered and that the Arms of those who shall not so surrender them shall be taken away without paying for them.

That _____ be taken as Hostages for the future peaceful Behaviour of the Inhabitants of the said County—That all persons in the City & County of New York & in Kings & Queens County holding Commissions or Offices under the Crown be taken Prisoners & that those who shall give good Evidence to the respective General Committees of the said Counties that they are well affected to the cause of American liberty and good security that they will not be concerned in any manner against the United Colonies but on the Contrary will discover to the General or Commander in Chief of the Continental Forces for the time being in this Colony, or to the Provincial Congress or County Committee for the time being, all such measures as shall to their knowledge be taken or devised ag<sup>t</sup> the said United Colonies, shall be suffered to go at large, & possess the full enjoyment of their liberty in common with other Inhabitants of this Colony.

That _____ residing in the City & County of New York; _____ residing in Kings County, and _____ residing in Queens County be in like manner apprehended & suffered to go at large upon the like Conditions as above named.

That it be recommended to all the Genl County Committees in the several counties in this Colony to apprehend all persons holding Military Commissions under the King of Great Britian also such persons holding civil offices under the said King, and such other persons of Influence in their respective Counties as are suspected of holding Principles inimical to the said United Colonies and after they shall have been apprehended to deal with them in such manner as is prescribed for the conduct of the committee above named.

That all persons throughout the Colony who after they are apprehended shall refuse to comply with the said conditions but who nevertheless in the opinion of the Committee of the severall Counties may be trusted on their Parole or Word of Honor may be permitted to reside in such part of one of the Colonies of Connecticut New Jersey or Pennsylvania as shall be chosen by such respective Person or Persons and be agreeable to and thought proper by the committee before whom such Person is brought.

That all Persons who shall refuse such parole or who in the opinion of such respective committee may not safely be trusted upon such parole shall be confined in close custody until the further order of this or some future Provincial Congress.

All which is nevertheless most humbly submitted.

Examination of William Leary.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 335.]

William Leary says he came hither last Monday about ten oclock in Pursuit of William Benjamin a Workman of M<sup>r</sup> Erskins who had ran away from Ringwood

Iron Works. He found the said Benjamin at the House of one Forbes at the Sign of Robin Hood. After taking him Forbes ran & got a Pistol for Benjamin to defend himself & Ex<sup>t</sup> took hold of Benjamin and prevented him from using said Pistol. Ex<sup>t</sup> carried the said Benjamin to Pauls Hook Ferry who was there rescued by Sergiant Cornet of Cap<sup>t</sup> Roosevelts Company & by the said Captain enlisted. Ex<sup>t</sup> then met James Mason one of the Workmen of M<sup>r</sup> Erskins who had some time ago been discharged. James Mason asked Ex<sup>t</sup> if he did not want to see James Ramsay Christopher Wyley & George Gammel. Ex<sup>t</sup> said yes. James Mason said Ex<sup>t</sup> might see them if he would take an Oath that he did not come to take them up which Ex<sup>t</sup> refused saying he would nevertheless be glad to see them. Mason asked Ex<sup>t</sup> if he had run away who answered in the affirmative. Mason then asked what Ex<sup>t</sup> would do with himself & whether he would do as the rest of them had done. Ex<sup>t</sup> asked what that was. Mason said he must go and be qualified and then he would tell him. Ex<sup>t</sup> agreed to be qualified but asked on what foundation Mason told him he was to swear before a Gentleman in this town to go on Board of the Man of War that he Mason and his Companions had so sworn and were to receive wages & Provisions untill they would be able to get there. Ex<sup>t</sup> asked who the Gentleman was that swore them. Mason replied that it was a Gentleman employed by the Mayor or Governor of the town but the Examinant thinks the Mayor who swore them and found Provisions for them untill they had an opportunity to get on board the Man of War. Mason then conducted Ex<sup>t</sup> to the House where George Gammell James Ramsay & Christopher Wyly lived. This House is a Scotchman's just below the Jews Synagogue a Private House does not know the mans name. when Ex<sup>t</sup> came in George Gammel asked him if he was in Pursuit of them who answered in the Negative. George Gammel then said did you come away in the same Manner as we did. Ex<sup>t</sup> said Yes. Gammel then said we will have a drink together. Gammel said he would divulge his mind to Ex<sup>t</sup> if Ex<sup>t</sup> would be true to him. Ex<sup>t</sup> answered "I will be as true to you as you are to me" Gammel then took Ex<sup>t</sup> aside and asked when he would go on Board of the Man of War. Ex<sup>t</sup> said he did not know but would take the first good opportunity. asked Ex<sup>t</sup> if he wanted a Pass. Ex<sup>t</sup> said he had a Pass sufficient for him to go as far as he wanted. Gammel brought to Ex<sup>t</sup> a Person to give him a Pass whom Ex<sup>t</sup> does not know but believes he should know him again if he was to see him. Ex<sup>t</sup> said he wanted to see the New England Encampment to see one Amos Hutchins a Captain intending to decoy them thither and have them apprehended. When Ex<sup>t</sup> had got about half way up the Broadway they discovered his Pistols and would have fled thinking as Ex<sup>t</sup> supposes that he meant to take them up. James Ramsay & Christopher Wyly ran off, Ex<sup>t</sup> pursued and caught James Ramsay. They then gathered together and asked Ex<sup>t</sup> why he carried Pistols who replied that they were his Defence untill with them he could get on Board of the Man of War. They being then suspicious turned back but Ex<sup>t</sup> first asked George Gammel when he intended to go on Board the Man of War & how. Gammel answered I intend to leave town this night and go to Long Island & get from thence to the Man of War but whether to get a Person to put him on Board or to steal a Boat or Canoe this Ex<sup>t</sup> is not certain. Gammel then said the Gentleman who was employed by the Mayor had desired them not to be seen more than two together. The Gentleman had further told him the Rifle men were so thick on Long Island as to prevent him from getting on Board untill a more convenient opportunity & perhaps they might not get on Board untill Gen<sup>l</sup> Howe arrived with his fleet. they expected a large Body of Men to join them from Goshen & they were to get on Board with the utmost Dispatch after Gen<sup>l</sup> Howe's arrival.

Examination of James Mason.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 313.]

James Mason says about two weeks and an half ago a Man took his Qualification that he would not divulge any thing about the Business he was then upon. When he went up to Goshen from Ringwood about five weeks ago to look for a Place as a Miller he saw a man who had been four days on Board of the Man of War by name William Forbes a Tanner & Currier by trade. That as you go up the Broad Way you come to the Street in which is the Oswego Market opposite to the South side of which four Doors from the Corner of the Broadway lives one Lowry a tavern keeper a fat Man who wears a blue Coat and that he hath frequently met the said William Forbes in that House. Ex<sup>t</sup> asked where he did lodge. Forbes would not tell him. That he told Ex<sup>t</sup> he never lodged twice in the same House being afraid. That Forbes has a House of his own five miles from Goshen at which he saw him when Ex<sup>t</sup> was looking for a Place. Forbes told Ex<sup>t</sup> he had been four days on Board the Man of War last April when the ship Savage fired on Staten Island. That Governor Tryon would give five Guineas Bounty or two hundred acres of Land for each man, one hundred for his Wife and fifty for each Child upon Condition they would enlist in his Majesty's Service. Ex<sup>t</sup> bore Forbes's expences to Town, Forbes undertaking to repay him in hard Cash when they got on Board. That Forbes was to have a bounty from the Governor for every man he could get and had been sent there for that Purpose. That the Governor had desired him to go up and get as many men as he could. That the Recruits were to assist the King's Troops when they came. That Recruits were not to go on Board because they could do more good on Shore and besides they were on short allowance in the ship & crowded as Forbes told Ex<sup>t</sup>. Forbes & Ex<sup>t</sup> came to New York by way of Elizabeth Town and in their way at Warwick Forbes enlisted William Benjamin to go along with him & at Elizabeth Town Forbes enquired at Deacon Ogdens where he used to work & told Ex<sup>t</sup> after the Enquiry thay they would not get on Board from Bergen Point or Staten Island as there were Rifle Men stationed there, but must go to New York for that there was a man there one M<sup>c</sup>Lean a Shoe Maker near the Royal Exchange who was employed by the Govonor to carry Recruits on Board. That Forbes & Ex<sup>t</sup> came to New York in an Elizabeth Town Boat and went first to Thomas Mason at the corner of Beaver Street & Broadway at the sign of the Highlander where they left their Baggage & William Benjamin to take care of it and went then to M<sup>c</sup>Leans to enquire for a Passage. that M<sup>c</sup>Lean & Forbes whispered together & then Forbes told Ex<sup>t</sup> that M<sup>c</sup>Lean said there was no opportunity of getting on Board in two or three Nights. That M<sup>c</sup>Lean recommended them to one James Houlding a Tavern Keeper in Tryon Row opposite the Gate of the upper Barracks for a lodgings. they went up to Houldings leaving Benjamin still at Masons and after Dusk Ex<sup>t</sup> went for Benjamin & he and Benjamin carried the baggage up & all three lodged at Houldings that night telling Houlding M<sup>c</sup>Lean had sent or recommended them there as a safe house. next morning Forbes went to see for an opportunity to get on Board and did the like for two or three days. Forbes, Benjamin and Ex<sup>t</sup> staid at Houldings one week without being able to get on board of the Man of War. William Benjamin agreed to go on Board of the Man of War also & accept the Governors Bounty. after the first week as they could not get on Board Houlding observed that they ought to be spread about for that keeping them together would occasion suspicion in his House. That one Corbie who lived near General Washington's used to resort to the House of Houlding where he was introduced to Forbes, & this Ex<sup>t</sup> also got acquainted with Corbie. that many Tories resorted to Houldings amongst whom were two Brothers of the name of Fortune the one a Tanner living in the swamp and the other a saddler whom he had seen working at Cooks in the Broadway also one Fueter a Silver Smith who was rid about town for a Tory & another of the same name whom he takes to be his Brother. Also a man without an arm whom he believes to be an old Pensoner & Gilbert Forbes a Gunsmith living opposite to Mr. Hulls Tavern a short thick man who wears a White Coat. that these Persons as he believes knew of the Ex<sup>t</sup> Intention but did not care to trust him as he had not taken his Qualifications. That Ex<sup>t</sup> was qualified before the s<sup>d</sup> Gilbert Forbes & the said William Forbes at the House of the said Corbie. that William Forbes gave him the Book & that they made him swear not to divulge any thing of what the Examinant now tells. that when Ex<sup>t</sup> was at Houldings Gilbert Forbes, William Forbes & Corbie advised Ex<sup>t</sup> to go to Corbie's House and Work a little in the Garden to prevent suspicion. Gilbert Forbes then promised Ex<sup>t</sup> ten shillings per week subsistence money of which this Ex<sup>t</sup> hath received at different times twenty-six shillings & eight Pence. that the Examinant complained ten shillings was too little. Forbes said he could not help it but he would write to the Governor & try and get it increased to twelve. that he after told Examinant he could not get an answer because a Boat coming from the Governor was near being taken & had thrown the letters over board. that William Benjamin & William Forbes hath also received money from the said Gilbert. that Ex<sup>t</sup> according to the advice of the Forbes's & Corbie went to Corbie's & continued there untill last Saturday. that while Ex<sup>t</sup> lived at Houldings Corbie came there between nine & Ten o Clock at night & brought with him a Mulatto Coloured Negro dressed in blue Cloaths about five feet eight Inches high well set but know not his name or to whom he belongs but is informed that he hath since been taken up and put in Goal. when Corbie & the Negro came in there was a great deal of Whispering round between Corbie, William Forbes, the Negro and another Man who had been waiting to get on Board & did go on Board that Evening. that afterwards the Examinant and William Forbes had some conversation about the Negro. Forbes told him the negro was going on Board the Man of War with that man and two or three more but the Craft was so small it would not carry them all for fear of Discovery wherefore he Benjamin & William Forbes were obliged to stay behind. that when this Ex<sup>t</sup> was qualified there was present one Clark who had been a School Master about eight or nine miles from Goshen and with whom the said William Forbes was acquainted. that the said Clark said in the Examinant's hearing that he had enlisted about sixty men of whom he had a list and who were ready to assist when the Troops came. that Ex<sup>t</sup> believes the list was given to Gilbert Forbes to be sent to the Governor For that the names of the Ex<sup>t</sup> William Forbes & William Benjamin were taken down by the said Gilbert as this Examinant supposes to be sent to the Governor. that one Hickey of the General's Guards he believes to be concerned who is now in Confinement. that one Green of the General's Guards a Drummer is concerned for that Ex<sup>t</sup> saw Gilbert Forbes in Conversation with said Green but could not hear them & since that time Green hath administered an oath to this Hickey & some other Soldiers of the General's Guards & as Ex<sup>t</sup> is informed is to have one Dollar per Man from Forbes for every Man he shall enlist. One Barnes of the General's Guards & one Johnson a fifer of the Guards who as well as Green & Hickey have been in the regular Service are qualified for the same purpose—That William Benjamin told Ex<sup>t</sup> he heard Gilbert Forbes say that he would go to the Mayor & get one hundred Pounds which he must have. That Ex<sup>t</sup> & William Forbes in their way from William Forbes House came to a fine House. that Ex<sup>t</sup> asked what fine house that was. that Forbes said it belonged to the Brother of the Mayor of New York that he knew him very well had been there several times & must go there now to tell him what he was going about, to know if he had any word to send to his Brother & that the Exam<sup>t</sup> must walk on slowly & he would over take him. That at the Door of the House Ex<sup>t</sup> saw an old, short thick fat man that Forbes staid there about a Quarter of an Hour & then followed and overtook the Examinant who asked Forbes if the Mayor's Brother had given him any letters. Forbes said no he had only desired him to tell his Brother that he was well That the Mayor's Brother had asked who the Ex<sup>t</sup> was & Forbes told him it was a young man going upon the same Errand that he was.—Ex<sup>t</sup> believes Gilbert Forbes is at the Head he and the Mayor & the Governor.

SCOTS TAVERN, in Wall Street, [June 22, 1776.]

The Committee met pursuant to adjournment. Present: Mr Hobart, Mr Tredwell, Col Graham, M<sup>r</sup> Randall, Mr Gansevoort. The Committee unanimously chose Mr Hobart Chairman Pro tempore.

Whitehead Hicks Esq. attending on a summons returnable this day was called in.

The Chairman read to him part of the resolution of Congress of this Colony relative to persons of equivocal character—and desired him to shew cause to this Committee why he should be considered as a friend to the cause & rights of America—

Mr Hicks says the cause he can shew is only negative, That he defies Envy itself to shew any thing in his conduct that is against his country, that he has for many years held honorable & lucrative Crown Offices unsolicited & repeatedly sworn allegiance to the Crown—That in this situation were his nerves stronger, he would not willingly personally take up arms on the part of the Country. That his father & Brothers are strongly attached to & engaged in the American Cause, that he therefore as well as from principle never will be induced to take up arms against his Country. That some of his near relations are in the Continental Army—That he never advised or dissuaded any person not even his servant or domesticks in these measures—That his servant has been engaged in this Countrys service from the first of these troubles—& is now actually serving in the troops raised in this Colony without the least contradiction or dissuasion on his part.

Mr Hicks was then asked by the Chairman whether in his opinion that the British Parliam<sup>t</sup> has a right to tax America—

He replied that he would be very unwilling to be taxed by the British Parliament.

Mr Hicks was then asked by the Chairman whether he thot the present measures of the Colonies in defending by arms justifiable, to this he replied that arms were the last resort and justifiable where necessary as the last resort but that he has not fully examined or considered whether every other necessary expedient had been previously used—

The Chairman then asked him whether he was willing to subscribe the Association made by the Provincial Congress on the 29th inst. to which he replied that he could not sign it because he could not take up arms, and that as an honest man he could not sign any thing which he did not mean to perform.

Mr Hicks withdrew—

Resolved unanimously that Whitehead Hicks Esq is not such a Friend to the cause & rights of America as is mentioned in the Resolutions of the Congress of 5th day of June inst—

Resolved unanimously that it is not necessary to remove Mr Hicks from his present place of Residence—

Resolved unanimously that Mr Hick's parole be taken that he will not oppose or contravene the measures of the Continental Congress or the Congress of this Colony & that his parole is sufficient security—

Mr Hicks was called in and informed of the determination of the Committee & a Copy of the Parole delivered to him. Mr Hicks read the Copy of the Parole and declared that he would wish to consider whether this parole might in any manner interfere with his Oath of Office of a Judge but had not any other objection to it—the Committee informed Mr Hicks that he might take the time to consider of it.

Mr Hicks requested & the Committee consented that Mr Hicks consider thereof until Monday next—then to return the said parole signed or to call on this Committee.

An Order of the Congress of this Colony the 21st instant relative to Samuel Witten—referring his case to this Committee was read, and is in the words following to wit (prout)

The letter from Col Hand exhibiting the chg<sup>s</sup> against the s<sup>d</sup> Samuel Whitten was also read & taken in consideration,

The s<sup>d</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Witten was called in. He says he crossed the Ferry in a Boat with some officers on thursday last—that he was something in liquor & spoke something too free. He then related the conversation with the officer during his passage across the ferry—He further says that he has been drafted for in Capt Bucchannans Company in which Company he is a Sergeant. That he voluntarily offered to take a chance of being drafted, that had he not been in the State he was he would not have said what he did at that time -- Whitten farther says that he thinks the Americans are right in their resistance by arms & that he is willing to take up arms & defend the Country that he only mentioned it as his opinion that the Troops would land at Long Island — that he never had any information of that kind, the said Sam<sup>l</sup> Whitten subscribed the Association made by the Congress of this Colony on the 20th instant —

Thereupon Resolved, that Samuel Whitten be discharged and permitted to go at large.

Mr Samuel Martin attending pursuant to a summons from this committee returnable this day was called in —

He says he attends in pursuance of a summons received last week.

The chairman read to him the resolutions of the Congress of this Colony of 20th Instant relative to persons of equivocal character, and desired him to show cause, if any he had, why he should be considered as a Friend to the American Cause.

Mr Martin says he has never done any thing against the Country, and is not an Enemy to the Country. That he always meant to remain as peaceable and inactive as he could.

The chairman asked Mr Martin if he chose to be considered as a Friend to the American Cause, and as one of those who are willing to risque their lives and fortunes in defence of America.

Mr Martin declared he should be sorry to be considered an enemy to the country and never meant to lift an Arm against America.

The chairman informed him that he now had an opportunity to distinguish himself as a friend to America.

He replied that he was ready to give any assurance that he would not take any active part agst America. That he never meant to take up arms.

Mr Martin being asked whether in his opinion the British Parliament has a right to tax America.

He replied that in his opinion the Parliament has not a right to lay internal taxes on the Colonies.

Being asked what he understood by internal taxation replied that he would consider a land tax as an internal tax.

Being asked whether he did not consider a tax on personal estates was equally unconstitutional.

He replied that he did not if it was for the regulation of trade. But that he is not a Politician, and has confined his Studies to his profession.

Mr. Martin was then asked whether he would give security that he would not oppose or contravene the measures of the Continental Congress or the Congress of this Colony.

He replied that he would, but that he did not know of any person in this City of apply to to be his security, that he would apply to his Father who resides on Long Island who would be his security.

Mr Martin withdrew.

Resolved unanimously that Samuel Martin is not a Friend to the American Cause.

The Chairman then put the question whether it is necessary to remove Samuel Martin from his present place of Residence.

The committee unanimously agreed that they have not sufficient information to determine that question at present, and therefore agreed to defer the further consideration thereof til to-morrow morning.

Mr. Martin was called in and informed thereof and desired to attend at the City Hall to-morrow morning at Ten o'clock.

Robert Fenton of the City of New York, Brass Founder being sworn saith that five or six weeks ago at his own house one Jacob Loree master of a Pettiaugre of John Rapalye asked him if there were any such things as getting Rifles in town — Dep<sup>t</sup> answerd that he did not believe there was one — Loree said that he believed there were many for that he had been applied to to carry a considerable number of

Examination of David Matthews.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 366.]

David Matthews Esq<sup>r</sup> Mayor of the City of New York being examined saith that about six or seven weeks ago the Ex<sup>t</sup> went on Board the Dutchess of Gordon by permission of General Putnam to obtain from the Governor Permission for Lord Drummond to go to Bermuda. That as the Ex<sup>t</sup> was about to leave the Dutchess the Gov<sup>r</sup> took him into his private Room, and put a bundle of paper money into his Hands telling Ex<sup>t</sup> to take out five pounds and give it to the Prisoners in the Goal, and pay the Rem<sup>r</sup> to Gill Forbes for some Rifles & round bored Guns which he had made for him & for others which the said Forbes was to make and to tell Forbes that he did not want any more Rifles. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> was surprised to hear that the s<sup>d</sup> Forbes was engaged in that Business, and at the same Time thought that Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon had put a Matter on his Shoulders which might bring him into some Difficulty. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> on his return to this City consulted a Friend of his, telling him that he would mention a Matter to him which he believed would surprize him, and then informed him that Gilb Forbes had supplied the Gov<sup>r</sup> with a Number of arms & was employed in that Business and that Ex<sup>t</sup> had brought up the money to pay him at the same time mentioning that he thought the Gov<sup>r</sup> had put a hard task on his Shoulders. That Ex<sup>t</sup> then advised with him what he should do and asked him whether he would take the money and endeavour to convey it to him privately, which he declined doing, and said that he would mention the matter so to Gilb Forbes as that he would be able to determine by his ans<sup>w</sup> whether he was the man. That to this Ex<sup>t</sup> consented. That Ex<sup>t</sup> after leaving his Friend concluded it would be best not to pay the s<sup>d</sup> money to Forbes but to delay it as long as possible, that in Case of a Discovery the Ex<sup>t</sup> might avail him self of not having paid altho he had rec<sup>d</sup> the s<sup>d</sup> money. That shortly after Forbes called on this Ex<sup>t</sup> and told him that he had been desired by the Gen<sup>t</sup> to whom this Ex<sup>t</sup> had mentioned it, to call on him for the money Ex<sup>t</sup> had rec<sup>d</sup> for him of Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon. That Ex<sup>t</sup> then asked him if it were possible that he hath been sending Guns on Board the Gov<sup>r</sup> Ship, to which he ans<sup>w</sup> in the aff<sup>e</sup>. That Ex<sup>t</sup> then told him he would be hanged if he was found out, and requested him if he regarded his Safety that he would not go on with such Schemes. That he s<sup>d</sup> he could send them on Board in such a way that no Body could find it out. That he had sent them on Board in a Conoe or Boat covered with a Straw Bed and two or three old chairs upon it. That he then asked Ex<sup>t</sup> to pay him the money. To which Ex<sup>t</sup> answered that he was to receive money and as soon as he got it he would pay it to him upon which they parted. That a few days after he called on Ex<sup>t</sup> again to know whether Ex<sup>t</sup> had rec<sup>d</sup> the money for that he wanted it very much. Ex<sup>t</sup> told him he had not and the better to account for Delays the Ex<sup>t</sup> had Recourse to this Subterfuge. That the Gov<sup>r</sup> had given him positive orders not to receive any payments for him but in York or Jersey money—That with this he seemed pleased and requested Ex<sup>t</sup> to pay him in that money because with it he could purchase certain articles necessary in his Buseness cheaper than with any other. That he then informed Ex<sup>t</sup> that he had a number of men whom he wanted to send down to the Gov<sup>r</sup>—That Ex<sup>t</sup> told him that he might save himself that trouble, for that the Gov<sup>r</sup> had told this Ex<sup>t</sup> that he had been obliged to turn many on Shore and could not receive any more — on which Forbes expressed some Concern as to what he should do with them, on which Ex<sup>t</sup> desired him to tell the men to go to their homes and drop any such schemes. That shortly after the s<sup>d</sup> Forbes again called on the Ex<sup>t</sup> for the money, and mentioned a scheme of raising a Company and requested to know whether he would have a Commission. That Ex<sup>t</sup> on this begged of him to desist from such a scheme, for that he would certainly be discovered and the Gallows would be his Lott & that it would be time enough for him to inlist men or act when he got his Commission. That he s<sup>d</sup> he could carry it on so as not to be found out, and that he could inlist a number of the General's Guards. That on this they parted. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> then found that M<sup>r</sup> Forbes became so troublesome to him that in order to get out of his way and stave off the Paym<sup>t</sup> af<sup>d</sup> this Ex<sup>t</sup> kept more in the Country than he w<sup>d</sup> otherwise have done. Then on Forbes finding this he pursued Ex<sup>t</sup> up to Flatbush and not finding him there pursued him to Polhemus about four miles from Jamaica in order to get his money. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> finding there was no way to get rid of him, told him that on Monday Ex<sup>t</sup> would come to town and pay him the money which was accordingly done viz: 114-8-0 and Ex<sup>t</sup> then hoped that he should not be plagued with him any more — That the next day Ex<sup>t</sup> again came to town and had been in his House but a few moments — when Forbes came into Ex<sup>t</sup> Office. That Ex<sup>t</sup> told him he must never come into Ex<sup>t</sup> Office any more on which he went away without saying a word. That John Young the Ex<sup>ts</sup> Clerk was present and then in the s<sup>d</sup> Office, and that Ex<sup>t</sup> has not seen the s<sup>d</sup> Forbes since. That at the time when the s<sup>d</sup> Forbes called on the Ex<sup>t</sup> as a<sup>d</sup> he mentioned to this Ex<sup>t</sup> a scheme he had of taking possession of one of the Batteries when the Fleet arrived, and another scheme of cutting down Kings Bridge — That this Ex<sup>t</sup> desired his friend above mentioned to advise and beg the s<sup>d</sup> Forbes to desist from s<sup>d</sup> measures and give them over — That this Ex<sup>t</sup> has never since or before rec<sup>d</sup> from Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon any other sum whatever for any such purposes whatever — That shortly before the time when this Ex<sup>t</sup> paid the af<sup>d</sup> money to the s<sup>d</sup> Forbes, this Ex<sup>t</sup> was at Waldrons Ferry standing near John Carpenter's stoop and that the said Forbes being in Company with one Serjeant Graham turned off from the s<sup>d</sup> Graham, and came up to this Ex<sup>t</sup>. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> asked him where he had been — he answered that he had been to look at all the Fortifications. Ex<sup>t</sup> asked him whether he was not afraid of being taken up by the Sentries, to which he replied that he was not, for that he could go there whenever he pleased.

That about the time that this Ex<sup>t</sup> paid the money af<sup>d</sup> to Forbes, This Ex<sup>t</sup> being in his office, a man in Regimentals came in which alarmed this Ex<sup>t</sup>. That he asked him whether he wanted this Ex<sup>t</sup>. He asked Ex<sup>t</sup> whether he was the Mayor to which Ex<sup>t</sup> replied he was, and asked him what he wanted—he observed to this Ex<sup>t</sup> that Ex<sup>t</sup> did not know him, for that he had never seen him before. Ex<sup>t</sup> said he did not know him—he told Ex<sup>t</sup> he was one of General Washingtons Guards, and meant to serve the King. Ex<sup>t</sup> told him he had nothing to do with inlisting men for the King. He said he had inlisted some that morning himself, and was about to pull a paper out of his Pocket in order to show Ex<sup>t</sup> their names. That Ex<sup>t</sup> told him he did not want to know their names, and had nothing to do with them, and advised him to return to his Quarters, for that if he was discovered he would be brought to the Gallows, on which he went away, and Ex<sup>t</sup> has neither seen or heard of him since. That another man a little before the time last mentioned, who said he came from the Country and knew Ex<sup>ts</sup> Father and Brother, came to this Ex<sup>t</sup> to see if he could not get on Board the Ship. Ex<sup>t</sup> asked him why he left his Home, he said he had been so persecuted he would not stay. Ex<sup>t</sup> advised him to return and keep himself quiet and that Ex<sup>t</sup> imagined no body would hurt him. That he replied he must and would get on Board some how or other, for that he did not dare to go back. Ex<sup>t</sup> then asked his name which he told Ex<sup>t</sup> was Forbes. Ex<sup>t</sup> told him then that he did not know of a likelier Person to serve him than a namesake of his that was in town—he asked Ex<sup>t</sup> if he meant Gilb Forbes, to which Ex<sup>t</sup> replied yes—he said he knew him and went in quest of him, and that Ex<sup>t</sup> has never seen him since. That several other persons unknown to this Ex<sup>t</sup> have at different times called on this Ex<sup>t</sup> to inquire how they might get on bord the ship. That Ex<sup>t</sup> always advised them to turn home and since Ex<sup>ts</sup> Interview af<sup>d</sup> with the Gov<sup>r</sup>, he told such as called upon him for the purpose af<sup>d</sup>, that there was no Room for them on Board, that many had been turned away, and that they had better go home. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> has no further knowledge than that he has af<sup>d</sup> declared relative to any Person being engaged in the Business of inlisting men for the Kings service, or in Keeping up a Communication between the City and the Gov<sup>rs</sup> Ship or Man of War at the Narrows. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> does not know otherwise than by sight, and has never spoken or written a Line to Peter M<sup>r</sup> Clean a shoe maker in this Town on any subject whatever.

Examination of William Forbes.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 360.]

William Forbes of Goshen Precinct in Orange County, Tanner and Currier, being examined saith that he knows Gilbert Forbes of the City of New York, Gunsmith. That the first time he saw him was in the City between the brick Meeting and the Goal, that he heard somebody call him M<sup>r</sup> Forbes. This Ex<sup>t</sup> accosted him and told him that his name was Forbes also, that there upon they went into Houldings a Tavern & drank together. That he has been at the House of the said Gilbert Forbes on an invitation from him. That he knows a Serjeant in Gen Washingtons Guards but cannot recollect his name. That he became acquainted with him at Corby's, an Innkeeper near Gen Washingtons. That this Exam<sup>t</sup> went to Corby's in Company with one James Mason from Ringwood who was at work in Corbens Garden. That the Sergeant was a Middle sized fresh Complection'd man an Englishman. That Ex<sup>t</sup> became acquainted with James Mason at Dutches County, afterwards saw him at Goshen and from thence came in Company with him to this town. That he told Mason he had been on Board the Man of War last winter while she lay in the East River—That he was never on Board the Dutchess of Gordon—That he never said he was on Board the Savage when she fired on Staten Island. That he had heard & among others from the s<sup>d</sup> Mason that 200 acres of Land was offered by Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon to each man who w<sup>d</sup> go in the Kings Service and 100 to the Wife & 50 to each Child—That Ex<sup>t</sup> borrowed twenty odd shillings of Mason & promised to repay him when Ex<sup>t</sup> got money from on Board the Man of War where he had two Brothers in Law who had promised to send him money to pay his Debts. That he never engaged with Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon or with any other Person whatever to undertake the Business of inlisting Soldiers for the King, nor of inticing the continental Soldiers to leave that Service.—That he and Mason came to Town by the way of Eliz Town, and that at Warwick, Mason persuaded one W<sup>m</sup> Benj<sup>n</sup> to go along with them. That he knows Peter McClean, a shoe maker near the Exchange. that Ex<sup>t</sup> applied to him to put him on Board the man of war. That McClean answered that he could not do it as all the Centries were so strict. That Ex<sup>t</sup> then s<sup>d</sup> to M<sup>c</sup>Clean that then he would inlist in the continental Service which he has since done in Cap<sup>t</sup> Beekmans Comp<sup>y</sup> of Lashers Batt<sup>n</sup>. That Ex<sup>t</sup> Mason & Benj<sup>n</sup> lodged the first night they came to Town at Houldings. That while they were there, Corby was introduced to Benj<sup>n</sup> & Mason by Gilb Forbes & Corby took them to his House where the Ex<sup>t</sup> has seen them in Company with Gilb Forbes and the af<sup>d</sup> Serjeant of the Guards.—This Ex<sup>t</sup> saw the said Ser<sup>ts</sup> & Gilb Forbes administer oathes of Secrecy to Mason, & two or three Soldiers—That Corby was present when the said Soldiers were sworn as af<sup>d</sup>—That after M<sup>c</sup>Clean had as af<sup>d</sup> told this Ex<sup>t</sup> that he knew not how to get on Board the man of war, M<sup>c</sup> Clean recommended him to David Mathews Esq<sup>r</sup> as a proper person to direct him how to get on Board the Man of War. That Ex<sup>t</sup> accordingly went to M<sup>r</sup> Mathews and told him that M<sup>c</sup>Clean had directed Ex<sup>t</sup> to him as a proper Person to tell him how he should get on Board the man, and that there was a Lad (meaning Mason) who had come down from Ringwood that wanted to go along. that M<sup>r</sup> Mathews told him it was too dangerous for him to say any thing about it but that he would direct him to one that would get him on Board and sent this Ex<sup>t</sup> for that purpose to Gilbert Forbes—That this Ex<sup>t</sup> accordingly applied to the s<sup>d</sup> Gilb Forbes and that Gilb Forbes said he could not do any thing in it till he had seen Corby. That shortly after the said Gilb Forbes told this Ex<sup>t</sup> that he had seen Corby & that Corby s<sup>d</sup> he would get Ex<sup>t</sup> on Board in a few Days. that Ex<sup>t</sup> afterwards saw Corby and that he made the like Promise to Ex<sup>t</sup> but Corby afterwards told him he could not and that he had been able only to send one on Board by a Mullatto Fellow.

That this Ex<sup>t</sup> knows John Clarke and that he told this Ex<sup>t</sup> that he had 50 or 60 Men to go into the Kings Service and that he had prevailed upon his Brother Anthony Clarke to consent to go with them—That John Clarke was to be a Cap<sup>t</sup> and that one Seely of Chester in Orange County was also to be one of the officers.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Archibald Hamilton attending on the Sumons returnable here this day called in.

The Chairman informed Cap<sup>t</sup> Hamilton of the Reasons of his being so summoned and read to him the Resolutions of Congress relative to Persons of equivocal Character, and told him that he was considered as of that number, and that the Com<sup>t</sup> hoped he would give them satisfactory Evidence of his being a friend to America.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Hamilton thereupon observed that he loved America, that he had fought and bled and been in Irons for her—that he wished her free and happy—and that no Promise or offer of Reward or Preferm<sup>t</sup> could tempt him to draw his sword ag<sup>t</sup> her. That he has refused such offers, and that he holds no office or Com<sup>m</sup> what ever under the King of Great Britain. That he has a Brother and other near Relitives now serv<sup>t</sup> in the King's armies, and that he could not think of unsheathing his sword ag<sup>t</sup> them or the King.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Hamilton on being asked by the Chairman whether in his opinion the Parliament of G. B. have a right to bind these Colonies in all Cases whatsoever, said he was not sufficiently acquainted with subjects of that kind to answer the Question, but that if he had twenty hearts he would sooner lose the Blood in them all than lose his Liberty.

The Chairman then asked him whether he would give his Parole of Honor neither directly or indirectly to oppose or contravene the measures of the Continental Congress or the Congress of this Colony, to which he answered that he w<sup>d</sup> very readily for that he never w<sup>d</sup> injure America in Word Thought or Deed.

Cap<sup>t</sup> Hamilton was then desired to withdraw and the Committee proceeded to take his case into Consideration. The result of which was That they un<sup>d</sup>

Resolved, That Cap<sup>t</sup> Hamilton was not such a friend to the American Cause as is described in the s<sup>d</sup> Resolutions for the Congress.

That it is unnecessary that he should be removed from the Place of his prest<sup>d</sup> Residence, that Confidence might be reposed in him as a man of honor and therefore that his parole was a sufficient security for his not opposing or contravening the measures of the Continental Congress or the Congress of this Colony. Cap<sup>t</sup> Hamilton was then called in and on his agreeing to give such parole, it was red<sup>d</sup> to writing and on his signing it, was discharged.

NEW YORK, June 24th 1776.

I, Archibald Hamilton, Esquire do declare upon my Honor that I will not directly or indirectly oppose or contravene the Measures of the Continental Congress or of the Congress of this Colony.

ARCH<sup>d</sup> HAMILTON.

[Miscel. Pap., 34: 374.]

John Yates of the Walkkill Precenct in Ulster County Labourer, being sworn saith,

That Early in thee last Spring Absalom Bull one of Dep<sup>t</sup> Neighbours came to him and told him that he was but a poor man and that if he would go with the s<sup>d</sup> Bull he would make a Gent of this Dep<sup>t</sup>. That this Dep<sup>t</sup> asked him how, he replied that if the Dep<sup>t</sup> would go and serve the King for three years or to the End of the American war if that sh<sup>d</sup> sooner happen this Dep<sup>t</sup> should have two hundred acres of Land on the Frontiers. That Dep<sup>t</sup> said it was very uncertain, for he did not see how he was to get a warrant Deed for it, but if he could get a warrant Deed for two hundred acres of Land he did not know but he might engage—on this they then parted.

That for many Days repeatedly after that, the s<sup>d</sup> Absalom Bull together with Isaac Waugh & Rich<sup>d</sup> Bull came to this Dep<sup>t</sup> and pressed him to Enter the King's Service, but the Dep<sup>t</sup> put them off—That they afterwards went, as they informed this Dep<sup>t</sup> on Board the Man of War and when they returned brought him a Letter from Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon informing this Dep<sup>t</sup> that if he would come on Board the Ship and pilot the Men of War up the North River he w<sup>d</sup> give this Dep<sup>t</sup> a Dollar a Day, and five pounds a foot for every foot that the Vessell he piloted drew more than 20 Feet, and should have two hundred acres of Land at the Determination of the American War, and that Ireland, Scotland and Wales had all united with England to subdue America.

That this Dep<sup>t</sup> had till within a few years last past been a Seafaring Man and was well acquainted with the navigation of the North River, which was well known by his said neighbours, and as this Dep<sup>t</sup> believes was by them made known to Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon.

That after three Days they all returned to this Dep<sup>t</sup> at Cap<sup>t</sup> Hulet af<sup>d</sup> and that Collonel Fanning the Gov<sup>r</sup> Secretary came with them. That the said Coll Fanning was well known to this Dep<sup>t</sup> he having often seen him, and this Dep<sup>t</sup> having been a mariner in Cap<sup>t</sup> Hunter's ship which brought the Coll from England—That at first this Dep<sup>t</sup> did not know Coll Fanning he being disguised in the Dress of a common Labouring Man—but on taking this Dep<sup>t</sup> aside he made himself known to him, whereupon this Dep<sup>t</sup> immediatly recollected his Face and person—That he asked this Dep<sup>t</sup> to go on Board with him. This Dep<sup>t</sup> answered that he was too sick to go. That then the Coll told him that if he could not go then, he must come down when the Fleet arrived and that they would send this Dep<sup>t</sup> a Letter to inform him of it—to which this Dep<sup>t</sup> agreed.

That Coll Fanning told him New York was to be the seat of War—That some of the Fleet would run round into the Sound and land Troops on Long Island—That another division would land on the South Side and hoist the King's Standard, and that all the men that engaged to serve the King should come to Long Island and join them, and that Cannon was already provided in different Parts of Long Island, and that there were then three Field Pices and Mortar Piece under the Floor of the Barn of the s<sup>d</sup> Simonson.

The s<sup>d</sup> Coll Fanning also told this Dep<sup>t</sup> that they should want him to pilot Vessels of War up the North River, and that the Savage, Phanix, and Shuldham (which he believes was formerly the Rhode Island Packet) were designed for that Service—

That the Coll desired this Dep<sup>t</sup> to bring all the Provisions he could on Board the Ships, and that he should receive the following Prices for them viz<sup>t</sup> five pounds a Barrell for salt Pork, a shilling per pound for Gammons, Eighteen pence p<sup>r</sup> pound for Butter, and a good price for Fowls, Eggs &c., and then gave this Dep<sup>t</sup> a Paper (now delivered) with a Seal on it and the Letters W. T. on the Back of it, and told this Dep<sup>t</sup> that it would serve him as a pass to go by all the Men of War & Cruisers unmolested.

That the af<sup>d</sup> Absalom Bull this Spring shew<sup>d</sup> this Dep<sup>t</sup> a List of Persons whom he had enlisted for the Kings Service. That the s<sup>d</sup> Absalom told him there were two hundred names on it which this Dep<sup>t</sup> really believed to be true, but this Dep<sup>t</sup> does not remember the Names of any of them except Rich<sup>d</sup> Bull, Alexander Seadden, James Seadden, Isaac Waugh, John Clark, the Painter af<sup>d</sup>, Jewel Smith and one Seeley of a place in Orange County called oxford. That Absalom Bull af<sup>d</sup> was to be a Cap<sup>t</sup> and had a Commission for it from Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon which he shew<sup>d</sup> to this Dep<sup>t</sup> and that it was written on Parchment and a great seal hanging to it but That this Dep<sup>t</sup> did not read it. The said Absalom Bull further said that all the men so inlisted for the Kings Service were to join the Fleet when it arrived, and that all who did not would be treated as Deserters from the Kings Service.

SIR: Whereas ——— Simerson of the township of Hempstead in Queens County Inn Keeper stands charged with dangerous Designs and treasonable Conspiracies against the Rights and Liberties of America and that for the Perpetration of such wicked Designs and Conspiracies he hath divers Cannon & other Impliments of war now concealed. We therefore by Virtue of the Power and authority unto us given by a resolve of the Congress of this Colony of the twentieth of June Instant do authorize and require you to cause to be apprehended and secured the said Simerson with all his Papers, and to make Search for & take all Cannon & other Implements of war whatsoever in his House Barn & outhouses, and that return be made to us of the manner in which this warrant shall be executed in order that the same may be made known to the said Congress.

IN THE COUNCIL CHAMBER OF THE CITY HALL OF THE }
CITY OF NEW YORK June 25th 1776. }

Examination & Bond of George Brewerton.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 523.]

George Brewerton, of the City of New York Esq., being examined, saith that he never was engaged in any design of enlisting men to serve the King against the Americans—nor was he otherwise acquainted with the existence of any such design except in the following manner:—Capt Benson about three weeks ago told the Ex<sup>t</sup> he had heard that Gilbert Forbes was employed enlisting men for the Kings Service, and asked the Ex<sup>t</sup> whether he knew any thing of it, that Ex<sup>t</sup> told him he knew nothing of the matter, and that if Forbes had engaged in the business he was a fool. That the Ex<sup>t</sup> afterwards asked Forbes about it, and told him if he enlisted any men in that way he did very wrong. That Forbes replied that there was nothing of it, and that he was not engaged in any such business. That this Dep<sup>t</sup> instead of aiding the Ministerial Armies, has advised and persuaded men to enlist in the Continental Service, and without being applied to by the Committee for that purpose, did dispose of 7 or 8 Firelocks to be employed in the defence of the American Cause, and would have remained in this City and assisted in defending it had it not been for the late riotous proceeding against persons suspected of being Tories, under which suspicion Ex<sup>t</sup> has fallen as he supposes from his refusing to sign the association of the Committee of Safety, to which he, as well as many other good friends to the cause refused to subscribe. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> has signed the first association, and had no objection to signing the last in common with his fellow citizens. That about two weeks ago David Mathews, Esq., asked the Ex<sup>t</sup> whether he knew Forbes, that the Dep<sup>t</sup> said he knew most of the Forbes's; and asked Mr Mathews why—he said that he had an acc<sup>t</sup> ag<sup>t</sup> Gov. Tryon and that the Governor had sent money by him to pay Forbes. That the Ex<sup>t</sup> then asked Mr

Mathews how the Gov. came to owe him money; he replied that he believed it was for Riffle Guns that he had sent him, on which the Ex<sup>t</sup> observed that it must be Gilbert Forbes the Gunsmith, and that the Ex<sup>t</sup> s<sup>d</sup> he did not take him for such a fellow. Mr Mathews said that he was also much surprised, the Ex<sup>t</sup> said he would speak to Forbes, that Ex<sup>t</sup> afterwards saw Forbes and asked him whether he had an acc<sup>t</sup> agst Gov. Tryon, to which he answered no. That Ex<sup>t</sup> asked him if he had not sent things to the Gov — to which he said no, that Ex<sup>t</sup> then s<sup>d</sup> he thought he had heard the Mayor say he had re<sup>cd</sup> money for him from Gov. Tryon. Forbes then confessed that the Gov. owed him money. The Ex<sup>t</sup> then left him without further Questions. That some time afterward Ex<sup>t</sup> re<sup>cd</sup> a few lines from Mr Mayor with some money informing this Ex<sup>t</sup> that he was going out of Town and requesting him to deliver it to Forbes, which Ex<sup>t</sup> did. That this Ex<sup>t</sup> does not remember that Mr Mayor desired him to persuade Forbes from the prosecution of any designs agst America, but that this Ex<sup>t</sup> did as af<sup>sd</sup> of his own accord call upon Forbes and to dissuade him as above related. This Ex<sup>t</sup> most solemnly declares that he never entertained or was concerned in any design whatever agst the Interest and safety of America.

CITY HALL, NEW YORK, June 26th 1776.

The Committee met pursuant to adjournment, but for want of room adjourned to Scotts Tavern.

Present: Mr Phil Livingston, Mr Tredwell, Col. Graham, Mr Randall, Mr Gansevoort.

The Gentlemen present unanimously chose Leonard Gansevoort, Esq., Chairman pro tempore.

The Committee resumed the consideration of Doctor Samuel Martins case.

The proceedings of yesterday as to Mr Martin were read and the Committee resumed the question the determination whereof was postponed yesterday, and the same question was then put by the Chairman, and thereupon,

Resolved unanimously, That it is not necessary to remove Doctor Samuel Martin from the place of his present Residence, as there is not any proof offered or known to this Committee that he has broken the Condition of his Bond, given to the President of the Congress of this Colony on the 17th day of Feb'y last.

Resolved unanimously, That Doctor Martins Parole be taken that he will not directly or indirectly oppose or contravene the measures of the Continental Congress or the Congress of this Colony, and that his parole together with the above mentioned Bond is sufficient security.

Doctor Martin was called in and signed a Copy of his parole which is in the words following, viz: I, Samuel Martin of far Rockaway etc. (prout) — a certified copy of which parole was given to the said Samuel Martin.

Mr Martin then requested that some certificate might be given to him to prevent his being molested by any person while his conduct shall be agreeable to his parole.

And whereas the said Samuel Martin also this day hath given his parole to the s<sup>d</sup> Congress of this Colony that he will not directly or indirectly oppose or contravene the measures of the Continental Congress or of the Congress of this Colony.

It is hereby recommended to all Friends to the United Colonies, and to all other persons whomsoever not to molest, interrupt, or disturb the said Samuel Martin while he continues to fulfil the conditions of his said Bond and to observe and keep his parole of Honor.

Ordered that Summons do issuc etc.

Adjourned to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

I, James Mathews, Esq., of Orange County in the Colony of New York do most solemnly declare that the claims of the British Parliament to bind at their discretion the People of the United Colonies in America in all cases whatsoever, are in my opinion absurd, unjust and tyrannical, and that the hostile attempts of their fleets and Armies to enforce submission to those wicked and ridiculous claims ought to be resisted by arms. And therefore I do engage and associate under all the ties which I hold sacred to defend by arms these United Colonies against the said hostile attempts agreeable to such laws and regulations as my representatives in the Congresses or future general assemblies of this Colony have or shall for that purpose make and establish.

JAMES MATHEWS.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 404.]

Israel Youngs being sworn saith that when he was first put in the Goal of this City viz<sup>t</sup> about six weeks ago, he was confined there in the same Room with Thomas Vernom of the City of New York Hatter. That The s<sup>d</sup> Th<sup>s</sup> asked this Dep<sup>t</sup> where he came from. Dep<sup>t</sup> told him he was born & brought up in Queens County, he asked this Dep<sup>t</sup> if he knew John Hulet & Rich<sup>d</sup> Hulet—Dep<sup>t</sup> said he did, particularly John for Dep<sup>t</sup>'s brother had married his Daughter. That the said Vernom thereupon spoke very freely to this Dep<sup>t</sup> on the subject of Politics— & said he<sup>d</sup> be damned if the Fleet did not come soon and let them all out— he confessed to this Dep<sup>t</sup> that he had several Times been on Board the Dutchess of Gordon where he had seen Rich<sup>d</sup> Hulet & Th<sup>s</sup> Cornel that he had also seen Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon often and that Gov<sup>r</sup> would talk very free with them. That they had on Board a number of Rivingtons Types & one of his printers— That he had written a Letter to the Gov<sup>r</sup> the Monday before for money and that he expected the next Day to receive it— That the next Day the s<sup>d</sup> Thomas rec<sup>d</sup> a Letter which he said was from the Gov<sup>r</sup> and also some water work money which he s<sup>d</sup> they counterfeited on Board the Dutchess and he himself had seen them printing it off— That they had a Chest of it— This Dep<sup>t</sup> says that the money af<sup>d</sup> resembled the said water work money so much that he sh<sup>d</sup> have taken it for genuine but that the paper seemed to be rather thicker. the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom further told this Dep<sup>t</sup> that he kept a Pettiauger and she used to go after sand and so he got on Board the Dutches and this Dep<sup>t</sup> further saith that the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom told him they were inlisting men in the Kings Service and that a Capt in Coll M Dugalls Reg<sup>t</sup> whose name this Dep<sup>t</sup> cannot recollect had a Com<sup>n</sup> from Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon for that purpose— That a man whom the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom told this Dep<sup>t</sup> was the s<sup>d</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> came one Day to the Door of the Room in which this Dep<sup>t</sup> and the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom were confined, and conversed with the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom thro the Hole of the Door but this Dep<sup>t</sup> did not overhear them. That when he went away Vernom told this Dep<sup>t</sup> that was the Cap<sup>t</sup> who was inlisting men for Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon, and that he had got an hundred — The said Vernom also told this Dep<sup>t</sup> that he had by Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon's orders engaged with Dawkins an Engraver who had been taken up on a Charge of counterfeiting money, to go on Board the Dutches & cut money Plates for the Gov<sup>r</sup> and that the Gov<sup>r</sup> was to give the s<sup>d</sup> Dawkins a hundred pound for his Trouble, and that the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom was to have carried him on Board had not Dawkins got drunk and told that the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom was going to carry him on Board, which being made known to him the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom, he was afraid to attempt carrying him off at the time appointed, and that Dawkins immediately after disappeared — The s<sup>d</sup> Vernom further told this Dep<sup>t</sup> that he was in Goal with Dawkins before, That Dawkins left his Chest open and that he Vernom intending to take something out of his Chest & make him treat him for giving it to him again, opened the Chest and found in it a Plate to strike Pensylvania money and kept it near a week that Dawkins when he missed it was very uneasy and that the s<sup>d</sup> Vernom again delivered it to him.

This Dep<sup>t</sup> further says that when Thomas Hickey and Michal Lynch of the Generals Guards were apprehended for money making they were confined in the same Room with this Dep<sup>t</sup> that they cursed and swore a great deal and damn<sup>d</sup> themselves if they would ever fight any more for America. That this Dep<sup>t</sup> talked Tory with them, and by that means they came to confide in him. That Hickey & Lynch s<sup>d</sup> there were near seven hundred men inlisted for the King and that the night before the Fleet arrived they were to have notice of it that they were to repair towards Kings Bridge and join them — and that some of the Fleet were to go up the North River and another Party up the East River and so surround the Island. Dep<sup>t</sup> understood from them that they were both inlisted and their names sent on Board the Man of War. They also said that the army was very corrupt and spoke very slightly of Coll M<sup>c</sup>Dougalls Reg<sup>t</sup>. That when the news came to their Room that the Plot was discovered and that the Congress had taken up some of them, the s<sup>d</sup> Hickey & Lynch seemed to be a good Deal uneasy, but they comforted themselves in this — Lynch said they had not got his name for it was gone on Board the Man of War, and Hickey s<sup>d</sup> if they had got his name it was not of his writing and therefore neither of them could be hurt. Lynch further s<sup>d</sup> that if the Guards came to be a little thinner he would make his Escape thro the Windows.

James Campbell & Alexander Anderson being duly sworn upon the holy Evangelists do depose that they together with Michael Tremper & Abraham Brower somewhere about the second or third days of May were in Company at the house of Mr. Ellsworth at Paules Hook, that while there John Taylor came in & after calling for wine and pressing them to drink pulled out a good many bills, declaring that he had then Five Hundred Pounds about him which he had received for lands sold by him in Morris County. that he had been up there twice before & received in all upwards of seventeen hundred Pounds & that he expected to go up again & receive more. that these deponents were much suprised to hear the said Taylor make such declarations as they took him to be in low circumstances & knew him to be a man of infamous character — That the said Taylor was then armed with Pistols & a Cutlass & gave as a reason for carrying those Arms that he was afraid of being insulted upon the road, & the said James Campbell further saith that he beleives the said John Taylor to be greatly disaffected to the American Cause as the said Taylor is intimate with Gilbert Forbes & others of the like stamp and further he saith that at the time above mentioned the said John Taylor pulled out a Purse in which was Gold & Silver about three Inches deep & three or four Inches Diameter and further these deponents or either of them say not.

THURSDAY, A. M., June 27th 1776.

The Committee met at the City Hall in the Council Chamber pursuant to adjournment,

Mr Axtell attending according to the order of this Committee of the 24th inst. was called in. He says that he is of the same opinion that he was the last time he was before this Committee as to the signing of the parole which was offered to him, as his signing that parole might be construed on the other side of the water an Overt act and made use of to forfeit his Estate there. Mr Axtell further says that he is ready to give his parole not to take any active part against this country, or do any thing inconsistent with the duties of a good citizen.

Mr Axtell at the request of the Committee withdrew.

The Committee then took Mr Axtells particular case into consideration, and after some time spent therein, the Committee agreed that the particular situation of Mr Axtells Estate and property is such as in the opinion of this Committee requires a particular provision in his case which is not in the power of this Committee to make. That therefore this Committee will state his case (concealing his name) to the Congress of this Colony for their direction in the premisses and in the meantime discharge Mr Axtell on his parole to attend this Committee on receipt of a letter or notice to that purpose.

Mr Axtell was called in and informed of the present determination of the Committee and promised to the Committee to attend them again at any time on request. Mr Axtell then farther offered to the Committee if it was tho't necessary that he should remove from his present place of Residence, he was very ready to remove with his family up Hudson River or to any other county in the Colony, and to have limits assigned to him, but that it would be disagreeable to him to remove out of the Colony. Mr Axtell further says that if all the Estates he was possessed of was in the America only he would not hesitate to determine the matter and fully express his sentiments which in his opinion was not proper for him to do in his present situation.

Adjourned to nine o'clock to morrow Morning.

A Case stated by the Committee appointed by the Congress of this Colony to carry into Execution their Resolutions of the 5th day of June Instant relative to persons inimical to the Cause and Rights of America and those of equivocal Character.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 308.]

A. B. holding an Honorary Office from the King of Great Britain and being a Gentleman of Fortune was summoned to appear before your Committee and appeared at the Time and place for that purpose appointed.

On his appearance before your said Committee the Chairman informed him of the Resolutions of this Congress as to persons of Equivocal Character; and desired him to give Evidence of his being a Friend to the American Cause—The Gentleman appealed to the uniform Tenor of his Conduct which he said had never been unfriendly to this Country—Being then asked whether he approved of the American opposition, he replied that he did not of the whole, and signified a disapprobation of the Canada Expedition—On being asked whether the parliam<sup>t</sup> of Great Britain in his opinion have a Right to bind these Colonies in all cases whatever; he said in his opinion they had not and he fully approved of the first part of the association Resolved on by this Congress on the Twentieth day of June Instant—On Being asked whether a resistance by arms to the Hostile attempts of the British Fleet and armies to enforce & Execute their claims and demands was Justifiable? He declined to give an answer but declared that the Bulk of his Fortune was in Great Britain & the West Indies & that he did not mean to take an active part on either side.

Your Committee thereupon Resolved that he is not such a Friend to the American Cause as is described in your said Resolutions of the fifth Instant That his removal from his present place of Residence was unnecessary; and that his parole in the words directed by your said Resolutions was sufficient security.

The Gentleman assigned objections to give this parole and said he would submit to such disposition of him as your Committee should make. He thereupon had two days allowed him to Consider of the said parole at which time he returned to your said Committee.

On his return to your Committee the Gentleman was of the same opinion as before and said he could not consent to give his parole "not to oppose or Contravene the measures of the Continental Congress or of the Congress of this Colony," as his giving or signing such parole might in his apprehension be construed on the other side of the Water to be an Overt act, and made use of to forfeit his Estates there.

The Gentleman offered to your Committee to give his parole not to take an active part against this Country, or do anything in Consistant with the duty of a good citizen.

He farther voluntarily offered that if it was tho't necessary that he should remove from his present place of Residence, he was willing to remove with his family to any County in the Colony, and to have Limits assigned to him, but intimated that it would be disagreeable to him to remove out of the Colony.

He also informed your Committee that if his whole Estate was in American Colonies only, he would not hesitate to determine the matter, and fully express his Sentiments; which in his opinion it is not proper for him to do in the present situation of his affairs.

Your Committee believe the Gentleman to be a man of High Honor and Integrity, and have not the least Doubt but that any Parole which he will consent to give, he will hold Sacred and perform; and he is to attend your Committee again on Notice. But in the Execution of the said Resolves they have now no alternative but a Warrant and force against the Gentleman and Confinem<sup>t</sup>. The policy of this measure Your Committee Submits to Congress, and request their Directions in the premisses.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 507.]

Mr. FREDERICK RHILANDER:

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 402.]

The Information of M<sup>r</sup> David Baldin, Saith he has had Reasons for some time past to believe there was a Correspondance kept up by the people of Rambo and the men of war as well from the temper of the people as from many Words Dropt from time to time he says that about the 17th Ins<sup>t</sup> he told that Lawrence Van Bushkirk the Miller at Rambo, abraham Van boskerk and a Schoolmaster & Thomas Van Boskirk at Saddle River was going on Board the Man of War that something prevented all but the School Master who he veryly Beleives did go & that there is one Peter Van Bushkirk Living at or near the hook or mouth of the Kills in Bargain County who its frequently said has followed trading with the men of war who he has Reason to believe Carrys people on Board when Ever Requested, and has a sufficient Craft for that purpose, and that this Informant Came to New York on purpose to let it be known that on his way he stoped at Erlses in Bargain woods where he was Drinking toddy in Company with Francis Steephens Late a Resident of this City who took him the said baldin to be freindly to the tory side when said Stephens told Baldin that there was 50 Sale of Kings Ships near the hook and that there would soon be 150 Sail to New York that Erls said that knews Came from on board the Man of War this Week that Stephens Charged the Informant not to mention it to some certain freind of his in New York.

Sworn the 29 June 1776 Before us:

PHIL LIVINGSTON,
JOHN JAY.

Gilbert Forbes being again examined further saith That he knows one —— Silk, that he was left by Cap<sup>t</sup> Arden to wait upon his wife who lives on long Island some where near Hempstead, That he is often in Town, frequently at M<sup>r</sup> Airys and M<sup>r</sup> Brandon—has the air of a Soldier—wears a short brown hunting Coat & a double breasted Jacket of the same Color—That he used to wait on a M<sup>r</sup> Miller who lives or lodges in M<sup>r</sup> Gouverneurs House on Rotten Row—That Sergeant Graham an old Soldier discharged from the Royal Artillery was employed by Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon to speak to Ex<sup>t</sup> about enlisting men for the Kings Service & told this Ex<sup>t</sup> from the Gov<sup>r</sup> that if this Ex<sup>t</sup> exerted him self in that Business & raised a number of men he sh<sup>d</sup> have a Comp<sup>y</sup>.

That the s<sup>d</sup> serjeant also informed him that at the request of the Gov<sup>r</sup> he had surveyed the ground & work about this City and on Long Island, in Consequence of which he had concerted a Plan for an attack which he had given to Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon & of which the Gov<sup>r</sup> approved—which was as follows viz<sup>t</sup>—That the Man of War should cannonade the Battery at Red Hook & while that was doing a Detachment of the army with some Cannon &<sup>c</sup> should land below or ab<sup>t</sup> Red Hook and march round so as to come upon the Back of the Battery near Swederlands House, that a small part of the Detachment sh<sup>d</sup> make a Feint of marching up the road leading directly to the Battery, but that the main body were to make a circuitous march so as to reach the Battery while our attention was engaged by the Feint as<sup>d</sup>—That if they carried that Battery which they expected to take by storm, they were immediately to attack the Battery on the Hill near the Ferry which the serjeant said would be easily done as no ambrazures were made or cannon fixed on the back side of it—That this latter Battery when in their possession would command the works on the Governors Island which they would keep between two Fires viz<sup>t</sup> the Battery last mentioned on one side and the shipping on the other—That then the shipping with the Remainder of the army were to decide, one division was to run up the North River & land at or about Clearke's Farm, and march directly to Enclenbergh Hill and fortify there—The other Division was to run up the East River and land in such manner as to gain a Footing on Jones Hill from whence they expected to command & silence the Battery on Bayards Hill—That should they gain possession of the Places above mentioned, their next object would be the Grounds adjacent to Kings Bridge where they intend to erect strong works so as to cut off the Communication between the City & Country.

Gilbert Forbes being further Ex<sup>d</sup> saith That sometime before the Men of War removed from the Town to the narrows one webb a Burr millstone maker told Ex<sup>t</sup> that if he had any Rifles to sell he might get a good Price for them by sending them on Board the Man of War, and that a young man who lived with James Rivington told him the same—That this Ex<sup>t</sup> had then nine Rifles which he made, but they were bad and would not shoot straight, and Eleven smooth narrow bored Guns. That he sent some of them to one M<sup>r</sup> Becks a Tavern Keeper near the Fly Market with orders to send them on Board which she accordingly Did and that the s<sup>d</sup> Webb carried the Remainder—That the s<sup>d</sup> Webb told this Ex<sup>t</sup> that Gov<sup>r</sup> Tryon would give him three Guineas a peece for them—That at the Time when an Exchange of Prisoners took Place with the Man of War & Tiley was among others exchanged the Mayor viz<sup>t</sup> David Matthews Esq<sup>r</sup> sent for this Ex<sup>t</sup> & told him he was going on Board the Gov<sup>r</sup>s ship and that he would get the money due from the Gov<sup>r</sup> to this Ex<sup>t</sup> for the Rifles at<sup>n</sup>—That on his Return the Mayor told Ex<sup>t</sup> he would pay him in a few days—That this Ex<sup>t</sup> never did receive any money from him for the s<sup>d</sup> fire arms—That this Ex<sup>t</sup> told Ch<sup>r</sup> Benson that he was about enlisting men for the King & that he told this Ex<sup>t</sup> it would do.

GILBERT FORBES.

1776: Summons to John Harris Cruger, Esq., and George Folliott to appear before the Committee to show cause why they should not be considered enemies to the American Cause.

Address of the Provincial Congress to the Inhabitants of New York.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 486.]

The Congress being informed that a Report has prevailed that they intend to put the Independent Companies in this City on half pay, are apprehensive it may discourage many who now belong to those Companies from enlisting in the public Service, and think it proper to remove this impediment by Declaring that they have no such Design in Contemplation, and they do earnestly recommend it to those Able Bodied men who have a Design to enlist in the Service to be expeditious in doing it lest we may be drove to the necessity of procuring men from the neighbouring Colonies, which would be not only dishonourable to the Province, but become a great Injury to its Poor; we therefore address you with full confidence that you will shew a becoming Spirit on this occasion, and we observe that as the Time is approaching when probably the Poor will be deprived of the means of a comfortable Subsistence, those able Bodied men who shall decline enlisting in the Service must be the last who can expect to be Relieved by the hand of Public Charity, and this Congress further declare, that at this alarming time of Public Danger, when every thing near and dear to us is at stake, it is the Duty of every good Citizen to encourage the Inlistment of our Troops, and we shall Consider all who discourage it to be unfriendly to the Interests of their Country.

Report of Committee on Petition of Artificers and Shipwrights.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 327.]

Your Committee to whom was referred the Petition of Abner Baldwin and eleven others on behalf of themselves and their Several Companies of Artificers, praying an addition of half a ration to their present allowance. And also the Petition of George Peek in behalf of himself and the Body of Machanicks praying an addition to their wages— Do report: That the prayer of said Petition of Abner Baldwin and eleven others ought to be Granted—

And your Committee do further report that they have had a conference with Robert Hatton, Foreman of the Shipwrights, and the aforesaid George Peek in behalf of himself and the rest of the Journey Men Shipwrights. In the course of which conference the said Robert Hatton proposed that an allowance of 14s and one half pint of Rum per Day ought to be allowed him for his future Service. And the said George Peek for himself and the rest of the Machanicks propose that an allowance of 11s and one half pint of Rum for each Man per Day ought to be allowed them for their future Service. Your Committee Do further Report that the said Robert Hatton and George Peek requested if the aforesaid Terms should not meet the approbation of the Committee, that they would be pleased to furnish them the said Robert Hatton and George Peek with their Proposals.

Your Committee are of opinion that their* Present wages together with the allowance of one and a half Ration for each man per day is an adequate Compensation for their Labour and ought to be continued.

All of which is nevertheless humbly Submitted.

We therefore your Humble Petitioners, Humbly pray you would Forthwith take this our deplorable and distressed State and condition under your Immediate consideration, and meditate some speedy relief for us, before it be too late; Especially as the Inhabitants of the old England District and Unadalla are daily flying into our settlement; so that we shall immediately in all appearance become an open defenceless and unguarded Frontier, and very much exposed to the Insults of the Enemy, especially Scalping parties, and are at present without either ammunition or men, any way sufficient to Defend ourselves, and unless you Gentlemen, that can help us will help us, by sending ammunition to the Inhabitants, and a sufficient number of men, such as you may think proper to guard our Frontiers, we must expect to fall victims to the rage & Fury of our merciless Enemies, and therefore must once more beg you may take this our Deplorable circumstances under your consideration, and send us immediate relief; And your Petitioners shall Ever pray.

That your Petitioners with some others were appointed and acted as a Committee of Inspection to prevent goods being brought into this Province (Contrary to the Non Importation agreements Entered into by the Merchants of this City) in June 1770, about which time a certain David Hill was Detected vending goods which he had brought from Rhode Island, Providence, in this City contrary to the said Non Importation agreement and a number of the Inhabitants with some of the Committee advised him to store the goods in the house of Jonas Platt and to come before the Committee and give an account of what he had done which he promised and stored the goods accordingly; but the following Night some persons to your Petitioners unknown, took the goods from the said Platt's and Destroyed them, and some time after that the said David Hill Commenct an action at Providence in Rhode Island Government against the Committee here not only those that were with him and advised him to store the goods but the others also, and by the Extraordinary Conduct of the Court there obtain'd a verdict against the Members of the Committee Generally and levied Execution for the same on Lands in that Colony belonging to an Individuall of the Committee and one who never had spoke to Hill about his goods for which (after his having in vain apply'd to the Rhode Island Assembly for a Redress and a Rehearing which said Governor Hopkins and his Party prevented) he was forced to pay in August 1772 the sum of £462 0s. 1d., Including charges for Defence and application to the Assembly, which sum with the Interest thereon since and a second sum recovered by Hill for Damages on a Prosecution commenced at Rhode Island against him and some charges paid in Defending a suit brought by one Jarvis Elam on a like Case amounts as per account herewith annext to £613 0s. 9d. New York Currency, a sum too large for an Individuall thus unjustly to suffer and loose for serving the Publick or even for the Members of that Committee to pay. The copies of the proceedings in those Extraordinary Tryals, we also herewith send you, and as the Committee tho' appointed by this City and County acted for the good of the Province in Generall in Defence against the arbitrary Parliamentary Taxes, we think your Honourable Board the proper place to apply to for Redress, and do therefore Request you will be pleased to take the case into consideration and make the suffering Individuall such satisfaction as the Nature of the case requires. [Miscel. Pap. 34 : 521.]

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE PLAINS, 12th July, 1776.

M<sup>r</sup> ——— being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelest of Almighty God, Deposeth and Says, That some time after W<sup>m</sup> Sutton returned Home from Gouv<sup>r</sup> Tryon' ship He this Deponent was informed by said Sutton as follows—That our people were to be cut off from New York & that the Kings Forces were to land about ten miles from Mamaroneck—that Hudsons river was to be occupied by them. That the Fleet was to be drawn up in a line before New York with intent to keep the Forces there in Action, in order to give the Transports a better opportunity of running up the North River with intent to cut off the Communication between the County & City—that the Kings Standard was to be hoisted & that then the Tories would have a Chance.

That said Sutton further informed this Deponent that Robert Sutton of Long Island would join the Regulars with Seven Hundred men well equip'd—that a Proclamation would be issued out by the Kings Party, that then the People would know what they had to expect & that there would be Forty five thousand Troops sent over to America this summer. And this Deponent says that he heard Jn<sup>o</sup> Sutton son of the aforesaid W<sup>m</sup> declare that the Regulars would land between Mamaroneck and Horse Neck & that he would join them. And this Deponent further says that he heard James Horton say that he was sure the Ministerial army would Conquer us & that matters would soon be settled & further says not.

By order of the Committee,

This Committee are of opinion that the within Deponent is a Person whose Evidence may be relied upon—they never hearing of any thing that might give them a contrary Opinion

By order of the Committee of Safety,

Case of Capt. Sacket and other Officers.

[Petitions, 33 : 224.]

To the Honorable the Convention of the State of New York.

GENTLEMEN: Whereas we have had the Honor to serve in the Continental Army by your appointment last year, we beg leave to mention to you a state of facts which we esteem as real Grievances & look up to you for Direction or Redress.

When first the dire alarm of war was sounded in our Land, we willingly stepped forth & offer'd our services to our bleeding Country & were much pleased with the appointments you honor'd us with. Urg'd on by the same motives which first induced us to engage we Indur'd all the Hardships of a most severe Campaign with a pleasing Fortitude not doubting but whilst we were doing our Duty we should meet with the applause of our Country, and that an Equal Distribution of Honor would have been conferr'd on those who had not merited the reverse, But this has not been the case, a few have been promoted to high Rank, while others of equal standing & merit are superseded or entirely neglected. Among the many Instances of this Procedure that might be given the most recent is the late arrangement of the officers of a Reg<sup>t</sup>, to be Commanded by Lewis Dubois Esqr. The Injustice of which will we hope fully appear to your Honorable House, if you will please to look over the Copy of the arrangement itself, which we take the liberty of inclosing to you. We humbly desire you Gentlemen to take this matter into consideration & are with due Respect (in behalf of the disbanded officers that serv'd in Canada).

AARON AORSON.

WHITE PLAINS, July 12th 1776.Resolution of the Committee of Dutchess County.

[Miscel. Pap. 35 : 35.]

IN GENERAL COMMITTEE, DUTCHESS COUNTY, July 13th 1776.

Resolved, that five of the Representatives elected for this County be a Quorum to represent the same in the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New York.

An extract from the minutes :

[Miscel. Pap. 39 : 472.]

Jacob Tyley on his Examination says, that he has liv'd in the City about 18 years—was born in the City of Bristol in the Island of Great Britain—has kept a School in the City of New York about 12 years—before which Time he was in the service of M<sup>r</sup> Kortright as Mate aboard of his Vessel—he has not signed any association to his knowledge—that last Saturday or a Monday there was as he heard to be a firing of all the Batteries about York, that on Tuesday he went to work in the Harvest and on Wednesday he heard there was to be a general firing of all the Batteries on account as he heard of Independence being declar'd—that he thought the matter was defer'd until fryday—that on Fryday afternoon he went up to Leonards to drink beer and while there the Guns began to fire upon which the Company observed that they thought there was some fiting O no reply'd this examinant Tis nothing but the alarm I heard of Some Days ago when he left the House and heard more firing and said he thought the firing was from Buncker's Hill,—he then thought his wife would be frightened and therefore repar'd to the Hill in the neighborhood of his own House—when he came there some Person who he does not remember observed when another Gun was heard that there was a Ball which this Examinant denied and said he thought there was no Ball but that it was a general Salute on account of Independence—and that he knew of no shlips coming up—That a Person present belonging to Coll. Willis Regiment, reply'd why damn you you are a Tory when this Examinant observed he was sure it was nothing but a Salute from the Batteries and that there was no Shot. The Person then reply'd you lie you damn Tory dog, there was shot and if this Examinant said another Word he would give him a Slic in the Chops and knock his Brains out upon which this Ex reply'd it was very hard he could not be allow'd to Speak the Truth—That the Person then Said you impertinent Rascal if you dont hold your Tongu I will give you a Blow in the Chops at the same Time holding up his fist apparently for that Purpose upon that this Ex<sup>t</sup> says he held his Tounge—and was going home when the Person afs<sup>d</sup> Stopd him and sarched this Ex<sup>t</sup> and then went & serched his House and took this Examinant Prisoner and delivered him over to the Guard at the City Hall.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 33.]

LITTLE NINE PARTNERS MINE, 16th July 1776.

HONOURABLE GENTLEMEN: In compliance with your decisions have used the utmost of my endeavors in Clearing two pits or shafts at the north east end of the Mine hill and met with great Difficulties in them owing to the Water. Jonathan Landon and Ezra Thompson Esquires being very punctual from time to time inspecting the same this day, Mr Landon has with sincerity taken inspection of the appearances and thereby he ordered me to make up a report of the circumstances thereof as he was intending going to New York. In the first Pit discovered a small quantity of Lead in three different places about two Inches Diameter lying about five foot distant not in a continued vein, the bottom is free from any prospect. The Second Pit is more likely by the appearances of the sparr and found lead in four places about two or three Inches Diameter Six foot distant not containing a Continued Vein, the bottom is entirely void of the appearances of Mines. Both Pits is not worthy of pursuing at present unless farther promising discoveries be made— To morrow are going to Clear the pit of 50 foot Deep and another small pit by order of Mr Thompson which I shall finish with all convenient speed and immediately thereafter shall repair for New York and transmit the full Account of my proceedings unless I receive further Instructions the truth of this small report etc Mr Landon will Describe more at large to you.

Captain Denton to General Woodhull.

NEW YORK, July 23, 1776.

SIR: Some weeks ago the Second Lieutenant of my company secretly deserted me; but, previous to his leaving me, he assigned his warrant over to Cadwallader Moore, one of my Sergeants, a young man every way well qualified to act in the capacity of an officer, and who bears an unexceptionable character, and is of good family. Upon relating the circumstance of my being destitute of a Second Lieutenant to my company to some of the members of the Committee of Safety, they told me they would mention the matter in Committee; and shortly afterwards I was informed by Mr Cooper, (one of the members I had mentioned the affair to,) that the Committee had ordered that James Miller, my Ensign, should be Second Lieutenant, and Cadwallader Moore Ensign; and upon that, Moore went to some expense in purchasing regimentals, and has ever since appeared in the character of an officer. Lately the commissions were issued for most of the officers of the regiment, but Mr Miller's commission was detained from him, and no commission issued to Mr Moore, which occasions some uneasiness in my company. I must therefore request the favor of you to lay the affair before the Convention; and if any further light is required on it, Mr Strong, the bearer, will be able to give it. I have the only full company in the regiment, which makes me take the greater liberty of mentioning the affair to you.

I am, sir, your most obedient humble servant,
To NATHANIEL WOODHULL. DANIEL DENTON.

Report on preceding Letter.

[Miscel. Pap. 36: 347.]

Your Committee appointed to take into consideration the letter received from Capt Daniel Denton Dated 23<sup>d</sup> instant [July] and from such informations as they could collect—Do Report—That a Commission be made out for James Miller as a Second Lieu<sup>t</sup> bearing date the 3rd Day of May last and another for Cadwallader Moore as Ensign being dated the same day both in the Company Commanded by Cap<sup>t</sup> Denton and in Col Ritzema's Regiment.

Examination of James Horton.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 525.]

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE PLAINS, 23rd July 1776.

James Horton being called before this Committee by Order of the Convention of the State of New York, & being examined respecting his saying "that he was Sure that the Ministerial Army would Conquer us & that matters would soon be settled," Says that he might have made use of such words, but does not recollect that he did. that he had not design or reason for saying so, Only that the fate of war was uncertain, & further says that he never knew of any Conspiracy whatever against the United States of America. And whereas it has been reported that he went on board of the Governor's Ship & Swore a new Allegiance to the King, Voluntarily declares under Oath that he never swore allegiance since he was first qualified as a justice of the Peace, & the only reason he had for going on board the Governor's ship was, that he heard William Sutton (who was then on board) was going to England & that he had business of a private nature to settle with said Sutton.

By Order of the Committee,

Examination of John and William Sutton.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE PLAINS, July 23, 1776.

Jn<sup>o</sup> Sutton being examined before this Committee declares that the charge alledged against him is groundless: That he might have said the Regulars would Land between Mamaroneck and Horse Neck. But if he did say it, that was only an opinion of his own.

By order of the Committee of Safety,

JOHN THOMAS, J<sup>r</sup> *Chairman.*IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, WHITE PLAINS, July 23<sup>d</sup> 1776.

William Sutton being examined before this Committee relative to the Charge laid against him (dated 12th Ins<sup>t</sup>) utterly denies the same excepting that Governor Tryon told him that when the Fleet arrived there would be a Proclamation published declaring all those Rebels, who would oppose their Measures and all those who would come unto them, should have a Pardon, that the Gov<sup>r</sup> further told him that there would be some shipping sent into the Sound. In respect to the second Charge, he says, that he might have said that there would be three or four Colonels that would revolt and oppose Independency in case it was declared, but does not know their Names. But it appears to this Committee, that the said Sutton either knows, who they are or the Person, who gave him the Information, but declines to discover them.

By Order of the Committee,

W<sup>m</sup> Sutton being examined by the Committee appointed for the Purpose says :
That he was at first for chusing a Congress & afterwards opposed it, and protested against it.

That his Reasons for his Change of Conduct was his hearing that the Assembly had taken or was about to take the matter into Consideration, That he had received several Letters from Judge Jones, but that there was not a word of politics in either of them. That he never had received any Letter from any of the Delancies except one from James De Lancy inclosing the Protest against chusing Deputies. That several People went on Board the Governour's Ship while the said Sutton was there with his Boat among whom were James Horton Esq' Captain Ebenezer Thield, one Holmes of Courtland's Manor, Gabriel Purdy, Isaac Gidney, several of the Hains.

That Governor Tryon said from what he heard he expected that there would be friends of Government enough with the Forces that would come: That the Friends of Government would be protected. That he never received any Letter from Wilkins or Seabury. That none of the Delancies have ever endeavoured to influence him to take the Part he has done—

Cap<sup>m</sup> Richie being asked says that he never saw a Letter from Wilkins and Seabury to William Sutton.

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY, W. PLAINS, 23<sup>d</sup> July 1776.

William Sutton being examined under Oath before this Committee relative to the Charge against Rob<sup>t</sup> Sutton declares that he never heard Rob<sup>t</sup> Sutton say that he would join the Regulars with seven hundred men, but he did hear Rob<sup>t</sup> Sutton say that he did with six or seven hundred more oppose the chusing of Deputies—and further says that Rob<sup>t</sup> Sutton told him he had sign'd a Recantation.

By Order of Committee,

Charge against Robert Sutton.

Report and Evidence in the Case of Col. Hamman.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 549.]

The Examination of the Evidences against Col. Hamman in respect to his behaviour as an officer, on the evening of the Day on which the Enemy's ships came to anchor off Tarry town in this County—and as a buyer of Pork for this State.

12 Jun 76

Lieut. Daniel Marlin being sworn deposeth and saith, That upon seeing the fleet drawing nigh Tarry town the 12th ins<sup>t</sup> ordered his Serjeant to warn the men, this was about 7 o'Clock—That s<sup>d</sup> Serjeant afterwards told the Deponent he had been with Col. Hammond to warn him and that thereupon the s<sup>d</sup> Col. mounted his horse and set out directly to warn Cap<sup>t</sup> Vermilie—That the s<sup>d</sup> Col. and a brother of this Deponent had some words as the Deponent heard from some of the men, but cannot recollect from whom, and that the said colonel arrived at Tarry town between twelve and one o'Clock the next morning as his said brother informed him, and further this deponent saith not.

Samuel Purdie Jun<sup>r</sup> being sworn deposeth that Col. Hammond agreed with him for four bbls of pork at £4 5s—That afterwards the s<sup>d</sup> Col. told him that Col. Drake was dissatisfy'd with the bargain, and asked him the said Col. Hamman if he did not think the people would take the pork again. That Hamman said he told the said Drake that he did not chuse to go about to countermand what he had done, for that he knew that some of the people wanted the money—That he would sooner take it himself than do so—That he the deponent after this, delivered the said pork to the said Col. Hamman, & That either at that time or some time before the said Col. told the deponent that the said Col. Drake had wrote to him the said Hamman for a number of prime bbls of pork, which the deponent thinks he the said Hamman said were about Eight in number. That the next day after s<sup>d</sup> Hamman had rece<sup>d</sup> the s<sup>d</sup> four bbls of pork from the Deponent, he told the said deponent, it having been repacked, that he had made three bbls of prime pork out of the four bbls aforesaid, and that he did allow the deponent but four pounds for the remaining barrel. That the deponent heard others call the s<sup>d</sup> repacker by the name of Thomas Hunt and that he heard him say that he was authorized by the Congress to that employment.—The deponent further saith, that he was present when the said repacker was repacking the pork of James Requaw and that he saw several peices of the s<sup>d</sup> pork rejected by the s<sup>d</sup> repacker, and that afterwards, he the deponent saw the said Requaw carrying back several of the said rejected peices in his cart—and the deponent saith, that he heard the said Col. Hamman say to the said Requaw that he would as soon see his pork repacked as any of his neighbours, if the repacker thought it would do.

The deponent further saith, that he saw several prime peices of pork taken by Joseph Legett, while the said Hunt was repacking pork which he the said Legett had sold the said Hamman, and that the deponent did not hear the said Legett or any other person desire the said packer to put in any peices into the bbls but what he thought proper nor doth he know that any peices were taken out of any of the said barrels after having been repacked.

Jonathan G. Tomkins Esq<sup>r</sup> being sworn deposeth and saith—that near nine o'Clock on the evening of the 12th inst. he called at Col. Hammands, and found a man advising him to warn his men to muster for the Enemy's ships were coming up the river. That s<sup>d</sup> Col. asked y<sup>e</sup> deponent whither the report was a matter of fact. The deponent told him it was, and desired s<sup>d</sup> Col. to warn his officers immeditely—that the Col. turned to a certain Justice Dean and borrowed his horse and mounted him and set off directly with the deponent, without so much as going into his own house first, to warn Cap<sup>t</sup> Vermilier, and he the said Col. also desired the aforesaid man to warn all they came across and that they should influence others to do the same, that the s<sup>d</sup> Col. informed the deponent that he was under the necessity of ordering the people to meet at his House, as he had the amunition there,—That Cap<sup>t</sup> Requaw was sufficiently warned, being in a field from which he could see the vessels as they came up—That the Deponent parted with the said Colonel about two miles from the river, where the road strikes off to Cap<sup>t</sup> Vermilier's—That the s<sup>d</sup> Col. went towards the s<sup>d</sup> Captain's, & the deponent to the River at Tarry town—That about 10 o'Clock the deponent returned to the s<sup>d</sup> Colonel's and was told that he had not returned since he set out with the said deponent, and the deponent believes that the said Colonel was active in collecting his men—and further saith not.

Captain Benjamin Vermilier, being sworn deposeth and saith that on the evening of the 12th inst—Col Hamman came to his house early in the evening & gave him orders to warn the men as fast as he could. After the s<sup>d</sup> depon<sup>t</sup> had warned his Corporal to acquaint the serjeant to come down to Tarrytown the deponent went to M<sup>r</sup> Vantassels and found the Col there. that scarcely an hour after the depon<sup>t</sup> with the Col went down to the River, but the hour of the night he could not tell as he had no watch.

Peter Allair clerk to Col Hamman's regiment being sworn deposeth and saith—That Col Hamman's Son in Law about 9 oClock warned him to turn out on the alarm. That he went to alarm some men then returned to the Col and charged all the Guns there. That afterwards went to Vantassels, and that the Col was there before him—and the Deponent believes that the s<sup>d</sup> Col made no unnecessary delay in going down to Tarrytown. the time of night he knew not.

Lieut Cornelius Vantassel being sworn, deposeth and saith—that on the aforesaid evening he went to the house of Lieut Marlin's where he found Col. Hamman about one or 2 oClock and found him doing his best to prepare & forward the men to the shore. that he the Colonel got the depon<sup>t</sup> a hat full of Cartridge for his men, who had before but 3 or 4 rounds a man—and that s<sup>d</sup> Col was busie in furnishing others with Cartridges also.

Joseph Youngs being sworn deposeth and saith that Will<sup>m</sup> Paulding Esq<sup>r</sup> told the Committee of this place, Westchester, that Col. Hamman had been warned at 10 oClock on the evening the enemy appeared off Tarrytown and did not go to Tarrytown till 10 oClock the next day. But the depon<sup>t</sup> going down to the said town found by the information of credible persons that Col. Hamman had been down at about one in the morning—and further saith not as to that matter.

That he was pres<sup>t</sup> when Jos Drake asked Hamman if he could purchase him some pork. The Col replied that he could. That Hamman bought some by Drakes orders who told him he allowed him to give £4 and £4. 5s pr barrel for prime pork. after he bought it Drake told Hamman the Congress would not allow so much, and asked him whether he could not return it to the people again. Hamman told he could not for that he would rather lose the 5 shillings. Youngs then advised Hamman to keep y<sup>e</sup> pork for that he would not lose by it.

Joseph Legett doth affirm — That he was present when Requaws pork was repacked by the afores<sup>d</sup> Hunt and told the Company of which Col. Hamman and the repacker were two that the Pork was very much moulded and that he saw the s<sup>d</sup> repacker put several peices to his nose and throw them aside but did not see or learn that Col Hamman gave the repacker any orders or instructions about the s<sup>d</sup> Pork. The affirmant farther saith, that in his opinion, the said Pork was not merchantable. That he the affirmant saw Col Hamman cull one Barrel of Pork out of four or five but that the remaining three was good Pork and Merchantable.

Martinus Van Wart, being sworn, deposeth and saith that he sold Col Hamman five bbls Pork. that he was present at repacking the same. that the s<sup>d</sup> Col Hamman upon a door which he had laid down, took and laid the prime pieces of s<sup>d</sup> five bbls, that four bbls were filled by there packer, Hunt, and that a bbl was filled with part of the prime pork and marked by the repacker, the rem<sup>t</sup> of the s<sup>d</sup> prime pieces of Pork the deponent took back and also that he the deponet heard the repacker commend whole of the s<sup>d</sup> pork, as he was repacking it, and that he does not know whether Hamman took the said bbl prime pork to himself or not.

From the foregoing Evidences, it appears to this Committee, that the charges exhibited against Colonel Hamman, both in regard to the affair of the Pork, and neglect of duty as an officer, are intirely groundless—and that therefore the said Colonel ought to be acquitted from all further trouble on these accounts, and returned to his regiment immediately.

The Examination of Balthazar De Haert.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 506.]

The examination of Balthazar De Haert of the County of Orange Attorney at Law, who has for some time past been in Shrewsbury in Monmouth County in New Jersey. He saith that when he left Shrewsbury as he conceived far the greatest part of that place was inhabited or rather infested with Tories or persons disaffected to the common cause of America and that he has understood from information that their disaffection has been greatly increased by a number of persons who have gone from the City of New York there and as he has understood secretly labour to deceive the lower set of people the higher being almost all disaffected. That he knows that Joseph Wardell, John Corlies and George Allen went the week before last or last week to General Howe's Camp on Staten Island after as they pretended two Negroes who had run away from William Kipping & the s<sup>d</sup> John Corlies. that they stayed some time there. that this examinant has been informed and indeed believes that those three persons are disaffected and heard that for that very reason the Negroes were delivered to them by Howe's order. that he has heard that they had a long conversation with some of Howe's Officers—and further this Ex<sup>t</sup> saith that he was informed by Cap<sup>t</sup> Jacob Dennis a Militia Officer who had been ordered to guard Deal shore in that Township that he could scarce persuade a man to go there with him and that the examinant knows that his brother who is another Militia Officer there could by no means prevail on his men to go to defend that shore (the Whigs telling him they expected that if they went there they would be delivered by the Tories to the enemy on their landing) and that he was informed by the s<sup>d</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Dennis that the inhabitants along Deal shore told him they did by no means thank him for guarding them, and that they would much rather have the regulars than the Yankees there—and he this examinant was further informed by the said Cap<sup>t</sup> Dennis that there were some Vessels of force laying off Shark river which he supposed were landing some men there to get Provision as he observed flat bottom boats with them. And further this examinant saith that he saw some armed vessels off Deal shore last Saturday and observed some boats which seemed to be going on board said vessels and that he verily believes that the inhabitants along that shore have communication with the enemy and that this examinant further saith that Isaac Low, William Walton, Anthony Van Dam, John Roome, William Kipping Hulet, a dancing Master, with a number of other persons from New York are there whose names this examinant does not recollect. and further this examinant saith not.

The Petition of William Sutton now confined in Goal. To the Honourable Convention of the Representatives of the State of New York, Most Humbly Sheweth,

That the Intelligence or Report spread abroad by him he Received from the Governor at the time he was down with the shiping some Time last Fall, that he has not since that time Received any letter or any Intelligence from the Governor of any kind on any subject whatever that he has not corresponded with any Person or Persons belonging to the ministerial Army Either before or since that time, that your Petitioner did not convey to the Honourable Committee his meaning if he said on a Declaration of Independency three or four Collonels would Revolt as he only meant to be understood they would Lay down their arms. your petitioner begs Leave to mention that his present situation is rendered very misirable by the ill state of Body he Labours under having for some weeks past been severly handled with a very bad cough, and for the greatest part of the time attended with a fever and as it produces something of Phtisical kind the want of air is very Distressing, your Petitioner therefore humbly prays that the Honourable Convention would Indulge him to return to his Family & Business as the Gentlemen of the Committee must be very sensible how inconvenient it must be for a farmer to be absent at this busy season, your Petitioner would be willing to give any security for his Remaining on his own Farm, as well as that he will not hold any corrispondence with the Ministerial Army their aiders or abettors, that he will not influence or endeavour to influence any Person or Persons to aid the Ministerial or Discourage the American Arms. Your Petitioner humbly prays that he might not be Remov'd farther from his family as it would increase his anxiety of mind and naturally Retard his geting Rid of a Disorder which if not speedily removed will prove fatal. He further begs leave to Request the Hon<sup>l</sup> House would take into consideration the Extreme youth of his son now confined with him as well as that the time when he is charg'd with makeing the expression was when he saw his father's substance wantonly Destroyed by flames, And grant such releif as they in their wisdom shall think fit. and as in Duty bound shall ever pray.

Petition of Alexander Stewart.

[Petitions, 33: 208.]

To the Honourable Convention the Representatives of the State of New York :

The memorial of Alexander Stewart Most humbly sheweth :

That your memorialist came to New York in Decb<sup>r</sup> 1774, A Passenger recommended to Messieurs Mercer & Ramsey to take charge of a ship in the Mediteranian Trade, the Disturbance then being so great between Great Britain & the Collines your memorialist could not accomplish his Desires he still continuing in Expectation of a Reconciliation waited untill an opportunity to leave the Continent and Return to his Country and Friends was cut off except by stealth. In this situation your memorialist has Remained without pursueing or attempting to pursue any business Except an offer made by M<sup>r</sup> Grigg of Horse Neck who was about to employ him, but the vessel being purchased for a Privateer put a stop to that Employ, This week when a draft was made for Troops to go in the Continental service, your memorialist was among the number Drafted in the Company of Cap<sup>t</sup> Bloomer of Mamaroneck. Your memorialist being a North Brittoner, and having all his property there, and having a number of Relations engaged in the Regular Army, conceives it Extremely hard that he should be called forth to the Field under these circumstances to meet the near connections which he has there altho' his sincere wishes are that the Country may avoid the Slavery with which they are threatened. Your memorialist therefore humbly prays that the Honourable Convention would take his case into consideration and give him such Relief as they in their wisdom shall think fit. And as in duty bound he will Ever pray.

I certify the Honourable Convention that the within matter is True to the best of my knowledge and that what is related since Mr. Stewart's being in America has come within the compass of my knowledge.

GENTLEMEN: I am very sorry to trouble you so often on the same subject, But as I received my Bills for money on England by the hands of one of your officers about a week past & as I have no method of supplying myself with money, think it somewhat strange that the Gentlemen of the Committee if they have recieved directions from you have not supplied us with money according to the general resolution of the Congress but should rather as to my own part have been glad to have got money for Bill on England. However, will take it as a favor that you will give the necessary directions for the usual allowance as soon as may be. From Gentlemen Your humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 496.]

The Gen<sup>l</sup> has great pleasure in communicating to the Officers & Soldiers of this Army the signal success of the American Arms under Gen<sup>l</sup> Lee at S<sup>c</sup> Carolina. The Enemy having attempted to Land at the same time that a most furious Cannonade for 12 hours was made upon the fortifications near Charlestown, Both Fleet & Army have been repulsed with great loss by a small number of gallant Troops just raised, the Enemy having had 172 killed & wounded among whom are several officers, two Capital Ships much damaged, one frigate of 28 Guns being entirely lost being abandoned & blown up by the Crew—and the others so hurt that they will want a good deal of Repairs before they will be fit for service & all with the loss on our own party of 10 killed and 22 wounded—the firmness, Courage & bravery of our Troops has Crowned them with immortal honour—The dying Heroes conjured their brethren never to abandon the Standard of liberty & even those who had lost their Limbs continued at their Posts—The gallantry & Spirit extorted applause from their Enemies; who disastared & defeated have retired to their former Station out of the reach of our Troops. This glorious Example of Troops under like Circumstances with us The Gen<sup>l</sup> hopes will animate every Officer & Soldier to immitate & even out do them when the Enemy shall make the same attempt upon us with a bright example before us of what can be done by brave and spirited men fighting in Defence of their Country. We shall be loaded with Shame & Infamy if we do not acquit ourselves with Courage & a determined Resolution to conquer or Die; with this Hope & Confidence that this Army will have its equal share of Honor & success the Gen<sup>l</sup> most earnestly exhorts every Officer & Soldier to pay the utmost attention to his Arms and Health to have the former in the best order for action & by cleanliness & Care to preserve the latter,—to be exact in their Discipline—obedient to their Superiors & Vigilant on Duty, with such preparation & a suitable spirit there can be no doubt but by the blessing of Heaven we shall repel our cruel Invaders from our Country & gain the greatest honor.

Petition of Richard Cantillon and John Parkinson.

[Petitions, 33: 192.]

To the Honorable the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New York:

The Petition of Richard Cantillon &amp; John Parkinson of Dutchess County, Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioners conceive themselves acquainted with the various Branches of the Linnen Manufactory. That your Petitioners find from the great scarcity of Linnen that it is exceedingly necessary to have some manufactories of that kind set up in this State, to supply the necessities of the Inhabitants thereof & of the Army. That your Petitioners intend to set up a very extensive Linnen Manufactory in Dutchess County, in this State, if they may be favoured with a resolution & order of this Convention to exempt themselves & their Labourers and Manufacturers from being drafted into the Militia when called out to actual service. That your Petitioners will always cheerfully give a preference to the Convention of this State, by reserving for their use on their order such manufactures as they may from time to time have made & may be fit for or wanted for the use of this State. Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your Petitioners & the manufacturers and labourers which they shall employ in the said Business (not to exceed the number of twelve exclusive of your Petitioners) may by order or resolution of the Convention of this State be exempted from being subject to be drafted or called out into active service in the Militia of the said County of Dutchess, and your Petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray.

NEW YORK, July 29th 1776.Petition of Daniel Shaw.

[Petitions, 33: 200.]

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of New York in Convention assembled:

The memorial of Daniel Shaw, Commander of the private Sloop of War called the Harlequin, in Behalf of himself and the owners of the said Sloop, Humbly Sheweth,

That your memorialists have at a great Expence, purchased and fitted out the said Sloop for the purpose of cruizing against and annoying the Enemies of the United States of America. That the said Sloop is now ready to proceed to Sea in every Respect excepting the want of Powder, but that your memorialists are unable to furnish themselves with that article, notwithstanding they have diligently exerted themselves for that purpose, and they are apprehensive their intentions will be defeated unless they shortly procure a supply. That your memorialists are therefore under a necessity of applying to your honors, and do not doubt attention will be paid to their Petition, as the Convention were pleased to recommend and encourage the fitting out of Privateers, to cruise against the Enemies of America. Your Petitioners therefore pray your Honors to furnish them with twelve hundred weight of Powder out of the Public Stock for the purpose aforesaid, And your Petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray, &c

[Miscel. Pap. 34 : 480.]

I, Lientenant Peter Graham, do hereby solemnly promise upon my Word of Honor to Gouverneur Morris on Behalf of the State of New York that I will not depart from within a Mile of my own House unless to the City of New York when the Health or Sustenance of my Family may require it. According to a Resolution of the Convention of the Representatives of the State aforesaid in that Case made & provided.

Given under my Hand at Harlem the thirty first Day of July 1776.

The humb<sup>le</sup> petition of us the Subscribers sheweth that we have been four Months in the service of the American States, on board the Schooner Gen<sup>l</sup> Putnam, during which time we have not been to sea but 11 Days all the rest of the Time we have spent inactively at the Head of Inlets, five or six Miles from the Mouths thereof from whence at any Emergency we could not put out without great Difficulty, and often not at all. That we have sundry Times Laid a week sometimes longer in an Inlet, and in one we have laid at Anchor four or five Miles from the mouth a full Month without ever attempting to go out or scarcely offering to send any Person to look out. that numbers of vessels have pass'd and repass'd without our endeavouring to speak them, notwithstanding it was the opinion of the officers we had several opportunities very favourable. that with our Commander Thomas Cregier on board we have not been out of this Inlet in seven weeks.

That our s<sup>d</sup> Commander hath several Times insulted the officers when they have candidly advised him, and gave them to understand that their business was only to answer a question when ask'd and not attempt giving advice. that in correcting People for slight or no offences, he hath used unlawfull weapons, once presenting a Pistol to the breast of one Burns, for only requesting to know what his stated allowance was, and swearing by God he would blow a Ball through him, at another time with a large hickory club striking one Bell on the head and much wounding him for what in our opinion scarcely appear'd a crime. that in no one thing has he complied with the resolves of the Congress, His whole conduct being one series of Folly, Vice and Inconsistencies, setting the most scandalous Examples to the People, swearing, Lying and frequenting the company of the most contemptible of women, Presenting the Private Property of others to them, also at sundry Times giving the Ships and Cabben stores away. we are sorry to have occasion to Lay those charges against our Commander, but black as they are they can be Proved, by the Journals of the officers, and the Evidence of the most respectable persons in these Parts.

That by these Means he hath rendered himself Despicable to every man on board, has greatly dissatisfied every friend to the cause, and become the derision of its foes.

That we cannot with honor serve any longer under the Command of the said Thomas Cregier. that in our sincere oppinion (with him as our Commander) we have not done the least service to our Country, and the season of the year being so far advanced, we humbly conceive the vessel unfit to be continued in the service, she being weakened and consequently would endanger our Lives in a gale of wind, besides she leaks so that not a man in the Hold can Lay dry in the Cabbins, and at the same time that we solemnly declare our ardent desire to Exert our utmost abilities in Defence of our Distress'd Country, in any station where there is a probability of doing it; and profess ourselves fully satisfied with the conduct of our Lieutenant, M<sup>r</sup> Quigley, and the officers in general, and though we confess it would be most agreeable to have a Discharge from this vessel, yet if your Honorable House think proper, to continue us therein (as long as the season will admit) under the Command of M<sup>r</sup> Quigley or any other Person you shall appoint, except the said Thomas Cregier, we shall cheerfully comply—for we beg leave to assure you that we glory in yealding obedience to your commands—but humbly request for the Honor & Interest of our Country and ourselves that the said Thomas Cregier may be Cashiered, and your Petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Messrs Van Schaak, etc., to the Albany Committee.

ALBANY TORY JAIL, August 1, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: We have just now received your letter of this date, by which we find that, contrary to the most reasonable expectations, we are forced to go off to-morrow morning. The reasons for our expectations are so forcibly pointed out in our former letters, that we shall forbear to recapitulate them now; and only observe, that although we are forced to leave this morning, the same severities are still exercised respecting admittance of those who have business with us, so that at this hour we are in no situation to do anything. As this probably will be the last time you will be troubled with letters from us, we hope you'll excuse us for requesting to know whether we are to go with or without a guard from here to Col. Hoffman's Landing, as we purpose to go by land from here, provided there is no objection. Should there be any, on account of sending a guard with us, and you are disposed to take sufficient security we conceive (as we are to maintain ourselves), the Board will have no objections to our transporting ourselves in the cheapest manner, so that our persons are delivered according to the tenor of your orders. If this be refused, can we have a pass for a couple of men to take our horses down to Redhook?

As we have been confined for a long time, and, for some time past treated like malefactors, Christian charity obliges us to believe that your Board have received information concerning us of a very criminal nature indeed; and as we are entirely to guess from whence such information proceeded, we now request our crimes may be stated, the accusers' names mentioned, that we may have opportunity, as well in Connecticut as here, to clear our characters of any aspersions that may be before your Board. Should the crimes of which we are supposed to be guilty or stand accused of justify the unremitting severities with which we have been treated in our confinement, we dread the reception we are to meet with in a country where we are strangers and friendless; we mean should we be transported unheard and unquestioned.

We are, &amp;c.,

Petition of Lieut. Moodie.

[Petitions, 33: 256.]

To the Honourable the Convention of the State of New York.

The humble Memorial of Andrew Moodie Sheweth,

That your memorialist on the 6th of December 1775 was appointed by General Montgomery a Lieutenant of Capt Lambs Company of Artillery, that on the 31st following he was taken prisoner in attempting to storm Quebec.

That the time from his appointment to his being taken prisoner was so short that no general return of the Company had been made to the Secretary of War after his appointment, by which means he is rendered incapable of settling with the Paymaster, and that at the time of his being taken he lost all his arms and Baggage.

May it therefore please your honours to take your memorialists case into consideration & to direct that his Commission may be made out so that he may be enabled to settle with the Paymaster & to order that he may be permitted to take out of the Continental Store such necessary clothing as he may immediately want & cannot otherwise procure & your memorialist will pray.

ANDREW MOODIE.

Examination of Joshua Ferris.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 69.]

Joshua Ferris son of Caleb Ferris being this 7th day of August, 1776 Examined saith that he went on board the phoenix last Friday (which being 26th day of July last) and returned on shore the next day. That after having staid on shore untill the Wednesday after he returned on board again in the Canoe he first [went] off in, from Benjamin Lesigy's. That he saw on Board of the Phoenix One Bailey, Phillip Scureman and Frederick Secore both of whom came on shore with this examinant last evening. That he saw also on board one Lewis Purdy from Croton River. That he was on Board when the ships were attacked last Saturday by our Gallies when as he was informed one man was killed and two wounded on board of the Rose. (See p. 412)

Examination of Jacob Hallsted, of Orange County, Farmer.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 77.]

The Examinant saith: That he lived lately on the west bank of Hudsons River near the Donderberg on the south moiety of a farm bought by himself and Caleb Seaman of James Lilly untill his house was burned in the manner hereinafter mentioned. That on the seventeenth of July last a sloop passed his house to the Donderberg and he went to drive off his Cattle into the woods and did not return till the sloop had gone down the river, when he learned from the said Seaman that a Barge had been ashore and carried off one of the Examinants Calves which he believed to be true because on going to the place where he understood they landed he found several Musket Cartridges and ever since has not been able to discover the Calf.

That the next day he observed one of the Ships of War (the smallest of the two) and a Schooner Anchor in the River nearly opposite to his house.

That two Boats came off from the Ship of War and landed a little above his house upon which he retired to the distance of about three Hundred Yards to the side of the Mountain out of sight of his house.

That he heard a knocking at his house and directions to the men who had the Care of the Barges to come along for there was nobody there—upon which the Examinant fired upon the Barges.

That the Company then ran from the House to the Barges some up to their waists in water and rowed off till the Schooner came more in Shore and then three Barges came on shore appearing to be fuller of men to the Southward of the House about Two Hundred Yards where he observed them shoot several Hoggs. That some of the Company went to his House, and soon after the examinant discovered his House on fire upon which he retired to take care of his Children at Stephen Parrs a Mile off leaving the Crews on Shore at his Departure. That he has since missed nine of his Hoggs. That he had removed some of his effects before the burning of his House but he has lost besides the House which was totally consumed as well as he can recollect a Cubbard that Cost three Pounds a Case with Bottles that Cost Twelve Shillings, an Old one with two Bottles in and some Deeds, Bonds and Writings in it, Six common setting straw bottomed Chairs, a Churn, two Pails, a Flax Hatchel that cost Ten Shillings, two half worn Saddles two or three Pounds of Flax two or three Pounds of Wool, an Iron Pot five Bushels of Indian Corn three Bushels of Salt a Linnen and a Woolen spinning Wheel with a quantity of lumber such as Barrells and some Stockings and Cloths. . That the House was a framed one of about thirty Feet long and twenty wide with four sash windows, a few of which were broken. That he thinks he cant get such another House for less than one Hundred and fifty Pounds and the Value of the rest of his loss he estimates at Twenty Pounds more. That the examinant has no Estate but that Farm a few household Goods saved by concealment and outstanding Debts of about Twenty Pounds— That he has one blind Eye occasioned by an Indisposition in his Head with which he is still afflicted—sees badly with the other, is forty odd years old and has nine Children one of whom is a Soldier in Captain Blauvelts Company of General Scotts Brigade. That he and his Family would now be out doors if they were not taken in by their Friends.

JACOB HALLSTED.

Sworn before me this 7th of Augst 1776,

A. HAWKES HAY.

This is to certify that the Bearer Jacob Halsted is the Person who had his House burnt by Capt. Wallis, and from the Character he bears, Credit may be given to his deposition, And that he has always been friendly to the American Cause.

Memorial of Captain Roos.

[Petitions, 33: 126.]

To the Honourable the Covention of the State of New York now Convened in the town of Harlem.

GENTLEMEN: I am Extremely sorry matters are so conducted in raising the new levies in Col' Jonathan Hasbrouck's Regiment in Ulster County (in which Regiment I have the honour to command a Company) that I am oblidge and bound by the principles of honour to represent the state thereof to this honourable Convention and pray they may take the same into consideration and Grant me such relief in the Premises as to them shall seem meet, which is as follows, viz<sup>t</sup> That on the Evening of the 24th of July I received notice to appear on the morning of the next day at 10 oClock at the house of Col' Hasbrouck. I then asked the messenger whether I should notify my Subalterns to attend also, to which I was answered, no. Agreeable to the foresaid Notice I did appear at the time and place already mentioned. On my appearance there I found it was for the purpose of arranging the officers to command the new levies aforementioned and that neither Capt<sup>n</sup> Rea or Capt<sup>n</sup> Tearpenning were there present who were both Superior to me in Command in the Regiment and have since that time had such information as will amount to full proof that neither of the foresaid Gentlemen had any notice thereof. I being next in Rank in the Regiment to these Gentlemen, I was appointed by Col' Hasbrouck Major Jansen and Major Dubois (which will more fully appear to this honourable house by the Inclosed Copy of a Certificate from the forenamed Gentlemen) to be a Capt to Command one of the Company's. On my return home I found great uneasiness prevailing among my Subalterns as also among sundry other officers belonging to the Regiment, Complaining loudly that they were unfairly dealt with, not being notify'd of the arrangement aforesaid and sundry persons being appointed over them particularly Lieutenants who never held any Commission either civil or Military, however I from a due sence of the importance of the matter, Immediately proceeded to Raising the men but found such Difficulties as could not possibly be Surmounted, without absolutely proceeding to a Draft which appear'd to be wholly owing to the appointment of Lieutenants who had never been their Choice. All this happen'd on the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant August. Immediately on this there was an Express Dispatched from Lieut Col' Jansen to Briga'r Gen' Clinton, then at Fort Montgomery informing him of the bad success we had in raising men, to which the General answer'd that it was out of his power to remedy the matter, also that if the Field officers had committed an Error they only must Rectify it in the best manner they could. The Express who went to Gen' Clinton met with Col' Hasbrouck at Fort Montgomery, who then wrote a letter to Major Jansen informing him that he Col' Hasbrouck was informed the principle objection the men had to turning out as Volunteers was their objection to me being appointed a Capt<sup>a</sup> which I believe to be an absolute falsehood the only Reason as before mentioned, by all that I could learn among the men was that their own officers had no chance which they thought was their Indispitable Right agreeable to the Resolves of the State of New York. In this letter from Col' Hasbrouck to Major Jansen he desired that s<sup>d</sup> Major Jansen should call the five Company's in that Quarter together and consult the officers of said Companies and Raise the men in the best manner they could, on which Major Jansen called the Companies together accordingly on the 6th of August and made an offer to all the Capt<sup>as</sup> of said Companies who Chuse to turn out and try their Success in Raiseing men, promising at the same time the Capt<sup>a</sup> who should raise the most Volunteers should be the officer who should have the Command, to which measure I was opposed as being in my opinion contrary to the Resolves of the Convention of the State of New York and my appointment in consequence thereof, therefore would not submit the matter, however my Remonstrance in this particular did not succeed being answer'd by Major Jansen that he was not bound by the Resolves of the State, and acted as he thought proper in the affair. On this about 26 men turned out under Capt<sup>a</sup> John Graham three of which number formerly turned out under me. After this some of the foresaid Companies were obliged to Draft the men, and as yet I do not know whether the whole is Completed. Now Gentlemen you'll easily perceive by the above Narrative how Inconsistent the conduct of my Field Officers hath been with your Resolves. I humbly conceive that if the whole of the men could not be obtained as Volunteers but that a part must be Drafted, with equal Propriety the whole might to be put under me, but there was no Necessity for this more than in the other case, as I had Inlisted Ten men and had a number more promised to Inlist, and am full of the opinion that the grand obstacle was owing to the appointment of Lieut<sup>a</sup> as before Recited. To make you Gentlemen Clear in this matter you must understand that the Col<sup>ls</sup> son is one of them whom he hath long been anxious about getting into Commission, another is a Brother in law to Major Dubois and Major Jansen's cousin, and the third is a cousin to Col' Hasbrouck. Gentlemen, in this matter I view my Reputation and Honour as Sencibly Touched, therefore pray that in your great wisdom you'll be favourably Pleased to grant me such Relief in the Premises, as to you shall seem meet. And thereon I shall as in duty bound for Ever Pray.

JACOBUS ROOS.

Petition of John Andrews.

[Petitions, 33: 120.]

To the Honourable provincial Congress for the province of New York:

The humble petition of John Andrews, of poghkeepsie in the province of New York, Most Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner about seventeen weeks ago was committed to the New Goal in the City of New York by Alderman Blagge on suspicion of theft, and no witnesses having appeared against me, I took the liberty of petitioning the above Alderman for a tryal and discharge who advised Mr. Goldsmith Continental Goalor to petition your honourable House, from whom he informed me I might expect impartial justice and mercy in this my deplorable situation. I am willing to swear on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God that I am entirely innocent of the crime for which I am confined. If you will be favourably pleased to take my unhappy case into your serious consideration, I shall in gratitude be in duty bound ever to pray, etc.

That he thinks, if Officers had been nominated they would have turned out the Complement of Men from their Company. That he saw no attempts made that day to Draft men, or to encourage them to turn out as Volunteers—that the Regiment did not continue long embodied at that Place, Part being ordered to the River on acc<sup>t</sup> of an Alarm from the Ships—That Abraham Ledeu is a Captain in the North Part of said Regiment, and further Deponent saith not.

Affidavit of James Willis.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 347.]

James Willis of Westchester County being duly sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God saith,

That he is a Lieutenant in the South Part of Coll<sup>o</sup> Drakes Regiment. Saith that he was present when that Part of Coll<sup>o</sup> Drake's Regiment was call<sup>d</sup> out, w<sup>h</sup> if he recollects aright was on the 22 of July last. That he was call<sup>d</sup> into Mr Forbes house at East Chester at Col<sup>o</sup> Drakes request, to meet the rest of the Officers of that Part of the Regiment. That he heard Philip Pell read Part of the Resolution of the Convention for raising the new Levies, but that before he had finish<sup>d</sup>, he (James Willis) was call<sup>d</sup> out to quell a Disturbance that had risen in his Company. That he had heard no Proposals made whilst he was in the Room to the Officers to turn out into the Service—but that officers said that Proposals had been made to them to turn out—but that they declined thinking their Regiment was neglected or rather slighted. That several of the officers exprest their Disapprobation of going with Col<sup>o</sup> Thomas. That he for his own Part declined on that acct, and that his Company declar<sup>d</sup> that rather than go under Col<sup>o</sup> Thomas, and be drafted for that Purpose, they would Club their Firelocks and return home. That the Resolution of the Convention was afterwards read before the Battalion. That he can give no acc<sup>t</sup> with respect to the general sense in which Col<sup>o</sup> Thomas' appointment was consider<sup>d</sup> by the Privates in the Battalion—but that he heard several of the Militia say that they would rather fight on that Green till they were dead, than go under Officers that they did not like.

And this Deponent [saith] that he was present when the North Part of the Battalion met at Tarry Town. That he was present in a Room where Col<sup>o</sup> Drake and the rest of the Officers of that Part of the Regiment were met, that the Resolutions of the Convention for raising Levies, and Gen<sup>l</sup> Marris' Orders for that Purpose were read, and Col<sup>o</sup> Drake asked the officers whether any of them chose to turn out—but that he did not hear the officers say whether they would or would not, that he left the Room when the Rest of the officers did. Captain Abraham Ledeu was present at that time. That he afterwards heard the Said Resolutions read before the Battalion, that he did not hear Col<sup>o</sup> Drake propose to the men to turn out as Volunteers, or offer to draft them, nor did he hear the said Col<sup>o</sup> Drake say any w<sup>h</sup> tended to discourage the men from turning—that soon after the Declaration of Independence was read which as he thinks was subsequent to the reading the Resolutions of the Convention, an alarm of the Enemies Boats coming down on the River, on w<sup>h</sup> the Militia dispers'd, and went down to the Shore. That he thinks Captain Abraham Ledeu told him that he would not go under Col<sup>o</sup> Thomas. That to the best of his Remembrance he heard Captain Ledeu say that he thought it was Col<sup>o</sup> Drake's Right to have the Command of the Levies. And further this Deponent saith not.

JAMES WILLIS.

Affidavit of Joseph Paulding.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 351.]

Joseph Paulding of Westchester being duly sworn on the holy Evangelists of Almighty God, saith,

That he is a private Soldier in Col<sup>o</sup> Drakes Regiment. That he belongs to the North Part of said Regiment. That he was present when that Part of the Said Regiment was call'd out w<sup>h</sup> was about ten or twelve Days since. That the Resolutions of the Convention concerning the raising of Levies was read by one Alare a private in the Said Regiment. That Col<sup>o</sup> Drake did not in his hearing give any Directions for Drafting the said men. That he did not in his hearing say anything to the men to encourage them to turn out. That he did not say anything w<sup>h</sup> tended to discourage the People in turning out. That he heard it commonly talked that Day that Col Drake had said he should be glad if any of the Militia would turn out. that he did not observe any means made use of by any of the officers to induce the Men to turn out as Volunteers, or to draft. That great many in the Regiment seemed to be displeas'd that Co<sup>l</sup> Drake was not appointed to the Command of the Levies. That he thinks there were more men in that Part of the Militia against Col<sup>o</sup> Thomas than there were for him. That he thinks if Col<sup>o</sup> Drake had been appointed to the Command of the Levies that the whole drafts wanted from that Part of the Regiment would have turned out quickly. That the Regiment continued embodied about an hour, and that they dispersed on acct. of an alarm from the Ships. That his Brother John Paulding was there that day. And further this Deponent Saith not.

HARTFORD, 12th August, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: On our arrival here the 19th of June last we Requested our Friend Colonel V. Cortlandt to lay our very disagreeable situation before you, and in Consequence Requesting relief but learning from him that the Proceedings of the Committee of Albany against us had not been Transmitted to Congress, notwithstanding that Board had been wrote to for that purpose an answer not being received has caused this delay, we then furnished Mr. Cortlandt with a Letter containing our accusation from that Board to his Honour Governor Trumbull, which we beg leave to observe is couched in General Terms without any thing Specific, nevertheless finding no relief, we on the 29th Ult<sup>o</sup> renewed our Request to you by Letter thro' Colonel Cortlandt, who informs us a further reference to the Committee of Albany is yet tho' needfull, which causes a further delay to our relief, we could hope this Reference might be dispensed with as our Respective cases must be well known, as some members of your House were in the Committee at the time we suffered Transportation unheard and unquestioned, therefore earnestly Request your giving us such Relief as you Judge our disagreeable situation require and are Gentlemen Your very hu servants,

ABR<sup>M</sup> C. CUYLER,
JOHN DUNCAN,
STEP<sup>N</sup> DE LANCEY,

HARTFORD, August 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Should your House not think proper to grant us immediate relief, on our application of this day, I beg leave further to trouble you with a request to return home for a few days, to visit a sick wife, who is at present unable to take care of my children and large family, and in the meantime to settle some of my private affairs, which, on my sudden removal, were left unsettled, where I also may have an opportunity of removing that jealousy which is now entertained against me. I flatter myself that when you consider the many inconveniences myself and friends suffer, and that only on a supposition of guilt, of which I am at any time ready to exculpate myself, you'll at least grant this request. I remain, gentlemen, your very humble servant,

A. C. CUYLER.

To the Hon. Members of the Convention of the State of New York.

HARTFORD, August 12, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: As you preside over the State of New York at this critical and very alarming juncture, for the safety and welfare of its inhabitants, it gives me a right to inform you that I have been transported hither unheard, unquestioned, and contrary to the principles of the Bill of Rights published by the Honourable the Continental Congress in February, 1776, as well as subsequent resolves by that Board. As the post is at this moment going off, I have no time to state at large the grievances I labour under. I shall, therefore, be brief, and acquaint you that I am conscious to myself that I have neither said or acted in opposition to the measures pursued by the United Councils of the Continent, or those recommended by the Provincial Councils. It therefore appears hard that the most sacred rights I hold in society should be violated. I have been sent hither under every appearance of guilt, without being allowed an opportunity of knowing the crimes for which I have suffered transportation. That I may not be charged with neglecting to apply for a knowledge of my supposed crimes to that power which inflicted the punishment, I take the liberty of enclosing a copy of a letter wrote to the Albany committee, signed by myself and others in the same situation.

As I have suffered a long confinement, torn from my family and friends, my affairs going to ruin, and obliged to maintain myself at a very great expense in this State, and now under order to go to New London, what punishments will follow them God Knows; but proceedings so vague and loose promise nothing but indefinite punishments. To you, gentlemen, as the guardians of those rights which are held valuable in society, I now appeal for a stop to further punishment, by suffering me to appear before you, there to be condemned or acquitted. As I am known among many of you, gentlemen, I hope this can be granted without any apprehensions of my deviating from my parole. Should there, however, be any doubts, I will readily be at the expense of a guard to conduct me to you. I remain, with great respect, gentlemen, in haste, your most obedient, humble servant,

HENRY VAN SCHAAK.

To the Hon. Members of Convention of the State of New York.

Examination of Isaac Bragaw.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 87.]

Isaac Bragaw of Queens County being examined says that on Fryday the 9th inst Capt Samuel Hallett asked the examinant to go with him to Jamaica Bay a clamimg, that the day following early in the morning the examinant together with Joseph Hallet the son of Capt Hallet, John Greenoak Jun Samuel Ryder & a Negro man belonging to Capt Hallet went from the Mill of Mrs Van de Vere to Barren Island in Jamaica Bay where they arrived about 12<sup>o</sup> clock—About half an hour after Capt Hallet called to a man fishing in a Canoe and desired him to take the examinant and Samuel Ryder to shore and told the examinant that now was his time (Capt Hallet meaning) to push, by which expression the examinant thought he meant to go to the Fleet at Staten Island as Capt Hallet told the examinant the day before he would go there if he had an opportunity and as he and the other three persons went out at the Gut and have not since returned But that Capt Hallet did not tell the examinant where he was going at that time and that all the Baggage Capt Hallet had with him was one loaf of Bread half pound Butter and a small piece of smoked Beef.

GOSHEN, 15th Aug<sup>t</sup> 1776.

D<sup>o</sup> SIR: In consequence of my unfortunate situation I have Inclosed a Petition to the Presendent of the Convention praying for that relief which the Tumults & Convulsions of the times has hitherto prevented me from getting.

Suffer me therefore my friend to Request your Influence with the Members that I may have Redress. I Request no more than that Freedom which will enable me to be serviceable to my Creditors my family & my Country. I doubt not your willingness to assist me, in doing which you'll ever oblige D<sup>r</sup> Sir Your unfortunate friend,
AND. BOSTWICK.

Petition.

[American, Archives, 5th Series, 1: 1530.]

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of New York in Covention assembled: The Petition of Andrew Bostwick, an insolvent debtor, now confined in the Jail of the County of Orange, humbly sheweth:

That your petitioner through sundry losses and disappointments in trade, is rendered incapable of making full payment to his creditors, by which means he has been in actual confinement for near seventeen months; that your petitioner has no desire to be discharged from the payment of his just debts, without making all the satisfaction to his creditors that is in his power; and is apprehensive that a resolve of the honorable Convention, permitting the Sheriff to release him from confinement on such conditions as they shall deem meet and proper, cannot, in the least injure the creditors, but, on the contrary, will better enable him to settle his affairs with them more to their mutual advantage than he could do while continued in confinement. Your petitioner, therefore, most humbly prays this honorable Convention that they would take his case into their consideration, and grant such speedy relief as the nature and necessity of the case requires. And your petitioner as in duty bound, shall ever pray, &c.
AND. BOSTWICK.

Appointment of Lieut. Zephaniah Miller.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 103.]

August 16th 1776.

To the Honorable Convention of the Representatives of the State of New York.

This is to Certify that Zephania Miller is appointed a Lieutenant to Capt. Micah Townsend upon his first Lieutenant Saml. Townsends being promoted to a Captaincy, which said appointment has received the universal approbation of the general Committe of the County of West Chester.

By order of Committee,

W<sup>m</sup> MILLER, D. Chairman.

Resolved, that a Commission be filled up for Zephaniah Miller and sent to the Committe of Westchester.

Examination of William Newton and others.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 107.]

August 18th 1776.

William Newton being examined declares that he stood his Draft at New York & that he found a man in his stead & accordingly produced a Certificate from Capt. Steele in Coll. Remsens Beat in New York, Certifying the same & further declares that on the account of the difficult times in New York he left the City with his family about three weeks ago. That he had since he came here expressed his desire of getting off to keep out of the way; That a person (whom he did not know) told him there would be an opportunity in two or three Days, that accordingly an opportunity offered & he & five others (whoes names he did not know) Imbarked but would not confess where they were bound for, that they landed at the beach between 10 & 11 °clock last night & went to the house of Mr. Van Brockell between 1 & 2 °clock, that he knew not who put the sheep & Ducks on board.

Being asked wether the Prisoner in the House were with him he thought it was not a question which he was bound to answer, but intimated they were & at his withdrawing Desire it might not be discovered that he had Intimated it.

Mr. Van Brockel who lives on the beach at Rockaway, Declares that very late last night two men came & knocked at his door, and after he had let them in, they told him there were four more out of Doors & he asked them why they kept out in the rain. Declares that after they had been in his house between 2 & 3 hours our men came on them, that he does not know where they came from nor where they were agoing, that he knows none of them but Peason Langdin.

Peason Langdin examined at first said he did not know where the boat was taken from nor where it was, but afterwards confessed it belonged to one Isaac Denton, that they came out of Motts Crick, that there were six in the boat, that he meant only to keep out of the way while they were drafting men & did not intend to go further than the beach where he was taken. He does not know who put the sheep & ducks a Board. Being asked if the Prisoners (then in the house) were in the boat he said they were & that the Person who made his Escape from the troop was one Jonathan Smith.

Abraham Probaskco being examined declares that Yesterday after noon he went with Mr. Van Brockel from Jamaica to the beach at the house of Van Brockel. That late at night some men came & knocked at the door & were let in. That he knew none of them but Peter mills. That this morning when the troop came up he counted the men that were in the house, that there were Six.

James Dickason Being examined saith that he belongs to Dutchess County in Philipses Patent a trader there, that last winter he came to New York to settle some accounts with the merchants, that while he was in York the river froze up so that he could not return, that as he had relatives at Oyster Bay he came up & spent two or three months with them, that at his return into Dutchess County it was then reported he had been on board the man of War & that there was a person who had been on board the man of war who would swear it, that he was threatened with being sent a Prisoner to the Fort at the High Lands, there to be obliged to Role gravel & that they push their bayonets into his guts to make he do it, that he went to the person who it was said could swear of his being a board the man of War, that he carried him to the Committee & he declared before the Committee on oath that it was a Lye, & he had never said Mr. Dickason had been on board the man of war, that this summer while he was in New York A Person told him of Person he had seen on Long Island who had been obliged to leave his home with a Wife & 8 Children, that he enquired who the person was and being told he knew him & Determined to come Over, find the man out & Carry to the Committee of his County to make up the matter so that the man might stay in peace with his family, that he has been on the Island ever since. Being asked where he was going in the boat & whether he put the sheep & Ducks on board he said he knew nothing of the boat & Ducks & Sheep that were a board & if we had any thing to charge him about the boat we must prove it. Upon being told that he knew that he did not speak the truth for we could prove by the confession of one or two of the Prisoners that he was one that was in the boat, he seemed struck with Confusion, being offered his bundle with Close if he would tell wich bundle it was; he refused to own that he had any close, but after two or three Hours when he found it did not avail him any thing he then owend one of the Bundles.

Peter Mills of Jamaica Being examined saith that hearing that one half of the Millitia was to be Drafted he intended to stand his Draft & go himself if drafted—but that his mother would not let him & persuaded him to keep out of the way, that the reason of his being on the beach was, that Mr Lewis had a desire to see the beach, which he had not seen a great many years, that he went with said Lewis, denied his going in the boat with the others or that he knew any thing of the Sheep or Ducks, said that he had no other close with him but what he had on his body, but he likewise, afterwards owned one of the Bundles.

Mr Lewis being examined saith that he lives in Westchester that he came over here after a Legacy that was left him by his Grandfather, that he met with Mills at his uncle Motts, that they two went alone to the beach walkt it a foot first said it was about 11 at night, but being asked if he saw any thing of the boat at the beach he said yes that he saw them when they first got to the beach in the evening, being told how he had contradicted himself about the time of night he arrived at the beach & that it did not avail his Denying being aboard of the boat, for that we had positive proof he was, he said he heard we could prove it Confest they were all equally concerned in the boat.

Chairman of the General Committec of this our County, who we have Desiered to wait on you and will if called on Deliver our sentiments fuller than we are able to set forth with Ink and paper. Gentlemen as we are Convinced we are confin'd on no other Principal then for the safety of the States of America we Rather applaud then blame you for it; we have not been wise enough to associate with you, still we are not unwise enough not to concider that self Preservation is the first Law of Nature. Resolution releasing John Purdy, Josiah Brown and Isaac Brown.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 576.]

Whereas Joshua Purdee, Josiah Brown and Isaac Brown now Prisoners of State in the County Jail of Westchester, have been represented to this Convention, as having expressed an Inclination to return to that Sacred Duty which they owe their Country—by M<sup>r</sup> Jonathan Jenkins one of the Deputies for the County of Westchester, and M<sup>r</sup> William Miller Deputy Chairman of Committee, of the said County, and whereas it is the ruling Principle of the Convention of this State to exercise lenity to their deluded Countrymen, so far as is consistent with the public Safety,

Therefore Resolved, That the aforesaid Joshua Purdee, Josiah Brown and Isaac

Brown be permitted to reside as Prisoners of State under a Guard at their own Expense at the House of M<sup>r</sup> William Millar Deputy Chairman of the Committee of Westchester until such Time as they shall give to this Convention good Reason to believe that they may be enlarged without Danger to the Am. Petition of Cadwallader Colden, Junr.

[Petitions, 33: 164.]

That your Petitioner Impressed with the most painfull apprehensions of Callamities that would flow from a separation of the American Colonies from the government of Great Britain, Did in the beginning of the present most unhappy Disputes, appear opposed to such measures as he Imagined would Involve his Country in Distress, in consequence of which he was stigmatized by those from whom he Differ'd in Sentiment with the odious appellation of an Ennemy to his Country, and thereby became the object of invective, Slander and malvolence was often insulted and frequently threatened with Destruction of his Person and Property.

That notwithstanding your Petitioners attachment to the rights of private judgement, and although he conceived the freedom of Disquisition & Debate on Topicks which affected the Public weal to be the Birthright of Englishmen, and a Priviledge which Peticularly distinguish the Freeman from the Slave; Nevertheless your Petitioner willing to avoid the giving the least cause of offence determined no Longer in vain to oppose the prevailing Current opinion, of which his Determination he by Letter acquainted some of the Commitees in the County, so long since as the 3rd of May last was a Twelvemonth, and in a few days after was among the first that signed the generall association, since which time your Petitioner doth aver that he hath in no way whatsoever opposed or obstructed any publick measures, nor hath he in any one Instance either Perswaded or Diswaded any man from Persueing the Propensity of his own Inclinations: In testimony whereof your Petitioner hath publicly called upon his accusers and persecutors to adduce any proof to the contrary, Notwithstanding which and without the least cause your Petitioners house was surrounded by an armed body of men Comanded by Col<sup>l</sup> Palmer in the dead of the Night of the 24th of June last and on being granted admission he the said Palmer and Divers others proceeded to search every part of the house of your Petitioner for arms and ammunition &<sup>c</sup> and also Examined his Desk and Chest of Papers and tho' said Palmer declared himself perfectly satisfied that your Petitioner was destitute of all offensive weapons &<sup>c</sup> he nevertheless seized on the person of your Petitioner and sent him under strong guard to New Windsor, and the next day was Convey'd as a Prisoner to New Burgh, where, upon being called before the Committee, he Excepted to their jurisdiction alledging its Locality to their own Precinct and that he lived in the Precinct of Hanover, and if guilty of any offence the Committee of said Precinct was of Competent authority to take cognizance thereof, and therefore Desir'd that any matter he might stand charged with might be referred to the Committee of Hanover, But this being over ruled your Petitioner appealed to the County Committee or Convention upon which he was then discharged giving his Parole to appear before them when Notify'd by a Letter from the Chairman of the Board.

That the next day your Petitioner heard that Col<sup>l</sup> Palmer and some of the party who had surrounded his house in the Night, had in the Neighbourhood Pretended to be in Pursuit of a man said to be come from on board the Man of War, that at the house of one Mary Knap they had actually overtaken and seized a man (one of their own Party) who was made to confess or say that he had made his escape out of your Petitioner's house, when he heard the Party coming to it in the night and that he had deliver'd to your Petitioner Letters or Messuages from on Board the Man of War and had also brought a Letter to said Mary Knap from her Husband who was on board the man of War.

That considering the temper of the times your Petitioner thought such a Report if belived in his Neighborhood might be of Dangerous Consequence to him, therefore Emediately wrote a Letter to the Chairman of the County Committee (not knowing him to be one of the Committee he had allready been before) acquainting of the surcumstances of this whole affair and desiring a hearing before the County Committee. But before this Letter got to the hands of the Chairman the Committee had sat and ordered your Petitioner to appear before them on the 9th day of July, to answer the charges that then may appear against him touching his being an enemy to the American cause, a copy of which order was served on your Petitioner.

That accordingly on the 4th of July your Petitioner appear'd before the County Committee, and that tho' no charge was ever adduced against your Petitioner, much Less supported, of his acting Inimical to the Liberties of his Country, or that he in any manner whatsoever opposed obstructed or counteracted publick measures, And that the story concerning the man from on board the Man of War, Escaping out of your Petitioners house, was acknowledged by Col<sup>l</sup> Palmer and some of his Party to be only a piece of Fun (as he called it) or contrivance formed to impose upon the said Mary Knap, yet to the surprise of your Petitioner and the astonishment of the County, your Petitioner was ordered to the Common Goal of the County in close confinement under every surcumstance of Indignity and Disrespect, From whence your Petitioner took the Liberty to inform your Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board of his grievances and to pray for Relief.

And your Petitioner further sheweth, That Tho' the President of your Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board was pleased to answer his Letter the 16th of July in which he informed him that your Board was pleased to Refer the matter back to the County Committee yet he did not Receive this Letter till the 31st Neither did the Chairman of the County Committee give Notice to your Petitioner of the matter being Refer'd back to the Committee, Nor sent him the Presidents Letter till apply'd to for it.

That your Petitioner upon the Rec<sup>t</sup> of said Letter, hearing that the County Committee was to meet the 6th Ins<sup>t</sup> and not knowing wether they would please to call him before them, wrote a Letter to the Committee and allso made aplication to them throo his friends Desiring their reconsideration of the rigorous Treatment he had Received by a close Confinement in a jayl for near five weeks without any charge against him (as has been already shown) and soliciting his Discharge. Notwithstanding which all the Indulgence your Petitioner was able to procure has been a release from the common jayl upon giving security in the Exorbitant sum of Two Thousand Pounds, not to go off his farm untill fully Discharged by your Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board.

Your Petitioner therefore Relying on the Equity and Humanity of your Hon<sup>ble</sup> Board, Doubts not but that as you are the advocates of freedom, you will shew yourselves Equally the Patrons and Protectors of the Inocent and oppressed, and speedily grant him an ample Release from the unmerrited and arbitrary Restraint he at present Labours under, and your Petitioner as in Duty bound shall Ever Pray.

Memorial of John Holt and others.

[Petitions, 33: 140.]

A memorial humbly recommended to the consideration of the honourable Convention of the Representatives of the State of New York, held at Harlem August 1776.

Your memorialists humbly propose that an immediate Order of this honourable Convention be issued to prevent the paper makers from being compelled or permitted to go upon military service, since in the present infant state of that necessary manufactory the check it would receive in either of those cases would in all human probability entirely suppress the Manufactory which has been for many weeks past & is at present the only means of supply of papers to every department and Business in the State which without it would be laid under the most distressing Difficulties which will be obvious to every one upon the least consideration. The Continental Congress sensible of this have lately passed an order respecting the paper makers of Pennsylvania, similar to this now required in this State, where it is hoped the same Reason will have a similar Effect.

If this matter should be thought deserving the notice of this honourable House, it is humbly requested that they would as speedily as possible issue their order since the least Delay must irretrievably ruin some paper manufactories, which have supplied the Continental Stores with great quantities of stores absolutely necessary for public service, have supplied several other necessary Businesses, and are now by being compelled into military Service upon the very point of Dissolution, it is hoped the Inaccuracies in this hasty Expression of our sentiments will be excused by Gentlemen Your most humb<sup>l</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

CHARLES LOOSLEY,

[Petitions, 33: 148.]

To the Honorable the Gentlemen of the Convention of the State of New York in Convention assembled.

The Memorial of Charles Shaw humbly Sheweth,

That your memorialist has in conjunction with his Partner an Insurance made in England to the amount of £2100 Sterling now depending unrecovered, owing to the present unhappy disputes: as he is unable to transmitt the necessary proofs. That he is also equally interested with his partner in Bills of Exchange to the amount of £1100 Sterling now in litigation before the Court of Chancery in England; that he has also an inheritance in England to the value of £1200 Sterling or upwards; That your memorialist is a native of Great Brittain, that he left there numerous connections; that he is married in this Country, and has Children which he sincerely wishes with their posterity may remain Freemen, and in order thereto he has with cheerfulness Contributed, and never directly or Indirectly either by act or Deed given aid or Comfort to the enemies of America. That he acted as a Commette man for the City and County of New York, in which Capacity he flatters himself he gave Satisfaction to his Constituents, he is confident he acted honestly. That he loves this Country and wishes to spend his days in it and hopes to see his offspring happy in it, that he has stood Clear even of the Suspicion of being unfreindly to it in any instance whatsoever. And flatters himself the above reasons will justify him in the minds of the Gentlemen of the Convention, when he prays they will Exempt him from appearing with the Sword drawn, and in the field of action. And therefore begs the Honorable Gentlemen of the Convention will Exempt him from the Militia duty that may be exacted from him by the Captain of the District in which he now Resides. That your memorialist has hired a small House and Eight or Ten Acres of Land in the Borough Town of West Chester, where he has placed his family, that he should wish to remain there, but that nevertheless if his being an Englishman should create any fears of the members of the Community in which he resides (Confedent they have no other) he is ready to go to such place as the Gentlemen of the Convention shall direct, tho' should prefer Claverack where his wife has some connections and hereby solemnly Declares to the Gentlemen of the Convention that he loves this Country & the freedom of its inhabitants, that he never has directly or Indirectly by act or Deed taken any step to injure either, and never will, and is Ready to Ratify this declaration in whatever solemn manner the Convention may think proper.

Petition of Inhabitants of Hempstead, Queens County.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 480.]

We, your Humble petitioners, being Freholders and Inhabitants of the parish of Heamstead in Queens County and Supporters of the American Cause are Under the disagreeable Necessity of Laying before Your Honourable house the difficulties we are under in putting the Orders in Execucion in moveing the Stock of the above s<sup>d</sup> parrish.*

* See Jour. N. Y. Prov. Congress, 24 Aug., 1776.

From the best Computation we Can make there are Not Less than Seven thousand horned Cattle, Seven thousand sheep, one thousand Horses in the parrish, Comprehended within the above order, and removed in pursuance of it, a Number so large it is Conceived Cannot possibly live long; Where they are drove on the brushy plains they will be Entirely destitute of Water, besides having other verry scanty means of subsistance, and the Extreem distress to which the Execution of this order must Expose many people with their famalies so that some among the poorer Sort, for ought we know must be left to starve, the Cattle and Sheep many people have turned off to fat for the Use of the Continental army and their own famalies will be lost as To all the purposes of such provision and their famalies destitute of that Necessary supply for winter. In several parts of the parrish there was last year a distemper among the Horses, which swept off such a Number of them that many people have been obliged since to depend Intirely upon oxen. These being now taken away they are deprived of the only means they had of Carrying on any Labour upon their farms, that requires a Team of Horses or Oxen, the Consequence of which must be, that they Cannot Secure their present harvest, nor till the Earth for a future one, and Conceiveing that our Case is deplorable and that we can have no Releif but by the Interposition of your Honourable house who is the Guardians of the Inhabitants of this Colony, we do most Humbly pray that you will Take the Same Into your most Serious Consideration and Grant such Relief in the Premises as You in Your Wisdom shall seem meet.

[Petitions, 33: 158.]

To the Honourable Convention of the State of New York now sitting at Haerlem in the County of New York.

The Petition of George Harris most humbly sheweth,

That your Petitioner has lived in Rye in the County of Westchester, these fourteen years last past in the capacity of a School Master, during which Term in that toilsome occupation he acquired a small Estate between Five and Six Hundred Pounds in value, and that with the approbation of his Employers, till the unhappy Dispute commenced between the Colonies and Great Britain, The cause of the former being warmly espoused by him, and arguments in support of the Liberties of America strenuously maintain'd against his Neighbours in Hopes that their Mind would be turn'd so as to set a true Estimate on the Great and valuable Blessings of Freedom they enjoyed in this once most happy and generous Land that was the Receptacle of the industrious Poor, emigrating from subjugated Countries where slavery and poverty was entailed on them and their Posterity. The People of Rye being wholly devoted to the Interest of the Crown shut their Eyes and Ears against reason and knowledge and every day grew more and more Disgusted with your Petitioner on account of his Political principles, till at last a scheme was set afoot to effect his Ruin which was thus. On the twenty seventh Day of July last past your Petitioner was in the Night robbed of a Silver watch and four Dollars in Cash by a Person whom he thinks and takes to be Izariah Wetmore of Rye whose Father was Competitor with your Petitioner for the School and did what he could to injure him in his business; the next day a certain M<sup>r</sup> Budd who keeps a disorderly and Base Tavern in Rye, whose Husband is a man of ill Fame and now in arms against his Country with the British Force near New York enter'd a complaint against your Petitioner saying that she found his watch near her Bed or in her house and that he opened her window to disturb her, upon which your Petitioner was committed to Goal without being examined by any Magistrate; upon which the People of Rye, or some of them who favour'd the Schoolmaster (Wetmore) broke open the School House that he occupied so many years, in which at that Time was upwards of One Hundred and Forty four Pounds in Cash of which they have robbed your Petitioner to the amount of more than twenty six Pounds, which he can get no account of. After a confinement of almost three weeks your Petitioner was enlarg'd upon his verbal promise of giving security to appear when called upon. Two days after your Petitioner was let out of Goal he Deposited into the hands of John Thomas Esq<sup>r</sup> Bonds

Exceeding the sum of Three Hundred Pounds to appear as above. Now he is out of Business, and the Fruits of his long and steady Labour wasting amazingly as it has been this month past; his School taken away and the School House denied him by James Wetmore the Brother of that arch Tory or Enemy to his Country Timothy Wetmore, who has and does yet keep up the spirit of Toryism in Rye, he being their Grand Molock, whom they adore and worship and indeed who justly has deserved to have been removed before now to some distant place where his Influence would not reach or be able to debase the People with his pernicious Doctrines, of which he is so fond of inculcating Daily; tho' he now might spare himself the Trouble of farther preaching, as he has so well grounded the whole Neighbourhood in Principles most inimical to American Freedom and Liberty. Your Petitioner having given a true and faithful Narrative of his grievous and unfortunate Case, and he being very near sighted and now in years advanced, having for a series of years served to the utmost of his Power that Base People of Rye, who after his services seek his Ruin unmerrited, Prays you in your Wisdom, Tenderness and Compassion to take his Deplorable case into your consideration, and grant him relief, as his Destruction is sought by Persons that are as great Enemies to the State of New York, as the Forces under the Command of Lord Howe, and as he alone is the Person who is a real Friend to America in the foolish and simple Town of Rye. The Relief your Petitioner prays is that your Honours will grant him a Line to John Thomas Esq<sup>r</sup> ordering that his Bonds and watch may be delivered to him which would enable him to prosecute those that have robbed him and recover his money. Should your Honours think proper at any Time to call upon your Petitioner to answer the charge of that vile woman M<sup>rs</sup> Budd (whose house is only frequented by Persons that Discourse about the Hanging the leading Gentlemen that stand gloriously for their Country; and the straggling or stroling Persons that fall in her way, who can be entertained till Debauched in the last degree) he will directly obey and attend, as well as he did perform his promise to M<sup>r</sup> Thomas two days after being out of Prison; when he might go away with his substance where he pleased, but his character being so well established for Probity and his Innocence such that he cou'd not Harbour the most Distant thought of running away; which were he to do his Enemies wou'd be the more rejoiced. The said Timothy Wetmore purposes to Prosecute your Petitioner, as soon as the Day is carried by Great Britain, which he thinks is now at the Eve, for being as he supposes the author of a Letter written against him and his Principles, and publicly read at the White Plains, last Spring in the midst of a Concourse of People. These are the causes of Malice and Rancour against your Petitioner who hopes to be reliev'd by your Honorable House, and as in duty bound will ever pray, &c.

GEORGE HARRIS.

Examination of John Wooley.

Kingsbridge ss.

The examination of John Wooley Prisoner confined on suspicion of going on Board the Enemy's Shipping & Supplying the Enemy with Provisions & upon Examination of the said John Wooley he being asked how often he had been on Board the s<sup>d</sup> Shipping answer was made by the Examinant only once. Observing that a Boat the Property of this Examinant's Father lay exposed to being taken by the Enemy whereupon this Examinant with his Brother Philip went in Order to remove s<sup>d</sup> Boats out of the aforesaid Danger in accomplishing which they were met by a Barge from the Shipping (Fairly exposed to their View) and taken & there upon carried on Board the Shipping & upon the Enemy's receiving Intelligence from persons (as he thinks) who fled aboard upon Principle of Toryism—The Examinant being asked whether or no he was a brother to Thomas Wooley who this Examinant says fled aboard & absolutely refused to take up arms against the Ministerial Army whereupon he answered he was; whose conduct this Examinant says he conjectures was a means of his & his Brother being treated with the Lenity and usage they received. at the same time asserts & says that offers being made to him this Examinant in case he would supply or fetch them Provisions they would be set at Liberty whereupon this Examinant answered he had none, nevertheless, together with his Brother was dismissed. This Examinant being further ask<sup>d</sup> in regard to the Shipping what number of shipping, also what number of Men he took to be on Board the Ship he was taken; in answer to which says, he saw two 32 Gunships & one 12 Gun Brig and as for the number of men on Board the Vessel he was on Board of says he imagines to be about 220 or about that number which being all the information he can give recollective to the State of s<sup>d</sup> Shipping. The above Examination taken by us this 2nd Sept<sup>r</sup> 1776.

Petition of Captain Townsend's Company.

[Petitions, 33: 103, 104.]

To the Honorable the Convention of the State of New York.

The Petition of the Lieutenant non-commissioned officers & Privates belonging to Capt<sup>n</sup> Micah Townsend's company raised to be under the Direction of the Committee of Westchester County, Humbly Sheweth,

That the Honorable the Provincial Congress of this Colony when they gave Instructions for raising Capt<sup>n</sup> Townsend's Company allowed the Lieutenant 12s per week and the non-commissioned officers and privates 8s each per week in lieu of Rations & Subsistence.

That at and near the White Plains (which is the head Quarters of the Company) the allowance for their subsistence does not amount to near enough to support them, they being unable to get victuals for less than 1s per Meal, or to hire their Board at any tolerable rate but by the week; that your Petitioners entered the Company & Did duty in the most busy season of the year before & during Harvest time & have had a harder share of duty than the Troops who were allowed by your honorable House 20 Dollars Bounty & who have generally received near 40 Dollars.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that your honorable House will be pleased to increase the Pay for their Subsistence so far as to enable them when they live with Frugality to support themselves by it in the part of the County where they may reside, or be ordered, And your Petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray, &c.

Examination of Anthony Fasselabend.

[Miscel. Pap. 36 : 313.]

The Examination of Anthony Fasselabend of Col Riedesels Regiment of Dragoons who deserted at Montreal the 24th June with 19 others, but does not know what became of them.

Says that in February 2,000 Hessians, 3,000 Brunswickers and 3,000 Westphalians, the latter all Roman Catholics, embarked on Board 46 Dutch Vessel at Stade in, Hanover, and sailed for America, that 43 of these arrived at Quebec 27th May, the other three being blown off from the fleet in a storm about Easter and supposed to be lost. That some time in June the whole marched for Montreal where they arrived the latter End of the same month.

That 500 of the Westphalians and Brunswick Troops were drafted as Dragoons, Horses purchased in Canada and daily training for that purpose. 500 more were drafted as Riflemen. The whole are new Recruits from 16 to 22 years of age quartered at Longuille opposite Montreal under the Command of Colonel Belnitz of the Brunswick Troops.

That at Quebec 10 of the Germans had Deserted, one was afterwards at Longuille, ordered to Run the Gauntlet thro' 300 men, but the whole of the German Troops mutinied, owing to their not receiving their pay and Provisions as promised 'em, refused to inflict the punishment, and were going to murder the General, but Col<sup>o</sup> Belnitz quieted them with promises of their receiving their allowances for the future.

That he understood all the Germans were to return about Michaelmas, and that the English and Canadians amounted to about 5,000 men.

[Miscel. Pap. 33: 18.]

WHITE PLAINS GAOL, Sept<sup>r</sup> 13th 1776.

To the Honble Provincial Congress of the State of New York,

The petition of Rineer Van House of Orange County, Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner hath now been upwards of six months confined in New York and this place, where he was ordered by this Honorable House, who formerly promised to remove your petitioner to Albany, and to provide for his helpless wife and six children as the winter is now approaching. Your petitioner humbly begs of this Honorable House to be removed over the River, where he may be somewhat nearer to his Family, as being destitute of money, he cannot even procure his clothes to be washed or mended, for want of which convenience your petitioner is rendered quite loathsome by his dirty rags and vermin, and has no other hope but of perishing in this nauseous place, unless shortly relieved by this Honorable House, and your petitioner humbly hopes to be admitted to his parole, as he is absolutely registered on the Navy Books, and has been so for the space of seventeen months after passing Examination as King's Pilot in the Fleet. Your petitioner humbly begs for such relief as to this Honorable House shall seem meet, and your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Governor Trumbull to Colonel Livingston.

[Miscel. Pap. 34: 289.]

LEBANON, 15th Septem<sup>br</sup> 1776.

SIR: I have before me yours of the 14th inst. Acknowledge the favour of the Arms you are so kind as to lend for the use of our Militia.

Yesterday Cap<sup>t</sup> Lestingwell of Norwich was here. I gave him a Letter to Col<sup>o</sup> Wolcott—Where in I have said—“What may be further done for the Relief of the People on Long Island cannot be so well judged by me at this distance, must therefore leave the same to your good discretion, if by the assistance of Men from your Regiment, with Cap<sup>t</sup> Lessingwell's Company and some armed Vessel that may be employed, any thing further can be reasonably expected to be done on Long Island for relief of those People or bringing off Stock, you will give your Order accordingly. Otherwise Cap<sup>t</sup> Lessingwell to join the 20th Regiment at or near West-Chester.”

By this you will see my desire to serve those people, doth agree with your inclinations—and if Col<sup>o</sup> Wolcott shall judge it prudent to make any further attempts on the Island—I readily comply therein—and the Command of the Detachment of Course devolves on you, In which I do heartily acquiesce and wish you Success in that, or whatever you undertake.

I am, with Esteem and Regards, Sir, Your Obed<sup>t</sup> hum<sup>b</sup> Servant,

To the Honorable the President and Members of the Provincial Congress of New York.

The petition of John Fowler of the City of New York, Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner now a prisoner in the White Plains Gaol, Humbly begs leave to acquaint your Honors that your Petitioners unhappy case hath been grossly misrepresented by his Enemies, the truth as he shall answer to his God, being as follows.

That on the day the Men of War passed by the City, your Pettitioner having obtained leave of the Captain of the Guard, put off from Mr. Dean's wharf at the North River, in a small Boat, together with a certain Butcher named Stophell and your Pettitioner's son, a boy of about thirteen years of age, in order to purchase some sheep and Calves for New York market when your Pettitioner was unhappily overtaken by one of the Men of War's Tenders partly opposite Col. Philips when your petitioner stretching over for the Western shore in hopes to gain Snethins Ferry, but being just abreast of the Meadows, as he could not make the Ferry on account of the Flatts, when the Tender fired four or five shot, which affair was distinctly seen by M<sup>r</sup> Edward Drake, who saw them hoist out their Barge, and take every one of us out of Boat, and carry us on board the Tender, and after detaining your petitioners about an hour or two, they then carried them on board the Rose, where they were detained all night, when in the morning he sent us on board the Phenix, when the Cap<sup>t</sup> asked us where we were going with the Boat, when my partner shewed his pass which intimated that he had liberty for so many days to buy creatures in the country, upon which the Captain interrogated us concerning the strength of the Army at New York, your Pettitioner replied that to his opinion he judged that there might be about Thirty thousand men or better, when Stophell told the Captain that a reinforcement of about seven thousand more were on there march to join them, when the Captain said Damn you you Rebels why didn't you come too when you was first fired upon, upon which said that the sails were so entangled that he could not get them down, upon which the Capt<sup>a</sup> asked your Pettitioners if they would get some fresh provisions for them or otherwise they would burn your Pettitioners Boat, and insisted on keeping your Pettitioners son as a Hostage for their fidelity to return again, when your Pettitioner on going ashore was with the said Stophell immediately seized and brought to this unhappy place where he is deprived of the common necessaries of life, and his helpless family in a deplorable condition, as everything is going to the utmost ruin.

Gentlemen your Pettitioner humbly begs you would consider how your honors would have acted in such a situation, as your Pettitioner declares he never was on board a Man of War in his life before, nor ever contracted, or furnished them with any kind of provisions or ever will.

Your Pettitioner therefore humbly begs for a hearing before your honors, when he makes not the least doubt of making his innocence appear to your honors entire satisfaction.

Your Honors kind compliance will ever lay an obligation on your distressed humble servant,

JOHN FOWLER.

Petition of Colonel Graham and his Officers.

[Petitions, 33: 236.]

To the Honourable George Clinton Esq<sup>r</sup> Brigadier General in the United States of America.

The Petition of Coll Morris Graham, and the officers of the Regiment under his Command, in your Honours Brigade, Humbly Sheweth,

That William Forman hath been appointed a Surgeon in this Regiment without the Knowledge or Recommendation of the Coll of said Regiment or any of the other officers, In which appointment your petitioners think themselves much imposed upon by an unskillful Physician neither are they willing to trust their Lives in his hands or Employ him in any case whatever. Your Petitioners would also observe to your Honour that even the Privates will not employ him, but several of them have been at considerable Expense out of their own pockets in applying to other Physician, we would beg leave to Recommend Doct<sup>r</sup> Abraham Teller as a suitable person for a Surgeon &<sup>c</sup> to said Regiment who would be very agreeable to it, should he be appointed as such.

Therefore your Petitioners most humbly pray your Honour to take our case into consideration, and order the said William Forman to be Discharged from the Service and appoint the said Abraham Teller or some other skillful Surgeon for our Regiment, and your Honours Petitioners in Duty bound shall ever pray.

Report on Harboring Deserters and on the Rank of Officers, etc.

[Miscel. Pap. 39 : 317.]

Your Committee to whom was Refer<sup>d</sup> General Clintons Letter of the 8th & Col Swartwouts of the 10th Inst. [Sept. 1776]* with the several papers Refer<sup>d</sup> to in Said Letters and also to Report a Resolution against Harbousing Desserters,

Are of opinion that as Col<sup>l</sup> Remsons Reg<sup>t</sup> are Engag<sup>d</sup> in Service for a Term of time already Expired they cannot be Esteem<sup>d</sup> as holden to further Service in Consequence of said Engagement,

In the case of Col<sup>l</sup> Smiths Reg<sup>t</sup> Referr<sup>d</sup> to in the Generals Letter it appears to your Committee that they were Inlisted for the purpose of preserving the Stock on Nasau Island and that there being Liable to be Cal<sup>d</sup> to service off the Island was Neither held up nor expected at the time of Inlistment and that altho their joining General Clinton's Brigade might be very Servicable yet their being compel<sup>d</sup> thereto in the opinion of your Committee might rather Injure than Serve our Cause.

With respect to the defficiency in General Clinton's Brigade as by his Return now before us your Committee advise that Circular Letters from the President of this Convention be forthwith Sent to the Commanding officers of the Several Battalions from whence General Clinton's Brigade has been Rais<sup>d</sup> Enjoining on such Commanding officers without Delay to furnish the Several quotas Levied on their Respective Regiments and that the Respective Deffecencies of men be forthwith sent to their Respective Corps, and the more effectually to accomplish the Same that such Commanding officer may be Directed to have Recourse to the Resolution of this house of the Tenth of August last and also that Capt Smith, Commandant of the Dutchess County Guards be Directed to use his utmost Efforts in taking up all such persons in s<sup>d</sup> Dutchess County as have or may Dissert from any part of our Army and Send them under proper Guards to their Respective Corps that a list of the names of those persons mentioned in the Return of Col<sup>l</sup> Swartwout may be Inclos<sup>d</sup> to Cap<sup>t</sup> Smith—And that he be directed to Serve General Clinton with a proper account of the Expense which may accrue in Sending down Such Disserters.

* 5 American Archives, II. 242, 276.

As to the two persons mentioned in the Generals Letter as being Confined in his main Gaurd your Committee advise that a proper Gaurd from one of the Companies of County Gaurd in Dutchess or the County gaurd in West Chester be directed to repair to the Camp at Kings bridge furnish with an order from the Convention Directed to General Clinton Requesting him to Deliver over the prisoners Refer<sup>d</sup> to to s<sup>d</sup> guard and that they Safely Bring them before this Convention.

In answer to that part of the General's Letter which holds forth the Necessity of the Military being held in Readiness to assist our Troops at or near the Bridge your Committee are of opinion that a Letter be forwarded to General Clinton setting forth the State of the Militia in all respects as fully as may be asertain<sup>d</sup> That a number of Blank Commissions be sent to General Clinton to be fill<sup>d</sup> up by him to those officers who are in the Service without Commissions.

As to the Generals Application on the Subject of the Arrangement of Field Officers your Committee are of opinion that the Officer who bears the Eldest Commission shall Rank above all officers of the same Rank whose Commissions are of Later Date. That in Case there shall be Several Commissions of the Same Rank of Equal Date that in such Case Regard ought to be had to the Seniority of the County from whence said officers have been taken.

In the Case of Lieut Coll Furness Refer<sup>d</sup> to in General Clintons and Col<sup>l</sup> Swartwouts Letters your Committee are of oppinion that tis most Convenient that General Clinton be Directed to Regulate that matter in such manner as may appear to him most subservient to the public good.

with Regard to y<sup>e</sup> Stock mentioned in the General's Letter as being liable to fall into the Enemies hand, your Committee beg leave to Recommend that Col<sup>l</sup> Joseph Drake call on any part of the Militia in s<sup>d</sup> County for such assistance as may be needfull to the End the Stock near the Sound may be drove back in the Country to such Distance as may Render them Safe.

Furthermore as your Committee are Enjoind to Report a Resolution to prevent Disserters being harboured secreted or Countenanced in this State, we Report the following Resolution,

Resolved that any person or persons within this State who shall harbour secret or Countenance any Dissorter or disserters from any Camp, Army or Military Department of the United States of America that on Due proof thereof made to this Convention the Committee of Safety or to the General Committee of any County in this State the person so harbouring Secreting or Countenancing such Dissorter Shall be Esteem<sup>d</sup> as an Enemy to this State and that the General Committee of the County or District where such offender shall Reside shall have full power & are hereby directed to Raise from the goods and Chattels of such offender such sum of money as may be Sufficient to Induce some able Bodied man to serve in the place of such Dissorter and that such sum be apply<sup>d</sup> to that use provided s<sup>d</sup> Sum Do not exceed the sum of Thirty pounds and that such Dissorter shall not thereby by any means be Exempt from his Service in the Army or Sren<sup>d</sup> from such punishment as may be Inflicted by Court Martial and that this Resolution Remain in force till future act of this Convention or of the Legislature of this State may Render the same unnecessary.

Examination of Adjutant Gabriel and Richard King.

[Miscel. Pap. 36: 311.]

Examination of Nicholas Emanuel Gabriel, Adjutant in Col. Swartworth's Regiment, and M<sup>r</sup> Richard King of the same Regiment. Taken by Henry Godwin, Captain of the main Guard at Kings Bridge September 7th 1776, against one Gilbert Tibbit, Confined under Guard in the Main Guard House by Order of Major General Heath.

Richard King saith that on September 5th 1776, Gilbert Tibbit said in publick Company amongst Soldiers and others that if we were United that the Regulars would overcome us and that at several Times he hath found fault with the measures, and spake words tending to a Discouragement of the measures now persued by the United States of America, and that he (Tibbit) was no way the worst for Liquor when he spake those words, but looked upon him to be a sober man.

Adjutant Gabriel saith that on the fifth of September anno q Domini 1776, that he heard Gilbert Tippit discoursing among several Soldiers and other Persons and indeivoured to Discourage him, and that he (Gabrial) heard him (Tippit) say: that if all the men in the United Colonies were united, that the Regulars would overcome us yet, and that he (Gabrial) heard him also speak Disrespectfull of the Commanding Officers in the Service of the United American States.

IN COMMITTEE, DUTCHESS COUNTY, Sep<sup>r</sup> 17th 1776.

Report on Treasurer's Account.

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 261.]

On the 11th March 1776 the Convention of this State appointed a Committee, to wit M<sup>r</sup> Van Zant, Capt. Denning, W<sup>m</sup> Beekman, Col. Brasier & Mr. Sands, to examine the Treasurer's Accounts, and to point out what part of the charges therein were to be considered as Continental and what Provincial: a fair Copy of the Continental Account, as stated by them, was prepared by the Auditor's Clerk.

In May last Auditors to wit Messrs. Van Zandt, Bancker, Beekman, Sands & Denning continued this Acco<sup>t</sup> down to the 30th Day of April last, it was afterwards examined by some of the New York members of the Continental Congress and then taken to the Convention of this State where it underwent several alterations; in which State it is now fair Copied: Many Accounts being not then come in, the Auditors deferred sending it to Philadelphia till some of the principal ones could be procured, and many letters were wrote for that purpose.

Nothing more was done with the Continental Account till the Auditor General was appointed the latter End of July last when he came to the plains to endeavor to continue it down to that Time, but the number of outstanding Accounts were so increased by the great Sums of Money that had been paid out there by Order of the Convention on Account for Services to be performed, as to induce him to defer the Completion of it till they could be got in, several of which accounts he procured abroad and left Orders for writing to many persons who had neglected sending in theirs, which Letters have accordingly been wrote, and Copies of some of them sent, And tho' the Number of Outstanding Accounts is greatly deminished, there are still many to be brought in as p<sup>r</sup> the annexed List Amounting to about £40,000.

Petition of Robert and James Totten.

[Petitions, 33: 98.]

We haveing part in a brig Laying in Saw Pitt Creek, agreed with other owners to have her loaded in Philadelphia. In consequence of which we ordered a freight of Flower purchased in that place, on applying to the Committee for a permitt to go round in Balast, they did not incline to agree thereunto. Their Reasons against it were the danger of the Captain's availing himself of such an opportunity of going over to the Enemy. The design of her voyage was to take a Cargo of Flower for Curacao and return with a Freight of Salt, we should thank the Convention if they would as soon as convenient give us their determination on the matter.

[Petitions, 33: 86.]

Sept<sup>r</sup> 25th 1776.

To the Hon<sup>r</sup> Convention of the State of New York.

Is humbly presented the memorial of Cornelius Atherton shewing the impossibility of his carrying on the Manufacture of fire arms under the present situation of this State, there being no exemption for him or his workman from the Military Duty which is a fatal bar to his progress in making fire arms. Your memorialist has taken unwaried pains to imploy workmen but to no purpose for before he can get them qualified for the business they are cauld into the Army, and he has new ones to seek and all to no purpos as the same seen is acted over and over, viz the cauling of himself and workmen to General Musters, Tory hunts Drafting &<sup>c</sup> all these man-oviers put together has rendered it impossible for me to accomplish my Contract with the Congress, and unless the Hon<sup>e</sup> Convention can see it expedient to pass an act wheirby their Memorialist can be secured in keeping his workmen it will be for ever impossible for him to doe much att making Fire arms and must of necessaty oblige him to quit the business. Your Memorialist therefore earnestly prays that your Hon<sup>s</sup> would tak the matter in to their serious consideration, and afforde their Memorialist such assistance as to your Hon<sup>m</sup> shall seem best, and your Memorialist in duty bound will ever pray,

 That on Tuesday the 24th of this In<sup>t</sup> a number of persons assembled together at Florida in Orange County in order to procure Salt by some means (as there was none Exposed to sale) they were at a loss what method to take & Had agreed to Go & if such places as they found Quantities of Depositid in was not at their Request Exposed to sale at a Reasonable price allowing a sufficient profit to y<sup>e</sup> owner they were determined to Break open such places & to proceed to sell the same to such persons as was in want of that article according to their present Nessesity: Observing still that the Owners were made Good the prime cost & Reasonable profits & to Leive them what might be thought their proportion of the same, according to their circumstances. But as this method was not thought prudent they were prevailed upon to Desist the puting the same Into Execution untill the advice of this Honorable Convention could be had in this Difficulty & further your Memorialist saith Not.

To the Honorable the President and Members of the State of New York in Congress met.

The Petition of Joshua Ferris a prisoner confined in the Goal of the White Plains, in West Chester County, Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner was Enlisted in his Majestys Service the fifteenth of April last, and receiv'd his Bounty money in the said service, not having the Least suspicion of an alteration of the Form of Government, and as your Pettitioner on Coming on shore was apprehended and Imediately Loaded with Irons, in which state he hath continued almost ever since, and as he humbly concieves himself to be under the Limitation of a Prisoner of War, he begs of this Honb<sup>l</sup>e House, that His Irons may be taken off as he cannott posibly Shift Himself or get clear of the Vermin, with which he is Greatly Infected, to the great disturbance of his unfortunate fellow prisoners, and he further relies on your Honors well known Humanity to treat him as an unfortunate prisoner of War, and allow Him the same Liberty as other prisoners belonging to his Majesty as your Pettitioner declares that he will not Interfere in any Matters, concerning the present unhappy Troubles, but behave himself as becomes a faithfull prisoner of War.

Your Petitioner therefore Humbly submits his Case to your Honors and begs for such relief as to your Honors shall seem meet, and your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Petition of Prisoners.

[Petitions, 33: 64.]

To the Honorable the provincial Congress for the Colony of New York.

Your Petitioners, Barnaby M<sup>c</sup>Maron belonging to Gen. Greene's Brigade, stationed at Long Island punished for sleeping on his post and order one month's confinement and been confined near three months. Richard Keef, Belonging to Lord Sterlings Brigade confined for buying a Gun, tryed and punished, ordered one month's imprisonment, confined three months.

William Gillas, Confined for buying of a Soldier who was indebted to him, a shirt and a pair of Breeches which it proved he had stole. To excuse himself he informed that I was going on board the Asia, though in years and a cripple. Keeps a small store in York.

Thomas Dennis, Confined by Major Crane under suspicion of desertion into Boston to the Enemy. I was taken by them and pardoned for deserting from them which I have done a second time leaving all my cloaths behind, and as a reward for returning I have been long confined quite naked.

Jeremiah Gilly, Confined for getting drunk and making a disturbance in the streets of New York.

Edward Wilson, Confined for quarreling with his Corporal being a front rank man and he would place me in the rear at the Battle on Long Island, a riffle man.

John Dougherty, Confined for being in a certain house in York in liquor, a bowl being broke, the guard being come in accused us of being Tories my Companion fled and I sent to Gaol, an inhabitant of York.

James Nowles, Confined on suspicion of going to Long Island, being fishing in the East River for the Hospital.

Thomas Berry, Belonging to Gen' Sullivan's Brigade, Confined for striking a Lieutenant on the Holy ground, who had drawn his sword on two of them, confined since April 17th 1776.

John Creig, Confined for the above crime and is the man who has disciplined most of the Jersey Troops, was to have been discharged the day after we left York.

John Andrews, A Prisoner of War taken at S<sup>t</sup> Johns hath since disciplined two Battallions of provincial troops at Mombaucus where he left his regiment and came in Captain John De Witt's Company to hornshook, confined for being in company with a man suspected to be a tory, the man got cleared. I being neglected in the hurry of business should have been discharged in a few days if we had not left New York.

John Gee, Belonging to the first Battallion of York Militia, Confined for affronting a Serjeant who was in liquor I reminding him of his duty. For fear of getting mischief he charged me with being inimical to the Country. I was tryed and honorably acquitted by a Court Martial upon a good character given from my Captain which he repeatedly sent me but could not come and take me being upon Long Island therefore I remain though guiltless through the hurry and confusion of the times. Most humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioners think the are very cruelly treated to be confined without crimes or even the shaddow of a crime in reality, and hurried like the worst of Criminals from one Goal to another when soldiers are so much wanted and it is the desire of every man to join their respective Regiments instead of perishing for want of Clothes and their health by their close confinement daily declining, we are used to enjoy liberty in York and Newark Goals but here close locked up in dungeons. Our victuals and the treatment we meet with from the Goalor is kind and good. We beg for justice sake you will take our unhappy as well as unmeritted sufferings into your kind and Most serious consideration, (being every resource left us while the Army is in such confusion) or we must languish without any hopes though most of us might be very useful if we had liberty and justice. Hope you will take these unhappy circumstances into your most serious consideration and your petitioners in duty as well as gratitude be ever bound to pray, &c<sup>c</sup>

[Mil. Com. 25: 194.]

CAMP HARLEM, 7th Oct., 1776.

SIR: I was this moment honoured with your favour on the subject of the Rank Roll, and officers for the Regiments to be retained in the Continental Service of those raised in this State. I have made some preparation for it, and shall devote this evening to the subject. You mention enclosed Resolves; but they did not accompany your letter.

Nothing material has happened here since the skermish of the 16th Ultimo. The Enemy appear very shy. Our advanced sentries and theirs are within three hundred yards of each other in Harlem lane. The works they have thrown up are evidently calculated for defence. I should have cheerfully complied with the Request of the Convention thro' M<sup>r</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Kessen, to give them intelligence, but my time was then wholly engrossed in assisting to arange and setle the Army; and since, I am under orders with my Brigade to support the advanced picket, in case of alarm, which I hope will be a sufficient appology.

Your Very Humble Servant,

Report of the Committee on a Letter of Messrs. Field and Paddock.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 301.]

MR. PRESIDENT: Your committee appointed to take into consideration the expediency of raising a company of men for the immediate service of this State, more particularly in answer to a letter received from Mess<sup>rs</sup> John Field and Jonathan Paddock, and having duly considered the same, are of opinion, That the raising a company of forty men, under the same regulations with the Companies heretofore raised in the counties of Dutchess and West Chester, now under the command of Melancton Smith, Cap<sup>t</sup> Commandant of the same, is essentially necessary to the preservation of the internal peace of the country, and the detecting and defeating the intentions and conspiracies of our foreign and domestic enemies. That the said company be officered with one Captain, one Lieut, three Serjeants, three Corporals and one fifer, and we beg leave to recommend Mr. Nathaniel Scribner as Captain, and Mr. Joseph Field as Lieut. for the said company, and that the non-commissioned officers be appointed by them.

Your Committee further beg leave to report, that, from intelligence they have received concerning the behaviour of disaffected persons in the county of Albany, they conceive it necessary for this Convention, to raise one Company of Forty men in the s<sup>d</sup> county, that the said company be officered by one Capt., one Lieut., three Serjeants, three Corporals and one fifer, and that the said Company shall rendezvous at and about the manor of Livingston. That Petrus Van Gaasbeck be appointed Capt. and Sam<sup>l</sup> Thorne Lieut. of the s<sup>d</sup> Company, under the direction of the General Committee of the City & County of Albany. That the s<sup>d</sup> Company shall be allowed continental pay and ten shillings a week in lieu of Rations, and shall continue in service for the space of three months, unless sooner discharged by this Convention, or a future Legislature of this State.

That £20 be advanced to Capt. Coe on his receipt & that he be accountable to this State for the money when called upon.

Petition of William McNeall.

[Petitions, 33: 28.]

To the Honourable the Convention of the State of New York in Congress convened.
The Petition of William M<sup>c</sup>Neall of the County of Dutches, Trader, Humbly Sheweth,

That about twelve months ago he was possessed of one hundred and thirty three Bushells of Salt which he put in the store of Cap<sup>t</sup> Bogardus, situate near the River, That finding the inhabitants of this County were greatly in want of this necessary article, he condescended to sell the same to them at the rate of four shillings and sixpence a Bushell, exepting thirty Bushells which he reserved for the salting of divers quantities of Beef & Pork which he was to receive of several persons who were indebted to him in divers sums of money, and had no other way of paying him the same. That your petitioner in order to keep the Salt for the purpose aforesaid gave not long since ten shillings a Bushell for a quantity of salt to repack some Barrells of Pork which he sold for the use of the Continental Army. That notwithstanding which Coll Dirk Brinckerhoff of this county induced as your petitioner supposes by pecuniary views, and in hopes to take advantage of the present suspension of the Laws of this State did about three weeks ago in the absence of Cap<sup>t</sup> Bogardus, the owner of the store, and without my knowledge or approbation take out of the said store the said thirty Bushells of Salt, and appropriate the same to his own use and private emolument whereby your petitioner is greatly injured and prevented from receiving in payment for the money owing to him the said quantities of Beef and Pork, which he designed for the use of the Continental Army, and in all probability will by that means forever lose the same. That your Petitioner humbly conceives that acts of this kind greatly injure the happiness of society, and if permitted will beyond doubt reduce us almost to a state of nature, and drive us to the disagreeable alternative of repelling force by force, or of tamely submitting to the lawless invader. That your Petitioner is well assured that an act thus vicious in its nature will never in the opinion of this Honourable Convention appear sanctified by the wealth or elevation of the aggressor, but that ample justice will be administered without respect to persons. Induced therefore by this consideration your Petitioner humbly prays that this honourable Convention would be pleased to order the said Dirk Brinckerhoff to appear before you at some speedy day, to be appointed for that purpose, to assign his reasons (if any he hath) for such his unprecedented conduct, and if not satisfactory to this honourable Convention, that your petitioner may have restitution of the salt aforesaid and damages for the injury done to him. And your petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray,

WILL M<sup>c</sup>NEALL.

May it please Your Honors,

Oct<sup>r</sup> 19th 1776.

The subscriber humbly relying on the known goodness and Humanity of this Honorable House begs leave to Lay his complaint before them which is briefly as Follows,

That your petitioner was about six months past taken upon Long Island for a Trespass of which this House is thoroughly aquainted as by the Instigation of Israel Youngs he was Led away to perform an action of which he has already sincerely repented, and as your petitioner was torn away from his only son, who is Left amongst Strangers without any one to support or protect him during the Inclemency of the aproaching winter, as his unhappy Father hath since the first Day of His being Taken, had but one shirt and one pair of Stockings to Shift Himself and as he hath been afflicted during his Imprisonment at the White Plains with the worst of Enemies, Hunger, the Nauseous Stench of a Small room, where sometimes twenty Persons were Confined together which hath Introduced a Sickness on your distresd Subscriber, which with fatigue of Travelling, hath reduced your unhappy Petitioner To a State of Despondency. He therefore being already weary of such a Miserable Life as his misconduct hath thrown him into, Humbly begs for a Termination of His Sorrows by a Death to be inflicted in what manner this Honorable House may think fit. The kind compliance of this Honorable House will ever lay an obligation on your Honor's distresd Hum Servant,

Petitions of Andrew Bostwick.

[Petitions, 33: 78, 240.]

To the Honourable the Representatives of the State of New York in Convention assembled.

The Memorial of Andrew Bostwick an Insolvent debtor now confined in Goal of the County of Orange Humbly Sheweth,

That your Memorialist having been confined near nineteen months notwithstanding all his Efforts to accomplish a settlement with his Creditors. Is by the prevailing Calamity of the times Cut off from all hopes of obtaining his Liberty—and thereby unfortunately deprived of every opportunity of serving his Creditors his Family or his Country (which at this perticular period claims the utmost Exertion of every Individual member of Society) unless Enabled by The Timely Interposition of this Honourable Body. That your Memorialist from his Present Confinement has it not in his power to mend his circumstances, but they must of Necessity be daily Growing worse, is therefore anxiously desirous something may be done that may have a tendency to better them.

Your Memorialist therefore most humbly begs leave to recommend his Case to this Honb<sup>le</sup> Convention, praying them to grant such speedy Relief as the nature & Necessity of the Case Requires. And your Memorialist as in duty bound shall ever pray &<sup>c</sup>

Read Oct. 22, 1776. Ordered to be discharged on giving Security.

To the Honb<sup>le</sup> the Representatives of the State of New York in Convention assembled.

The Petition of Andrew Bostwick an Insolvent debtor now Confined in the Goal of the County of Orange, Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioner through Sundry Losses and disapointments in trade is Rendered incapable of makeing full payments to his Creditors by which means he has been in actual confinement for near seventeen months.

That your Petitioner has no desire to be discharged from the payment of his just debts, without making all the sattisfaction to his Creditors that's in his power, And is apprehansive that a Resolve of the Honb<sup>le</sup> Convention permitting the Sheriff to Release him from confinement on such conditions as they shall deem meat & Proper, Cannot in the Least Injure the Creditors but on the contrary will better enable him to settle his affairs with them more to their mutual advantage then he could do while continued in confinement. Your Petitioner therefore most humbly prays this Honb<sup>le</sup> Convention that they would take his case into their consideration and grant such speedy Relief, as the Nature & Necessity of the case Requires. And your Petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray &<sup>c</sup>—

Petition of William Forbes.

[Petitions, 33 : 68.]

To the Honourable the provincial Congress of the State of New York.

The memorial of William Forbes of Goshen in Orange County in said State humbly sheweth,

That a little before your honourable Convention moved from New York to White Plains y<sup>r</sup> unhappy memorialist fell under the great misfortune of being misrepresented to y<sup>r</sup> Honours as unfriendly to the American States, and altho' he avouched his Innocency; yet the Perplexity of the times, then interveeing, unfortunately prevented, for that Time, a full Examination of his case, and he was then transmitted into the State of Connecticut & finally comitted to the custody of the Keeper of Litchfield County Goal in which Prison he still remains. And whereas his peculiar misfortunes renders his present close confinement very distressing as he is by his poverty utterly unable to provide himself with either bedding or even present necessary clothing, which heavy calamities must be greatly aggravated by a much longer confinement under his present circumstances as the severity of winter wears a very horrid Aspect in the Northwesterly part of a Cold Goal. These glooms have still a keener edge set to them by the very great additional melancholly consideration that his confinement not only deprives him of the comfort of the very agreeable company of a beloved wife, and four helpless Babes; but totally deprives him of the possibility of affording any relief to their distresses. Whereupon y<sup>r</sup> Honour's very unfortunate memorialist taking Encouragement from y<sup>r</sup> Honours impartiality and Humanity humbly recommends his greatly distressed case to as speedy a consideration as the variety of y<sup>r</sup> important affairs will Admit of. He really hopes he shall be so happy as to evince his Innocency whenever he can be so happy as to appear before y<sup>r</sup> Honours. Y<sup>r</sup> Honours memorialist craves y<sup>r</sup> Honours Patience while he adds to his profession of Innocency his honest Declaration of an hearty desire for the Prosperity of the American States, in Favour of which he is ready to risque his life either by Sea or Land under the Tie of a sacred oath of Fidelity to them in their glorious and righteous contest for Independency and Exemption from the Tyranny of Brittain and her despotick monarch. The memorialist humbly hopes his Dismission or Tryal may be speedy; but if the present Imbarrassment of the Times necessitates a Delay thereof he implores the Honourable Congress to mitigate in some measure the pungent distresses of his present confinement either by Directinge he may be returned from his present Exile and permitted to reside with his family as a prisoner of Hope under the Inspection and direction of some Committee of Inspection or such other person as your Honours should please to appoint, or if that should be tho't inexpedient, That y<sup>r</sup> unfortunate supplicant may be delivered from the Horrors of a cold winter Goal by being permitted to labour at his trade under such restrictions as y<sup>r</sup> Hon<sup>rs</sup> may think fit mercifully to indulge him in Connecticut. And y<sup>r</sup> unfortunate memorialist as in Duty bound shall ever pray, &c.

SIR: I was honored this morning with the Receipt of yours of the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant. General Clinton and myself conferred on its contents. He thinks that his Brigade will not except in a very few Instances want cloathing, mine certainly will not as they have but 25 days more to serve. I must earnestly recommend it to the Committee of Safety to expedite the Commissions before my Brigade is discharged, that there may be a chance of recruiting them or some of them on the new establishment,— Nothing new to communicate but that this moment I have received information that there is a great movement and Rumbling of carriages in the Enemies army; that they have withdrawn their advanced guards; and quitted one of their Incampments nearest to us. It is conjectured they are moving westward but nothing certain can be Concluded on account of the Fogginess of the Weather, until the return of the Scouts which General Clinton & myself have sent out. I shall keep this unsealed with Intent that if the Rider should not set off before we can make discoveries I may impart them to you, a few Cannon this moment heard from a great distance— Major Fish would be fond of accepting a Majority in the new establishment. I can honestly recommend him as well qualified for that Rank.—This I am sure of there is not a better Brigade Major in the Army. Indeed I have not seen one who can do the Duties of the Grand Parade so well as he except Major Henly; and I think he does not exceed him, In other departments of his present appointment he gives me great Satisfaction.

I am Sir With Great Respect Your and the Honorable Committee's most Obd<sup>t</sup> Servant,

DEAR SIR: When the committee asked me if I would take the oath of Allegiance to the United States for several reasons I refused, soon after I came to you & acquainted you with it & that the principal reason was, that should I take the oath & at any time a Drauft of men was necessary that if it should be my lot to go I produce a man in my stead it might be refused & then should I neglect to go I should forfeit my oath which is a most sacred thing. I have talked with several of my acquaintance on the subject & should be glad to see the Copy of the Oath & if it does not put me on a wors footing then my neighbour and I can have liberty to go home on the same footing as friends to my Country I shall have no objections in taking it & shall be much obliged to you for your trouble if you would get the copy of the oath & just step to see me for I should be glad to see you.

I am sir your Humbl Servant,

Minutes of the Albany Committee.

[Miscel. Pap. 35 : 259.]

18th October, 1776.

This board took into consideration how & in what manner the Militia now ordered to march to the northward should be supplied when there, and thereupon resolved that the Commissary be sent for, and requested to inform this board whether he has orders from Genl Schuyler to supply the Militia with provisions & other necessaries while up to the Northward.

Mr Avery appeared & informed this board that he had no orders from the Genl to supply the Militia, he was then asked whether there was a quantity of provisions in Store, he answered no large quantity, he was then asked, How & in what manner the Garrison to the Northward were supplied, he answered, there was at Ticonderoga a supply for about 3 weeks—he was then asked whether he had any contractors out in the country, he answered he had and expected a pretty large supply of Cattle in a few days.

The Committee then informed him that they would assist him in purchasing & Transporting provisions as far as their influence would extend, & advised him to write a Letter to his Honor Major Genl Schuyler stating the above circumstances, & that this Committee would write him on the same subject, & therefore Resolved to send the following letter to Genl Schuyler vide Letter.

And in order that the Commissary may the better understand the intention of this Committee,

Ordered, that the Commissary be served with this resolution.

Resolved, that this Committee will at all times upon application of the Deputy Commissary General, assist him in procuring Provisions & Carriages as far as their influence will extend.

19th October.

The Committee again took into consideration the distressing situation of the Army to the Northward may happen to fall in for want of provisions & thereupon

Resolved, that Messrs John Ten Broeck, Jerem<sup>h</sup> Van Renseler & Stephen J. Schuyler, be a Committee to confer with the Deputy Commissary Gen<sup>l</sup> what assistance he should want in procureing & transporting provisions.

The Committee returned & reported that they had waited on the Deputy Commissary Gen<sup>l</sup> & requested from him what assistance he required from this board, & that he had furnished them with the following written request.

ALBANY, 19th October, 1776.

Tis my request that the Committee of the County of Albany will employ a sufficient Number of Persons to purchase and forward on to such places as the Troops now Marching for the United States as they may be stationed at, upon the Cheapest and best Terms they can, Cattle and Flour for subsistence of said Troops and upon producing Receipts of the Persons they purchase of for the cost of the same, and also Receipt from the Commissaries at those places for the delivery of said Articles they shall receive pay from me for the same, as well as for their Trouble & Expenses.

Also that said Committee will furnish me with a sufficient number of Waggons to Transport Provisions sufficient to supply the present Exigencys of the Northern Army.

ELISHA AVERY, D. C. Genl.

The Deputy Commissary Gen<sup>l</sup> applied to this Board, that the Cooper in the store & four other persons employed in issuing provisions & procuring carriages for transporting the same, might be detained & excused from the present march with the Militia to the Northward.

Resolved, that the Commissary's request be granted, and the said persons are hereby excused accordingly, & that the Commissary's request with the names of the persons be delivered him & that Nicholas Mersaille one of the Contractors for purchasing Cattle be added to the persons excused.

The Deputy Commissary Gen<sup>l</sup> requested that Teunis T. Van Vechten might be excused from marching with the Militia to the Northward, as he had employed him to purchase cattle for the use of the Northern Army.

Resolved, that the Commissary's request be granted, & the said Teunis Van Vechten is hereby excused accordingly.

Mr. Myndert S. Ten Eyck, one of the members of this board being employed by the Deputy Commissary Gen<sup>l</sup> to purchase flour & other Provisions.

Resolved, that the said Myndert S. Ten Eyck & such others as are employed by the Commissary To purchase flour & Provisions, proceed on their business with all dispatch & forward the same to such places as they shall be directed by the Commissary with the greatest despatch, & they are hereby empowered to detain such persons as they shall deem necessary for the manufacturing of Flour, Purchasing Provisions & transporting the same.

20th

The Commissary appeared before this Board & requested them to join with him in an application to the Convention of this State for a quantity of Flour, said to be purchased by them at Esopus & other places below, & thereupon,

Resolved to join with the commissary in the following manner "We join with the Commissaries Request & beg you will send forward with all dispatch if not the whole quantity as much as can be spared for this department."

21st

The Committee took into consideration the Commissarys request & conceived that his Requisition was too General & extensive & thereupon

Resolved that the following answer be sent thereto by Capt Geo White who is ordered to offer himself as a Contractor for purchasing Cattle.

Capt White returned & reported that he had offered himself to the Commissary to purchase Cattle that the Commissary told him he had a sufficient number of Contractors out at present & if he wanted any he would apply to the Committee.

MAT: VISSCHER, Secy.

[Mil. Commit. 25: 392.]

ALBANY, 17th October, 1776.

SIR: On receipt of yours of this Morning directed to General Ten Broeck, we issued our Orders to the several Colonels to March the whole of their Regiments with the greatest dispatch to Fort Edward, and on inquiring of M<sup>r</sup> Avery the Commissary General about providing Carriages and Provisions for the Militia on their March, and if any quantity was stored at Fort Edward, he answered that he had no Instructions from you for providing the Militia, and as for provisions there was none at Fort Edward and that the whole of the provisions at the Forts above was only a sufficiency for about three weeks at most, and that the supplying the Militia would entirely deprive the intended supplies to be forwarded for the Continental Troops. in this alarming situation we request your immediate direction regarding the present March of our Militia.

We are Sir Your Most Obedient Humble Servants,

SIR: We have perused your request of the 19th Instant, and are of opinion that your Terms are too general and extensive, for if we employ a sufficient number of persons to purchase and a sufficient number of Waggons to transport provisions for our Northern Army we should then take upon us the whole business of Contracting and forwarding, at least the most troublesome parts and leave you only to Issue which as our affairs are at present Circumstanced, it is impossible for us to do, but will with pleasure give you what assistance we can.

We are Sir Your Humble Serv<sup>ts</sup> By Order,

JOHN BARCLAY, Chairman.

I do hereby certify that the above are True Copies from the Originals, now in the Custody of the Committee.

Major Ford with the party under his command returned from the Hellebergh and reports that he could not discover any parties of disaffected persons assembled together. that he had traversed the country and found that most of the Inhabitants had absconded. that has apprehended however. retained his arms.

Thereupon the Committee proceeded to the Examination of John Reid, John Long and Myndert Bradt.

As to the first, upon Examination his character appears suspicious and therefore he was remanded to Goal.

As to the second (that is to say) John Long, he appears to have been misled, and professing his hearty repentance, and promising a ready concurrence with the measures of Congress, was thereupon dismissed, upon his promise to go up and Join his Militia Regiment at fort Edward. [N° 24.]

Myndert Bradt appeared to be an ignorant lad of about 17 years—but not sufficiently candid was thereupon remanded.

Received from General Schuyler a letter of the 29 instant, in answer to that of yesterday's date, acquainting this Committee that he had ordered Coll Dayton's Regiment to prosecute their march to the northward, and that about 400 of the Militia were ordered to march from Fort Edward to Tryon County to be under the Command of General Herkmyer or Coll Van Schaick, whom he had ordered into that quarter, with the two Companies of his Regiment up with him. By the return of the Express from the Fish Kill received the following despatches from the Committee of Safety of New York.

A Letter dated the 29th of October [See the Letter N<sup>o</sup> 35,] Inclosed therein a copy of their Resolves [N<sup>o</sup> 36,] also a copy of a letter from M<sup>r</sup> Tilghman from Head Quarters. [N<sup>o</sup> 37.]

Resolved that an agent be appointed and impowered to purchase wheat for the use of the Continental Army, and that he cause the Same to be manufactured into flour and transported to Such places where the same may be manufactured with the utmost despatch.

Resolved that if any shall so far disregard the safety and preservation of this Country as to refuse to dispose of their wheat or other commodities necessary for the Army on reasonable Terms (which this Committee have no cause to apprehend) that the names of all such persons be forthwith returned to the Committee of Safety or Convention of this State in order that proper measures may be devised for preventing the public interest from being sacrificed by the disaffection or rapacity of Individuals.

Resolved that such agent (if necessary) be authorized to empress, Drivers, Waggon, Teams or Carts or other Carriage for the purpose of executing with the utmost despatch the Resolutions of this Committee.

Present: Robert Yates, Chairman.
James Duane,
John Ten Broeck,

John Tayler.

Capt Stephen Lush furnished this Committee with a copy of a letter dated 20th Oct 1773, from Joseph Trumbull to the Committee at Bennington; also a Copy of a letter from Yansey D. C. to the said Committee of the same date. [N<sup>o</sup> 39: 40.]

Thereupon agreed to send for M<sup>r</sup> Avery in order to be informed whether he has given information at Head Quarters at Ticonderoga which could Justify the reflections against the County of Albany contained in one of those letters, and also to know his reasons for not answering the Committee's Letter.

M<sup>r</sup> Avery was accordingly called in and says that he would have waited on the Com<sup>r</sup> before but was being much engaged was prevented. That he expects and has received considerable Quantities of provisions.

He was then told that this Committee were ready to give him their assistance and that no exertions in the power of this State would be wanting to supply the Army, and that if he would point out any thing that would be Serviceable it should be taken into consideration. He answered, That he would chuse that an agent should be appointed agreeable to the Committee's proposal to purchase wheat for manufacturing about 1000 Barrels of flour.

That he is also in want of Coopers, whereupon the Committee shewed him the resolves of Convention respecting the Exemption of Coopers from Militia Duty, and that this Committee had already acquainted the County Committee with the said Resolves and that they had requested them to recall the Coopers already gone up. He also said that he wanted about 1000 Bushels of pease. That he does not know that he has met with any obstructions in transporting the provisions. That the Committee of Albany had promised him all the assistance in their power but that when he was in want of waggons when the Militia was called up he could not get a ready assistance that he does not know but that the Committee did all in their power to assist him. That he has made no complaints to Gen<sup>l</sup> Gates but he has wrote to the Commissary that there was a difficulty in getting waggons, Because the Militia were called up that way.

M<sup>r</sup> Duane thereupon read to him M<sup>r</sup> Yancey's Letter to the Committee of Bennington, as also M<sup>r</sup> Trumbles Letter to the said Committee. Thereupon he was asked from whome this information could arise.

He said he had never given the Com<sup>r</sup> any other information respecting the want of waggons or the objection of their transportation than what he has before related and particularly that he had laid no blame on the Inhab<sup>ts</sup> of the County of Albany. That the Committee of Albany have always behaved genteely to him and have readily Offered their services to assist him. That the interruption of transporting the provisions occasioned by the calling out of the Militia continued for a short Time only.

Whereupon the Committee resolved that as nothing could work a greater injury to the public Service Sowing the Seeds of Jealousy and distrust at so critical a conjunction, the Committee should think it their duty, to make the strictest enquiry into M<sup>r</sup> Yancey's Letter and the information and motives which induced him to write it, for that as on the one hand they would have taken care that any person who might have been guilty of obstructing the Transportation should be punished with the utmost severity So it was equally their duty if the charge in that letter was groundless to have it publicly exposed that the ill impressions which it had occasioned might be removed, and for this purpose they must request M<sup>r</sup> Avery, if he could do it conscientiously, to furnish this Committee with Extracts or copies of such letters as he has lately sent to Ticonderoga upon the subject of Transportation either to Gen<sup>l</sup> Gates or the Comsy there, he gave for answer that he would, and thereupon withdrew.

In the Afternoon he again waited on the Committee and acquainted them that he had not kept Copies of the Letters which he had lately sent to Ticonderoga.

The Committee having at their first interview with M<sup>r</sup> Avery inquired further what quantity of provisions the deputy Comissy General had delivered over to him when he had entered upon his Office Answered, a sufficient quantity of Beef, tho' but little Flour.

The Committee therefore directed the late Deputy Comsy. to lay before them a Return of the flour delivered over by him to M<sup>r</sup> Avery, [N<sup>o</sup> 41,] which he accordingly did. From which it appears the quantity so delivered over amounts to 14 Tierces and 16 Barrels of bread 16 Connecticut Barrels and 3209 New York Barrels of Flour being 59 days rations for 11000 men. At the interview with M<sup>r</sup> Avery on this day the Said return was produced to him which he perused.

General Schuyler being arrived and upon a conference with him respecting the Situation of Tryon County,

Resolved that Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler be requested and authorized to issue his orders to the Commanding or other officers in Tryon County in case the Enemy should invade the western frontier of this State, to cause all the Cattle, Sheep, Swine and provisions which may be exposed to their ravages to be driven in and Secured or if that shall not be practicable, destroyed that at all events they may not fall into the hands of the Enemy, and for this purpose they are hereby authorized to impress Horses & Carriages.

Resolved further that Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler be furnished with a copy of the above Resolution.

The Committee entered into a Conference with Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler respecting the State of Supplies for the Northern Army, and among other things inquired whether the Transportation of provisions had been obstructed by the calling out of the Militia or from any other cause? In answer the General informed the Committee that the Militia having been attended with a great number of Baggage Waggons he had immediately given orders for detaining and employing those carriages on the Communication, that he had further ordered all the Militia of the Half Moon District who chose to be excused from Military duty on condition that they would assist with their Teams in transporting provisions which a great number of them accordingly did, That in consequence of those measures the transportation instead of being obstructed by calling out of the Militia had been greatly facilitated. That he had never heard nor did he believe that the Transportation had met with the least obstruction from any cause whatever, but on the contrary that provisions had been carried forward as soon as they were ready to be delivered by the Commissary.

That during the present Struggle he had experienced so much readiness in the Inhabitants of the County of Albany to assist in the transportation, that he had in no instance been under the necessity of impressing a single Carriage.

SIR: we are Informed By M<sup>r</sup> Tayler who is Just arrived From Cumberland County, that the Militia of that County and those of Gloucester were ordered to hold Themselves in Readiness to March on their Receiving Intelligence that the Enemy were Beseiging Ticonderoga, and that it was their Intention to take their Rout thro' the Country to that place. we deemed Expedient to inform you of their Intentions, knowing the scarcity of Provisions at that Garrison.—From the affidavits transmitted you by the Committee of Albany, we are led to believe that some part of the Enemy's force propose to make incursions on the western frontier, we cannot therefore but lament the necessity that calls Coll Daton's Regiment to Ticonderoga, and leaves the guard of the Communication on which the safety of the whole Army depends, principally to Militia, we submit to you the propriety of Employing active Scouts who should go from the head of the Hudson's River, to Ticonderoga to whom rewards might be offered on their bringing intelligence of the Enemy's approach.

KING'S DISTRICT, Oct 24th 1776.

SIR: By several ways I am informed that your Board determine to send the Torys that are now at Albany to Hartford, therefore I thought it duty to inform your Board of Some matters, as the appear within and Round our District that the unfriendly party have disregarded all orders relative to the call to march to fort Edward, that they have since been seen to Ride about in the night and some of their Houses with numbers in them late at night, that John Savage and Richard Power were at home since our Regiment marched and it is highly probable in my view and others that they determin to rescue the torys out of the hands of the guard unless it be a strong one, which I pray may be at least until they have passed through the land of the Moabites.

The friends to this State I got together as soon as I arriv<sup>d</sup> and we determined at once to Inrole our selves and keep in large Companies without intermition until we can be better satisfied that we are in some degree secure from that abandoned set of persons that have and still are unwearied in their wicked machanations to Complict our ruin. I hope sir you will at least send us such directions that will encourage and strengthen us as our situation is in my view distressing being kept in a constant danger of having our arms taken from us and what Elce they may have the boldness to do, God only knows. I am sensible the mode we have adopted is and will be attended with a great expense but as matters stand to the north ward and south ward I cannot conceive that we are safe among internal enemies unless Constantly under arms. I could wish for more of our Reg<sup>t</sup> to be at home if for the good of the whole or some Rangers to be on this side of the North River but submit the matter and remain Sir Your Obed<sup>t</sup> hum<sup>ble</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup> W. [Mil. Commit. 25: 228, 382.]

ALBANY, October 25th 1776.

SIR: We met in Committee yesterday on the arrival of the Gentlemen appointed to arrange the Army from Saratoga. A number of important objects immediately engaged our attention, a capital one is the supplying the Army at Tionderoga and the Militia marching to their assistance. The papers which we have the honor to transmit will shew the steps which have been taken by the Committee of this County to aid the Deputy Commissary General here, who without their exertions we fear would not have been able to procure the necessary supply, at the best it will on so sudden an occasion be a difficult task. It has added to our anxiety to learn, by a Letter from General Washington to M<sup>r</sup> Livingston that the Army in that quarter was also in danger of being distressed for want of provisions. His Excellency entreats M<sup>r</sup> Livingston to use his influence to send without delay flour & beef for that Army toward the White Plains, and also a number of teams, the more the better to aid in removing the Army as occasion may require. We submit it to your consideration whether if teams cannot now easily be procured from the eastward, it will not be advisable to order down a sufficient number belonging to such persons in the Manor Livingston, Kinderhook & Dutchess County as cannot be trusted with arms. If this plan should be adopted, every owner of a Carriage should be directed to supply himself with a weeks provisions to ease the Commissary as much as possible.

The spirit of disaffection has appeared at the Helleburgh King<sup>s</sup> District and Coxackie in this County, and it requires vigorous measures to oppose and suppress it. Nothing is more necessary than that the Goals here should be cleared of the State prisoners without delay, and the more especially as all the Militia of this City and neighbourhood are marched. We have therefore advised the County Committee to send those prisoners with the causes of their confinement to Fish Kill by water in order to be forwarded to one of the neighbouring States, or disposed of as you shall judge most advisable. It would have been imprudent in every view to have marched them to another State at this Juncture where none but the disaffected remain in the Country and many of them are in arms and have threatened a rescue. We have found it necessary to detain a part of Coll Van Ness' Claverack Regiment consisting of about 140 men here to oppose the designs of the disaffected at the Helleburgh, as they are much wanted to the northward we did it with very great reluctance and indeed it could only have been justifiable on the most urgent necessity. It is much to be wished that Coll Van Rensselaer with parts or detachments of two regiments under his command could immediately be ordered up to King's District to which we have been able notwithstanding the importunity of the Inhabitants to send only a small detachment of 15 Rangers commanded by a Lieutenant, and to direct Coll Whiting to raise 100 men in that neighbourhood and the Massachusetts Government. A party of 50 of the Schoharry Regiment and some of the manor Regiment are detached to Coxackie, where they are employed in dispersing and seizing the disaffected who are now in arms, and there is yet no account of their progress. We have thought it advisable to direct the few armed and well affected militia of the manor of Livingston to be detained and kept in readiness for the internal service of the County: conceiving it unsafe when the spirit of revolt is so prevalent in that quarter to leave it defenseless. The information from King's District and the Helleburgh are enclosed. We are Sir Your most humble Servants

By Order, ROBERT YATES, Chairman.

Oct 25th 1776.

John Vandenburg of Neskithaw in the County of Albany being examined saith that his wife being ready to lie in he did not chuse to march with the Militia — that he went with about 20 to the Helleberg to consult what they had best to do, & took their arms with them to defend themselves if any should attempt to hurt them. Their first Meeting was last Monday at John Commons. Howes proclamation was mentioned. Richard Radley had it at his house. John Commins said that those who thought the Congress were in the right should go & that those who thought the King was in the right should stay, but Commons said he did not know who was right. At this meeting were present Commons, Adam Joachim & Christian Huyck & himself who met accidentally. He first went to Commons for a Pound of Butter & returned home to fetch his gun & then went to the Helleberg & consulted the people there, the Company being in all about 20. the Party they met there said that if the examinant & his Company would go, they would go, and he and his party agreed to go, and so they parted & each went home. That the examinant is a Whigg & thinks the Congress right. Hans Seeger said he could get Indians if he would go for them, but he would not. That they had been told that the rangers would come & pull down their houses & that they were determined to oppose them. That they heard that there were 400 Tories at Stighkook. He thinks the people he met are friends to the Country, but that they wont fight if they can help it, & so agreed at said meeting — that the reason for not fighting for the Country is, that they will not be against the King. the persons present at said meeting whose names he recollects are as follows: John Read, Jacobus Oliver, Adam Seeger, Joachim Jacob & Christian Huyck, Jacobus Long, John Commons, Jacob Breeds, Hans Seeger, Arent Wormer & Gerrit Bratt. Commons & Read advised him not to fight against the King for if he did he would be ruined & send away. Read told him this yesterday, Commons a month ago. That they were to meet in three parties this morning to defend themselves against any troops which should attack them, One party at the Helleberg, another at the Normans Kill and the other at Niscuthaw near Albert Bratts. About 30 in each party to be commanded by John Commons & Arent Wormer. if one party should be attacked they were to give notice to the others and then all were to join. they were to come from the Helleberg, Niscuthaw and the Normans Kill. that he has heard them say that if the Kings troops should come into the Country they would join them. Being further examined he says that the party to be commanded by Arent Wormer is to be at Niscuthaw near the house of Stopplebeen. that the second Party are to be at Normans Kill but he does not know the place or Commander. the third party to be at the Hellebergh under the command of Alburtus Van Alstyne. Upon further recollection he says Commons is to Command the party at the Normans Kill. that all the whole party kept up a correspondence with them at Cocksackie & they were to inform each other of what passed — that there were people Yesterday from Stighcook when this agreement was made. that they were to stand upon their defense till the Kings troops came. Hans Seeger said he could get Indians at Schoharie to join them & if it came upon a pinch he would go for them. That he believes the said several parties are now together & it was agreed that every man should find his own Provisions.

SIR: We are much surprised that no information of your motions has yet been given to the Committee. In order to obtain it we have sent this Express whom we wish you to return back with some intelligence as soon as possible. We have accounts about 90 Tories having collected at the Hellebergh, and its neighborhood. If you can safely spare any part of your force we would be glad if you could send the Schoary Company and the Rangers that way as soon as possible by the most direct rout. We shall send a party from here to meet them.

To MAJOR FORD.

This Committee having received undoubted information that a number of disaffected persons are collected in different Parties in and about the Hellebergh Normanskill & Neskadha & Beaver Dam — with an evident design by force of arms to oppose the measures pursued for the preservation of the liberties of America.

Order you immediately to collect & take under your command 80 men detached from Coll Van Ness Regiment, one Company of Continental Troops under the Command of Capt<sup>n</sup> Hicks & Captain Baldwin's Company of Rangers & having paraded & seen them properly Equipped and provided you are to march them to Conrads Lukes or Tunis Slingerlands where you shall refresh your men till near day break when you shall again march from thence to the Helleberg, and endeavor to take & disperse the disaffected who have been or are now assembled in arms. or in general all others between the age of 50 & 16 who can give no good reason for their not having marched with the rest of the Militia agreeable to order. If they should not be at that place you are to follow them to the Normans Kill, Neskadha, the Beaver Dam or wherever else they may be assembled, advising on this head with your guides. You are always to march with good intelligent Scouts a head and flanking Parties to prevent surprise or being discovered by persons lurking in the Woods for that purpose, and to detain all those who you may expect design to give intelligence of your motions. You are to be particularly careful that the men under your command do not plunder or maltreat the Inhabitants of the Country whatever may be their political character.

You will be attentive to secure those persons whose names you are furnished with.

You are to send daily intelligence of your motions to the Committee of Albany in order that you may be reinforced if necessary, or supplied with provisions if your stay should be longer than is at present expected.

SARATOGA, Oct 26, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I am Honored with your favor of the 24th Instant. The affidavits transmitted me would Countenance the supposition that the Enemy intend an Inruption on the Mohawks river but I can hardly imagine they will attempt it until they have met with success at Tionderoga which I both hope and believe they will not have. I did not however like to move Daytons Corps from the Western Quarter, but was pressed to do it in such terms, by Gen<sup>l</sup> Gates, that I could not prudently refuse it. Least however an accident should happen I would advice that Col<sup>o</sup> Van Ness with his Regiment, should, on his return from Coxsackie, march to Schenectady or such place where he can be of most service in case of an attack,—Our Scouts from Johnstown, Fort George & Fort Edward all agree that there is not the least appearance of an Enemy in the North-West Quarter. Inclose you copys of letters from Gen<sup>l</sup> Gates & Gen<sup>l</sup> Arnold. I have had a Copious Eruption since you were here, it is going off, and find myself in much better Health.

I am, Gentlemen, with very friendly wishes & with the greatest Esteem, your Most Obed<sup>t</sup> Humble Servant
The Committee of Convention, Albany.

TICONDEROGA, 24th Oct<sup>r</sup> 1776.

DEAR GENERAL: Your letters of the 14th 17th & 18th Instant are received in course and now before me.—The Ammunition arrived safe and in as good order as could be wished.—A most seasonable supply, I assure you—Not any of the Militia are yet come in. I hear of Numbers being upon their March, and I shall advise you as they arrive,—Colo Daytons are not yet on this side the Lake, I expect them every Day—Our Communications are free and unmolested; and the Eastern Post and Travelers are continually coming to Mount Independence by Otter Creek and the Roads that lead from thence, no scouts of the enemy appearing to disturb them. Cattle are pretty plenty upon the ground as you will see by M<sup>r</sup> Yaunceys Return inclosed. If you order Cattle to be killed at Lake George, you had better direct them to be salted down in Barrels, and sent over the Lake in that way for it arrives in a wretched condition when sent in Quarters fresh—I shall be careful to have batteaus and Vessels enough at Skenesborough to bring all the provisions you send there,—Flour seems, to me, more in request than meat. You may be assured we are doing everything our Judgment can direct or our Industry accomplish, for receiving the Enemy properly—Spades which I have so long & so often sent for are so much wanted that even one single Hundred would be most welcome. General Carlton keeps very close at Crown Point, his Navy at Anchor upon his Flanks. I have scouts continually down both sides of the Lake.—I apprehend by this time his Force is all collected and expect that this stillness will be immediately succeeded by a Grand Attack, Heaven grant he may be defeated! The Army here are in good spirits, and think only of Victory. Ten penny, Eight penny & Shingle nails are exceedingly wanted—and where are the one or two thousand Bushels of Turnips & potatoes you was to send here, They would be of the utmost benefit to the Army—If you can send a good parcel of Nail Rods, our Smiths can assist in making Nails.

I am D<sup>r</sup> General your affectionate humble Servant,

HORATIO GATES.

DEAR GENERAL: Your kind favor of the 17th I received four days since, I am greatly obliged for the friendship you Express on my safety, and having escaped the Enemy.

I am extremely glad to hear the militia are coming to our assistance. I believe the Enemy from the best accounts we can collect, are endeavouring to Fortify Crown Point. I am afraid we shall not be able to Detain a sufficient garrison for this place from the Troops now here. A Boom will be laid across the lake This day, and a bridge to-morrow from Ty. to Mount Independence, we cannot ascertain the strength of the Enemy—in a few days we shall be ready to make a tryal of their force, if they think proper to attack us. I have only time to add my most Respectfull compliments, and that I am with every friendly wish Dear General Your Affectionate and obed<sup>t</sup> humble Servant,

B. ARNOLD.

HEAD QUARTERS, VALENTINES HILL, 22<sup>d</sup> Oct. 1776.

D<sup>r</sup> SIR: We are so constantly upon the move that I am obliged to write when I can find an opportunity. We shall take up our Lodgings at White plains this Evening—which the General intends to make his Head Quarters for the pres<sup>t</sup>.

The Enemy are endeavouring still to out flank us, and we are moving rather a head of them. Early yesterday morning an advanced party Consisting of Rodgers's Rangers took possession of Mamaroneck, which our Militia abandoned with the utmost precipitation,—As usual. The General rode up to White plains to take a view of the Country; and hearing of this party laid a plan to cut them off. He accordingly detached Major Green of Virginia with 150 men from the 1st & 3<sup>d</sup> Virginia Regiments, & Colo Haslett of Delaware with 600 men to support them. They attacked Rogers about day break, put the party to flight, bro't in 36 prisoners, 60 arms, and a good many Blanketts, and had not the Guides undertook to Alter the first Disposition, Major Rogers & his party of about 400 would in all probability have fallen into our hands. We dont know how many we killed but an officer says he counted 25 in one Orchard. We had 12 wounded, among them Major Green & Capt<sup>n</sup> Pope, the former in the shoulder, the latter slightly. We had removed all our stores from Mamoreck except some Onions, so that I think they have made a loosing voyage.

White } 23<sup>d</sup> I wrote the above yesterday, we just this moment hear that the Enemy Plains } have engaged Genl Lee's Division, we have sent down for the particulars, which you shall have to-morrow. Y<sup>rs</sup> TENCH TILGHMAN.

FISH KILL, Oct<sup>r</sup> 24th 10 oClock at night.

GENTLEMEN: While the Rider is sent for and preparing, I have copied M<sup>r</sup> Tilghmans letter, received past nine o'Clock—excuse the Copy—'tis made in Haste, a Letter of Colo Nicoll rec<sup>d</sup> this Evening confirms the Report that three Fellows taken in arms, are condemned and were to be hanged yesterday. The sentence was delivered by Lord Stirling as Presd<sup>t</sup> of the Court. I first heard they were part of a small boddy of Tories, who fired on some of our Troops, and have since heard they were deserters taken in arms.

I have the honor to be with great respect, Gentlemen, Your Most Obd<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

GENTLEMEN: Yesterday I received a letter from Capt. Allen, and this morning another from General Herkimer, both of which I inclose you.

I think it absolutely necessary that a body of Troops should be immediately sent to the Mohawk's River. I have ordered Colo Dayton with his Regiment, which is at Canistigheuna or Half Moon, to halt until they should hear from you,—If you can send such a Boddy of Militia into Tryon County, as will in all probability secure that part of the Country, I then wish you to send orders to Col<sup>o</sup> Dayton to prosecute his March to Tyonderoga where he may be much wanted, if not you will please to order him back to that County.

He has my orders to obey your directions.

CONAJOHARY, 25th October, 1776.

HONORABLE SIR: I have to acquaint your honor that last Saturday night Peter Ten Broeck of the fall kill, Hanyost Schuyler, Kachyaho Johnson with about Twelve others from the Klau Burragh, went off to our Enemies. I endeavoured to enquire for their Rout, and found out a very credible person, a wife of one of those Run away & Traitors, that they are gone to Oswego in hopes to meet the Enemy there. The same woman declared that the leaders of this Runaway party received a letter from our Enemies, which mentions that within six days from the day of their escape the enemy would be assembled in Oswego. Sir John shall Command 600 Regulars, and Twenty two Nations of Indians having joined them, An Indian Squaw was the Express of the above mentioned letter, to the Conajohary Castle, and a Belt should have been sent from those Nations to Oneida, to invite them to join with those Threatenings, that if they would not agree to their proposal, they (the Oneidas) should depend upon, that they would be attacked first, and not a child's life would be then spared. This hostile Invasion, says the above mentioned woman, shall exist soon, and surely upon our Mohawk River.

The Circumstances of our present situation are so powerless that we are not able to resist such a force against us and have nothing to expect but to be Slaughtered and Drove off to the Enemy's Pleasure. I must therefore lay and recommend this to your honors discreet consideration. Begging that you would please to procure us an Expeditious Succour of Troops, to oppose such cruel enemies, and to stop and annihilate their fatal intentions, I must add that I apprehended already, that if we should not be assisted with a sufficient number of Troops, the Inhabitants or the Major part of them are inclined to lay down their arms before they would be so helpless Sacrificed.

It is really my opinion that now is the time to hinder the Enemy to invade the Country here, and to ravage the same. it would be a pity to let the true Patriots of this County in such a desolate condition, and therefore I doubt you will not delay with your needful assistance.

I flatter myself of your answer in a few lines by the Express. and am as always with great respect, Honorable Sir Your Obed<sup>t</sup> Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>.

NICHOLAS HERKIMER.

P. S. I understand also yesterday of Oneidas passing my house, to go hunting that most all the Oneidas have gone at present to hunt, and but a few Chiefs left in the Castle.

FORT DAYTON, Oct. 21, 1776.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY: Coll Elmer having gone with the Chief part of his Regiment up to Fort Schuyler, agreeable to your Excellency's Order he left me to command at this Post till the return of Major Cochran. I thought proper to inform your Excellency of the present circumstances of our affairs agreeable to my instructions, Viz—

On hearing some news to our disadvantage from Lake Champlain we are credibly informed that there was a consultation held at Canajoharie Castle among the Indians, and several Tories since which several of said Tories have (as is generally believed) absconded to join the enemy, Viz— one Hanjoost Schuyler a Sergeant in one of our Ranger Companies, Hanjoost Harkaman, son in law of the old widow Harkamer and several others who were reputed to be disaffected persons. There are likewise since said consultation, passing along upwards a considerable number of Indians as tho to leave the place, Endeavouring as they pass to get clear of their paper money. upon the whole as such multitudes of Tories &c have gone from this part it is not altogether unlikely that if our Northern Army should be unsuccessful we may soon have an Invasion here. Or if not yet since it is our part to be in Readiness, I would inform your Excellency that we have not more than 12 lb of Powder, and a few Cartridges, which in case of necessity would be short allowance for 123 Effective Men, which is the number of this Detachment including Capt: Eisinlord's Company to which I trust your Excellency will pay due attention and forward a sufficient quantity of Ammunition as soon as may be. There are likewise Four Swivel Guns in this Fort, for which if we had proper Ammunition they might be of use in case of an attack.

I have the honor of being your Excellency's Humble Serv<sup>t</sup>

To General SCHUYLER.

ALBANY, Oc<sup>r</sup> 28th 1776.

SIR: We rec<sup>d</sup> your favor of the 27th Instant last night and have agreed to the Resolutions, which we have the honor to enclose. The night before last we dispatched our detachment against the disaffected at the Helleburgh and its neighbourhood, which has been attended with the wished for success, as they dispersed without opposition and many of them are taken. Capt Bradt who was detached on a similar occasion to Coxackie writes us by Express, that he has successfully performed the service he was sent upon, & that he thinks the Coxacke & Cattskill Companies will be sufficient for any further Business in that Quarter. Indeed it appears to us that the Report of the disaffected there has been greatly Exaggerated. Since the Committee of the district have thought fit to discharge even those who were apprehended as Tories, which however imprudent is at least a proof that they are not thought Dangerous. These vigorous measures having so happily suppressed domestic Insurrections, will put it in our power to detail the Troops (which with the force already on the Western frontier) are particularly specified in our Resolution. You Sir are the best Judge of their competency & it must therefore be submitted to your determination whether Colo Dayton's Reg<sup>t</sup> shall be sent forward to Ticonderoga or be commanded to their former station.

It appears to us of the utmost moment that an active and spirited officer should in the present conjuncture be invested with the Command of the Western frontier especially as the apprehensions of at least part of the Continental Troops as well as the Militia seem to be more alarmed than the Intelligence communicated to us can Justify. We are strangers to Coll Elmore; if his Military character is not sufficiently established we submit it to you whether Coll Dayton (in case his Reg<sup>t</sup> should proceed to Ticonderoga) Coll Van Schaick's or some other officer of known Abilities ought not to be appointed for that important Department.

Such of the proposed detachment as consist of Militia will march without delay. The two Companies of Continental Troops not being under our directions must attend your orders. If this arrangement meets with your approbation, Captain Lush's Company of Team guards: 70 of Coll Van Ness' Regiment, under his command, besides the Canadian will remain for town duty. We are &<sup>c</sup>

GENTLEMEN: Agreeable to orders we have arrived at the Hillebarrack and there we have taken several prisners amongst whom is John Reid, Pendleton and others 7 in the whole cheafly under arms and well aquipped with arms and ammunition, we had certain Intelligence as we tho't that there was about 3 Hundred in a Certain Place well Fortified, we compelled a pilot & formed ourselves in the best manner and marched up to give them Battle in high spirits and came to the place and found it destitute of men which discouraged us greatly, & from we sent out different Scouts & they bring in men pretty fast that they find under arms, this instant we have got new pilots that I hope will help us and by the intelligence that I have got I think that we must stay 2 or 3 days longer and all our men are allmost out of provision being up night and day takes more provision, we must have provision sent to us for our suppers to-morrow night or go without. Some of our men are now ought of Provision and it is difficult to get any hear. I think we shall want two days provisions for our men, 82 men in our Regiment & 52 in Captain Hicks Company, I desire that we may be favored with salt provisions for fresh does not agree with our people. M<sup>r</sup> Dirck Swart gives information that passing thro' Bennington on wednesday last one of the Committee of that place told him that two letters had been received one from M<sup>r</sup> Trumbull the Commissary General & another from M<sup>r</sup> Trumbull Deputy adjutant General at Ticonderoga, the first of which mentioned that some evil minded people in & about Albany had stopped the provisions from going up to Ticonderoga, and that they had orders to purchase the Wheat & send it to the Mills & to send up the Flour at any expense even if it should be on Pack Horses, That Wheat was accordingly purchased at 5s 6d. lawful. That on hearing this Report some of the Militia who were going up were much enraged and wished Albany in flames. That their Express who brought the Letters was a person who used to attend the Store at Ticonderoga with M<sup>r</sup> Avery. That the Examinant was invited to have the letters read but declined it.

John Read says that he lives about four miles from the city of Albany, That he came over to this country last war with Lord Howe's Regiment; (that he has lived before at Claverack;) that he has served as a soldier for some years in that regiment. That on the morning when he was apprehended he was alarmed by his wife who told him that the Rangers were coming. That he jumped out of Bed and with his shoes in his hand in order to escape—that he was afterwards taken in the woods—That at the time he left his House, there was no other Person in his House except his wife and children; that there was no other person then in his House.

An Examination taken on a Solemn promise not to reveal his name.

John Long of Nicadha on Examination says, That Dirik Becker is his Militia Captain & being warned to go up to Fort Edward, That he was ready to go and prepared himself accordingly—but on his way he was dissuaded from proceeding by Fredrick Oliver, Philip Luke a Son of John Luke, who were the principal persons who dissuaded him saying, that they would not go to be slaughtered by the Regulars who would have this Country in a months time. That thereupon he repaired to Arent Wormers where there were about 100 who agreed not to go up, not to injure any person. But if the Rangers or Militia of Albany came amongst them and injured them they would resist them. First that they then agreed to keep sentrys on the roads, and that they should notice each other upon any alarm. That besides the above persons, Fredrick Wormer, Fredrick Crancie, John Commons. That the views of these people, when assembled, was to hold out until the Regulars should come, and then they would join them. That Arent Wormer was to direct one of the parties, Bat Hallenbeck another, & Fredrick Oliver the third party.

[Mil. Commit. 25: 278.]

SARATOGA, October 29th 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I am honored with your favor of yesterdays Date—As I found that the Militia moved with the greatest reluctance from Fort Edward, I resolved to let Colonel Dayton prosecute his march to Tionderoga and to let about 400 of the Militia from Fort Edward march into Tryon County, and gave orders accordingly early yesterday morning. Colo: Dayton has already passed this and I momentarily expect the Militia here.

Altho' I am quite in Sentiment with you, on B. Hustons information, yet it is very possible that General Carlton may detach or has already detached a part of his Force, (especially his Indians, Tories, & Canadians who would be of very little service in an attack on our Lines) to the Mohawk River. I shall therefore order the Militia whom I expect from Fort Edward, to proceed without delay to Tryon County, and to put themselves under the Command of General Herkimer, or Colo. Van Schaick whom I have ordered into that Quarter, and referred to you for Instructions.

I do not apprehend that an attack will be made by the way of Fort Stanwix, and as the Garrison at that place is sufficiently numerous, I would not advise the sending of any more Men there. I do not think it would be proper to strip the City altogether of Troops and you will therefore please to cause some of the Militia to remain, and desire Colo: Van Schaick to take the two companies of his Regiment up with him.

I am Gentlemen Respectfully Your most Obed<sup>t</sup> Humb<sup>l</sup> Servant, PH: SCHUYLER.

Committee of Convention.

[Mil. Commit. 25: 283.]

SIR: Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler enclosed us a letter from you containing your reasons for believing that the Enemy proposed making an Irruption into your County. We cannot help thinking that the information comes thro' a very suspicious Channel, however it is possible they may send small scalping parties, a great force cannot come at this season, & as for the 22 Nations of Indians it is too improbable to deserve the least credit.

At the time when the Militia are all called out for the defence of their Country invaded on the North & South, we cannot help expressing our surprise that the Militia of a County which has hitherto been respected for its zeal and spirit, sh<sup>d</sup> entertain the most distant Idea of submitting to their inveterate enemy & that too before they have seen or tried their force. We take the liberty to remind you that there is already in your County exclusive of your own Militia, Seven hundred and forty three men, which when Joined by the troops under your Command must we apprehend, be greatly superior to any force the enemy can send—however we send, you two companies of Continental troops under the Comm<sup>d</sup> of Coll van Schaick, with whom we wish you to consult ab<sup>t</sup> the proper disposition of the troops & also one company of rangers, and Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler has ordered to your assistance about 400 men, the Militia there will cross from Fort Edward, these are sent in compliance with your wishes tho' we really think them unnecessary if the people of your county will exert any degree of that spirit which we have reason to expect of men animated by the glorious cause in which they are engaged. We doubt not sir that you will be careful to inspire them with proper sentiments on this subject.

It would be advisable for you to order 1000 of your Militia who will be rewarded for their Service, to be raised equipped and sent to their proper stations in which case they will be allowed continental pay & rations—Capt Hager with 50 men of the Schoary Militia are now sent home & have orders to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moments warning whenever you may think it necessary to call upon them—you will be careful to keep out scouts in every quarter who will be rewarded for their trouble.

We are Sir &c By Order

ALBANY, Oc<sup>r</sup> 30th 1776.
To General HERKIMER.

(No. 27.)

[Mil. Commit. 25: 284.]

ALBANY, 30th Oc<sup>r</sup> 1776.

SIR: We are favoured with your Dispatches of the 28th & 29th Instant. From the uncertainty of the Western Intelligence added to the Importunity of General Gates, we do not see how you could well avoid sending Dayton's Regiment to the northward,—& yet if there should be an Irruption into Tryon County which is not altogether improbable, we shall find the want of a force that can be Depended upon to give them a vigorous opposition. May it not still be prudent to Detain Dayton's Regiment at Fort George so that they may be in readiness to proceed to Ticonderoga, or the Western Frontier, as the Progress of the Enemy may render necessary? Col. Van Schaick will march this day with the two companies of his Regiment, & Captain Bradt's Company of Rangers. Cap<sup>t</sup> Hager who commands a Detachment of 50 of the Schoharie Militia we shall order to repair to Schoharie & to be in readiness to attend Col. Van Schaick's orders on a moments notice. We shall also direct General Herkimer to detach 1000 of his best Militia for immediate service. Col. Van Es's Detachment of about 140 men, we shall detain here under his Command for Town Duty having Lieut Conger who is one of our recruiting Officers to assist & advise Col Van Ess in the conduct of his Department which may be necessary on account of his inexperience in the military Line. The Detachment is returned from the Helleburgh, They found only a few people in arms seven of whom they have seized. The rest fled with precipitation. The Defection in that Quarter has as usual been much exaggerated: tho' we are satisfied that some designing knaves among them have endeavored to sow the seeds of a Revolt. The majority are ignorant & deluded, & will readily return to their Duty, on forgiveness of their past misconduct.

We learn from Major Fonda that one Hendrick Hoff who pretends to be a Deserter from General Carltons army is returned to Tryon County as he says by way of the Split rock on the west side of Lake Champlain. Major Fonda is of opinion that it is practicable for the Army to penetrate the Western Frontier by that Route. He adds that from the Expressions & Conduct of the Tories in Tryon County it is evident they expect a sudden Irruption of the Enemy headed by Sir John Johnson. You will give such weight to these hints as you think they deserve.

We have nothing before us which can authorize our longer continuance at this place, especially as our assistance is much wanted in Convention; & the Military arrangement which is so essential must be delayed till our return to Fish Kill. We propose therefore to start for that place in the morning. We are &c By Order, SARATOGA, October 30th 1776 7 o'Clock P. M.

GENTLEMEN: I am this moment favored with yours of this Date. An hour ago Colonel Ogden arrived from Tyconderoga which he left on Monday. he brings intelligence that there are not above two hundred Tents at Crown Point.—General Carlton has consequently only a very small part of his Army there—This Circumstance, the Information of Hoff, and the Movement of the Tories in this Quarter give me great reason to suspect that the Enemy intend to penetrate by the Mohawk River, or to throw themselves on some part of the Communication between this & Fort George.—In this situation it is extremely difficult to determine what Measures are most Eligible to take—I shall however venture on sending down part of the Militia, Dayton being already near Skenesborough, and his men extremely averse to return to Tryon County.—I must entreat you Gentlemen not to think of leaving Albany at this very critical juncture—I enclose you letters for Colo Van Schaick and Major Cochran which I beg you will seal and immediately forward to them by Express, and if you please, convey similar Orders to Brigadier General Herkimer. I shall dispatch an Express to General Gates to request him to send a Scout forty or fifty miles to the Westward, and if he finds that any body of the Enemy have Marched towards the Mohawk River, then instantly to Detach three Regiments at least to that Quarter, or more according to the number of the Enemy, that may have taken that Rout. Similar orders will be sent to Gen<sup>l</sup> Ten Broeck & Colonel Gansevoort. Thus we shall have the most early Intelligence of the Enemy's Movements and be enabled to take proper measures to defeat their purposes.

I am Most Respectfully Gentlemen Your Ob<sup>d</sup> Hum<sup>e</sup> Servant,

That the said Dyer lived some time in New Britton, and sometimes north of that place with Pallmatire. the said Warner told this Informer that they (the tories) had but a few guns now, but that Dyer told him they expected some up the North river. this Informer asked the said Warner, if he could go to Dyre, he said he thought not for he changed his head quarters often. the said Warner told this Informer that Pallmatier was with Dyre the day before he saw Dyre. this Informer asked Warner how Dyre and the rest of the tories lived. he said about and amongst the rest of their friends. this Informer says Warner further told him that Dyre informed him how he got away from Richmond. that he Dyre kept in the Woods there till Day light, then came a Cross the Mountains, and by Captain Baldwins and to one good fellows (who is a Corporal in the Grenadier Company) and when he the said Dyre got to good fellows he whistled and good fellows came to him. the said Warner told this Informer that John Savage had with him about five hundred men, and that they had Disarmed one Coll<sup>o</sup> of the Militia, and taken some guns and other warlike stores from him. the said Warner told this Informer that there had been a Post Ridder kept from Army to Army Viz the Kings Armies but lately had been broke up. the said Warner told this Informer that there was no orders. If any toric was going to be Carryed off only let him know of It, and there should not a man be carried off, for they would be resqued. and further this Informer saith that Warner told this Informer If he would come on the hill and Wisstull he would show the Informer People that knew better where Dyre was than he did. the said Warner told this Informer that John Brigs & — wait that lived with Brigs, was good friends, and that Joseph Chapman could go throu the woods, meaning as this Informer supposes to the Kings Army.

Information of Augustus Odell.

[Mil. Commit. 25 : 342.]

The Information of Augustus Odell who saith that this morning about ten o'clock he was in the woods about Ten miles south east of Albany he came across one showers, who ask'd which way this Informant was travelling, who answered he could hardly tell, but by Dropping a few words of Tory Talk, this informant soon discovered said showers to be a tory, then told said showers he wanted to get with John Savage. Said showers said John Savage was gone, that he went away day before yesterday with two men with him to the northward to join the regulars, determining To Keep the west side of the River at Fort Edward. Then this Informant asked for one Palmeteer. S<sup>d</sup> Showers said Palmeteer went yesterday the same way, then this Informer ask'd if there was any more men, that he could find. Said Showers said, he had been with one of his neighbours last night and the day back Just before day, and he took his shoes in his hand and run out into the woods and Stood Still and Perceived there was a number of men, but did not know how many that was under Arms, and perceived they was Rangers, but told this informant if he would go with him, to a house they could know, for they were strong torys, then this Informer went with said Showers to the house where he Showers was to ask, and he began to talk with the woman in Dutch & this Informer heard the woman say fifty, then said Showers turns to this Informer, and saith there is fifty men, and this informant thinks he Showers said they had been at old Michelses the last night, and was now collecting together to go off to the Enemy, and intended to go over Albany Ferry, under pretence to Join our Troops, but intended to Keep the west side of the River, and expected to have friends to help them, and to meet Indians and French to Convey them to the Regulars, and in order that the French may know them to be torys, they were to club their muskets. Also this informer saith that S<sup>d</sup> Showers said Palmeteer was chosen Captain, and S<sup>d</sup> Showers L<sup>t</sup> but he refused because he did not like palmeteer's plan, for he had got a Roll of the mens names, and Showers ask'd said Palmeteer what he would do with it if he was taken, said Palmeteer said he would roll it up and make a wad of it and put it into his gun, also John Boys was chosen 1st L<sup>t</sup>. The second L<sup>t</sup> This informant has forgot his name, and a number that did not join the Militia was in this Company, and This Informant saith to the best of his Remembrance two of Burnham's sons and two of Hagerman's sons was in the Company, also this Informer saith S<sup>d</sup> Showers said he was appointed Lieut over seven or eight men that tarry behind and told this informant if he would stay with him he should be secreted and did not know how soon he should march to Join the Regulars.

The above said Palmeteer march'd before his company to prepare the way for them.

The Deposition of Isaac Peabody and Samuel Allen of lawful age—

Who depose and say that on the 12th Instant they called at the house of Seth Chase of little White Creek, and hearing some words dropped, which induced them to believe the said Seth an Enemy to the Country, they feigned themselves to be of the same Sentiments, the said Seth and other Persons there then asked these Deponents, from whence they came; and upon answering that they came from Kinderhook, they said they had often heard that all the Inhabitants there were Tories; then Deponents thereupon said, that the word Tories was more properly applicable to their accusers, than to themselves—the said Seth and the Persons at his House said that they were of the same opinion—these Deponents then asked them, if they had not seen or heard of any friends to Government, that had fled from persecution at Kinderhook or thereabouts, they answered they had not—they then said, that one of their Committee had lately been to them, with the Association, & requested them to sign; which they refused to do, as they did not choose to sign any Promise of what they did not intend to perform; That the above Discourse passed in the House of the Said Seth Chase, these Deponents then rode off; and after going some Distance from the House, were called back by a person whose name they afterwards Discovered to be Hough, and who had been in Company with them at the Tavern before they left it—these Deponents then rode Back, and Hough informed, that after they left the House, he told the Landlord that they these Deponents were friends to Government, and strangers in the Place, & he thought they had better call them back,—whereupon he had called to these the Deponents to return; he then invited these Deponents to return to the House, and Lodge there, and if they were willing, they might be there secreted; which offer these Deponents Declined—these Deponents then asked if their Kinderhook Friends would get thro' Northward to Burgoyne's Army; Hough said no; but that there was a much safer way to make their Escape; for that there was 80 men from Arlington and Sunderland, that were to march the next Night; and there were two of the King's Armies Coming down, Burgoyne was coming around the Lake, and Sir John Johnston was to come down the Mohawk River, with the other Army; and that the best way for your Kinderhook Tories, was to Join that Party, and they would meet the Kings Army in three Days, and be Safe and out of Danger, these Deponents then Desirid him if he had an opportunity, to give our Kinderhook friends this information, which he promised he would, whereon we bid him good night and rid to one Samuel Hodges where we put up for ye night and upon Consideration of what had passed we agreed that it was best that one of us the next morning should go back to Chases and the other go and acquaint Cambridge Committee of what had passed where upon next morning we took our different way & aforesaid deponents further said that the s<sup>d</sup> Esq<sup>r</sup> Hough said they are all friends about, we have got good friends in our Committee had they not been as Cunning as the divel we should have been torn to pieces before now for the people down towards Cambridge are as fiers as the divil and we would not have you go there for you will be surely taken; he further s<sup>d</sup> I did not mean to take up arms or fought on either side, but I have been so harrassed that I have determined that I will go off with the party to Burgoin and in a few days turn and let them know what or who I am and that great part of the Neighbourhood was going too. that there was a number of us met at this place Seth Chases a night or two ago 't being a place of rendezvous it being a dark rainy night, we said we believed you had an Entertaining opportunity he said they Talked and Covered Two & Two.

The Disposition of Capt. Isaac Pabody of Lawful age being duly sworn saith that on Sunday Morn<sup>s</sup> the 13th instant he return<sup>d</sup> to the house of Seth Chase in little White Creek. I asked M<sup>r</sup> Chase if he had seen any of our Kinderhook Friends the night past. he answered no. I Told him wanted to see M<sup>r</sup> Hughs the man we Discoursed with Last night in the Road. he then told me M<sup>r</sup> Houghs told him the discourse he had with us, and that M<sup>r</sup> Hough knew no more of the place then what he had Communicated to him. I asked him what he had for Certain that Burgoine and his Army were a Coming Round the Lakes. he answered me that Coll Man had sent a Page to Arlington, and he was at his house night before Last, on his Return to Coll Man; and told him that Coll Man's order to the people of Arlington was, to remain peasable and still, if their intentions were undiscovered, till further orders from him, for he found by intelligence from Burgoin, he would not get thro' his march so soon as expected; but if they were discovered to make the best of their way to him; the Page Further saith that the people of Arlington had made such preperations for their march that they could not forego it, without being discovered; therefore would march to night; M<sup>r</sup> Chase then said the people of White Creek are secure, they wont march till further orders from Coll Man. he likewise said that Coll Man had 12 fat oxen for the purpose of Victualling the friends of Government on their march to join the King's Army, and others had several more Cattle for the same purpose. I then asked him to direct me to a place, whereby our Kinderhook friends could get safe to the Kings Army. he then told me that Coll Man had gave Countersigns at two places and if these Countersigns could be conveyed to your friends they can pass safe, and get all intelligence necessary; he then spoke to his wife to bring him a paper on which she immediately came to us, and takes a paper out of her bosom, and gave it to her husband; & he hand it to me, saying now I give you my life. I took the paper and Read it to be this: at Landlord Northrup's the Countersign is Tryon, and Jacob Lansing ferry the Countersign is Burgoin. I told him for fear I should make a mistake in the Countersigns I would write them down—then wrote them down, he then said that upon giving these Countersigns out at these two places we could be secreted, have provision or help<sup>d</sup> on our way, or anything we desired to forward us. he further said that Simon Covill was a great friend to Government, and that I might not be afraid of him. he further said that his house was a place where Coll Man's Page came for Entertainment, and to bring news to the Friends of Government.

JOHN YOUNGLOVE, Chairman.

The said Isaac Paybody upon recollecting further, said, that the above s<sup>d</sup> Seth Chase told him that Coll Man had given Orders, that in the day time to keep the Woods, and in the night to come upon the Roads, to March 20 in a boddy, at the distance of one mile, one boddy from the other, and before and after each boddy of 20 men, one man should be placed at the distance of 10 Rods, and if any body was coming after them, the rear guard was to speak, loud enough for those before to hear, and the parties were then to skulk into the woods, and if any person were to meet them, the advanced Guard to act in like manner. ALBANY, 31st Octob<sup>r</sup> 1776.

SIR: We were early this morning favoured with your Dispatches of the 30th Instant. From your last intelligence, it may be conjectured that no attempt will be made on Ticonderoga, which strengthens the apprehension of an Incursion into our western Frontier.

In that case the Defenceless condition of those Frontiers will be lamented, and too probably, by those who Judge only from Events, censured. An unexperienced militia, if sufficiently numerous, cannot be relied upon, especially when their fears may be raised on account of the Indians. Under these Dificult Circumstances, increased by General Gates's importunity for Dayton's Regiment tho' all the Continental Troops (two Companies only excepted) were already at Ticonderoga and on the Communication, it is easy to account for your Embarrisment in which we participate. Peter Ten Broeck and the four other Disaffected persons who have lately gone over to the Enemy from Tryon County, were, we are informed, pursued by a party of the Oneidas, but these friendly Indians were given to understand by the Onandagoes that it was disagreeable to them, & that the Oneidas should suffer if they did not desist. We submit it, Sir, whether it will not be proper for you to send a spirited message to the Onandagoes thro Major Fonda, or in such other manner as you may Judge best, Complaining, and demanding satisfaction for this unprovoked Infraction of Treaty, & insisting peremptorilly to know whether they are to be considered as Enemies or friends that they may be treated accordingly. It will at least show a vigilant attention to their Conduct, and a Contempt of their Enmity, and if it should not convert may intimidate and keep them in awe, not to mention the necessity of our being apprized of the terms we stand upon with a neighbour who, in proportion to the measures of our Deception, will be able to injure & Distress us.

We have Just received intelligence that a party of Tories from King's District & the South East part of Rensselaerwyck were cohorting together to Join the Enemy; that they Determine to cross the Ferry at this place, under the guise of Militia; but were to keep on the west side of the River; in Expectation of being supported by their Friends, & of meeting Indians, & Canadians, to conduct them to the Enemy, & that to distinguish them and theirs as Tories, they were to club their Firelocks; that one Palmeter was their Captain, Showers and John Begg their Lieutenants; that if they should be discovered, they were to make a wad of their muster roll and put it into the Barrel of their Captain's Gun. That Simon Warner, Baret Dyer, two Burnams & two Hagermans were among the Company; That Palmeter had marched before to prepare the way for them.

Another Examination affirms that the Tories had orders to march on this alarm to the Northward, as Congress men, & to draw provisions until they could get to Fort George; & then to take possession of, and keep it for the Enemy. We can give no opinion of the truth of this Intelligence, as it is evident that every account of this nature has been Greatly exaggerated; but it may be of use nevertheless, to put us on our guard.

Before your Letter came to hand Mr Robert Livingston had set off on his Return, & as that part of the Committee for arranging the Army which went to the Southward are got back to Fish Kill, we think ourselves under a Necessity of Joining them. Indeed considering the nature of our power, which chiefly respected the Militia who are all now in motion, we do not see that we can be of any essential service here.

We are sir with great respect Your most Obedt<sup>t</sup> Humble Servt,

By order of the Committee of Convention of the State of New York.

SIR: We received your favour of the — Instant early this morning, not knowing the Extent of the Conspiracy of which you gave us information, nor whether you could raise and arm the Company we directed with sufficient Dispatch; we ordered Col: Van Renselaer with 150 of the Claverack Militia to march into King's District where you may soon expect to see him, as he is much wanted for an important service in this Quarter he must be detained no longer than the safety of the District & the Condition of the Disaffected renders absolutely necessary. After these vigorous measures which will convince our internal Enemies both of our vigilance and power, the Disaffected will no doubt be intimidated & dispersed and we think a guard of 40 or 50 men kept in constant motion will be sufficient for your protection.

Mr Bohr assures us so many can be armed we recommend it to you to embody them accordingly. Indeed even if it had been otherwise it is out of our Power at present to furnish Arms or accoutrements as you request.

FISHKILL, Oct<sup>r</sup> the 29th 1776.

SIR: The Committee of Safety have received the letter of your Committee by Express, inclosing Minutes of the Committee of the County of Albany relative to the Department of the Dep<sup>y</sup> Com<sup>y</sup> General; the Exertions which they have made to procure the necessary supply for the Northern Army, are highly Laudable, and deserve the warmest approbation of the Committee of Safety.

We have been loudly called upon by his Excellency Gen<sup>l</sup> Washington to forward a supply of Flour for the use of the Army at the White Plains. We have devised all the means we can think of, to prevent the Army from suffering for the want of that Article; which you will see by our Resolutions—a copy of which we now transmit you. We are of Opinion that if a similar mode was adopted to the Northward, it would be productive of good Effects. We are informed that there are several Mills between Albany and Lake George which might be kept constantly employed in manufacturing Flour for the Northern Army, if the Com<sup>y</sup> General would engage persons to purchase up Grain and to have it transported to the Mills most contiguous;—It would however be needless for us to enter into a particular Detail on this subject—Your Committee from being on the spot, are the best Judges of what further measures will be necessary for supplying that Army, and are invested with full powers for carrying into execution all such measures as you shall think effectual for repelling the Invasions of the Enemy on the Northern and Western Frontiers. Whilst we therefore in this Quarter exert ourselves in devising and executing whatever shall appear to us most conducive to the public safety, we trust that your attention and zeal will not be wanting in giving vigor to our Military operations to the Northward, and in quelling by such means as you shall deem most prudent the Insurrections of the Disaffected in that Part.

We highly approve of your having detained those Detachments of the Militia, which you mention, for that purpose, but it is not in our Power to order up the Detachment under the command of Col. Van Renselaer, as we have now in custody near two hundred and twenty dangerous and disaffected Persons whom we propose removing to Exeter in the State of New Hampshire. A Detachment of seventy-six persons of this stamp was sent off a few Days ago, and from the Information we have received from the Committee appointed by the Convention of this State for enquiring into, detecting and defeating all Conspiracies which may be formed in this State against the Liberties of America, we have reason to think that there will be a necessity of apprehending and removing several other Persons; You must therefore be sensible, that no Dependence can be put on this Quarter. Should you find it necessary to employ a further force, for the purpose of seizing and securing the Disaffected, we recommend it to you to endeavor to raise as many men in the Massachusetts Bay Government as you shall think necessary.

We transmit you a copy of the last Intelligence we have received from Head quarters. We flatter ourselves that our accounts from the Northward will be equally favorable.

I am, sir, with the greatest Respect, your and the Committee's most obedient and very humble servant,
 By order,

Resolved: that Henry Schenk Esq<sup>r</sup> or such agents as he may think proper to employ, be empowered to purchase up Wheat for the use of the Continental Army, and that he cause the same to be manufactured into Flour and transported to the Landings most contiguous to the places where the same may be manufactured with the utmost Dispatch.

Resolved: that the names of all the Persons who shall refuse to part with their

DEAR SIR: I have your favor of yesterday. The Gen<sup>l</sup> highly approves of your Plan of having Roger's Prisoners sent up to your Convention, and will have it done out of hand. You will receive with them several persons taken about this part of the country. The one that appears to be deepest in their schemes, is James Budd whose Examination you have enclosed. You may question him without letting him know you have the Examination, and from comparing the accounts given at different times, form a judgment of the truth. Our Scouting Parties are very active, and very successful. Yesterday they brought in five british prisoners, and this Morning 12 Waldeckers; the latter are amazed at the kind Treatment they receive. they say they were torn away from their own Country and will willingly remain with us. They say if their fellow Soldiers knew how kindly they would be treated, and how plentifully, and how happily they might live, they would lay down their Arms, and come among us. We shall continue to make a good use of those fellows.

Our neighbours remain very quiet in this Quarter, but we have heard a heavy Cannonade about Fort Washington; we dont know the occasion yet, but have sent down for intelligence. You are misinformed, as to the quantity of Provisions we have lost, when General Lee removed, he was obliged to leave 80 or 90 Barrels of Provisions of all kinds for want of Waggon.

We already make a very respectable Figure,—our Front lined and Arbutted and some Redoubts well forwarded on our Rear impassable for Horse or Foot, but thro' passes of which we have Possession.

Send us good news from the Northward, and never fear us we will play our part.

I am Dear Sir Yours, Sincerely,

TENCH TILGHMAN.

TICONDEROGA, HEAD QUARTERS, Oct<sup>r</sup> 20th 1776.

GENTLEMEN: The late success of the Enemies of American Liberty on this Lake renders it probable I might say certain that this Post will very soon be attacked. In that case as the Enemy may perhaps attempt a Blockade rather than an immediate attack on our lines a large supply of Provisions will be absolutely necessary. You are therefore requested gentlemen to lend all the assistance in your power in forwarding Provisions of every kind from Bennington to this place by way of Skeensborough. The badness of the Road may render it necessary to send Flour &c on Pack Horses in Bags. If no other method is practicable make use of that, Regard not the expense. M<sup>r</sup> Yancey D. Com<sup>r</sup> General has the General's orders to pay every necessary Expence and Charge that may arise.

TICONDEROGA, 20th Oct 1776.

GENT<sup>l</sup> This is to inform you that in consequence of a number of disaffected persons (in and about Albany) to the common Safety of this Continent, there is great Danger of a too long delay of the contracted provisions for this army from that place and in particular the article of Flour and that we have not more than will answer for bread for the Army present than about sixteen days, and as the advances of the enemy may be but slow and in order for a blockade and to cut off all communications to this Place, all which makes it of the utmost consequence that we have an immediate supply and as I am appointed and impowered to act and contract for every necessary provision for this Department by the Commissary General Joseph Trumble Esq<sup>r</sup> I thought it of the highest importance to make this pressing application, that you would contract and immediately forward to Skeensborough Landing all the Flour that can be purchased for the Army on the northern Department. And relying Gentlemen upon your public patriotism to Serve your Country, I make not the least doubt that you will comply with this request, and as your pay I will furnish you from time to time with Continental Currency as fast as my present hurry of business will permit & beg you will forward me your answer immediately how much you will be able to supply me with and in what time so that I may be able to satisfy the commander-in-Chief at this place with this very important business, and you will greatly oblige yours with respect your most humble Servant,

Nov. 13th 1776.

Marmaduke Foster of the City of New York but of late residing in the Manor of Philipsburg near White Plains in Westchester Co in the State of New York Carpenter of full age being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God deposeth and saith —

That from the beginning of the present struggle he hath been a zealous & Active Friend to the American Cause. That he held a Commission of first Lieutenant in Capt Saml Johnsons Company of Militia in the City of New York in the execution of which he exerted himself to the utmost of his abilities. that last May he removed his Family with most of his Effects to his Father in laws John Martine in the Manor of Philipsburgh in Westchester Co afor<sup>sd</sup>. That on the next day after the first Ships of War sailed up the North River he procured a Certificate & permit from the Committee of New York & removed himself to his Father in Laws afor<sup>sd</sup> where he continued to reside till on or about the 28th Oct last. that about four o'clock in the Afternoon of that day he was at the rear of his Father in Laws house when his s<sup>d</sup> Father in Law called to him & informed him, that the Enemys troops (who sometime before were landed in Westchester County) were in sight & Coming towards the house. that the deponent and his said Father in law retired to some distance from the house & where they had an opportunity of viewing the said troops. that from the Dress & Uniform of the said troops the Deponent & his Father in law believed them to be Hessians. that the deponent thereupon fled as did also his Father in law to prevent falling into their hands. that the next day the deponent (on hearing they were not the enemy's troops) attempted to return to the s<sup>d</sup> House but was stopped by the guards of the American Army by order of Lord Sterling. that the deponent then went back about three miles to a house where he had left his Wife the night before. he there heard that his Father in law had been to his house (from whence they fled on the appearance of the supposed Enemy). that the troops which they had seen coming to the house when they left it, were the American Army & that they had plundered and Carried off every thing that was in the house & that his Father-in-law was at the White Plains endeavouring to regain them.

That the next Morning the deponent went to the White Plains and found his Father-in-law there, who had got back sundry of his things and some books belonging to the Deponent. that he was told (immediately on his coming to the White Plains) by some of the men of Capt Post's Company of Artificers, that he must enquire among the men of Capt Ford's Company of Col. Brewer's Regim<sup>t</sup> for his things, for they had seen many of his Carpenters Tools among them which they knew.

That the deponent went to Capt Ford's quarters but could not find him, & then went to Capt Shaddock of the same Regiment who told the deponent if he could procure a written order & prove himself a friend to the Country his things should be delivered to him if any of them were in the possession of his men; that the deponent then went to Major Bacon of the same regiment & informed him that he had been plundered of his Effects & that some of Capt Post's men had told him that they had seen some of his Carpenters Tools among the men of Capt Ford's Company & that Captain Shaddock had directed the Deponent to the Commanding Officer for a written order to search for them & that if he could procure such an order he should have them; that the Major did not give the deponent a written Order but told him he should have such of his things as were in the possession of any of the men of the Regm<sup>t</sup>, and in a great hurry rode off.

That the deponent then went to his Father in law's house to see particularly what things were still remaining & what carried off; that he found his Tool chest broke open, the irons taken out of all his plains & Carried away together with his saws, Chizels & all his other Tools; that the Deponent then made his Complaint to Genl. McDougal who referred him to Col. Brewer; that on his applying to Col. Brewer the Col. promised him that the next morning the Regiment should be paraded and such things as were found among them (belonging to the deponent) should be delivered to him and that the deponent should call on him the next day and receive them; that the next day the deponent went accordingly but the Regm<sup>t</sup> was removed to North Castle; that 2 or 3 days after the deponent and his said Father in law in going to North Castle to enquire after said Regm<sup>t</sup> met Col. Brewer on his way to Peekskill; that the deponent told him his errand to North Castle; that the Col. did not incline to say much on the subject, but told the deponent he must go to Major Bacon; that on the deponent coming to Major Bacon at North Castle, the Major ordered the Men's Chests & Baggage to be searched in the Deponent's presence. That some bound books belonging to the Deponent were found in some of the men's Knapsacks and a brass Kettle hanging on a baggage Cart; that the next day the Deponent with his Father in Law went to Capt Shaddock's (of said Regm<sup>t</sup>) encampment; that the said Capt Ordered his men to be paraded & to bring out all their things with them; that the deponent discovered in the possession of a Lieutenant of the s<sup>d</sup> Company a Blanket which the Deponent claimed; that the Lieutenant refused to deliver to the deponent the said Blanket unless he would pay him 5 Shill'gs & 4<sup>d</sup> for bringing it so far, which sum the Deponent paid.

That Lieut Hitchins of Capt Pollard's Company has told this deponent that he had liberty to go out with the party on the day they went to the Deponent's Father in law's house, but on finding that their intention was to plunder he declined going; that the said Lieut Hitchings further told this deponent that he had heard that Capt Ford had sent off 2 men with Plunder to New England; that Capt Pollard told the deponent that the said Capt Ford has now in his possession a horse which he has plundered in Westchester County.

And this deponent further saith that the goods & Articles mentioned in the list subjoined to his affidavit & which he verily believes was taken from his Father in law's house at the time and by the Regm<sup>t</sup> aforesaid, are still missing and that the prices affixed to them respectively do not exceed their true Value, and further saith not.

John Martine of the Manor of Philipsburgh near the White Plains in the County of Westchester State of New York Farmer, of full age being sworn on the holy evangelists of Almighty God—deposeth & Saith,

That from the beginning of the present struggle he hath been a zealous and active Friend to the American Cause; that he has a son who hath borne arms in Defence of the Country in Capt Townsend's Company, That after the Enemy's Army had penetrated into the County of Westchester, to wit on or about the 28th of October last, this Deponent being at home, saw a considerable body of troops at a distance advancing on their way towards his house and from about  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a mile therefrom; that he took those troops to be part of the Enemy's Army & therefore fled from his House, that in the night of the same day he this deponent returned to his House & found it plundered or almost all the effects he had left in it carried away, that before his return he had discovered the troops above-mentioned were the American Army, namely Col. Brewer's Regm<sup>t</sup> of Massachusetts & Col. Webb's Regm<sup>t</sup> of Connecticut Troops.

That the next day he went to Col. Webb & complained to him of his having been robbed as aforesaid by his men; that Col Webb told him that if his men had taken any of his things they should be returned to him & gave verbal orders to the Officers & Soldiers about him to deliver to the deponent such of his goods as they might have taken from him & told the deponent to go and look among them & see if he could find any of his Goods, the deponent accordingly went and soon discovered some of his beds & Blankets which he took; that he also found some linnen hid under a fence in the Encampment; that he complained also to Major Bacon of Col Brewer's Regm<sup>t</sup> who gave order that the deponent should search for his goods among his men, which he accordingly did & found sundry of his goods—that this deponent was engaged for 2 days in looking for his goods as aforesaid, that the said Regmts then marched to North Castle & this deponent having regained but few of his effects followed the said Regmts to that place—that on his way thither he met Col Brewer then on his way going to Peekskill—that he made known his complaint aforesaid to him—that Col Brewer declined saying much about the matter, and went his way—that when the deponent came to North Castle he again saw Major Bacon—that Major Bacon told the deponent (privately) that a thorough search should be made for his goods as well among the Officers as among the Soldiers & that his Chest should be first searched—that the deponent accordingly searched the Major's Chest & Baggage without finding any of his effects—that the Capt' Williard & Gale both of Col Brewer's Regm't went with this deponent & Marmaduke Foster (who had also been plundered) to a room in which there were a number of Chests & Baggage belonging to the Regm't—that they examined the said Chests & Baggage & found considerable of their goods—that they found a pillow belonging to the deponent in the Chest of Capt Gale—that on this same day this deponent discovered on a Baggage Cart a Green rug which he took to be his & Challenged it in the presence of Major Bacon; that the deponent called out, who has taken this? that some of the soldiers said it belonged to Major Bacon, that Major Bacon thereupon said it had been thrown into Col. Brewer's Tent with a bed & that he & the Col. had laid 2 nights upon it.

That the next day the deponent & the said Foster went to the encampment of Capt Shaddock's Company of Col. Brewer's Regm't—that they complained of their treatment as aforesaid to Capt Shaddock—that Capt Shaddock paraded his men & caused their baggage to be searched—that the deponent there found considerable quantity of his effects—that among other things he found a quantity of tow Cloth which they had divided amongst them.

And this deponent further saith that the goods & articles mentioned in the list subjoined to this affidavit & which he verily believes were taken from his house at the time & by the Regmt aforesaid are still missing & that the prices affixed to them respectively do not exceed their true value, & this deponent saith that he hath often Hospitably & kindly entertained many of the American Officers & Soldiers as well of those Regmt's as of many others & hath on all occasions endeavored to promote the service of the American Cause, & this deponent further says that divers of the Inhabitants of the Country about this deponent have also been cruelly plundered by the American troops and particularly that he saw in the possession of some of Capt Ford's men of Col. Brewer's Regmt, Bed Curtains which they confessed they had taken out of the house of Talman Pugsley; & that Capt Ford confessed to this deponent that he had got sundry things out of that house & further this Deponent saith not.

[Petitions, 33 : 32.]

To the Honourable the Congress or Committee of Safety of the State of New York.

The memorial of Frederick Philips, Humbly Sheweth,

That on the ninth day of August last, your memorialist was by order of his Excellency General Washington taken into custody at his own house and immediately sent prisoner from thence to New Rochelle, where he was closely confined under guard for eleven days and from thence removed to the State of Connecticut, a Parole (a copy whereof is hereunto annexed) was presented to him which he signed, and agreeable thereto has ever since been confined to this town & a small district round it.

That your memorialist has thus been deprived of his liberty without any particular matter being alledged against him or even having an opportunity of offering anything in his own defence, he therefore cannot help thinking that General Washington must have been induced to take this step in consequence of some misrepresentations.

That your memorialist has already suffered great hardships & Inconveniences & if not permitted to return home before the severity of the winter sets in, must still suffer many more which in his advanced stage of life and infirm state of health he is ill calculated to undergo, but that even all the personal inconveniences he has felt, and is likely farther to feel, if not relieved are far from making so deep an impression on his mind as the circumstance of being seperated from his wife and numerous family, and thereby prevented from superintending his own affairs, particularly the education of his children whose tender years require the most watchfull attention of a Parent's care.

Your memorialist therefore prays that your Honours will be pleased to take his case under consideration & afford him relief by restoring him again to his liberty, or if that cannot be granted at present, that he may be indulged with leave to reside at his own house (within such limits as you shall think fit to prescribe) under a parole similar to that which he has already given. All which is humbly submitted to your Honours consideration.

Petition of Phœbe Oakley.

[Petitions, 33: 48.]

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of New York in Convention assembled.

The Petition of Phœbe Oakley of the Borough Town of Westchester in the County of Westchester & State of New York Humbly Sheweth.

That your Petitioner to avoid the depredations of a cruel Enemy, who had then landed at Frog's Neck, sent divers of her effects to her Brother in laws Tolman Pugsley's at the Manor of Philipse.

That your Petitioner hath been inhumanly robbed and plundered of all her said effects by Captain Ford and his Company of Col. Brewer's Regiment.

That your Petitioner hath not as yet been able to recover any of her said effects, for the particulars of which and the manner in which the same were taken from her and divided amongst the plunderers, your Petitioner begs leave to refer to the affidavits subjoined to this Petition.

That your Petitioner hath been informed that such base and unmannerly ravages are not countenanced by the regulations prescribed for the government of the American Army, but on the contrary hath been advised that the Generals of the said Army will on application deliver to the civil authority of this State all such persons as wantonly trespass against the laws thereof, and particularly in the cases of theft, robbery and other felonies, Wherefore your Petitioner humbly prays that this Convention who are & ought to be the Guardians of the rights of the people of this State, will be pleased to assist the same by taking cognizance of the crimes committed by Captain Ford against your Petitioner, and extending to him the laws in such cases provided, and further that application may be made to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the general Congress for a Resolution to compel Cap<sup>t</sup> Ford & his Company to make restitution to the many unhappy sufferers whom they have basely stripped and pilfered. That this Deponent continued at the Borough Town of Westchester with her Brother's Widow till the Enemy had evacuated that place. That then the deponent went to the Manor of Philipse in quest of her trunk and other effects sent there as aforesaid. That on coming there she was informed by her said Brother in law Tolmon Pugsley that he had received the said trunk & other things sent to him as aforesaid, but that while he was gone from home with some of his Effects & before he could return for another load, his house was plundered as he was informed & believed to be true by Captain Ford & his Company of Col' Brewer's Regiment of the Massachusetts in the American Army, and that this deponent's Effects aforesaid had been carried away by them; that her said Brother in law further told her he had applied to Captain Ford for restitution of the said Effects. That Captain Ford confessed he had some of them but would not deliver them up or let him see them. That thereupon this deponent applied to Gen' Heath, who behaved to her as a Gentleman and man of honor, that the General told her he would put him under arrest; that this deponent has never recovered any of the said Effects, but has heard that part of them were sold, & Captain Pollard told her he was informed that Captain Ford had sent off two or three men to Connecticut with plunder, and further this deponent saith not.

Tolman Pugsley of the Manor of Philipse, Yeoman, in the foregoing affidavit mentioned of full age, being duly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, Deposeth & saith,

That he received the trunk & other Effects mentioned in the said affidavit to have been sent to his house by his sister in law, Phebe Oakley; that on the day the Battle was fought at Chatterton Hill at the White Plains this deponent began to remove his effects to the house of his Father, who lived about six miles to the Northward of him; that he arrived at his Fathers in the evening of the same day with a load of goods; That he staid all night at his fathers; that the next morning he returned home with intent to remove the rest of his Effects, but to his surprise was informed by his neighbours that his house had in his absence been plundered by Captain Ford & his Company, who were encamped in the neighbourhood.

That this deponent went in pursuit of the said Effects but hath never been able to recover any of them; that on his application to Captain Ford for the said Effects, Captain Ford said he had some things but did not believe they belonged to this deponent; that the deponent then described a suit of Curtains, Bed quilts, and other articles, and desired Captain Ford to examine with this deponent the things he confessed he had, to see if they were not among them, That Captain Ford replied he would not shew this deponent where the said goods were, or what they were and gave this deponent a great deal of very abusive language, and further this deponent saith not.

That the day after the fight at Chatterton Hill at the White Plains, this deponent was at Young's Tavern, on the Manor of Philipse, where he was taking care of some Carpenters Tools, by order of his Captain.

That this deponent went the said day from thence in company with one Basset of Captain Fords Company, to his Captain's quarters for further orders respecting the said Tools; that in his way thither he passed by an encampment which the said Basset told this deponent was Captain Fords Company, and at which the said Basset stopped, and this deponent further saith, that on his return from his Captain he stopped at the said Encampment to enquire for the said Basset, who had promised to return with this Deponent if he would call for him; That on enquiring for him this deponent was informed that Basset had gone on; that while this deponent was in the said Encampment he saw several men whom he knew to be of Captain Fords Company, from which circumstance & from what Basset had as aforesaid told him, he has no doubt but that the said Encampment was the Encampment of Captain Ford's Company.

That while he was in the said Encampment he saw a number of men dividing divers articles of Cloathing & Household Furniture, some of which were hung on the bushes near their Tents & others spread on the Ground, That while they were making the division he heard one of the men say "Captain Ford must have an equal share;" that another answered "Captain Ford has had a number of little notions already," to which the first replied "never mind that, he has used us well and he ought to have an equal share if he has got a few little things;" that among the said goods this Deponent well remembers to have seen a piece of green silk, a light Cloth Coloured woman's Gown, two pair of white Drilling men's Breeches and sundry sheets, Pillow Cases, Table Cloths, shifts, shirts, and a variety of other articles, and further this deponent saith not, EBENEZER BURRILL.

[Petitions, 33: 46.]

To the Honourable Convention for the State of New York.

The Petition of William Boerum, Daniel Rapalie and Isaac J. Sebring Humbly Sheweth,

That your Petitioners have been in the Provincial Service for the State of New York first under the Command of Gen<sup>l</sup> Green who directed your Petitioners with sundry other persons then in the Service to take all the fatt stock belonging to disaffected persons on Long Island for the use and support of the United Forces under the Command of his Excellency General Washington, which stock your said Petitioners drove to the said Forces, and there delivered them to Commissary Brown. Immediately after that your Petitioners were ordered by General Woodhull to drive all the Stock remaining on the west part of the said Island to the Eastward which order your petitioners executed to the utmost of their power. The stock being then delivered your petitioners were ordered by Collonel Potter to quit the said Island, and while your Petitioners were on the march to join Coll. Livingston, who then was to the Eastward, your Petitioners in consequence of said Coll. Potters orders to them were under the disagreeable necessity of leaving their horses on the said Island unferried, which horses your Petitioners have since lost.

Your Petitioners then waited upon the Honourable Convention for farther orders, and being informed by one of the members thereof that it would be attended with too much Expences to the State to employ your Petitioners any longer as Horsemen, and your Petitioners being still unemployed and having received no pay since your Petitioners first entered the Service of the said State, and your Petitioners being informed that they are to be paid no more than six shillings per day for their service. Your Petitioners therefore humbly beg that their wages may at least be made adequate to what your Petitioners have been out of pocket during the time of their service, and while they have waited for further orders. Your Petitioners are still willing and ready to serve their Country on any Command your Honours may think them equal to. And your Petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray.

Petition of Alexander Wallace.

[Petitions, 33: 42.]

To the Honorable the Convention or Committee of Safety of the State of New York. The petition of Alexander Wallace of the City of New York, Merchant, Humbly sheweth,

That on the Eighth day of August last your petitioner was apprehended as he understood by Order of his Excellency Gen<sup>l</sup> Washington, as a person suspected as unfriendly to the American cause, in consequence of which your petitioner presented a memorial to him, representing his family-distresses, a copy of which is ready to be produced. That his Excellency in answer to your petitioners memorial told him his case was very hard, and directed him to call the next morning. That your petitioner accordingly attended on his Excellency and produced to him a Certificate of his good behaviour from Colonel Remsen, and that your petitioner had actually employed a sufficient man in his stead in the Continental Service, as by the Certificate from Col. Remsen ready to be produced, will appear. That his Excellency thereupon declared that there were then so many applications to him of the like nature, that it was out of his power to relieve your petitioner at that juncture and that your petitioner should submit to the necessity of going with the other Gentlemen then under arrest to New England, and gave your petitioner reason to believe that e'er many days elapsed, he should return to his family. That your petitioner while in New England applied to his Excellency through General Putnam on the subject of his return to his family, and recieved for answer that he must wait with patience a few weeks longer. That your petitioner again applied to his Excellency through another channel, and received an answer to his application dated the 5th Nov<sup>r</sup> last, purporting that though his Excellency was disposed to oblige your petitioner, he had referred the matter to the Convention of New York, to whom your petitioner must apply. That Governor Trumbull of the State of Connecticut knowing your petitioners particular distressed situation has permitted him personally to apply to this Honorable convention, as by his certificate ready to be produced will appear. That your petitioners private papers, on the preservation of which the well-being of his family principally depends, are buried in the Earth on Long Island, in a place unknown to any but your petitioner and — now a prisoner in New England, and will probably soon perish unless redeemed from their present state. That the Company papers belonging to your petitioner and his brother Hugh Wallace are deposited in a vault in the City of New York, and cannot be taken from thence but by one of the partners. That your petitioners wife and Eight small children are now on Long Island utterly destitute of that necessary assistance which so numerous a family must unavoidably want in your petitioner's absence and that to add to the distress of your petitioners family, they will be obliged to quit the house on Long Island in which they now reside on the 1st Feb<sup>r</sup> next, as the proprietor thereof is determined to occupy it himself at that time. Your petitioner therefore under this complication of distress, begs leave to cast himself on the benevolence of this Honourable Convention, humbly requesting their permission to him to proceed to the City of New York and Long Island for the necessary care of his family and his private and Company concerns under such conditions in point of time and other circumstances as to this Honourable Convention shall seem fit. And your petitioners shall ever pray &c

ALEXANDER WALLACE.

FISHKILL, Dec<sup>r</sup> 6th 1776.

Petition of Miles Sherbrooke.

[Petitions, 33: 33.]

To the Honorable the Convention or Committee of Safety of the State of New York.

The Petition of Miles Sherbrooke of the City of New York, Merchant, Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioner on the tenth of February last, viewing his most critical situation on account of the approaching troubles removed himself and his family from the City of New York to Long Island with a determination which his connections in Great Britain, he humbly conceives will fully justify, not to take part in the least in the unhappy controversy subsisting between that Kingdom and the United States of North America. That nevertheless your Petitioner notwithstanding his aforesaid retreat, and the well known inoffensiveness of his character was upon some information which doubtless General Washington conceived to be well founded, apprehended by His Excellency's order on the seventh day of August as a person suspected to be unfriendly to the American cause, and was sent a prisoner to the State of Connecticut.

That your petitioner is a partner of the Commercial House of Perry, Hayes & Sherbrooke; that your Petitioners partners reside in England and are well known to have openly avowed and taken an active part in favor of the American cause. That your Petitioner humbly conceives he cannot be deemed inimical to that cause, if no other considerations than those of interest should influence him to a similarity of opinion with his partners. That your Petitioner has received directions from his partners who have proved themselves friendly as above mentioned to America, how to demean himself in the present troubles, and hopes he always has exercised, and shall continue to exercise so much prudence as strictly to conform to them.

That your Petitioner has in every instance complied with all Convention and Committee orders, except in the single instance of not taking up arms, in which your Petitioner flatters himself he will by the mere recital of his case, be fully exculpated if not justified in the opinion of the Honorable Convention.

That the General Committee of the City and County of New York, conceived your Petitioners case to be singularly hard, and scarcely to be paralleled, and your petitioner is well informed that one single person only in that Body held him up in a suspicious point of light, which your petitioner is informed was the only occasion of his arrest. That the property of the Commercial house in America to which your petitioner belongs is great and therefore strongly attaches them to the American Interest. That all the Title Deeds, books and other papers belonging to that house so much attached to the American cause, as well as a number of papers concerning the estate of the late M<sup>r</sup> Joseph Haynes deceased, which affect the property of women who cannot take a part in the present controversy, have been buried under ground by your petitioner, on the South side of Long Island, and will probably soon perish in their present situation unless your petitioner can be admitted to go for their redemption. That besides this he hopes that his desire to provide for his wife and family will, considering the probable reasons to suppose him to be friendly to America, have some weight with the Honorable Convention.

Upon the whole he submits to their wisdom and Tenderness both his request to be permitted to repair to the City of New York and Long Island and the terms and conditions upon which he may be thus indulged. And your petitioner shall ever pray &c &c

MILES SHERBROOKE.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 461.]

Cap<sup>t</sup> Platt from the Com. to whom the case of M<sup>r</sup> Abraham C. Cuyler late Mayor of the City of Albany was referred, applied to this Committee to know whether they sh<sup>d</sup> examine into the original cause of his commitment or only inquire whether he had broke his parole, & if it sh<sup>d</sup> appear that he had, order him to be sent to Connecticut—or such other place of confinem<sup>t</sup> as the Com. may think proper.

Resolved that if it shall appear that M<sup>r</sup> Cuyler has broke his parole in leaving Connecticut that he be ordered by the Com. to such place of confinem<sup>t</sup> as they may think proper, and that if he has reason to complain of heard treatment in original Commitment this Committee will at their leisure inquire into it & do him ample Justice—But they will not authorize any persons under a pretence of obtaining a rehearing to breake their paroles & contemn the power by which they were Committed.

New York Convention to Gen. Clinton.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 311]

NEW WINDSOR, 8th Dec., 1776.

SIR: The convention of the State of New York have not received any intelligence from the Genl Congress or his excellency Genl Washington & are much alarmed at the progress of the Enemy & the languor that prevails in the militia of the State of New Jersey, which they attribute in some measure to the appearance of the Enemy & the little prospect they have of receiving any assistance within their State. The Convention wish to use every means in their power (consistent with the safety of this State) which in a great measure involves that of the Continent to induce the people of New Jersey to make the proper exertions for their own preservation. In this they conceive nothing can contribute more than forming an Army in New Jersey out of the troops under your command or those that are with Maj. Gen. Lee, & such Militia as can be collected in this or the neighbouring States which we are very well satisfied would soon be formidable to the enemy, cut off their supplies & overawe the disaffected, while Genl Washington being reinforced by the Southern troops & militia would be in a state to meet them in front. What measures we have taken you will collect from the resolutions which we do ourselves the honour to transmit. In addition to this we have written to Gov. Trumbull suggesting the propriety of sending at least 6000 of the Militia of that State into New Jersey & requesting him to write for further aid to the rest of the eastern States. If it is consistent with your Orders to hang in the rear of the enemy from these steps & the means that may be used for raising the Militia of the State of New Jersey, we cannot but help thinking that Genl Howe may soon find cause to repent his teme-

ry. As we know not where to find Major Genl Lee we must beg the favor of you to transmit a copy of your letter by some careful person & the enclosed resolution to him. If sir either you or Genl Lee will be pleased to suggest any necessary measures to those we have taken, we shall think ourselves happy to co-operate therein. We are sir with the utmost respect, Your Most Obt Humble Svts.

[American Archives, 5th series, 3: 1126.]

At a meeting of the Committee appointed by the Representatives of the State of New York in Committee of Safety assembled, agreeable to a Resolution of the said Committee of December 8, 1776:

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY FOR THE STATE OF NEW YORK, }
FISHKILL, December 8, 1776. }

Resolved, That a Committee of three gentlemen be requested to go immediately to Gen. George Clinton at New Windsor, vested with full powers in conjunction with Gen. Clinton, to call out the Militia of Ulster and Orange counties, and to station them at such places as they may think will contribute most to the safety of this State and the general interest of America.

Resolved, That Mr. Robert R. Livingston, General Scott, and Mr. Duer be the said Committee.

Extracts from the Minutes.

ROBERT BENSON, Secretary

Present: Brigadier-General George Clinton, R. R. Livingston, Esq., Brigadier-General Scott, William Duer, Esq.

Resolved, That all the Militia of Orange and Ulster, not at present in the Continental service, and which compose the brigade commanded by Brigadier-General George Clinton, be forthwith ordered to march, properly armed and accoutred, and with four days' provision, to Chester, in Orange County, there to receive further orders from Brigadier-General Clinton. That the said Militia be allowed Continental pay and rations, and one penny per mile in lieu of rations till they come to the place of rendezvous.

Resolved, That General George Clinton be empowered to make use of the Arms and Accoutrements belonging to this State and now at New Windsor, for the purpose of equipping such of the said Militia as are not armed.

Resolved, That Colonel Malcolm be requested and authorized to exert all the influence which he possibly can to induce the men under his command, and such others as he can procure, and to continue in service till the last day of December, and that he be annexed to the brigade commanded by General Clinton.

Resolved, That General George Clinton be empowered to give a gratuity of one dollar to each man of Colonel Malcolm's regiment who will consent to remain in service till the first day of January.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee, that General Clinton march with the Militia the companies of Rangers raised in the County of Ulster, under the Command of Captain Jacob De Witt and Captain Hasbrouck.

And whereas, in the opinion of the honourable General Congress, and from the measures pursued by the enemy, it is evident that the security of the United States depends principally upon the preservation of the State of New York, which can only be effected by preventing the passes of the Highlands on Hudson's river, from falling into the hands of the enemy; yet it is the firm intention and earnest desire of the Convention of this State to give every assistance possible to any of their sister States, or to the United States in general, consistent with that grand object,

Resolved, therefore, That it is the opinion of this Committee, that General George Clinton be ordered either to join the Army under the command of Major-General Lee or Major-General Gates, provided it be the intention of either of these officers to form a separate army for the purpose of falling upon the enemy's rear, or cutting off their supplies, and that he vigilantly attend to the motions of the enemy in such a manner that he may be able to retain the passes of the Highlands on Hudson's river.

Resolved, That if it shall be the orders or intentions of Major-General Lee or Major-General Gates to join the main body of the Continental army, that nevertheless, General Clinton do forthwith march into the State of New Jersey, as far as he thinks consistent with the preservation of the passes of the Highlands, and that he exert himself to the utmost in collecting and rousing the spirits of the Militia of the said State, and in overawing and curbing its disaffected or revolted subjects, whenever he shall be called upon by a proper civil or military authority of said State.

Resolved, That Colonel Dubois be requested to attend General Clinton on this expedition.

Resolved, That a copy of the above Resolutions be transmitted to General Heath, and that he be requested to give every necessary assistance to General Clinton in carrying the same into execution.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Committee, the regiments commanded by Colonel Huntington and Colonel Tyler may be safely put under the command of General Clinton, as he will take care, from time to time, in case the motions of the enemy should require it, that the pass at the Ramapo should be properly secured.

Resolved, That in case General Clinton should be permitted to draw off the above-mentioned regiments, from the pass at Ramapo, that he be empowered to supply their place with as many of the Militia under his command as he shall think necessary.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that General George Clinton should be supplied with two field-pieces, forty-five thousand cartouches, tents for fifteen hundred men, and as many small arms as shall be necessary for supplying such of the Militia who may stand in need of them, and that the same ought to be issued from the Continental stores.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that a Deputy-Commissary and one of the Assistant Quartermaster-Generals of the Continental Army, should attend the brigade of Militia under the command of General George Clinton.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that the sum of six thousand pounds should be advanced to General George Clinton from the Treasury of this State, in order to supply any expense which may accrue in the execution of the above-mentioned Resolutions, which is before unprovided for.

Resolved, That a Letter be sent by express to Major-General Gates, enclosing copies of these Resolutions and that he be requested to forward copies of the same to Major-General Lee.

By order of Committee:

ROB. R. LIVINGSTON.

NEW WINDSOR, 8th December, 1776.

SIR: The Convention of the State of New York have not received from the General Congress or his Excellency General Washington, and are much alarmed at the progress of the enemy and the languor that prevails in the Militia of the State of New Jersey, which they attribute, in some measure, to the presence of the enemy, and the little prospect they have of receiving any assistance within their State.

The Convention wish to use every measure in their power, consistent with the safety of this State, which in a great measure involves that of the Continent, to induce the people of New Jersey to make the proper exertions for their own preservation. To this they conceive nothing can contribute more than forming an army in New Jersey out of the troops under your command, or those that are with Major-General Lee, and such Militia as can be collected in this or the neighboring States, which we are very well satisfied would soon be formidable to the enemy, cut off their supplies, and overawe the disaffected, while General Washington, being reinforced by the Southern troops and Militia, would be in a state to meet them in front.

What measures we have taken, you will collect from the Resolutions which we do ourselves the honour to transmit. In addition to this, we have written to Governour Trumbull, suggesting the propriety of sending at least six thousand of the Militia of that State in New Jersey, and requesting him to write for further aid to the rest of the Eastern States. If it is consistent with your orders to hang on the rear of the enemy, from these steps and the means that may be used for raising the Militia of New Jersey, we cannot but help thinking that General Howe may soon find cause to repent his temerity.

As we know not where to find Major-General Lee, we must beg the favor of you to transmit a copy of your letter and the enclosed Resolutions by some careful person to him. If, sir, either you or General Lee will be pleased to suggest any necessary measures, in addition to those we have taken, we shall think ourselves happy in co-operating therein.

I am, sir, with the greatest respect, your most obedient, humble servant,

By order of the Committee:

ROB. R. LIVINGSTON

To the Honourable HORATIO GATES, Major-General.

DALSTON'S TAVERN, December 9, 1776, ten o'clock at night.

SIR: Since the Resolutions which are referred to and enclosed in the above letter were agreed to, General Clinton and myself were requested by the Committee to proceed to Goshen, where we understood you was expected this evening, in order to know the route which the troops under your command propose taking, and to confer with you on other matters, which are the objects of these Resolutions.

I am sorry we were not fortunate enough to meet with you; but from the intelligence we have received from your Aid-de-Camp, Major Pearce, and from the route which we find General Lee has taken through Princeton, we find that the intentions of both your Armies is to join General Washington, and not to form a separate Army in order to fall on the enemy's rear.

In compliance, therefore, with his orders, General Clinton will be under the necessity of confining himself to the objects specified in the Resolution marked No. 7, unless he should learn from either General Lee or yourself, that your intentions are to form another army on the rear of the enemy. For this purpose he desires me to inform you, that he will immediately order his troops to rendezvous at the place called H City, near Kakeat, in Orange county, at the parting of the road which leads to Tappan and Paramus, where he will be ready to obey your orders, as far as they are consistent with the objects of the enclosed Resolutions. The force he will have with him will consist of about fifteen hundred men.

By the latest accounts we hear that General Washington is daily receiving strong reinforcements from the Militia of Jersey and Pennsylvania; in consequence of which he might possibly be induced to form an army for the purpose of hemming in the enemy in the rear, were he made acquainted with the measures pursued by the Convention of the State of New York. I have therefore to request the favour of you to have copies of the Committee's letter to you and of the enclosed Resolutions, transmitted immediately by express to his Excellency General Washington and to Major-General Lee, in order that they may pursue such measures as they shall judge best calculated for the general good.

I am, sir, with great respect, your obedient, humble servant,

Major-General GATES.

WM. DUER.

POUGHKEEPSIE, December 9, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: Mr. Ivers having declined doing any more for the ships, and your orders being to fit them for sea by spring, would inform you that after the rigging we have spared, shall fall considerably short to fit the ships out; we shall therefore be under the necessity to get some person to relay what rigging may be wanted, out of the old rigging on board the brig Polly, Captain Redfield, for which purpose would recommend the bearer, Mr. Degrashe, who we think very capable. Mr. Ivers being willing to serve the cause, will either sell his tools he has here, or let them on reasonable terms. Captain Anthony Rutgers can give you Mr. Degrashe's character as a ropemaker. As the season is so favourable, we should be glad of your answer by first opportunity, that Mr. Degrashe may go to work if you approve of him.

We expect the stuff for the gun carriages soon; and as we must have the dimensions of the guns before the carriages can be made, should be glad to know where the guns are, and whether it would not be prudent to send a person to take measure of them.

There will be wanted a number of stores to fit the ships for sea. Would submit it to your honourable House whether it would not be prudent to appoint Captain Anthony Rutgers to assist in providing them. Agreeable to your desire, we have appointed Mr. Stephen Hendricks of this place to take care of the stores. Should be glad you would let us know whether we shall agree with him, as you stipulate his wages, to go to the yard once a day.

I am, with great esteem, gentlemen, your very humble servant,

SAMUEL TUDER.

Orders to March Troops to New Jersey.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 377.]

Dec. 10th 1776.

SIR: You are to assemble the Militia of your Brigade as soon as possible at Chester in the County of Orange & to march them from thence into this State of New Jersey if it can be done consistent with the security of the passes through the Highlands, which you are on no consideration ever to put it out of your power to regain. You are either to join Genl Lee or Gates if they should command separate bodies in New Jersey to hang on the Enemy's rear provided they are now or shall continue to be in such places as will enable you to do it without endangering the loss of the above passes, the regaining of which you are ever to have in view. If neither of those Genls should command such separate bodies or be in such a Situation as will enable you to join them consistent with the safety of those passes—or should after you have joined them or either of them make such a movement as will leave this state exposed you are then to form a separate Corps, & to co-operate with them as far as lays in your power in distressing the Enemy & raising & collecting the well affected & curbing & overawing the disaffected subjects of the State of New Jersey & to concur in every other measure with them which may in your opinion contribute to the Genl welfare of America without at any time losing sight of the necessity of keeping open your retreat to the above passes in the High Lands.

FISHKILL, 11th Dec<sup>r</sup> 1776.

SIR: The Convention of the State of New York alarmed at the rapid progress of the enemy & not without apprehension for the safety of Philadelphia & New Jersey waited with anxiety for directions from the Hon<sup>l</sup> the Congress or requisitions from his Excellency Gn<sup>l</sup> Washington, which having not yet been happy enough to receive owing as they imagine either to the confusion occasioned by the retreat of our Army or the little hopes that was entertained of any assistance from a State which had sustained so many & such severe losses — They therefore venture to pass the enclosed resolution which appeared to them the most likely means to rouse the depressed spirits of the Militia of New Jersey, to Curb the disaffected — & divert the attention of the enemy from their principal object, as far as is consistent with the safety of this State, on which in a great manner depends that of all America & to the attack of which the enemy will most undoubtedly return if their designs are frustrated in New Jersey. These they hope will meet with the approbation of Congress — They some time since represented to the Hon<sup>l</sup> the Congress, the impossibility of finding Clothing for their troops raised within this State, owing to the enemy possessing their only Sea port, & a variety of other causes stated in a letter to their delegates of the last. A prayer that orders might be issued to supply them from the Continental Stores. this request they take the liberty to repeat, otherwise the new levies which they are daily raising must become useless and be unable to sustain a Winters Campaign, which in all probability they will be called upon to undergo. As much Cloathing has been purchased in the Eastern States they cannot but hope that sufficient supplies to cloath at least 2000 troops be immediately sent to this place, which in order to prevent delays the Convention will undertake to get made up and distributed if none that is already made can be procured.

I have the honor to be with the utmost respect Yours &

Information Concerning a Flag of Truce.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 409.]

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY FOR THE STATE OF NEW YORK, }
FISHKILL, Dec. 11th 1776. }

Whereas Information has this day been given to this committee that it is probable that under Cover of the Flag of Truce on Board of which the Wives of Messrs. Inglis, Livingston & Moore with the Families & Effects of their Husbands are to be conveyed from New Windsor by Mr. Tho<sup>s</sup> E. Uptons Sloop—property to a considerable Value belonging to other persons within this State may be conveyed in the said Sloop.

Resolved, therefore, that Major Fish & the Committe at New Windsor shall & are hereby authorized to take such ways & means for preventing such Conveyance of such property as Aforesaid as they or the majority of them shall think proper.

Report on the Letters of Charles Inglis and Others.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 417.]

Your Committe appointed on the 11th instant to consider the letters brought by the flag of Truce for the purpose of procuring liberty for sundry persons to go with their effects to New York, having deliberately considered the above several matters committed to them, Do report thereon in as follows, to wit:

1 With respect to the application of John Moore your committe is well informed that he demeaned himself in New York ever since the commencement of the present controversy as an insolent opponent to the American cause, that he held appointments under the Crown of Great Britian, in the Departments of the Customs & Revenue & your Committee have no doubt that in adherence to the Enemies of the United States he still holds those appointments; and that he is publicly advertised as your committee is credibly informed as being Deputy Secretary of the State of New York appointed by authority derived from the King of Great Britian, to officiate in that Office during the absence of Samuel Bayard jun who was formerly Deputy Secretary of this State & is now a State Prisoner.

2 That with respect to the Reverend Charles Inglis your committee has the utmost reason to believe that he has ever been a dangerous & insidious enemy to the Liberties of the United States & that he was strongly disposed to adhere to their enemies, otherwise he would doubtless have removed into Ulster Co., where his Connections by Marriage would have rendered his residence with his family much more agreeable than at New York, and which he probably would have preferred had not his attachment to the unjust designs of the King & Parliament of Great Britian overbalanced all other considerations. That your committee have been credibly informed that through his connections in Ulster County he has maintained a dangerous correspondence with the Disaffected in that part of this State, & that he has been lately in Dutchess County for no other purpose as your committee conceive than to invigorate the seeds of Disloyalty to this & the other United States which have been so plentifully disseminated in that County—& that to finish his political character your committee is well informed that under the sacred protection of a Flag of Truce he is now possessed of a great number of copies of the late proclamation of Lord Howe & General Howe calculated to debauch the subjects of the United States from their most just & righteous allegiance, & which your committee conceives he would not have brought with him under that protection, but for the purpose of dispersing them by his agents through the country.

3<sup>dly</sup> With respect to the application of Philip I. Livingston your committee report that he has been sheriff of the County of Dutchess, which office has from its nature given him great influence in the County, that while he resided in it he committed sundry overt acts of disloyalty to this & the other United States & not only fled from a sense of Guilt, but voluntarily put himself into the hands of the Enemy.

4<sup>thly</sup> With respect to the application of James Jauncey, Jun., Esq., Your committee do report that he lately was & doubtless still claims to be one of the Council & Master of the Roils under the late Gov<sup>r</sup> of the State of New York & was apprehended & conveyed into the State of Connecticut as a Prisoner not only on acct of his holding those Offices, but also on acct of his connections by marriage with Sir Gilbert Elliott, a member of Parliament active against the libertys of America & one of the Cabinet as well as of the privy council of the King of Great Britian.

5<sup>thly</sup> that with respect to his father no application being personally made by him it would in the judgement of your Committee be a depreciation of the honor of this Convention to take any notice of the application of his son in his Behalf.

6<sup>thly</sup> That with respect to Frederick Phillips your Committee are well informed that has exerted himself in promoting an association in West Chester County highly injurious to the American Cause, that his great estate in that County has necessarily created a vast number of dependents on his pleasure & that your Committee verily believe that the Shameful Defection of the Inhabitants of that County is in a great measure owing to his Influence.

7<sup>thly</sup> With respect to Jacob Watson your Committee or some of them know him to be a Briton born, a quaker by profession & in principle inclined to submit to the British Government. That his Religious profession has exempted him from all services in this State, by which means he has had ample leisure & opportunity to pursue his private interest, which they have been informed he has industriously improved by monopolizing large quantities of Salt & other articles of merchandize the distribution of which by sale in small quantities in due season would have tended much to the Health & Happiness not only of the Continental Army but also of the loyal Inhabitants of this State. That from his two letters the one to Daniel Terboss & the other to Daniel Birdsell referred to your Committee It appears as follows that he had deposited in the hands of the former a quantity of salt which he had forbade him to sell, intending to apply it in the Package of Pork, but that since understanding the Salt was much wanted, he directs him to dispose of it for Pork, Flax Seed, or good Firkin Butter & that if the Salt should already be disposed of his consignatory should lay out the money in Flax Seed, & it also appears that he has deposited in the hands of his other consignatory Birdsell not only a quantity of Salt, but also a quantity of Molasses which expecting they will be much wanted in Birdsalls neighbourhood he directs him to sell & lay out the money in Flax Seed, or Good Firkin Butter, & further that if any of the Salt or Molasses should be already sold to lay out the money in those Articles, from all which it appears to your Committee that while the said Jacob Watson Voluntarily lives under the protection of a Government inimical to this & the other United States, he is pursuing a commerce unfriendly to the Inhabitants of this State & in its prosecution dangerous to the liberties of America, as it affords the means of a communication which may be improved by the Enemies of the American Cause to the injury of the United States. That your Committee has been further informed that the said Jacob Watson is possessed of large quantities of Salt in the County of Albany & that the Inhabitants of this State are very much distressed by the want of Salt & Molasses.

8<sup>thly</sup> With respect to the case of Mrs Jane Knox, as she is a widow enjoying no great affluence your Committee conceives that tho' she has evinced her attachment to them by Voluntarily remaining in New York when she had it in her power to remove herself with her Effects into the Country yet that she cannot do mischief to the American Cause.

9<sup>thly</sup> That the case of Lady Johnson merits in the opinion of your Committee a particular attention, they are informed that she is a lady of Great art<sup>ce</sup> & Political Intrigue, of great firmness of mind & most warmly attached to that interest which is inimical to the Freedom & Independence of the American States & has in your committees opinion done great Mischief by her address to the American Cause; that her Situation at Albany renders the communication between herself & her Husband who has by a breach of his parole, forfeited both his honor & Estate, extremely easy & therefore dangerous to the publick Safety.

Your committee having thus stated the political Character of the several persons whose cases have been submitted to their Consideration beg leave to advise.

1. That the Applications of John Moore, the Rev Charles Inglis & Philip J. Livingston be rejected not only because they conceive it would be dangerous to permit them to pass up into the Country; but because a permission to their Families to go to New York with their Effects and besides furnishing a dangerous Channel of Intelligence, prove an incentive to Rebellion & be an act of direct Aid & Comfort to the Enemies of the Freedom & Independence of the United States of North America.

2<sup>dy</sup> With respect to the application of James Jauncy and Frederick Phillips your committee beg leave to advise, that a permission to the former to go to New York would imply the consent of this Convention to his exercise of two most important offices under a Government which on acct of its tyranny the good people of this State have thought proper to reject; and that a like indulgence to the latter who requests liberty to return to his Family at Philipsburgh, would put it in the power of a professed Enemy of the American cause not only further to disaffect the inhabitants of West Chester County, but to put many of them in Arms against the United States of North America.

3<sup>dy</sup> With respect to Jacob Watson your Committee are of Opinion that independent of his personal Attachment to that Govmt which the enemies of American Liberty aim at establishing over us, discovered by his voluntary continuance among the Enemy his commercial scheme in which he may have monopolized at least two necessary articles of Consumption, and his intention to dispose of them at High prices not for Continental money; but for articles either fit for exportation under the Countenance of the Enemy or for their Consumption recommend his case to the particular attention of this Convention, not only on acct of a dangerous intercourse that may be maintained thro a mercantile channel, but from the evident proofs of his intending to exact high prices for the most necessary articles & his clear intention to maintain a Commerce prejudicial to the American States. Your Committe do therefore advise that proper Commissioners be appointed to seize such commodities within this State as belong to the said Jacob Watson as may be necessary either for the Consumption of its Inhabitants or the use of the Continental Army & to inventory, report & detain the same subject to the order of this Convention.

4<sup>thly</sup> with Respect to Mrs Jane Knox your committee beg leave to recommend that her Effects may by permission of this Convention be conveyed to her by the vessell provided with a flag of truce now lying at Cortlandts Point under the command of the Continental — Gally; but that previous to their embarkation proper persons may be appointed carefully to inspect the same to the end that no dangerous intelligence may be secretly conveyed in any of the packages.

5<sup>thly</sup> Your committee further report it as their opinion that all the applications above committed to them, whether consisting of Letters or Memorial except the case of Jane Knox be rejected & that the Flag of Truce & the persons who came up with the same & are now protected thereby be immediately ordered to return in the most direct manner to the City of New York & that Major Genl Heath or the Officer Commanding in his absence at Peek Kill be furnished with a copy of as many of the Resolves of this Convention on the above subject as respects the matter referred by Major Genl Heath to the consideration of this Convention & be requested to attend to the return of the said Flag of Truce in such manner as if possible to prevent the communication of any person on Board with others on the Land.

6<sup>thly</sup> and Lastly. Your Committe being fully of opinion that the Residence of Lady Johnson at Albany under the above mentioned Circumstances may be highly detrimental to the American Cause & that a permission to her to return Home will be equally if not more injurious to it—do therefore earnestly recommend her immediate removal to one of the New England States under such circumstances as may be consistent with her rank and her Sex.

By order of the Committee,

FISH KILLS, Dec 13th 1776.

New York Convention to General Washington.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 395.]

SIR: I am directed by the Convention of the State of New York to inform your Excellency that they have received an application from the wife of the reverend Charles Inglis for Leave to join her Husband now in the city of New York.* The Convention are much distressed to feel themselves by the Detention of Mrs. Lewis reduced to the unhappy necessity of refusing this reasonable Request. Ever determined to meet our Foes in the direct Line of opposition all the gentler Feelings of Humanity must give way to the forcible Claims of Duty, yet must we regret as men the Complicated Horrors of a war which accumulates private with Public Calamities & as Christians every unnecessary Infraction of those Solemn Bands which the God of Nature hath tied & forbidden us to unloose. We are sorry to trouble your Excellency on this occasion, & hope that for the future Women on both sides may be permitted to join their Husbands untill by some new Law of Nations it may be thought proper to establish a female Cartel.

We are with profound respect, &c.

SIR: The Congress having done me the Honor of appointing me Commissary of Cloathing for the Northern Army, it is therefore my duty to send for your Government a return of Cloathing wanting for the troops in this department. But as I have not the detail of the troops each State will Furnish for this department in the spring, I cannot at present furnish you with a particular return of the Cloathing wanted from your State nor have I been able to Complete the Regulation of this office and Cloath the Troops wintering here so as to return to Albany to make a general Return of all the Northern department, therefore fearing such delays should be Injurious to the Public service I send you the Inclosed Return for this particular post, that your Government may have Time to provide the Cloathing for their troops to be ordered to the Northern department and regulate the same with regard to numbers agreeable to the Inclosed return.

FORT CONSTITUTION, Dec. 16th 1776.

At a Regimental Court Martial held this day, Capt Barnardus Swartwout, President, Lieut. Chas Platt, Lieut. Nathl Potter, Do Jacob Horton, Do Simeon Lefevre. Peter Harris Soldier of Capt Israel Neuss Company Col Jacobus Swartwouts Regiment being brought before this Court & Charged with Desertion & threatening violence to his Capt & others—The Prisoner confesses the charge and owns himself guilty & prays the mercy of this Court—This Court are of Opinion that Peter Harris be guilty of Desertion & abuse in the grocest manner and think the most proper step they can take with him is to recommend him to the Convention for their Determination & Likewise to send a true state of his Crime which is as follows he being a Vollinteer & having deserted twice & takeing the full bounty & never done one months service and behaved himself otherwise very bad & now threatening Violence to them who offered to apprehend him swearing he would be revenged as soon as he was Discharged.

BARNARDUS SWARTWOUT, Capt.

Certificate to Exempt Mr Seaden.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 411.]

I hereby certify that the Bearer hereof, Robert Carseaden, is an excellent workman at Spinning Wheel making, & that he & his Son is constantly & most necessarily employed in that Business. The former resourse to New York and Long Island being now cut off & the many good Crops of Flax in this Country Causes the Calls for Wheels very great and besides the call from the Country Mr. Seaden informs me that he is employed by an Agent from the Convention of this State to make a number for them. He therefore thinks his Son who is now ordered to march with the rest of the Militia, can be of more real service to the Country in staying at home & continuing at the business of Wheel Making. I am als of his opinion, for in case he goes into the Service their Wheel Making business must cease. As Mr. Seaden has a large Family it commonly takes up the greatest part of one mans time at the Business outdoors. I therefore think for the good of the Country that Mr. Seadens Son should be excused.

Petition of Inhabitants of Westchester County.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY, December 23, 1776.

We, the Subscribers, inhabitants of the County of Westchester, and members of the General Committee for said county, do for ourselves and our suffering brethren, beg leave to lay before the honourable Convention the distressed situation they are at present in, praying that the Convention will take this important matter into their immediate consideration, and grant the good inhabitants of said County such relief as they in their wisdom may think expedient, and the necessity of the case required.

First, that the inhabitants of said County are in continual danger of being made prisoners, and their farms and habitations plundered by Robert Rogers' party, consisting of about seven hundred men, who daily make excursions in divers parts of said County, and taking with them by force of arms many of its good inhabitants, also their stock, grain, and every thing else that falls in their way, laying waste and destroying all that they cannot take with them, whereby the friends to this State who reside in this quarter, are deprived of the necessaries of life.

Secondly, that we did apply to Colonel Budd, desiring him to raise the Militia for our relief, who replied that as most of the well-affected and able part of the Militia were in the service, it was impossible for him to raise such a number of men as the nature of our request required.

Thirdly, that although there were two brigades quartered in said County, they did not (although not unacquainted with our distress) afford us any relief or assistance, and that we did apply to General Spencer (then stationed near the White Plains), praying him to assist us, but we never received any answer to our request. He, in a few days after, removed from that place to North Castle Church, leaving us entirely exposed to the ravages and cruelties of the enemy; that we are well informed, on General Spencer's being asked why he retreated so far back, he replied that he thought us not worth defending. And General Wooster, who is now stationed at the Saw-Pitts, in the eastern part of the County, affords us no assistance; and we have been informed that some of his officers should have said that they would not defend the State, and if the enemy should make their appearance, they would retreat to the borders of Connecticut, and there make a stand. We would further inform your honourable House, that many of the Eastern troops, while in our country, instead of protecting its inhabitants from the enemy, did plunder and distress them more than the very enemy themselves, taking off with them our stock, household furniture, and even our farming utensils. From this alone, gentlemen, it must clearly appear to you, that we cannot expect any relief from that quarter.

From the above relation of facts, and many other circumstances that you are not unacquainted with, we make no doubt will induce you without delay to give us such relief as our much-distressed country now loudly calls for. We rely upon you, gentlemen, for assistance. Our lives and every thing near and dear to us depends on you for their preservation.

[American Archives, 5th series, 3: 1382.]

At this most important period, when the freedom and happiness, or the slavery and misery, of the present and future generations of Americans, is to be determined on, a solemn appeal to the Supreme Ruler of all events—to whom every individual must one day answer for the part he now acts—it becomes the duty of the Representatives of a free people to call their attention to this most serious subject, and the more so at a time when their enemies are industriously endeavoring to delude, intimidate and seduce them by false suggestions, artful misrepresentations and insidious promises of protection.

You and all men were created free, and authorized to establish civil government, for the preservation of your rights against oppression, and the security of that freedom which God hath given you, against the rapacious hand of tyranny and lawless power. It is, therefore, not only necessary to the well-being of society, but the duty of every man, to oppose and repel all those, by whatever name or title distinguished, who prostitute the powers of Government to destroy the happiness and freedom of the people over whom they may be appointed to rule.

Under the auspices and direction of Divine Providence, your forefathers removed to the wilds and wilderness of America. By their industry they made it a fruitful, and by their virtue, a happy country. And we should still have enjoyed the blessings of peace and plenty, if we had not forgotten the source from which those blessings flowed, and permitted our country to be contaminated by the many shameful vices which have prevailed among us.

It is a well known truth, that no virtuous people were ever oppressed; and it is also true that a scourge was never wanting for those of an opposite character. Even the Jews, those favorites of Heaven, met with the frowns, whenever they forgot the smiles of their benevolent Creator. By tyrants of Egypt, of Babylon, of Syria, and of Rome, they were severely chastised. And those tyrants themselves, when they had executed the vengeance of Almighty God, their own crimes bursting on their own heads, received the rewards justly due to their violation of the sacred rights of mankind.

You were born equally free with the Jews, and have as good a right to be exempted from the arbitrary domination of Great Britain as they had from the invasions of Egypt, Babylon, Syria or Rome. But they, for their wickedness, were permitted to be scourged by the latter, and we, for our wickedness, are scourged by tyrants, as cruel and implacable as those.

Our case, however, is peculiarly distinguished from theirs. Their enemies were strangers, unenlightened, and bound to them by no ties of gratitude or consanguinity. Our enemies, on the contrary, are themselves Christians. They are of a nation and people bound to us by the strongest ties—a people by whose sides we have fought and bled, whose power we have contributed to raise, who owe much of their wealth to our industry, and whose grandeur has been augmented by our exertions.

It is unnecessary to remind you that, during the space of between one and two hundred years, every man sat under his own vine and his own fig-tree, and there was none to make him afraid. That the people of Britain never claimed a right to dispose of us, and every thing belonging to us, according to their will and pleasure, until the reign of the present King of that Island. And that, to enforce this abominable claim, they have invaded our country by sea and by land. From this extravagant and iniquitous claim, and from the unreasonable as well as cruel manner in which they would gain our submission, it seems as though Providence were determined to use them as instruments to punish the guilt of this country, and bring us back to a sense of duty to our Creator.

You may remember that, to obtain redress of the many grievances to which the King and Parliament of Great Britain had subjected you, the most dutiful petitions were presented, not only by the several Assemblies, but by the Representatives of all America, in General Congress. And you cannot have forgot with what contempt they were neglected. Nay, the humblest of all petitions, praying only to be heard, was answered by the sound of the trumpet and clashing of arms. This, however, is not the only occasion on which the hearts of Kings have been hardened; and in all probability it will add to the number of those instances in which their oppression, injustice and hardness of heart have worked their destruction.

Bound by the strongest obligations to defend the inheritance which God hath given us, to Him we referred our cause, and opposed the assaults of our taskmasters, being determined rather to die free than slaves, and entail bondage on our children.

By our vigorous efforts, and by the goodness of Divine Providence, those cruel invaders were driven from our country in the last campaign. We then flattered ourselves that the signal success of our arms, and the unanimity and spirit of our people, would have induced our foes to desist from the prosecution of their wicked designs, and disposed their hearts to peace. But peace we had not yet deserved. Exultation took place of thanksgiving, and we ascribed that to our own powers which was only to be attributed to the great guardian of the innocent.

The enemy with greater strength again invade us—invade us not less by their arts than their arms. They tell you that if you submit you shall have protection; that their King breathes nothing but peace; that he will revise (not repeal) all his cruel acts and instructions, and will receive you into favour. But what are the terms on which you are promised peace? Have you heard of any except absolute, unconditional obedience and servile submission? If his professions are honest—if he means not to cajole and deceive you—why are you not explicitly informed of the terms, and whether the Parliament mean to tax you hereafter at their will and pleasure? Upon this and the like points, these Military Commissioners of peace are silent; and, indeed, are not authorized to say a word, unless a power to grant pardon implies a power to adjust claims and secure privileges, or unless the bare possession of life is the only privilege which Americans are to enjoy. For a power to grant pardon is the only one which their Parliament or Prince have thought proper to give them. And yet they speak of peace. But they hold daggers in their hands. They invite you to accept of blessings, and stain your habitations with blood. Their voice resembles the voice of Jacob, but their hands are like the hands of Esau.

If their Sovereign intends to repeal any of the acts we complain of, why are they not especially named? If he designs you shall be free, why does he not promise that the claims of his Parliament, to bind you in all cases whatsoever, shall be given up and relinquished? If a reasonable peace was intended, why did he not empower his Commissioners to treat with the Congress, or with Deputies from all the Assemblies; or why was not some other mode devised, in which America might be heard? Is it not highly ridiculous for them to pretend that they are authorized to treat of a peace between Britain and America, with every man they meet? Was such a treaty ever heard of before? Is such an instance to be met with in the history of mankind? No! The truth is, peace is not meant; and the specious pretences and proclamations, are calculated only to disunite and deceive.

If the King of Britain really desires peace, why did he order all your vessels to be seized and confiscated? Why did he most cruelly command that the men found on board such vessels, should be added to the crews of his ships of war, and compelled to fight against their own countrymen; to spill the blood of their neighbors and friends, nay, of their fathers, their brothers and children? And all this before his pretended ambassadors of peace had arrived on our shores. Does any history, sacred or profane, record any thing more impious, more horrible, more execrably wicked, tyrannical or devilish? If there be one single idea of peace in his mind, why does he order your cities to be burnt, your country desolated, your brethren to starve and languish and die in prisons? If any thing was intended besides destruction, devastation, and bloodshed, why are the mercenaries of Germany transported near four thousand miles, to plunder your houses, to ravish your wives and daughters, to strip your infant children, to expose whole families naked, miserable, and forlorn, to want, to hunger, to inclement skies, and wretched deaths? If peace were not totally reprobated by him, why are those pusillanimous, deluded, servile wretches among you, who for present ease or impious bribes, would sell their liberty, their children, and their souls; who, like savages, worship every devil who promises not to hurt them, or obey any mandates however cruel, for which they are paid;—how is it that these sordid, degenerate creatures, who bow the knee to this King, and daily offer incense at his shrine, should be denied the peace so repeatedly promised them? Why are they indiscriminately abused, robbed, and plundered, with their more deserving neighbours? But in this world as in the other, it is right and just that the wicked should be punished by their seducers.

In a word, if peace was the desire of your enemies, and humanity their object, why do they thus trample under foot every right and every duty, human and divine? Why, like the demons of old, is their wrath to be expiated only by human sacrifices? Why do they excite the savages of the wilderness to murder our inhabitants, and exercise cruelties unheard of among civilized nations? No regard for religion or virtue remains among them. Your very churches bear witness of their iniquity; your churches are used without hesitation as jails, as stables, and as houses of sport and theatrical exhibitions. What faith, what trust, what confidence, can you repose in these men, who are deaf to the call of humanity, dead to every sentiment of religion, and void of all regard for the temple of the Lord of Hosts?

And why all this desolation, bloodshed, and unparalleled cruelty? They tell you to reduce you to obedience. Obedience to what? To their sovereign will and pleasure! And what then? Why then you shall be pardoned because you consent to be slaves. And why should you be slaves now, having been freemen ever since this country was settled? Because, forsooth, the King and Parliament of an island three thousand miles off, choose that you should be hewers of wood and drawers of water for them. And is this the people whose proud domination you are taught to solicit? Is this the peace which some of you so ardently desire? For shame! for shame!

But you are told that their armies are numerous, that their fleet strong, their soldiers valiant, their resources great; that you will be conquered; that victory ever attends their standard; and therefore that your opposition is vain—your resistance fruitless. What then? You can but be slaves at last, if you should think life worth holding on so base a tenure.

But who is it that gives victory? By whom is a nation exalted? Since what period hath the race been always to the swift, and the battle to the strong? Can you be persuaded that the merciful King of kings hath surrendered His crown and sceptre to the merciless tyrant of Britain, and committed the affairs of this lower world to his guidance, control, and direction? We learned otherwise from our fathers; and God himself hath told us, that strength and numbers avail not against Him. Seek, then, to be at peace with Him; solicit His alliance, and fear not the boasted strength and power of your foes.

You may be told that your forts have been taken, your country ravaged, and that your armies have retreated, and therefore that God is not with you. It is true that some forts have been taken, that our country hath been ravaged, and that our Maker is displeased with us. But it is also true that the King of Heaven is not like the King of Britain, implacable. If His assistance be sincerely implored, it will surely be obtained. If we turn from our sins, He will turn from His anger—Then will our arms be crowned with success, and the pride and power of our enemies, like the arrogance and pride of Nebuchadnezzar, will vanish away. Let us do our duty, and victory will be our reward. Let a general reformation of manners take place; let no more widows and orphans, compelled to fly from their peaceful abodes, complain that you make a market of their distress, and take cruel advantage of their necessities; when your country is invaded and cries aloud for your aid, fly not to some secure corner of a neighboring State, and remain idle spectators of her distress, but share in her fate, and manfully support her cause; let universal charity, publick spirit, and private virtue, be inculcated, encouraged, and practised; unite in preparing for a vigorous defence of your country, as if all depended on your own exertions; and when you have done these things, then rely upon the good Providence of Almighty God for success, in full confidence, that without His blessing all our efforts will eventually fail.

A people moving on these solid principles never have, and never will be, subjugated by any tyrant whatever. Cease, then, to desire the flesh-pots of Egypt, and remember their task-masters and oppressions. No longer hesitate about rejecting all dependence on a King, who will rule you only with a rod of iron. Tell those who blame you for declaring yourselves independent, that you have done no more than what your late King had done for you. That he declared you to be out of his protection. That he absolved you from all allegiance—That he made war upon you, and instead of your King, he became your enemy and destroyer. By his consent, by his own act, you became independent of his Crown. If you are wise, you will always continue so. Freedom is now in your power. Value the heavenly gift. Remember, if you dare to neglect or despise it, you offer an insult to the Divine Bestower. Nor despair of keeping it. Despair and despondency mark a little mind, and indicate a groveling spirit. After the armies of Rome had been repeatedly defeated by Hannibal, that Imperial City was besieged by this brave and experienced General, at the head of a numerous and victorious army. But so far was her glorious citizens from being dismayed by the loss of so many battles, and of all of their country, so confident in their own virtues and the protection of Heaven, that the very land on which the Carthagenians were encamped was sold at publick auction for more than the usual price. Those heroick citizens disdained to receive his protections or to regard his proclamations. They remembered that their ancestors had left them free—ancestors who had bled in rescuing their country from the tyranny of Kings. They invoked the protection of the Supreme Being. They bravely defended their city with undaunted resolution; they repelled the enemy, and recovered their country. Blush, then, ye degenerate spirits, who give all over for lost, because your enemies have marched through three or four Counties in this and a neighboring State—ye who basely fly, to have the yoke of slavery fixed upon your necks, and to swear that you and your children after you shall be slaves forever! Such men deserve to be slaves, and are fit only for beasts of burden to the rest of mankind. Happy would it be for America if they were removed away, instead of continuing in this country, to people it with a race of animals who, from their form, must be classed among the human species, but possess none of those qualities which render man more respectable than the brutes.

There never yet was a war in which victory and success did not sometimes change sides. In the present nothing has happened either singular or decisive. Inquire dispassionately, and be not deceived by those artful tales which emissaries from the enemy so industriously circulate.

A powerful and well-disciplined army, supported by a respectable fleet, invade this country. They are opposed by an army which, though numerous and brave, is quite undisciplined. Notwithstanding this manifest disparity, they have never thought it prudent to give us battle, though they have often had the fairest opportunities. True it is, that taking advantage of that critical moment when our forces are almost disbanded, they have penetrated into Jersey, and marched a considerable distance without being attacked. If any are alarmed at this circumstance, let them consider that we do not fight for a few acres of land, but for freedom—for the freedom and happiness of millions yet unborn. Would it not be highly imprudent to risk such important events upon the issue of a general battle, when it is certain Great Britain cannot long continue the war, and by protracting it we cannot fail of success? The British Ministry, sensible of this truth, and convinced that the people of England are aware of it, have promised that the present campaign shall be the last. They are greatly and justly alarmed at their situation. A country drained of men and money, the difficulties of supplying fleets and armies at so great a distance, the dangers of domestick insurrections, the probability that France will take advantage of their defenceless condition, the ruin of their commerce by our privateers—these are circumstances at which the boldest are dismayed. They are convinced that the people will not remain long content in such a dangerous situation; hence it is that they press so hard to make this campaign decisive; and hence it is that we should endeavour to avoid it. Even suppose that Philadelphia, which may be believed to be of such great importance, suppose it was taken or abandoned, the conquest of America will still be at a great distance. Millions, determined to be free, still remain to be subdued—millions who disdain to part with their liberties, their consciences, and the happiness of their posterity in future ages, for infamous protections and dishonourable pardons.

But amidst all the terror and dismay which have taken hold upon some weak minds, let us consider the advantage under which we prosecute the present war. Our country supplies us with every commodity which is necessary for life or defence. Arms and ammunition are now abundantly manufactured in almost all the American States, and our armies will be abundantly supplied with all military stores. We have more fighting men in America than Britain can possibly send. Our trade is free, and every port of France and Spain affords protection to our ships. Other nations, invited by the advantages of the commerce, will doubtless soon follow their example; and experience must convince the most incredulous that the British navy cannot exclude us from the sea. If their armies have invaded, ravaged, and plundered our dominions and our people, have we not successfully attacked them on their boasted empire of the ocean? Have not our privateers brought into our ports of America British property to the amount of more than fifteen hundred thousand pounds? And do we not daily receive the most valuable cargoes from foreign countries, in spite of those fleets whose colours have waved in triumph over the globe? The article of salt, about which some of you have been uneasy, will soon be fully supplied. The shores of America are washed by the ocean for more than two thousand miles. Works for manufacturing salt have been erected and proved successful, and many cargoes of it are expected, and have arrived in the neighbouring States. Provisions of every kind abound among us. From our plenteous stores Great Britain hath heretofore supplied her necessities, though she now most wantonly and ungratefully abuses the kind hand which hath ministered to her wants and alleviated her distress. As to clothing, the rapid increase of our manufacturers, and the supplies we obtain from abroad, quiet all fears upon that subject.

By the most authentick intelligence from Europe, we are informed that the people of France are ripe for a war with Britain, and will not omit the present opportunity of extending their commerce and humbling their rival. Every State in Europe beheld with a jealous eye the growing power of the British empire, and the additional strength she daily received from this amazing Continent; for they could not but perceive that their own security was diminished in proportion as her power to injure them increased. Whence is it, then, that some persons pretend to assure you that France, Spain, and the other European States, are not disposed to favour you? The wise and virtuous of all nations have pronounced our cause to be just, and approved the manner in which our resistance hath been conducted.

Whoever, therefore, considers the natural strength and advantage of this country, the distance it is removed from Britain, the obvious policy of many European Powers, the great supplies of arms and ammunition cheerfully offered us by the French and Spaniards, and the feeble and destitute condition of Britain, — that she is drained of men and money, obliged to hire foreign mercenaries for the execution of her wicked purposes; in arrears to her troops for a twelvemonth's pay, which she cannot or will not discharge; her credit sunk; her trade ruined; her inhabitants divided; her King unpopular and her Ministers execrated; that she is overwhelmed with a monstrous debt, cut off from the vast revenue heretofore obtained by taxes on American produce; her West-India Islands in a starving condition; her ships taken; her merchants involved in bankruptcy; her designs against us wicked, unjust, cruel, contrary to the laws of God and man, pursued with implacable, unrelenting vengeance, and in a manner barbarous and opposed to the usage of civilized nations; — whoever considers that we have humbly sought peace and been refused; that we have been denied even a hearing; all our petitions rejected; all our remonstrances disregarded; that we fight not for conquest but only for security; that our cause is the cause of God, of human nature and posterity; — whoever, we say, seriously considers these things, must entertain very improper ideas of the Divine justice to which we have appealed, and be very little acquainted with the course of human affairs, to harbour the smallest doubt of our being successful.

Remember the long and glorious struggle of the United Netherlands against the power of Spain, to which they had once been subjected. Their extent was small, their country poor, their people far from numerous, and unaccustomed to arms, and in the neighborhood of their enemies Spain, at that time the most powerful kingdom in Europe, her fleet formidable, her armies great, inured to war, and led by the best Generals of the age, and her Treasury overflowing with the wealth of Mexico and Peru — endeavoured to enslave them. They dutifully remonstrated against the design. Their petitions were treated with contempt, and fire and sword was carried into their country to compel submission. They nobly resolved to be free. They declared themselves to be independent States, and after an obstinate struggle, frustrated the wicked intentions of Spain.

Switzerland presents us with another instance of magnanimity. That country was oppressed by cruel tyrants, but the people refused to continue in bondage. With arms in their hands they expelled those tyrants, and left to their descendants the portion of freedom.

Even England, whose Genius now blushes for the degeneracy of her sons, hath afforded examples of opposition to tyranny which are worthy to be imitated by all nations. His sacred Majesty Charles the First, lost his head and his Crown by attempting to enslave his subjects; and His sacred Majesty James the Second, was for the same reason expelled the Kingdom, with his whole family, and the Prince of Orange chosen King in his stead. The English were too wise to believe that the person of any tyrant could be sacred, and never suffered any man to wear the Crown who attempted to exercise the powers of royalty to the destruction of the people from whom those powers were derived.

This practice is not only consistent with human reason, but perfectly consonant to the will and practice of God himself. You know that the Jews were under his peculiar direction, and you need not be informed of the many instances in which he took the crown from such of their Kings as refused to govern according to the laws of the Jews.

If, then, God hath given us freedom, are we responsible to him for that as well as other talents? If it be our birthright, let us not sell it for a mess of pottage, nor suffer it to be torn from us by the hand of violence! If the means of defence are in our power and we do not make use of them, what excuse shall we make to our children and our Creator? These are questions of the deepest concern to us all. These are questions which materially affect our happiness, not only in this world but in the world to come. And surely, "if ever a test for the trial of spirits can be necessary, it is now. If ever those of liberty and faction ought to be distinguished from each other, it is now. If ever it is incumbent on the people to know truth and to follow it, it is now."

Rouse, therefore, brave Citizens! Do your duty like men! and be persuaded that Divine Providence will not permit this Western World to be involved in the horrors of slavery. Consider that from the earliest ages of the world, Religion, Liberty and Empire, have been bounding their course towards the setting sun. The Holy Gospels are yet to be preached to those Western regions, and we have the highest reason to believe that the Almighty will not suffer Slavery and the Gospel to go hand in hand. It can not, it will not be.

But if there be any among us dead to all sense of honour and love of their country; if deaf to all the calls of liberty, virtue, and religion; if forgetful of the magnanimity of their ancestors, and the happiness of their children; if neither the examples and success of other nations, the dictates of reason and of nature, or the great duties they owe to their God, themselves, and their posterity, have any effect upon them; if neither the injuries they have received, the prize they are contending for, the future blessings or curses of their children, the applause or reproach of all mankind, the approbation or displeasure of their Great Judge, or the happiness or misery consequent upon their conduct in this and a future state, can move them, then let them be assured that they deserve to be slaves, and are entitled to nothing but anguish and tribulation. Let them banish from their remembrance the reputation, the freedom and happiness, which they have inherited from their forefathers. Let them forget every duty, human and divine; remember not that they have children; and beware how they call to mind the justice of the Supreme Being. Let them go into captivity like the idolatrous and disobedient Jews, and be a reproach and a by-word among the nations.

But we think better things of you. We believe and are persuaded, that you will do your duty like men, and cheerfully refer your cause to the great and righteous Judge. If success crown your efforts, all the blessings of freedom will be your reward. If you fail in the contest, you will be happy with God and liberty in Heaven.

Report of a Committee to Confer with Col. Trumbull.

[Miscel. Pap. 35 : 351.]

A. M. Dec 24th 1776.

Your Committee appointed to confer with Col Trumbull relative to the want of Provisions at the Forts Montgomery & Constitution and also for the Militia who are now in the service under Genl George Clinton & relative to a plan for the importation of Salt for the States of Connecticut & New York, do report that Coll Trumbull says that the want of Provisions at the Forts Montgomery & Constitution is owing to the Passes in the Highlands not being sufficiently guarded, to justify him in pouring any large quantity of provisions in those forts & that he notwithstanding believes they are well provided by this time, that he is now going to Peekskill & will take care that they are duly supplied. That Col Hay is authorized by him to supply the Militia on the west side of Hudsons River. With regard to the plan for importation of Salt for the State of Connecticut & New York he informs your Committee that he is authorized by the general Congress to import a quantity for the use of the Army & that he has laid a plan with the State of Connecticut to send out a number of Vessels for that purpose, one half of each adventure to be on acct of the general Congress & the other half on the acct of the State of Connecticut, that several vessels are already sailed in the course of last month & others now fitting out, & that if the Convention of New York incline to join in said plan he is willing to interest them into it & divide the Risque into three equal parts between the General Congress the State of Connecticut & the State of New York.

That the vessels so taken in hier are appraised & the value thereof insured to the respective Owners—Your Committee are therefore of opinion that if such plan be entered into by this Convention it will greatly tend to the supplying this State with that necessary article all which is most humbly submitted.

Report of Auditors of Gov. Trumbull's Accounts.

[Miscel. Pap. 35 : 353.]

Dec. 24th 1776, read & agreed to.

Your Committee for auditing accts Reports, that they have examined an acct which was forwarded to this Convention by his excellency Gov Trumbull, amounting to £674 9 0 lawful, equal to £899 5 4, New York Currency, for transporting a number of Inhabitants from Long Island, over to the State of Connecticut with their stock &c, that they find the amount is ascertained by three gentlemen who have been appointed for that purpose by the Committee of New London & Groton and whom Gov Trumbull declares are Gentlemen of Character, that they are therefore of opinion that it be allowed & that the sum of £44 5 lawful money equal to £59 New York Currency as part thereof for service performed by Mr John Field, be paid to himself he is now here, that the remaining balance of £630 4 lawful money equal to £840 5 4 New York Currency be remitted to his Excellency Gov Trumbull for the purpose of discharging said acct. That they have examined another acct also transmitted by Gov Trumbull for service performed by Mr John Vail which the Connecticut Auditors have not thought fit to certify as just & therefore are of Opinion that it be disallowed for the present & that a Letter to the following purport be written to Gov Trumbull to wit—

SIR: Your letter of the 12th inst covering an acct for removing a number of Inhabitants with their Stock &c from Long Island to your State was duly received, the amount of Mr John Fields demand being £44 5 has been paid to himself here agreeable to your request the remaining ballance to wit £630 4 I am directed to transmit to your excellency by the Messenger Benjamin Montanye, and beg the favor you will order it paid to the several persons, to whom it is due—Whenever Mr John Vail transmits his acct properly audited payment will be ordered him.

Committee of Safety to Governor Trumbull.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 433.]

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY FOR THE STATE OF NEW YORK, }
FISH KILL, Dec. 24th 1776. }

SIR: The Convention have directed me to enclose to your Excellency an extract of a Letter from Genl Washington to hint the necessity of securing the passes in the highlands which are in some measure the keys of this State, the importance of which in this controversy is evident from the uniform endeavours of the enemy to possess themselves of it, & the command that it would give them over the Indian Nations. This State has suffered greatly in the course of the war, 5 entier Counties and a Part of the 6th one in possession of the Enemy, much therefore cannot be expected from them, but whatever they can do has & will be done, as they correct the evils arising from short enlistments—they raised upwards of 2,100 men over & above our quota who are to continue in service till the last day of December. Afterwards at the request of Genl Washington they sent down 600 men to garrison the Forts in the highlands whose time of enlistment expired the first day of this month. We have also been frequently under the necessity of calling out a very considerable part of our Militia when the enemy quitted this State & Genl Washingtons army was greatly reduced. Convention thought it expedient to send some into New Jersey, as well to raise the spirits of the Whigs there as to oblige the enemy to weaken this Army by leaving Garrisons behind them. They accordingly sent down near 2000 men under the command of Brigadier Genl Clinton who are still in the field and have been very successful in several skirmishes with the Enemy. These Sir are the exertions we have made, by which you may easily conceive that we are not a little exhausted & harassed. In this situation we are informed that the few troops that were left under the command of Genl Spencer & Heath will be disbanded in a few days and the whole safety of this State and that of America, which in a great measure involves—will be left to our own Militia. We have therefore made a further Draft from them, but Sir they fear that these will be insufficient to guard the passes on the West, & those on the Albany post road on the east side of Hudsons River, if they should be attacked by any considerable force which they have strong reason to believe they will be. The Convention therefore are obliged to call upon Connecticut to defend the passes on the oblong road which are not less the inlets into that state than this and which they have reason to fear will without their assistance be but slightly guarded. They need not urge the necessity of raising your levies with all possible expedition & of keeping in the mean time a body of Militia on foot to guard against the danger of being without an army, since they are fully satisfied that you are apprized of the importance of those measures & that they will be executed with the same spirit which has hitherto so honorably characterized Connecticut.

The convention have directed me to inform your excellency that an act lately passed by your legislature prohibiting the transportation from out of your State of several articles enumerated therein, has given the most serious concern to them as by the Misfortunes of War the Inhabitants of this State are now deprived of a Sea Port. They have no possible means of procuring many of the necessaries of life but from the Eastern States whose commerce is still open. The Convention are satisfied that it could never be your intention to add to their distresses by which they are unavoidably afflicted & therefore doubt not that this evil will be remedied as soon as mentioned.

I am, Sir, with great respect Your most Obedient & Very Hbl Sv<sup>t</sup> By Order.

Committee of Safety to Gen. Washington.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 705.]

A. M. Dec 24th 1776.

SIR: We were honored with your excellency's favor of the 15th and most readily accept your apology for not answering ours of last month, since we are not ignorant of the straits into which our temporary enlistments have thrown you, & have found in the difficulties which your Excellency had to contend with no small addition to those under which we laboured. You will see by the enclosed resolves that we have agreeable to your Excellency's request called out great part of our Militia beside those that are on the west side of Hudson's River under the command of Brigadier General Clinton with a view to supply the place of the Troops who are shortly to leave us—but sir we cannot but help observing that we dare not put too much confidence in our endeavors for reasons that will be explained to your Excellency by Mr Benson the bearer hereof. We have had frequent intimations that the Enemy designed shortly to make a push for this place & some of them so well founded as to convince us that nothing but our being in a proper state of defence will frustrate the design—As the difficulties under which we labour have not escaped your attention we persuade ourselves that your Excellency will contribute so far as is consistent with the general Welfare to remove them—this we conceive can be in no way so effectually done as by sending some of the new raised Regiments if any are completed to secure the defiles in the High Lands, this we know must be regulated by circumstances of which your Excellency is the only proper Judge & to your decision after having clearly hinted it we most cheerfully submit the necessities of the Troops sent to the Northward are inconceivably great & unless speedily supplied must render the forces we raise entirely useless. We have directed Mr Benson to press the Congress to fall upon some means of furnishing us out of the stores they have purchased in the Eastern States, perhaps our request if backed by your Excellency's recommendation would be the more speedily complied with

I am sir with great respect Your most obdt & very humble Servant By Order.
His Excellency General WASHINGTON.

FORT CONSTITUTION, December 26th, 1776.

GENTLEMEN: I now send by the bearer, Ensign Weaver, two yoke of oxen and cart, which were the property of Mr. Frederick Van Cortland, at Kingsbridge. The oxen and cart was pressed, in order to carry the baggage of my regiment to the White Plains from Peekskill: were sent with medicines to Fishkill, from which place I sent for them here, to haul down timber to make rafts; and as they can't be of any farther service here, have thought best to have them sent to you, gentlemen, to order with them as you think fit. You will be good enough to direct the bearer to whom he must deliver the cattle, and the receiver to give a receipt for them.

I am, gentlemen, with greatest respects, your very humble servant,

Alexander Wallace to Gouverneur Morris.

NEW YORK, 28th December, 1776.

DEAR SIR: I got safely home here on the 25th July,* and found all my family in good health except my son Hugh, who is very bad and little hopes of his recovery. Mrs. Hugh Wallace is pretty well in health, but very unhappy about her husband being kept so long from her; and what adds to her distress is the very heavy loss she has met with about ten days ago in losing all her plate. She sent it to Richard Yates last summer, at Acquacknack, to be kept there as a place of safety, but upon his leaving that place, he had the box which contained the plate put on board a brig commanded by Captain Roche, bound to this place. About five miles below Hackensack, the brig was seized by a party of your army, and all the goods taken out. The plate cost upwards of fifteen hundred pounds, this currency. She thinks the gentlemen belonging to the Convention, when they know it belongs to her, will order it to be sent her immediately, as it would be very hard indeed to send her husband away to Connecticut, and allow her property to be plundered. I must request the favor of you to get this affair settled as soon as possible. Enclosed is an inventory of the plate. It was all in one box.

My papers &c., are in much better order than I expected, but my brother and I shall suffer greatly by being sent away from our property. I have sent your letter to your mother, who is very well, as are all your old friends. I shall go and see your mother in a few days. General Robinson assures me all the women and children, who have a mind to go to their husbands or friends, have liberty to go by this flag or any other way they may think proper. I am sorry Major Fish has not liberty to come on shore, or that Mr. Scott's request is not granted. Be assured I have done all in my power, but have no interest with General Howe. He is too busy at present sending despatches to England, to be seen. You will please present my compliments to all friends; and be assured I am with great esteem, your much obliged humble servant,

ALEXANDER WALLACE.

Please deliver the enclosed letters. Give the one for Hugh Wallace to Mr. Samuel Loudon, to be sent by post. My brother has lost all his clothes in the Jerseys. Mrs. Wallace sent them there. Tell Mr. John Ten Broeck I have not yet seen Mr. May, but am told he is here.
GOUVERNEUR MORRIS, Esq., at Fish kills.

The Contents of a Chest of Plate belonging to Hugh Wallace, Esq.

One tea urn, 1 epergne, 1 very large bowl, 4 candlesticks, 1 large pudding dish, 2 small do., 2 large salvers, 3 small do., 1 large tankard, 1 coffee-pot, 1 pitcher, 1 crust stand, 4 long-handle spoons, 4 scollop do., 1 dozen table spoons, 1 dozen dessert spoons, 1 sugar dish, 1 funnel, 1 fish trowel, 6 salts, 6 salt spoons, 2 mustard pots with spoons, 6 skewers, 2 milk pots, 1 tea chest with cannisters, 1 sugar tongs, 4 labels for bottles, 4 tumblers, 4 rummers, 2 black jacks, 1 large soup ladle, 1 marrow spoon.

Report on Mr. Wallace's Letter.

That subsequent to his arrest his plate was removed to the State of New Jersey, & entrusted to the care of M<sup>r</sup> Yates. That some time before our army under the command of Maj<sup>r</sup> Genl Heath entered Hackensack the plate was put on board of a Brigg commanded by Cap<sup>t</sup> Roche & bound for New York (whether the Brigg was British or American property does not appear nor whether she was loaded with supplies for the British Army) which Brigg together with the plate was taken by a party of our Army—From which facts your Committee is humbly of opinion

1st That as M<sup>r</sup> Hugh Wallace was only taken up on suspicion without any direct charge either alleged or proved ag<sup>t</sup> him his detention does not affect the present question which must be determined by rules that would equally apply to every other person entitled to the protection of this State. That by a Resolution of Congress passed the 20th March 1776

All Vessels their tackle apparel & furniture & Cargoes belonging to Inhabitants of great Britain & all vessels which may be employed in carrying Supplies to the Ministerial Army which shall happen to be taken near the shores of any of these Colonies by the people of the Country or detachments from the Army, shall be deemed lawful prize &c<sup>e</sup>

If therefore it should appear that this vessel was British property there would be no doubt that the plate as part of the Cargo would be lawful prize.

If the vessel should appear to be the property of any person living under the Government of the enemy & voluntarily acknowledging the Same he would (in the Idea of your Committee) be an Inhabitant of Great Britain within the intention of the Congress, tho' perhaps so far within the Letter of the Resolution as to Justify the condemnation of the vessel, unless carrying Supplies to the enemy, since penal laws are always to be construed strictly & it may be that Congress intended that the property of subjects of either of the United States should be determined by the laws of those States.

If the vessel is not to be considered as coming within the Resolutions relative to the property of an inhabitant of Great Britain a question of fact arises to wit whether she was carrying supplies to the enemies Army—if not she is not within the resolution and cannot be considered a lawful prize—

If on the other hand she was really employed in carrying such supplies—a doubt may arise whether any thing more than the vessel can be condemned—since nothing is said of the Cargo (your Committee is of opinion) that the clause designed to refer to the proceeding more especially as nothing is said even about the disposition of the supplies taken on board—& it would be absurd to condemn the vessel for carrying supplies and yet not confiscate those supplies. But as all these doubts, together with several others that might be raised, are questions that must Judicially be determined in a Court of Admiralty (your Committee thinks it unnecessary to trouble the house with a more minute inquiry into them) But is humbly of opinion that the protection due to M<sup>r</sup> Wallace requires that he should not be deprived of his property except by a legal decision which he may have an opportunity to controvert, That therefore it is incumbent upon the Convention to put this matter in such a Train as will enable M<sup>r</sup> Wallace to obtain ample Justice—That therefore they ought to write to Major Gen<sup>l</sup> Heath desiring him to see that the Goods are not embezeled or taken away till they have been libled & condemned by the Court of Admiralty in New Jersey.

Report on Saltpetre.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 343.]

A. M., Dec. 28th 1776.

Mr. David Gelston one of the committee formerly appointed on the 14th day of October—to have the Saltpetre manufactured in Suffolk County, and thence removed to Connecticut, transported to this State, delivered in their report, which was read, & is in the words following to wit,

Your Committee appointed to transport to this place the Salt Petre manufactured upon Long Island & transported to Connecticut, do report that whereas Mr. Gelston has Collected from sundry persons 585<sup>lb</sup> 14 oz part of which he has paid for to the amount of £128 5 & that there is in the hands of other persons a quantity of Saltpetre manufactured upon Long Island to the amount of 6 or 700<sup>lb</sup> or thereabouts, making in the whole about 1200<sup>lb</sup> which will amount at 6s. to £360—and whereas Mr. Gelston has received £60 on acct, therefore resolved that this convention advance to Mr. Gelston the sum of £300 to enable him to pay for the same & transport it to this place as soon as may be with conveniency. And whereas the persons who have manufactured the Saltpetre purchased by Mr. Gelston have suffered the loss of their works by the Enemy's taking possession of Long Island, And Whereas the Convention of this State did on the 15th day of October last agree to give 8s. 6d. per lb. for all such saltpetre as should be made in this State out of materials collected within the same from the said 15th day of October last until the 1st day of January 1778, Therefore resolved that Mr. Gelston be authorized to give the further sum of 2s. 6d. per lb. for the Salt Petre above mentioned, as an indemnification for the loss of such works as aforesaid & that he be allowed a further sum of £150 to enable him to pay the same and that he account to this or a future legislature for the monies by him so received.

GENTS: Yours of Yesterday with copy of that to you from the marine committee at Philadelphia inclosed, came to hand. We advise you to proceed by all means to lanch the Frigates as soon as you can & then to proceed with the Vessels to the place most safe in Roundout Kill near Esopus Landing. We are sensible of the custom to give a treat to the workmen after lanching nor do we know that the sum of 100 Dollars for each is too much. We would recommend to you to have it properly considered, that you may not be blamed of Extravagance & we of giving a sanction thereto. We are obliged to you for your invitation to see the Lancing, but whether any of the Members will be able to attend we know not. There are so few members present that few if any can be spared.

FISH KILLS, Decm<sup>r</sup> 1776.

SIR: Your favour of Yesterday with the several dispatches inclosed were this day laid before the committe of Safety. I am directed to inform you that they highly approve of the precaution you have used with respect to the Flag of Truce & which you will be pleased to continue until we have had time to consider of the Applications mentioned in the dispatches. They are now under the consideration of a Committee & I hope a Decision will take place to morrow. The Defenceless condition to which the Highlands will be reduced on your withdrawing with the Continental troops gives us very great concern. Ardently as we wished to co-operate with General Washington in opposing the progress of the Enemy in our sister State of New Jersey, we are compelled, by a regard for the publick safety to direct our militia who were before orderd to march into that State to be moved for the security of the Highlands. We have at the same time dispatched an Express to Genl Washington soliciting that you & the troops you more immediately command, may be directed to secure your late station. We hope this request will meet with your approbation.

Major General HEATH.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 385.]

Joseph Brant is soon expected at Onondaga and will probably take Oneida in his way to Onohaghgwage. 'Tis said he is to return to Lord Howe.

A trusty Indian was sent to a particular person residing in the upper Mohawk Castle for Intelligence. This person reports that no attack is designed by the Enemy on this River or quarter for the present season till the Mohawks are removed, that a general attack upon Tyonderoga is designed towards the Close of February by Regulators Canadians and Indians, [MS. is torn at this place.] here these five Days past and continued thronged with Indians. The Oneida Messengers tell me that one John Johnson (formerly an Oneida Trader) now resides at a Seneca Village about ten Miles from Kayengederaghte he is supported there by Colo. Butler to convey Intelligence—he was present at this Meeting. The Seneca Sachem is not well pleased with his being amongst them. They also there met with old Isaac of Onoghohgwage and his party returning from Niagara.

Report about moving Prisoners to New Hampshire, etc.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 271]

Whereas it is essential to the safety of this State forthwith to remove all State Prisoners, and Prisoners of War, together with a number of Persons notoriously disaffected to the State of New Hampshire.

And Whereas from the present Invasion of this State and the numerous conspiracies formed within the same, it would be extremely hazardous to the Public Safety to permit the well affected militia to march out of it.

And whereas a considerable Expence might be saved if the Prisoners ordered to be moved out of this State were Guarded by a Detachment from Coll<sup>o</sup> Tash Regiment of New Hampshire Militia, The Terms of whose Enlistment expires on the 1st of December next.

Resolved that application be made to his Excellency Gen' Washington for Permission to detach Eighty men from Coll<sup>o</sup> Tash's Regiment to escort the Prisoners taken in the late skirmish with Col<sup>o</sup> Rogers, together with a Number of other dangerous and disaffected Persons, to Exeter in the State of New Hampshire.

Resolved that the Committee of Safety pledge the Faith of the Convention of this State for calling forth an equal number of men as the said Detachment shall consist of to serve as Continental Troops during the Term for which the Regiment under the Command of Col<sup>o</sup> Tash is enlisted.

Ordered that a copy of these Resolutions be transmitted to Gen<sup>l</sup> Washington by Express—that his approbation thereof if he thinks proper may be obtained.

Letter to Gen. Washington.

SIR: I have the Honor to enclose for your approbation two short Resolutions of the Committee of Safety of this State. The Reasons on which they are founded are contained in the Recitals.

The Messenger being attending, and Col<sup>o</sup> Pierre Van Cortlandt the Vice president (who now presides) necessarily absent at present will applogize for your receiving them under cover from Your Excellency's most obedient humble servant.

Petition of the Committee of Rensselaerwyck, etc.

[Petitions, 33: 686.]

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of New York in Convention.

The Petition of the Members of the respective Committees of the Districts of the Manor Rensselaerwyck, Claverack and Kings in the County of Albany, Humbly Sheweth,

That your petitioners who represent the Districts adjacent to Kinderhook have long observed that most of the Inhabitants thereof are disaffected to the Measures pursued by America for the Establishment of their Liberties. That by reason of their unfriendly conduct, the General Committee of the County of Albany have some time since expelled their members from the General Committee deeming it dangerous to suffer the association of members who might Betray their secrets and retard the measures necessary for their defence. It is also with concern that your petitioners are obliged to observe that the Field officers (except one) who have the Command of the Battalion of Militia in that District, Evince upon every occasion (particularly when the service of the Country require Vigor and activity) a Backwardness and Indifferency in the Execution of their Duty, which in the opinion of your petitioners can only arise from the depravity of principle which has so long influenced that District. As an instance of the above assertion your petitioners have been creditably informed that upon the Last requisition from Convention for the march of the Militia out of the southern part of this County, the field officers alluded to, not only expressed their disinclination to March in person but appointed so late a day us the seventh after Notice for the March of their Battalion. The Conduct of the principal Leaders in that District appears to your petitioners replete with duplicity, for instance, that in order to prevent the ruling powers of this State to proceed against them with rigor they comply with its Resolves so far only as to screen themselves from the rod of Correction and at the same time mean to claim merit with a British Administration for their adherence to their allegiance, Justly alarmed at the Conduct of that District your petitioners at the earnest and repeated request of a Number of the well affected Inhabitants of Kinderhook District Conceive it their indispensable Duty to Lay before the Convention this representation, And that the Convention of this State will be pleased to remove those officers; Namely Andris Witbeck, Col<sup>o</sup> Barent Vanderpool, Lieu<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>o</sup> Lawrance Goes, 1st Major, Isaac Vanderpool Adjutant & John D. Goes Quarter Master from the Command of that Battalion and that they will be pleased to appoint Abram P. Van Alstyn, Col<sup>l</sup> Philip Van alstyn, Lieu<sup>t</sup> Col. Isaac Goes 1st Major, John M. Van alstyn Adjutant & Tobias D. Van Buren Q<sup>r</sup> Master in their stead, persons whose principles are well known for their attachment to the Libertys of this Country, and by whose influence and authority in those appointments the Battalion in that District may render their Country Essential Services, and your petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray,

FISHKILL, Jan<sup>r</sup> 8, 1777.

SIR: At the request of the Committee, Major General Heath ordered the two Companies of Albany Rangers, from fort Constitution in order to form a part of the Troops destined to act in West Chester County, but I find they are in very bad condition to take the Field for want of Cloaths, which they attribute to their being ordered very suddenly from Albany and not being allowed time to provide themselves with the necessary Cloathing.

I ordered a Return yesterday, which I inclose, by it you will see the state of the Companies and I must submit it to the wisdom of the Convention whether it is not best to furnish the men with the cloathing out of the public store, as they will be exceedingly wanted, and being much better armed and disciplined than any of the militia, will be abundantly more usefull.

As our affairs have taken so prosperous a turn in the Jersies, the Expedition towards Kingsbridge, is considered of very great importance, and a much larger force is ordered for it than it was at first intended, I therefore hope the Convention will exert themselves to send down the militia from Dutchess County.

I have the Honour to be Your most Obed<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

Petition of Laurence Smith.

The Petition of Laurence Smith to the honourable Convention of the State of New York now sitting at Fish Kill, humbly sheweth :

That your Petitioner came over to North America 4 years ago and has upwards of 3 years been employed by the reverend D<sup>o</sup> Verbryck in Orange Town as private Tutor to his Children, That he is a Native of Norway, and has lately received a letter from his friends which makes him desirous of returning as soon as possible to his native Country. That he does not know of any better and easier way of repatriating than by Via New York, not doubting of finding a passage from thence to the Danish islands in the West Indies. That he thinks the Common Law of Nations will protect him as a foreigner of being hinder'd by the British Troops in N York from proceeding on his intended voyage. That he is attached to the cause of Liberty and not choosing to steal away privately do's hereby humbly request the Leave and assistance of the honourable Convention of the State of N York in granting him a pass to go down to New York. That your Petitioner, as knowing nothing can give no information of any kind to the Ennemy, and would in order to remove all suspicion willingly be by oath enjoined to the strictest silence before he leaves this place. Not doubting of obtaining this humble request of the honourable Convention of the State of New York, Your Petitioner will ever pray &c.

RESPECT<sup>r</sup> S<sup>r</sup>: In due return to y<sup>r</sup> Letter of Dec. 23 of the Directions of the honb<sup>le</sup> the Convention, Delivered to me last Sunday, I have translated their address to my best endeavors. My having been unwell with cold since, hath retarded the work till now. This being the first attempt I ever made of this unusual labor, the time short, my health weak, and myself but a scholar in the English tongue, I shall make no apology for the performance; However such a more than Demostenian or Ciceronian piece, translated in the language of Holland, where possibly it may be read, and, if so, doubtless much admired, sho'd be by all means very correct. If therefore the convention sho'd chuse to have it printed, I sho'd wish, that some more able eye sho'd review it. Or sho'd the Convention appoint a Committee for the purpose for an hour or two, I might consult them, and perhaps make some amendments, and as no Low Dutch, printed in America hath been seen hitherto every where correct, because English printers seldom meet with Dutch Copies, and the languages differ so much. I am also willing to attend the press closely; that it may be done in the neatest manner possible. I shall therefore, please God, wait on you in the beginning of next week, to know the pleasure of the Convention.

As to any recompence, my being a citizen of this State and enjoying the protection of y<sup>e</sup> Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Congress and Convention; therefore in duty bound to do something for the public good forbids me to claim any other than the approbation of the Convention, if not of the performance itself; at least of my best endeavors to serve in any manner God & this bleeding and much injured country.

I am Sir Your most obedient & very humble Servant,

ISAAC RYSDYK.

P. S. want of good paper and ink hath rendered this copy not so distinctly legible as I wished.

Majors Birdsall and Pleas to the Convention.

[Miscel. Pap. 38 : 455.]

To the Honourable Convention of the State of New York.

GENTLEMEN: We are informed that William Humfrey Esq<sup>r</sup> Colonel of our Battalion has represented to your house that the reason of our Militia's not Turning out on the late Call was owing to our not giving him that assistance which we might or ought to do & and that we have discouraged the men from going—in consequence of Such representation we understand a new arrangment is likely to take place. We beg leave to Represent to your Honourable house the matter as it is in Truth. Soon after Col<sup>l</sup> Humfrey received his Orders he sent Major Birdsall the inclosed Note. Major Pleas he waited upon in person & informed of his Orders & asked him if he intended to go, which he answered Yes, M<sup>r</sup> Pleas then asked Coll<sup>d</sup> Humfrey if he should go; he answered you Can't desire that I should go so Old a man as I am, I have been once & think it is your Turn now. You & Bird-sall are both young and have not took your turn, but on the whole he says I don't Expect the regiment will be wanted the troops a Comeing so fast from the Eastward—So we was about parting; as he was going I ask'd him, when and where I should meet him; that if we were to march there would be some whose Circumstances were such that ought to be Excus'd & observ'd to him that the Field officers only Could do it According to the Resolution of Convention. he says I shall be at the meeting of Van Wyck's Company to morrow—We both met there & found the Colonel there—he never call'd upon us for any kind of advice or assistance—the Officers of the Company being chosen; the Capt<sup>a</sup> went round the Company for 25 Volunteers; Say'd that would Satisfy his orders but there followed him but 7 or 8 Soldiers—To other Captains he sent orders to march there whole Companys all the time holding to view that the Militia was not wanted & that he did not expect they would march.—Night Comeing on we went home; we had no Orders to march until the Capt<sup>m</sup> got there Several Companys in readiness. Capt<sup>a</sup> Dennis the next day Call'd his Company together; a few appeared, perhaps 20. We both went there; the Capt<sup>a</sup> ordered his men (what met) to hold themselves in readiness to march upon the Shortest notice & he should wait further Orders—the Lieut. Colonel of the Batalion has received no orders if he had we think his Influence would have been of great service. Upon the whole we conceive no regular steps have yet been taken to try the Spirit of this Batalion—we had no right to give any orders. Orders given were so complicated we knew not what to do with them—however we got ourselves in [readiness] to march & still hold so.—We think it Extraordinary that we should be laid under so Severe Cencure without being heard in the Cace. We have ever done all in our power to Support the Liberties of our Bleeding Country & are willing to risque our lives in defence of it—We think Coll Humfreys has done more to Discourage the Battalion from turning out than any Army Officer in it which can readily make appear by others by his frequently saying they were not wanted & that he Expected his orders would be Countermanded.—A per son applying to him to Excuse one of his family the Col' Says don't be uneasy I don't Expect any will march & it is our Opinion that the Colonel Never intended to march the Battalion. Upon the Strictest Enquiry we think it will appear that Colo' Humfrey has Maliciously Endeavour'd to injure our Characters & set us in a point of view which we never Deserved,—which we tho't our duty to Represent to the convention.

We are—Gentlemen, Your Very Humble Servants,

A true State of the case of Samuel Brown a Soldier of Colonel Livingston Regiment Confined in Irons at the Lower Barracks for the Murder of John Willson a Rebel Prisoner.

On examination of Edward Collins a Soldier in the afforesaid Regiment and Captain Walker it appears that while S. A. Collins was on Guard and just returning to the Guard Room from a little Disstance he was met by Benjamin Roome a soldier of the same Reg<sup>t</sup> and Comp<sup>y</sup> who asked him if John Willson (the deceased) was discharged and pointed him out at some little Disstance going off, on which S<sup>d</sup> Collins (the Witness) took his arms and pursued him took him and was bringing him to the Guard Room when S<sup>d</sup> Brown the Prisoner ran up in a Passion and demanded which was the Prisoner. Roome Pointed him out when Brown bid them Clear the way and instantly shot him, farther saith that he might as well have shot the Witness as the Prisoner as he stood in a Range behind Him.

Benjamin Roome above mentioned Confirmed every circumstance of the Above Evidence. From other Circumstances it evidently appears that the Prisoner was in Liquor also that before this accident he sustained a good Character he Earnestly desires his Trial may Be brought on as your Honours may read by the enclosed Petition.

FISHKILLS, 13th Jan<sup>y</sup> 1777.

To the Honble the Convention of the State of New-York.

GENT: As an Officer bearing Commission under you and looking upon myself agrieved by a Person of such Rank that it is Out of my power to obtain redress by any Officers of the Regiment I would beg the Liberty to State my Case to you and Request your Consideration of the matter.

I was Chosen by a Majority of the People as a Cap<sup>t</sup> of the 4th Company of the third Regiment of the Weschester Melitia Brigade—Upon which I Received a Commission from your Honble House bareing deate the 15th Aug<sup>t</sup> 1776 And have Acted in that Station Since that Time And flatter my self that I have exerted my Abilities to the utmost for the publick good for the Truth of which appeal to all those who have had any knowledge of my Conduct.

Slight dislike and Reduce them to Private Centinels. If so, the Consequence must be very Bad and tend to throw us into the utmost disorder and Confusion And Indeed Render the Articles of war Published by the Hon<sup>l</sup> Continant<sup>l</sup> Congress Intirely Usless, With full Confidence of your Honb<sup>l</sup> House giving me Redress.

HEAD QUARTERS MORRIS TOWN, 14th January 1777.

DEAR SIR: I some time ago rec<sup>d</sup> Advice that a large parcel of Cloathing was forwarded from New England to peekskill with an intent to come on to this Army.

I could not account for its being delayed there, untill I was just now informed by the Quarter Mas<sup>r</sup> General, that the Convention of your State had appropriated 26 Bales of it to their own use without consulting him in the least. This I look upon as a most extraordinary piece of Conduct, and what involves me just at this time in the greatest difficulties, for depending upon that Cloathing, I have not applied else where, and the Troops in the field are now absolutely perishing for want of it.

I have therefore to desire that what is not made use of may be immediately forwarded to me and that in future not the least Article may be stopped upon the way without giving me due notice, that I may know how to regulate myself.

I dont doubt but your Troops were in want, but consider they were in comfortable Barracks, while ours are marching over frost and Snow, many without a Shoe, Stocking or Blanket.

If we keep the Carpenters on the Ships it will make them come much higher and be a disadvantage to this State in future. Report on Inoculating for Small Pox

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 74]

IN COMMITTEE OF SAFETY FOR THE STATE OF NEW YORK, }
FISHKILL, Jan<sup>y</sup> 15th 1777. }

The Committee to whom was recommitted the Report of the Committee, have according to order taken the same into consideration and beg leave to report the following Preamble & Resolution.

Whereas the small Pox prevails in several parts of this State and there is reason to apprehend that notwithstanding every Precaution it will become more general & predominant. And whereas the salutary Practice of Innoculating for that Disease is totally prohibited within this State by a Resolution of the provincial Congress passed on the 18th day of December 1775 and the good People thereof are consequently exposed to the danger of being visited by that fatal Distemper in the natural way. And whereas at the same time that it is proper to remove the Discontents of the good People of this State by reason of their being deprived of the advantages of Innoculation it is also necessary to prevent as far as possible the spreading of that Disease in places thro' which the Troops of the United States may be called to pass or may be Stationed for the Defence of the Country,

Resolved therefore that the general Committee of each respective County within this State do appoint and assign fit and suitable places for Innoculating Hospitals in their respective Counties, using every precaution in their power to prevent the spreading of the small Pox In, on or Near any of the publick Roads or in or near any City, Town or Village thro' which the Troops of the United States usually or may probably pass or in which they are or may be Stationed, and that the practice of Innoculation be restricted to such places as shall be so appointed by the respective County Committees in which it shall be lawful for all Persons to inoculate & be innoculated notwithstanding the aforesaid Resolution of the Provincial Congress to the Contrary—

Resolved, further, that if any Person or Persons shall inoculate for the small Pox at any Place or Places other than those appointed by the Committees of each County, he she or they so offending shall forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds for the use of this State.

[Petitions, 33: 666; Miscel. Pap. 38: 461.]

ALBANY, 15th January, 1777.

HONOURED GENTLEMEN: I am thro' unfortunate necessity obliged to make application to your Honourable by presenting the Inclosed Memorial (which hope you will be good Enough to take into Consideration) in which have set down some instances of the behaviour of Jacob Weaver, A Ranger by me Enlisted in my Company in your Service, beg leave to inform your Honours that for Fear of Tiring your patience have omitted to mention several Crimes by him Committed, while under my Command, and also beg leave to assure your Honours that there is not a single syllable in my Memorial mentioned but I am ready to prove fully and clearly when thereunto required or when it shall please your Honourable House to Give order for a Court of Enquiry or a Court Martial to Enquire into my Conduct, which not only beg for, but hope your Honours will not be offended at my making demand of a Court of Enquiry to examine into the Affair and of a General Court Martial for my Tryal if any is necessary to clear up my character to an Impartial World. As I have been treated in an unheard of manner by the Committee of Tryon County who have never put me under arrest agreeable to the Continental Rules of Warr under which I am appointed an officer, but instead thereof ordered me to be Close Confined in the Common Prison in Johnstown, which cannot help thinking is a willfull mistake in them, and bad usage to me, unhappy and unfortunate as I am, whether I have done wrong or not, in at all times as farr as lay in my power kept my Company Active on their duty agreeable to my orders received from the former Committee of Tryon County, and when not only they but their relations tho't that they were to be excused from duty on acc<sup>t</sup> of their Money's not immediately coming to hand. I advanced them my own money for their Maintenance and kept them on duty when the other two Companies were at home. I say if this is to be accounted a Crime, I have done it, but hope it will be otherwise looked on. If any of the Rangers in my Company accused me with missusage or had I wantonly or willfully missused any of them then should think my Circumstances if possible more unhappy than they are. Had I ever disobeyed any Commands of the Committee or any other person or persons having power or authority to Command me, should never dare to lift up my voice to ask for that proper support I hope to obtain from your Honours. I ever was and will be obedient in all things to my superiors; ever have wished for an opportunity to shew with what Readiness I would lay down my life in my Country's service, and hope that your Honourable House will never be the Encouragers of Mutiny or Licentiousness in your Soldiery more especially in so precarious and necessary Service as that of Rangers which requires not only the most strict subordination but also Silence, Interpidity and Courage. I humbly hope your Honours will take this my most unhappy case into your consideration and give such orders therein as to your Honours in your superior wisdom shall seem good, and that I may have Liberty of joining my Company, and no longer ly inactive, but that I may have the honour to lead my Company where both myself and them may be of some further service to the Country by at least attempting to destroy some part of the Enemy's Fleet now lying Frozen up at the North end of Lake Champlain, or else joining the Army in endeavouring to regain possession of the City of New York in the doing of which I am will to venture all Hazards and hope your Honours will see me worthy to be Allowed and beg leave to subscribe myself with the utmost Respect and Fidelity, Honoured Gentlemen, Your most obedient and Most Devoted Humble Servant

JOHN WINN.

To the Honourable President and Members of the Convention of Representatives of the State of New-York.

The Memorial of Capt<sup>o</sup> John Winn Lately Commanding A Company of Rangers in Deffence of American Liberty, Humbly Sheweth,

Your Memorialist was on the 1st of August last apointed to Enlist and Command a company of Rangers, which he did in the County of Tryon, and on the 4th of same Month Enlisted one Jacob Weaver a Soldier in s<sup>d</sup> Company.

The 28th Aug<sup>t</sup> your memorialist in getting s<sup>d</sup> Company Mustered ordered s<sup>d</sup> Weaver to pass the Muster Master which he disobeyed, but as he was present was by the Muster Master excused.

The 29th Aug<sup>t</sup> was ordered by the Committee to March with the Company to the South-west End of Lake Otsego. The 30th of Aug<sup>t</sup> sent a Soldier to Jacob Weaver's House, order him to Join the Company Which order tho' punctually delivered was by him disobeyed.

The 5th Septem<sup>r</sup> Rec<sup>d</sup> intelligence by Express from John Frey Esq<sup>r</sup> Chairman of the Committee, that he expected Stone Arabia wou'd be Attacked by the Enemy Immediately and ordering me there with all Speed with my Company, that night Marched with my Company all Night thro' the Woods & the next morning reached the Mohawk River. As Jacob Weaver had disobeyed my orders & not Joined the Company sent a Soldier the second time to order him to join the Company. He came in the Afternoon without Arms, said his Gun was sent to be repaired. I advanced him money to pay the Repairs, ordered him to Return to me immediately when he got his Gunn. This he also disobeyed. Instead of doing this he stayed some days Drunk at the House of W<sup>m</sup> Seeber, Esq<sup>r</sup> as I am since informed. The 7th Septem<sup>r</sup> Ordered Lieut. Gross to March out with 20 Men to Lake Otsego, and to carry Weaver with him. Lieutenant Gross after some days got him, but not without Trouble, and Ordered him on a Scouting party thro' the Woods to the German Flatts to Return Immediately. When they Arrived at the German Flatts Jacob Weaver directly in disobedience of Lieut Gross's orders as well as Contrary & in disobedience of the Officer who Commanded the Party stayed three days drunk at the House of Capt. George Herkimer.

After your Memorialist having Ranged the Woods N<sup>o</sup> East of Stone Arabia with Two partys of Rangers & found no appearance of an Invasion or Enemy, was ordered to March with my Company again to Lake Otsego. When I came there found Jacob Weaver was Left Lieut<sup>r</sup> Gross Contrary to orders. Sent for him. He stayed untill the 4th of October, when he again Runn away; while your Memorialist was ordered to attend the Committee. On my return ordered a Soldier to goe to his House, & order him to Return to the Company. This he also disobeyed. Some days after sent another Soldier to order him to Return to his Duty. This he also disobeyed as well as Returning me Threatening and abusive Answers. The 18th of October Rec<sup>d</sup> intelligence that Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler was apprehensive Ticonderoga and North Frontiers of Tryon County wou'd be attackted by the Enemy. Tho't it my indispenible duty to bring my Company to where they might most Readily be usefull in deffence of the Country and discovering the Enemy, Hired a Horse and Sent One of the Rangers to order Jacob Weaver to Join the Company not having returned since the 4th This he also disobeyed.

The 20th of October your Memorialist was ordered by the Committee of Tryon County to March with his Company to Philadelphia Bush, and from thence Range the Woods as farr as Fort George, which order your Memorialist received with great pleasure, thinking it might be a means of gaining an Oppertunity to Convince the World it was his greatest pride and happyness of defending with his life the inestimable Rights of this country. The same day at the House of Gose Van Allstyne at Conajoharry, a number of the Privates Mutinized, refused to March any further or do any sort of Military duty untill paid of their full Arrears of pay, altho' they see the Militia March off before them who were to receive neither pay nor Bounty. Your Memorialist offered them all the money in his possession yet unexpended in the Maintainance of them; the Greater Number then Returned to their duty; your Memorialist then received another order from another party of the Committee ordering me to March my Company directly back again to the House of W<sup>m</sup> Seeber, Esq<sup>r</sup> which did. When arrived there they ordered me to send a party of Men to bring Jacob Weaver to join the Company which I did; after some debate among them they ordered me to Obey the first order, I had Rec<sup>d</sup> from Caughnawaga, that night again Marched as farr as Van Allstyne's, Jacob Weaver in the Night took Opportunity to endeavour to Raise a second Mutiny, advising the men not to March any further at the same time Swearing if your Memorialist should Attempt to compell him or any other man in the Company to March out of the County he wo'd murder me, as your Memorialist borrowed Ninety dollars from Brigadier General Herkiemer which together with my own Money not yet expended in Maintainance of the Company, tho't Sufficient for their present Necessitys in the Morning of the 22<sup>d</sup> Septem<sup>r</sup> at Gosse Van Allstynes got the Company in Rank in order to March. Upon my ordering them to March Jacob Weaver disobeyed, jumped out of the Ranks, swore he would do no sort of Military duty, unless immediately paid his full pay, abusing the other Soldiers for Cowards and Rogues for not following his Example, I took his Gun away ordered him to be Marched in the Rear of the Company a prisoner, when we came to the Ferry kept by Martin Van Allstynes, s<sup>d</sup> Weaver asked for his Gunn which was ordered to be returned to him, give him some Money and a dram, after he got his Gunn, he told me never to Attempt to take his Gunn from him again or make him a prisoner, for if I did, he swore he would shoot me thro' the Heart, to which I answered him I should never neglect my duty thro' fear of any threats from him or any other persons, — upon the Road in marching thro' Johnstown the whole Company was detained by him about Two Hours, tho' your Memorialist sent two persons to order him two Sundry times under Arms, he disobeyed and would not appear untill I myself went personally to bring him out of A Tavern between Johnstown and Philadelphia Bush, he had the Effrontary to tell your Memorialist that it was not worth while for the Americans to attempt to fight for their Libertys, saying the Country was Sold for a price by those persons who were at the Head of Affairs, for which I reprimanded him Sharply and cautioned him not to make use of such Language in future — Upon arrival of the Company in Philadelphia Bush, while Shoes, Provisions, &c., were getting ready for the Company, Jacob Weaver wasted all his Ammunition. In the Morning of the 28th of October when Reddy to March on a Scout to Fort George was obliged to take from the Soldiers left behind from each Soldier a little powder and Ball to make up a sufficiency for s<sup>d</sup> Weaver before I Marched, give a very Strict Charge to the Party then going with me to be silent, watchful and by no means any of them to Attempt to fire a Gunn without my Espicial orders or Liberty, yet nevertheless s<sup>d</sup> Weaver, disobeyed, was noisey and unrully in the Woods fired off his Gunn Twice while I was standing close to him Commanding him not to fire.

The 31st of October in Crossing Hudsons River on a Raft at the House of M<sup>r</sup> Jessop the Elder, when the Raft was broke by the Negligence of S<sup>d</sup> Weaver, Your Memorialist was wet Breasthigh saving S<sup>d</sup> Weaver's Arms as well as my own dry. That Night S<sup>d</sup> Weaver complained of being unwell. I then caused him to ly on a feather Bed close by the fire which M<sup>r</sup> Jessop had provided for me. Bro't up stairs an armfull of Indian Corn Stalks and there lay on them with my Lieutenants. The next Morning Offered to leave him there along with W<sup>m</sup> Roorey another Soldier who Complained of being also a little unwell, he Refused to stay behind saying he was well enough to go to Fort George, taking up his Gunn said he wou'd fire her off. I commanded him not to fire. He disobeyed my Orders, Fired of his Gunn while I was standing close by him Ordering him not to fire. A number more of the Rangers were going to follow his example. I with difficulty restrained them, Ordered them to March in a Quiet, Silent & Watchfull Manner for Fort George. When we Arrived at the Five Mile Runn, after allowing the Soldiers time to take a refreshment I ordered them to turn out and form in Rank in order to March to Fort George. The Soldiers all Immediately obeyed except S<sup>d</sup> Jacob Weaver who disobeyed. When all the Rest were Ready to March & had waited some time sent a Sergeant to order him again out, who returned and told me he could not get him out. I went myself to the House, when I ordered him out he told me he would first Eat Dinner. I patiently waited until he had done, ordered him out. After some time found he disobeyed in not coming, that a number more of the Soldiers were again gone out of the Rank into the House. Ordered the Sergeants to goe again to the House and order them all out into their Rank; who returned & told me they would not come out, but disobeyed both my orders and theirs. I again went myself to the House ordered them all to goe out and goe to their Respective places in the Ranks, they all Obeeyed except S<sup>d</sup> Jacob Weaver, who swore he wou'd first cut his Box full of Tobacco. I then asked him if he would go with me to Fort George or stay there until my return, he answered I will goe to Fort George but you must first give me a dram. This I did. While I was paying for the Liquor I heard a Gunn fired, went out but could not Learn who Fired — Observed S<sup>d</sup> Weaver making Ready to fire off his Gunn, see and heard one of the Sergeants order him not to fire off his Gunn but fall into his Rank in order to March. I called to him Twice myself ordering him not to Fire. He looked at me yet Disobeyed my orders and Fired off his Gunn. I then again ordered him to goe to his place in the Rank. He again disobeyed, said he would not go into the Rank, that he stood well Enough. I reprimanded him for firing away his Ammunition as well as disobeying my orders and ordered him to go immediately to his proper place in the Ranks. He not only disobeyed my orders but give me abusive language, and to justifie himself says when I shot I intended to have Shott the Head out of yon Barrel and it does not Signifie your taking so much Command over me I stand well Enough and will not fall into any other Rank than I now am, tho' will prove he stood at or near the distance of Ten or Twelve paces in the Rear of the Ground on which the Rank was formed. I again ordered him to fall into his Ranke; he again disobeyed giving me the former Ans<sup>r</sup> I will not &c. I see he looked angry at me, thought him preparing to advance to Strike me, on which I pushed at him with my Gunn, not intending to do him the Least Bodily injury but to oblige him to obey my orders and fall into his place in the Ranks. He as soon pushed at me, knocked off a piece of Skin and Flesh of my Hand, Caught hold on my Gunn, broke the Ramrod and Endeavoured to disarme me, I disengaged myself and my Arms from him and left him.

He complained of being Hurted went into the House, while I proceeded on my March to Fort George, the next Morning was informed he was unable to March. Got Doctor Budd to goe to see if he was in need of a doctor's Assistance. When the Doctor had examined him he told me S<sup>d</sup> Weaver was not in the Least danger or ill by reason of any hurt received from me, that as soon as the fumes of Liquor were expelled from him he wou'd be perfectly well and that S<sup>d</sup> Weaver could not dy if he was to try for it — I nevertheless left a Soldier belonging to the Company to attend him with a Six dollar Bill and half a Guinea to pay for their maintenance until S<sup>d</sup> Weaver should be able to Return home,—

I now call Almighty God to Witness, that my Intention or my Heart never meant nor was never stained with Malice or the least willful intention of doing the man the Least Bodily injury. Think that if I am blamed with Killing him, the Charge is unjustly laid against me, as will bring good proof that all the while he lay in Philadelphia Bush he complained of being unwell and unable to do any sort of duty, tho' too Stubborn to inform me of it—in the morning before we Marched from Philadelphia Bush on the Scout to Fort George he exchanged his Beef for Butter with the Woman of the House where he Lodged and Complained to her that he was unwell and unable to do his duty, and when advised by the Woman to inform me of his being not well & unfit for duty, told her no he would not give me the Satisfaction or Honour to ask my Liberty to stay behind if he shou'd dy on the Road.

Thus happened this unhappy affair, I not having the Least intention of injuring any Person, but doing what I tho't my unavoidable duty, that of keeping Silence and Good order among the Men under my command, if I was to be afraid to order them to do their duty, what was for their own Credit and good, and had no Authority to Restrain them from Mutinizing, Shooting away their ammunition and making a noise when perhaps the Enemy might be within Hearing of the Report of our arms and Noise, what figure should we have made or in what manner defended ourselves should we happen to be attackted by the Enemy when our Ammunition was all Expended Shooting at Marks in direct disobedience to the orders of the Officer Commanding the party. If my Authority permitted me to restrain the Rangers under my Command from wasting their Ammunition, Noise, Quarreling, and Drunkenness well, if not, if I had no authority to keep order while upon Actual duty in the Woods, I was rendered at once incapable of serving my Country properly as an Officer in so precarious and Hazardous A Station as that of an Officer in the Rangers—and the Rangers more properly to be called Rioters if instead of the most Strict good order, Military Discipline, Activity, Courage & Watchfulness, Hollowing, Shooting, Noise, Drunkenness, Quarrels and disturbance in disobedience to the Command of their Officers were to be their Exercise which ever was Jacob Weaver's favourite Occupation.

Shortly after my Arrival in Tryon County I was Confined by the order of the Committee of that County in the Common Guard-house, among a parcel of Torrys in the Goal at Johnstown upwards of Forty days, tho' I repeatedly petitioned them to give or get an order for my tryal by A Court Martial agreeable to the Continental Rules of Warr, this they yet have not done, and would have yet remained in the same deplorable state of Confinement, had not Col: John Nicholson upon being ordered to Leave Johnstown Ordered me to goe with the Regiment to Albany since which time I have Petitioned The Honourable Major Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler for to take my case into Consideration and give such orders therein as his Superiour Wisdom should direct, and shall not Leave this place without his Orders or Liberty or Orders from your Honourable House.

If Soldiers or Rangers will get drunk, disobey the Commands of their Officers when on Actual Duty and Wantonly waste their Ammunition in the Woods when they should be Silent, obedient to their Officers & watchfull as Hawks, what will be the Consequences but the Endangering the Lives of such Soldiers who do behave well, and of Ruining the Country which they are enlisted to deffend. Such hath been the Behaviour of Jacob Weaver, a Man whose whole Life hath been one Continual Scene of Drunkenness, Quarreling, and Disturbance and disobedience to the Laws of God and Man.

Your Memorialist will prove that on the March between Canajoharry and Fort George it was the avowed Intention and Intent of S<sup>d</sup> Jacob Weaver to attempt to murder me, only for causing him to do his duty.

Your Memorialist tho' rendered unhappy and distressed, as much as is possible for a man to be at the unhappy Event of this unfortunate affair, humbly hopes that there is & Ought to be a proper Subordination kept up in all your Armys, and that this unhappy affair will be Looked upon by your Honourable House and the World as an unfortunate Accident happening in the way of an Officer in the way of his Indispensible Duty—Endeavouring to cause Mutinous Soldiers to do their duty in the Manner they ought.

Your Memorialist begs leave to inform your Honours that he maintained his Company of Rangers on his own private Money from the time of their going on duty untill the 14th of Novem<sup>r</sup> last. That he never disobeyed or left unexecuted the Orders of the Committee, or any Superior Officer. That he hath served His Country with Integrity and Courage, as well while Clerk of the Committee of Tryon County as since his being appointed an Officer which the Members of the Late Committee will Testife at any time when called on. That he hopes your Honours will be the Supporters of Order and good discipline and Consider that Guard houses or places of Confinement are seldom found in the Woods and that it may be in the power of an ill behaved, Mutinous unrulley man in the Woods to Make such a noise & Alarm as will cause the whole party to be either Taken, or killed by the Enemy, who may perchance be better disciplined.

Your Memorialist begs leave to inform your Honours that since my Confinement, am informed the Licentiousness of the Rangers hath been so great that they have Wasted or Embezzelled almost all the Ammunition sent up for their use by Major General Schuyler. That they hold their Fists under Lieutenant Gros's Nose threaten to beat and abuse him and refuse to obey his Commands—that they are Suffered by this Committee (Lately Elected) to remain idle and all orders & Military Government disregarded by them Stealing the wealth of the Publick without any intention of Serving the Countrys Cause from any brave, Patriotick or Generous Principles.

Your Memorialist humbly prays your Honours will believe him to be what he Really is and Ever will be, a true and faithfull Servant of The American Cause, and prays your Honours will be pleased to take his unhappy Circumstances into Consideration and give the most Speedy Orders Either for his Tryal by A Court Martial, or Release him from his Confinement as your Honours in your Superiour Wisdom shall think best—and hopes he will be no longer kept in Confinement, but that he may have an oppertunity of being of further Service to his Country & your Memorialist will ever pray.

That your Petitioner Mary Hanly on or about the fourteenth day of September last came from the City of New York with one Child and the greater part of her Effects to Peek Kill expecting to return on the second day following to remove her husband, and her other child. That on the following day and before she could possibly return to the City, the Enemy took possession thereof. That her husband is now about forty years of age, and for several years past has been much emaciated, weak and infirm, and frequently so lunatic for many weeks at a time as to be necessarily bound or confined. That your Petitioner Bridget Morgan is of the age of thirteen years, and left the city of New York at the time above mentioned, expecting her parents by the next Boat to Peek Kill, but that the arrival of the Enemy in the City, prevented their coming out of the City. [Jan<sup>r</sup> 21, 1777.]

GENTLEMEN: On the 27th of Dec<sup>r</sup> last the Convention resolved to call forth the Melitia of the Counties of Dutchess & West Chester for the Defence of the State, and for important Reasons directed an oath of Allegiance to be administered to every Male Inhabitant within the County of West Chester from the age of sixteen years upward—that each such Inhabitant should enroll himself in the Militia—The People called Quakers were excepted, and to each of them inhabiting the said County the following Affirmation was ordered to be administered, viz: I ——— do solemnly and sincerely declare and affirm &c., ——— inclosed is a Copy of the Test ordered to be taken by the Friends in West Chester County of 16 years of age & upwards.

The Convention are unanimously of opinion that they ought not to comply with your other Request to Suspend the administration of that Test; as they conceive it would be an unjustifiable partiality to the Friends; and raise an odious distinction between those of their Constituents of that Denomination, & their Constituents of all other Denominations in West Chester County.

The Committee of Convention appointed to hear & determine as to persons inimical & disaffected to the American Cause informed me that Jacob Deane & Solomon Haight were removed from this State “for having refused the Continental Bills of Credit, & attempting to depreciate that currency.” A Conduct of that nature of all others is conceived to be the most unfriendly & dangerous to the Liberties of America & cannot but meet with severe anemedversion.

CLARKSTOWN, Jan. 21, 1777.

SIR: Of Late many persons about our part, have gone about pedling a few wanted articles and thereby take upon them to refuse the Continental Currancy and I doubt not but such person's possessed with that self-interested View are fitt Instruments to wind themselves into the General sentiments of the people and able to give such intilligence to the Enemy as may be detremental to the Colonies. As to our State in perticular I think it will answer a good end if the Convention would enter into such Measures as will be Sufficient to prevent any persons from doing any thing in that way, but such as the Convention of the State shall impower so to do by their Certificate or other ways as may to them seem best.

I also think that the public stores are not so well taken care of as they ought to be and that many things Degenerates to private property, some person or person's appointed to inquire after and secure such things from Imbezement will be of General Service. TRYON COUNTY COMMITTEE CHAMBER, January 22<sup>d</sup> 1777.

HONORABLE GENTLEMEN: Whereas several Complaints concerning Militia Fines laid upon privates and recovered of their respective Captains, came before our Board with request that their Cases might be heard, enquired and determined,

We therefore considered such grievances so appearing to us, pursuant to the fourth Clause in the Appendix to the Rules and orders for Regulating the Militia of New-York recommended by the provincial Congress Decem<sup>r</sup> 20th 1775, and thereupon Resolved that those fines shall be rendered again by the Respective Captains. The one Case thereof being a Fine inflicted upon an old Superaged Man's Son, which the Father thinks exempted of training, for having a Grist Mill, and pretending the tending thereof by his said Son. But as it is in the above mention<sup>d</sup> fourth Clause of the Appendix not particularly directed, how and in what manner such Restitution of Fines, if refused, Shall be prosecuted, We are somewhat Scrupulous of such further proceedings, and besides we must annex that the Brigade General Nicholas Herkheimer countrymands our orders to his Capt. concerned, and pretends, that such Fines shall not be rendered and in particular looks upon the above ment<sup>d</sup> old Miller's plea to be a Scheme & Deceit of the publick—We therefore are urged to make application to your Honorable Board, with humble Request to assist us with your Opinion in their Cases, and to favor us with your decisive Directions. . We are with due Respect, Honorable Gentlemen, Your obed<sup>t</sup> humble Servants.

By order of the Committee,

ISAAC PARIS, Chairman.

To the Honorable Convention of the State of New York, at Fishkill.

P. S. We shall agreeable to the last Resolve of the Committee of Safety in a Meeting held at Fishkill the 14th of this Instant, remit to you an Exact Account of the Expenditure of all and every the Sums of Money, which from the Honor<sup>ble</sup> Convention have been lent or shall be advanced to our County, with the respective accounts and Vouchers of our Contingent Charges, as soon as possible, and as we shall have Collected and Received all those accompts—

Francis Lewis to the Convention.

BALTIMORE, 7 Jan<sup>ry</sup> 1777.

GENTLEMEN: I lately wrote you by an Express, wherein I informed you that the State of New York was not represented in Congress, nor indeed has it been, for several months past, except at some small intervals, — I am at present the only Delegate for New York at this place, and the members are continually urging me to request you would compleate your representation in Congress, as business is now multiplying upon their hands, and so many members detached upon Committees &c., that the business in Congress is retarded, add to this that our State sometimes suffers for the want of a Vote in Congress which I beg you would speedily remedy.

Report on M<sup>r</sup> Lewis' Letter.

Your Committee to whom was referred the Letters from Francis Lewis Esq<sup>r</sup> relative to the Subsistence of the Delegates of this State to the Continental Congress and the keeping an adequate Representation of this State in that House, beg Leave to report,

That on the 22<sup>d</sup> Day of April 1775, twelve Delegates were chosen to represent the Colony of New York in Congress five of which were necessary to form a Quorum. Since which Period one of the said Delegates hath died, one of them resigned on account of the Declaration of Independence, and two others are employed in the Military Department — Wherefore there are at present only eight of the said Delegates now capable of attending. That on the 2<sup>d</sup> Day of Dec<sup>r</sup> 1775, it was determined that an allowance of four Dollars per Day should be made to each of the said Delegates for the Time he had been or should be absent from Home in the Service of the said Colony.

That this Convention was, among other things, chosen expressly for the Purpose of chusing Delegates to the hon<sup>ble</sup> the Continental Congress. That by the Letters from Francis Lewis Esq<sup>r</sup> and for Sundry other Reasons it appears to your Committee that this State hath suffered greatly from the want of an adequate Representation in the American Council, and

That the allowance of four Dollars daily to five members altho a great Expence to this State is at present insufficient to support our Delegates as such.

Your Committee therefore submit the Propriety of chusing six Persons capable of representing this State in Congress, Three of which constantly to attend, and two of them to be a Representation. That for such attendance they each receive eight Dollars per Day while they attend. That this House settle a certain Rotation for their attendance, and that so many of them as shall be in the Convention be a Committee of Correspondence with those who are at Congress.

KINDERHOOK, 25th Jan 1777.

GENTLEMEN: I am now about setting out conformable to the Sentence of your Committee, to make the town of Boston my Prison, to which I am condemned by them unheard upon a Charge of Maintaining an equivocal Neutrality in the present Struggles. How far the Punishment of Banishment for this can be justified either by the Practice of other Nations, or upon those Principles on which alone legitimate Governments are founded, or how far it answers those Ends which alone make Punishments a lawful Exercise of Power, I shall not at present enquire; but as it implies that your Committee consider me as a Member of your State, it behoves me Gen<sup>l</sup> to address you with that Freedom, which can never give Offence to the "Representatives of a free People." When I appeared before the Albany Committee I refused directly to answer the Question whether I considered myself as a Subject of Great Britain or of the State of New-York, because I perceived the Dilemma in which it would involve me of either bringing Punishment on myself in Consequence of my own Declaration, or of taking an Oath which if I had been never so clear respecting the Propositions it contains, under the Circumstances it was offered to me and in my present Situation I should not have taken. The Reasons peculiar to myself I Shall not now urge, but supposing the Independency of this State to be clearly established, I conceive it is premature to tender an oath of Allegiance before the Government to which it imposes Subjection, the time it is to take Place of the present exceptionable one; and who are to be our Rulers as well as the Mode of their Appointment in future are known; for with every favorable Allowance to those Arguments which Suppose it improbable that those who have contended for the Rights of Mankind will never invade them & that those who have vindicated Liberty against one Tyranny will establish or countenance another; I say admitting these Arguments to have Weight, both History & Experience have however convinced me that they are by no means conclusive. In the Resolutions of the Provin<sup>l</sup> Congress of 31 May last I find it declared that "many & great Inconveniences attend the mode of Gov<sup>t</sup> by Congress & Committees as of Necessity in many Instances Legislative, Executive & Judiciary Powers have been vested in them." Now Gen<sup>l</sup> the Union of these Powers according to him whom the Continen<sup>l</sup> Congress call the "immortal Montesquieu" puts an End to Liberty; and is there not Cause, therefore (reasoning entirely from the Fallibility of Mankind without Respect to Persons) to be very jealous of a Government established by a Body of Men with such a Plentitude of Power especially when they have not given the Public the Common Security of an Oath for the fair and impartial Exercise of it? Have not the People a Right to expect that the intended Constitution should be published for their Approbation before they are compelled under so severe a Penalty as Banishment to swear Fidelity to it?

The Declaration of Independency proceeded upon a Supposition that the Constitution under which we before lived was actually dissolved and the British Governm<sup>t</sup> here as such totally annihilated. Upon this Principle we must have been reduced to a State of Nature, in which the Power of Government reverted to as they Originated from the People who had undoubtedly a Right to establish any new Form they thought proper, that portion of his natural Liberty which each Individual had before surrendered to the Governm<sup>t</sup> being now resumed and to which no one Society could make the Claim until he incorporated himself in it. But Gen<sup>l</sup> admitting there was never so clear a Majority in Favor of Independency & who were convinced that they were absolved from their Allegiance & admitting that you are now vested with Power to form a new Gov<sup>t</sup> by the Suffrages of a Majority of the People of this State; permit me to observe that those who are of different Sentiments be they never so few are not absolutely concluded in point of right thereby. The Question whether a Gov<sup>t</sup> is dissolved and the People released from their Allegiance is in my Opinion a question of Morality as well as of Religion in which every man must judge, as he must answer for himself; and this Idea seems fairly held up to the Public in your late Address wherein you speak of the present Contest "as a Solemn Appeal to the Supreme Ruler of all Events to whom every Individual must one day answer for the part he now acts." If he must answer for the Part he acts which certainly presupposes the Right of private Judgment he can never be justifiable in the Sight of God or Man if he acts against the light of his own Conviction. In Such a Case no Majority however respectable can decide for him. But admitting that a Man is never so clear about the Dissolution of the old Governm<sup>t</sup> I hold it that every Individual has still a Right to choose the State of which he will become a Member, for before he surrenders any part of his natural Liberty he has a Right to know what Security he will have for the Enjoyment of the Residue, and as Men being by Nature free, equal and independent, the Subjection of any one to the political Power of a State can arise only from his own Express Consent! I speak of the Formation of Society and of a Man's initiating himself into it, so as to make himself a Member of it, for I admit that when once the Society is formed the Majority undoubtedly conclude the Rest. Upon these Principles I hold it that your Committee co<sup>d</sup> not justly put me to the Alternative of determining myself to be a Subject of Great Britain or of the State of New York, because sho<sup>d</sup> I deny Subjection to G. B. it would not follow that I must necessarily be a Member of this State; on the contrary I hold that I should still have a Right by the "immutable Laws of Nature" to choose any other State of which I would become a Member; and Gen<sup>l</sup> if you think me so dangerous a Man as that my Liberty at Home is incompatible with the Public Safety, I now claim it at your hands as my Right that you permit me to remove from your State into any other I may prefer, in which case I reserve to myself the Power of disposing of my Property by sale or otherwise.

I would not be so far misunderstood as if I supposed that no Person is amenable to the authority of a State unless he has expressly recognized and consented to it. I am aware that there may be an implied Consent arising from a temporary Residence in a Community and deriving "Protection from the Laws of the same." But to make a man a member of a political Society and a Subject of its Gov<sup>t</sup> in that sense which wo<sup>d</sup> restrain him from quitting it and removing to any other he may like better, I conceive that an express, positive, unequivocal Engagement is necessary. I am constrained therefore, to deny in its full Latitude the Assertion in your Resolution of the 16 July last "That Persons abiding in the State and deriving Protection from the Laws of the same are Members of the State," for I hold that they are from these Circumstances merely no otherwise Members of it than in a Sense so qualified as to make the Position immaterial in the present Case. These as far as I understand them are the Sentiments of M<sup>r</sup> Locke, and those other Advocates for the Rights of Mankind whose Principles have been avowed, and in some Instances carried into Practice by the Congress. According to these Principles I have endeavored to conduct myself during the present Calamities of the Country. Whatever my private Sentiments may have been of their Rectitude, Wisdom or Policy, I have acquiesced in the Proceedings of the Congress and expected whenever I should transgress their ordinances, to undergo the Penalty whether Fine, Imprisonment or otherwise, and this I conceived entitled me to Protection. Between Protection and Reward I conceived there was a wide Difference, for that the Man who took no active Part ag<sup>t</sup> you was entitled to the former; but that a Claim to the latter co<sup>d</sup> be founded only on some positive Merit, and as I never Solicited Favors, I never expected to Suffer for wanting the Qualifications necessary to entitle me to them. Disposed however to make allowances for the Exigency of the Times, I wo<sup>d</sup> cheerfully have Submitted to an abridgment of my Liberty if those in authority really thought it incompatible with the public Safety, but then in determining this I expected Regard wo<sup>d</sup> be paid to the Principles of judicial Equity, and that those who gave an opinion respecting me Sho<sup>d</sup> have been compelled to assign the Facts on which it was founded, and that I sho<sup>d</sup> have had an opportunity of controverting them, and of impeaching the Credibility or proving the Infamy of the Informers ag<sup>t</sup> me. But if a Test was thought proper, I expected it wo<sup>d</sup> have been in Consequence of a General Law putting all Men who are in the same Class in the same Situation, and not that it sho<sup>d</sup> be left to the Discretion of particular Men to tender it only to such Individuals as Party, Family or Personal Malevolence sho<sup>d</sup> point out to them.

I have several Times been apprized that my Brothers & myself have been represented to you as dangerous Persons whose Influence has disseminated a general Disaffection thro the District, upon wh<sup>b</sup> Charge I shall be Silent, well knowing the invidious Light in which Declarations tending to remove Suspicions of this Nature are received. On this Subject however, I cannot forbear Sending you a Detail of Proceedings relative to this District in which perhaps you'll trace a Cause for its general Disaffection (if it be so) more efficacious than any Influence we can be supposed to have. An Enquiry into this cannot be unworthy of your attention and if you find an adequate Cause, I hope all Conjecture about an imaginary one will vanish. With this Detail you sho<sup>d</sup> have been furnished sooner but that Complaints of the Abuse of Power are at this "Critical Day" looked upon as levelled at the Power itself & as done with a view to excite Disunion.

I shall now conclude with repeating my Request to quit your State, my Reasons for which are explained at large. If my Principles are ill founded or misapplied I shall retract my Errors when they are pointed out; but if they are founded in the "immutable Laws of Nature" and the Sacred Rights of Mankind, if they are such as are recognized by Writers of the greatest Eminence & if they are necessarily connected with the Same Principles on which the American Opposition is justified I trust that they will readily be admitted th<sup>o</sup> urged by an Individual, nor do I conceive they come before you in an Extra-judicial Way, being evidently a Part of my Defence on a Charge which has been thought of Consequence enough to subject me to Banishment from my native Place.

I had several observations to make respecting the peculiar Nature of the Parole imposed on me but if I receive such an answer to my Request as I expect they will be superceded.

PETER VAN SCHAACK.

[Miscel. Pap. 36: 514.]

In June 1774 a Committee of two Persons was chosen for the District of Kinderhook and in May 1775 another Committee consisting of four was chosen to represent the District in County Committee. The former election was held at Cornelis Vosburghs and the second at the Church as appears by the Returns which was to continue till the 21 Decem<sup>r</sup>

Paper A. On the 30th October the General Committee ordered new Elections throughout the County. Our District Committee gave regular notice to the Freeholders to meet at the house of Cornelis Vosburgh to elect a new Committee and to give their Votes for Deputies. The Poll was held and a number of Votes taken for Andries Witbeck, Barent Van Der Poel, Cornelis Van Schaack, Jun<sup>r</sup> and Derck Gardinier — At length a few Votes were Challenged and rejected for not being Freeholders whereupon one Isaac Goes with a small Party left the place of Election and opened a Poll by their own authority at which after several Days Exertion they got a few more Votes than those taken by the District Committee. Both Polls were returned to the County Committee who received the one returned by the District Committee as the regular one. Some time after however the same Committee resolved that this matter should be referred to the new Committee and be resumed by them as the proper Judges.

Paper B. Their Judicial decision you will perceive by the inclosed Letter Marked B and the reasons why our District Committee refused to accede to the Compromise, you will collect from their answer annexed to it. All this time not a word was said about the Place of Election but after the New Committee took their Seats and had rejected a second proposal for taking in two and two of a side, it was then alleged that the Election was not held at the proper Place. In vain was it urged and proved that the House of Cornelis Vosburgh and Tobies Van Beuren were not above two hundred yards apart and that neither of the former Elections for Committees and Deputies had been held at the latter place, that to impeach the present election on account of its being held at a supposed wrong Place was to impeach every thing the District had done in Relation to Congresses and Committees, that although Elections for Town Officers had been for several years held at Tobias Van Burens yet before that time they had been held at other houses—and that in May 1772 the people at a Town Meeting in consequence of an Act of Assembly voted that their future Elections might be held at any place in the Town of Kinderhook.

Notwithstanding all this, the Committee vacated the Election and Papers took great offence at a Protest which our Members left in justification C & D. of their own and the Conduct of their Predecessors. Then it was that the General Committee being credibly informed by M<sup>r</sup> Goes that tho the Majority of the old Freeholders might be against him yet upon the whole the Major Part of the Inhabitants were in his Favor, they ordered not that Tenants having lands of a certain Value but that Every Inhabitant should Vote. The new Election terminated in a great majority of Votes in Favor of the old Members. In May there was another Election which ended without opposition in Favor of Lucas Goes, Lambert Borghardt, Abraham Van Vleck, Peter Van Schaack who attended the County Committee at their next Sitting. It is proper here to remark that after the District Election & before this meeting of the Committees, Bodies of armed Men from Claverack & Kings District & from Massachusetts Bay had invaded the District and without authority of any Committee in this County had disarmed, dragooned and ill treated the Inhabitants, of which a regular Complaint was made to the County Committee in writing. A Sub Committee was by them appointed to inquire into the Facts who reported that they had been fully proved upon oath before them.

Paper Notwithstanding this no notice was taken of the Report, and no Redress
 E. given to the persons injured; and instead of passing a censure on the Delinquents the Committee left them in possession of what they had taken and expelled the District Committee, "Unheard, unquestioned and without even the specious formality of a trial" and that too by an order made expressly for the Purpose. The Election in November 1775 was ordered to be of the Freeholders (this was consonant to the order of the General Congress in 1774) that in January 1776 by all the Inhabitants; neither would answer the purpose of bringing certain persons in. A new Engine was now set in motion and none were to be chosen but those whose Principles were known to be friendly to the American Cause, and no Elector was to Vote unless he had signed the Association previous to that order — See Paper E. This paper was preceded the day before with a party of 50 Men who came with an order from the General Committee to take up Seventeen of our Inhabitants among whom were those who have been supposed to have most Influence, and who were committed to Prison upon a Charge hereafter to be mentioned. But tho the Committee declared that there was a just necessity for the District being represented and though they had fixed the Qualifications for the Members as well as the Voters and tho the Persons who were supposed most unfriendly were safely lodged in Gaol and tho there was an armed Force to intimidate opposition, yet so it happened that the Election again failed as the returning officers (not Inhabitants of this District but appointed by the Committee) could not hold their Poll each having a different opinion from the other respecting the Mode of taking Votes & deciding the Qualifications of the Candidates & Electors. No return therefore was made and the District remained unrepresented.

This was in June & altho the Provincial Congress had ordered that the sense of the counties should be taken respecting the Deputies to form a new Government, and although the county committee had ordered Elections in every other District, yet the Freeholders of Kinderhook, as numerous, wealthy & respectable as any other District, were excluded from the Privilege of voting on this truly momentous occasion.

During all this Time however tho the District was deprived (whether rightfully or arbitrarily must be submitted) of the Privilege of a Representation, they were not however forgot when any Burthens were imposed, their Quotas of Drafts being strictly required & faithfully furnished with a Temper and Forbearance which encouraged new Insults.

The seventeen Persons who were apprehended upon the Mandate before mentioned were kept imprisoned for seventeen Days (all offers of Bail being rejected) and then all discharged, the Committee declaring that the charge against them was not of sufficient weight to require Defence. There was to be punishment however tho there was no Guilt, for notwithstanding their declared Innocence they were charged with the Expence of a Major with a party of fifty odd men to parade through the District tho not a man but would have attended upon the slightest Notice. Nor was this yet sufficient, but the Charges were to be accumulated, by transmitting the Bill of Costs to the Committee of another District, who employed an officer who levied his Milage in addition to the original Charges and all this without any Request from the Committee for the Payment or any intimation that they were to be paid.

Even at this very Time one of the Majors with some other Officers picked and culled by himself without any Notice to the other Field Officers are fining the People merely at their Will and Pleasure for not going on the late alarm. It is said that some of them have this week obtained Commissions superceding the old Field Officers, but they have been fining near a Fortnight before they received them.

Thus are the people deprived of their Property by a Resolve of the Committee (a Body in which they were not permitted to have a Representation and which was therefore a Mutilated one) a Resolve materially differing from that of the Provincial Congress as it imposes a Fine of Fifty Pounds, and a Resolve never published in the District, till its effects are so severely felt. Upon what Representation the Officers are superseded is not known as they have not had any Hearing previous to it, but it may be proper to remark that the Col<sup>o</sup> went up on the alarm with the first and staid with the last of the Militia. This Officer is deprived of the Right of fining while Col<sup>o</sup> Lansing of Albany, who was buying Goods at Philadelphia during the Time holds his seat in imposing the Fines on his Regiment.

Thus have the Inhabitants of this District been used while Notwithstanding the assertion of the Committee that there was not only a necessity but a just one that they should be represented they have been excluded from a Representation at every Board on the Continent ever since June last, and at the Provincial and Continental Congresses too ever since December 1775, if the Election was justly vacated in January 1776, on account of its being held in an improper Place.

The Committee agreeable to a resolve of the 26th Instant took into consideration the resolutions of the Provincial Congress of this Colony relative to Choosing Twelve Deputies to represent this County in Provincial Congress on the fourteenth day of November next & thereupon and in consequence of an explanatory letter from the Deputies of this County Resolved that an Election be held in every District in this County for the purpose aforesaid and that the Committees of said District hold the Election and make a Return of the Poll on the Tenth Day of November next to this Committee and further Resolved that the said Election be held on the seventh November next at the usual Places of Elections for annual officers and that the Respective District Committees by advertisement give previous notice to the Freeholders of the Time and Place of such Election.

Resolved that this Committee shall be Dissolved on the Twenty first Day of December next and that there be an Election held in every District of this county on the Seventh day of November next for Committees to represent the County from said Twenty first Day of December next until the Fourth Tuesday in May next, unless a reconciliation between Great Britain and America shall sooner take place. That the District of Kinderhook shall have four members.

DISTRICT OF KINDERHOOK, 2 November, 1775.

In pursuance to the foregoing Resolution—The Committee for the District of Kinderhook do hereby give notice to all such of the Inhabitants as are qualified to Vote for Representatives* in General Assembly, that they will attend at the dwelling house of Cornelis Vosburgh inholder near the Dutch Church within the said District on Tuesday the Seventh day of November Instant, Eight o Clock in the morning for the purpose of taking their Polls for Deputies to represent them in Provincial Congress as well as members to represent them in the General Committee for this County—as those Representations may be of the utmost Consequence the Committee of this District hope and request that the meeting may be as numerous as possible in order that the collective sense of the Freeholders may be known and transmitted to the General Committee.

ALBANY COMMITTEE CHAMBER 7 Dec<sup>r</sup> 1775.

GENTLEMEN: We are extremely unhappy to find that the misunderstanding that has but too long subsisted in the District of Kinderhook is not yet compromised. A new Cause of discontent has arose in consequence of the late Election held in the * See article of Continental Association, the Powers given whereby being included in those of the Committees now to be chosen.

District for Delegates and Committees to represent the District, by what we can learn of the affair, we are apt to conclude that the Gentlemen of the Committee who held the Election had not seen the latter resolve of the Provincial Congress, by which Persons who had a Possession to the value of £80 were intitled to vote, in consequence of which none but Freeholders were permitted to vote agreeable to the first Resolution which seems to be the cause why two different Polls were held and eight members chosen instead of four—as a means to reconcile these Differences and for the sake of Peace so much wished for at this time. The Committee propose to you to take the eight Members, who have been returned on both polls, or otherwise propose to you to endeavour to agree amongst yourselves to take two Persons from each Poll, who together may represent your District or in short to endeavour to agree on any other mode which may reconcile a dispute so detrimental to the Interest of the County at this Critical time. To defeat the Intentions of those who are fond of promoting discord The Committee earnestly recommend to the District of Kinderhook that they will fall on such measures as will promote amongst them Peace and Harmony. We are Gen<sup>ls</sup>

Your very Humble Servants By order of the Committee,

To the Committee of the District of Kinderhook.

KINDERHOOK, 18 Dec'r 1775.

GENTLEMEN: We are so much disposed for Peace at this critical Juncture that we cannot but pay particular attention to every Proposal of which the professed design is to promote so desirable a Purpose. We have therefore maturely considered the contents of the letter of the 7th Dec'r with which you have been pleased to favor us, and we doubt not but you will exercise the same candor with Respect to our Reasons which we shall always think our Duty in considering every procedure of this Committee.

When we were to carry into execution the Resolutions of the Provincial Congress for the Election of Deputies to represent us in Provincial Congress and Members of Committee, we considered that they were the only Rule by which we were to conduct our Proceedings and that the propriety of them was no object of our Enquiry. We therefore issued a notification which was Published on the second Day of November which we now submit to the Inspection of the General Committee. On that Day two of us opened and attended the Poll at which many respectable Inhabitants gave their Votes agreeable to the List we have delivered in others to the number of seven tendered their votes which we rejected as not having the necessary qualifications mentioned by the Congress. In the course of the Election a letter was shown to us who superintended the Poll, from Mr Robert Yates directed not to us as a Committee but to one of the Inhabitants of the District mentioning the subsequent explanatory Resolution of the Congress. About four o'clock in the afternoon having taken all the Votes which were offered and having repeatedly signified our readiness to keep the Poll open untill another Day if requested, which however was not done, we closed the Election and have made our Returns. You are pleased to say that you conclude that we had not seen the latter Resolve of the Provincial Congress by which Persons who "had a Possession to the value of £80 were entitled to Vote." Upon examining that Resolve we find it declares that "Tenants possessed of Lands or Tenements of the Value" &c which we suppose is what you allude to. But we conceive it by no means follows that this will entitle every Possessor to Vote, the Term Tenant in our conception being relative to Landlord and the one necessarily implies the existence of the other. To make this material however in the case it ought to be shown that any Persons with this Qualification that is to say a Tenant having Lands &c to the Value of £80 had offered themselves and been refused, but this did not happen. But even admitting (what we positively deny) that all those were wrongfully rejected whose Votes we refused, yet as they were as we have before observed only Seven in number, the Committee will find that the Majority was so great for the Returned Deputies and Members that it is impossible they could prevent the Return we have made from taking Place, which we think is a conclusive argument against those who would carp at our Proceedings. The Rejection of even legal votes in our apprehension cannot vitiate a Return unless the Majority depends upon the admission or exclusion of them which in this Instance is manifestly not the Case. But for your further satisfaction we observe that it has been shewn to us that even of the Votes whom we rejected no less than would have voted for the members we returned, which is a proof of our Impartiality that we hope Impudence itself cannot gainsay.

We are clearly of the opinion that as we have already executed the Powers given us by the Congress and the Committee, we would not be justified in acquiescing in the Proposal of the Committee to agree with those who have taken on themselves to hold a Poll in direct violation of the Resolutions of the Congress, and the General Committee of the County upon a matter which would also implicate our own Proceedings. By this Means we should not only countenance, but become accessaries to the Irregularities of others. We should arbitrarily take upon ourselves to counteract the Sentiments of the District — of those who conformed to the Directions of the Congress, in order to humor those who wantonly opposed them; and how far this will promote union or “defeat the Intentions of those who are fond of promoting Discord” we need not mention. Finally, how can we arrogate to ourselves the Rejection of any of the Members regularly chosen, or obtrude upon them Collegues, whose only Claim to a Right of Representing the District, is that they have dared to Violate the Rules and Directions of that very body of which they are so desirous of being Members.

If the General Committee had been apprised of the above Facts and adverted to the Reasonings upon them, we think they would not have passed that censure upon the District which is implied in the Beginning of this Letter. The Idea of a disunited Place is a harsh one to the Inhabitants of it, and for our Part we know of no “misunderstanding in the District” unless the Clamours of a few discontented Persons can be called so who it seems have a higher opinion of their own merit than their neighbours have. We dare appeal to the public Records of the District for proof that the affairs of it have been conducted with a unanimity equal to that of any other, and we might remind this Committee of the Weight which is due to the applications of the Persons who now again appear before them from what has happened heretofore. If there be any District or Place in the County in such entire union as to have not even a few dissenting Voices among them, we have not yet heard of that Place and we wish for a Trial of their Patience that the malcontents in our Township might take their Residence among them. We believe however there is no such Place and if more frequent and louder Clamours have come from the few among us, it is because they are more refractory and have more Perseverance (but we hope are not more countenanced) than any other. For our Part, fond as we are of union, we wish not to be united with any set of Individuals at the Expense of our Duty, or with such who refuse to conform to any Regulation which they do not themselves approve of. When the Committee consider this they will not be surprised that “a new Cause of Discontent” has arisen among these People.

Upon the whole we have conscientiously conformed to the Resolutions of the Congress according to our understanding of it, and we claim no discretionary Power to control or dispense with the Directions of that Body. We remain, Gentlemen, Your most Humble Servants,

PETER VOSBURGH,
PETER S. VAN ALSTINE,

Whereas the General Committee of the City and County of Albany by their Resolves entered into on the fifth instant have Invalidated the late Return of the Election for Committee in the District of Kinderhook, and ordered that a new Election be held in said District on Monday the 15th day January instant at the

In Pursuance of the said Resolution it is hereby declared that the said Election will be held on the day and at the Place aforesaid, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, and the Inhabitants of said District are hereby notified of said Resolves and earnestly requested to attend on the Day and Place aforesaid for the purpose aforesaid,

Those who held the Poll suffer Boys of 16 years old to vote.

(D.)

After those clear and convincing light which we have thrown on the Business of the Kinderhook Election have been disregarded, we can promise little Benefit to ourselves from a further appeal either to Reason or Justice. We have shown that the late Committee for our District conformed to the Rules of the Congress, and of this Board, that a regular Poll was held at which they were appointed to preside, and of which they were like other Returning officers the only judges, in the first instance we have proved that y<sup>e</sup> rejections of even legal votes does not absolutely viciate an Election, and we have declared our readiness to conform to the practise of all Public Bodies in the case of scrutinies when it is the Invariable usage to strike off from the Poll such as have been admitted without the legal Qualification, and to add such as being duly Qualified have been rejected (provided they tender their votes at the Election), and to confirm this doctrine we have alluded to the proceedings of the Common Council of this City in the Scrutiny between Yates and them within a few years. We have remonstrated against the pernicious Tendency of this Board countenancing Individuals who have acted in open and wanton Violation of all Precedents, and even of the orders of this Board. We are therefore constrained by the exigency of our case Solemnly to protest against this Proceeding of the Committee and to declare that from henceforth the District of Kinderhook is no longer represented at this Board: and in this measure we stand justified to our constituents as well as our consciences, charging all the Mischief upon that decision by which the right of Election is taken away from the District, and vested in this Committee, and by which the Majority of Electors is sacrificed to the Minority. Such a conduct too we conceive has a manifest tendency to destroy that Union which some people pretend such zeal to mentain and by lessening the authority of Congress and Committees, and encouraging a Breach of their Rules and orders is subversive of that system of Power which the United Colonies have thought proper to establish in carrying on their Defence.

The above was delivered in the Albany County Committee the 5 January, 1776, by the District Committee of Kinderhook, and Signed by

The Humble Petition of Ship Wrights now Employ'd on the Publick work att Poughkeepsie.

WORTHY GENTLEMAN: It is with the greatest Reluctance Imaginable we your humble Petitioners are under the disagreeable Necessity of thus addressing you By this their Humble Petition Respecting our Wages nor should we att this time presume to Intrude on your Goodness did not Every Idea of want & Misery most Impertinately stare us in the face, occasion'd By the Curtailing of our wages and the great Rise of every Necessary of Life which we Need not mention, for we make no Doubt but that the Honb<sup>le</sup> Convention are fully acquainted with the Prices of all nor will they Bear mentioning In Competition with our wages which is no more than 8s. P<sup>r</sup> Day & 10s. 6d. P<sup>r</sup> Day for the Foreman much Less than has been known for a Serious of years Before the Last. We also take Liberty to say that not a Mechanick that Derives Protection from the Honb<sup>le</sup> Continental Congress but has greater wages now than they Had Before this unhappy Civil war Began Except Ship Wrights & Joyners and it's Evident to a Demonstration that they in a particular manner are the Great Bulwark of the Navy, which no war Can be vigorously Prosecuted without, altho the Projectors thereof are held in Little Esteem, But we your humble petitioners fearing to tire your Patience make no Demand But beg your Consideration But a few Moments on the Nature of this our Petition. We make no Doubt but from the readiness of your Honours to Recieve Petitions the Natural Inclination to Relieve the opprest your Right to justify the Injured and your Power to Encourage the Sons of Liberty that you will augment such a Due Proportion to our Present small Wages as will make the Hearts of your Humble Petitioners Leap for Joy that has been so Long swoln against the unknown Curtailor of our Wages. Then worthy Sirs you will have all the prayers that can Flow from the gladned Hearts of Sirs Your Devoted most obedient Faithfull Servants to Command, Signed by Order and in Behalf of the Body of Mechanicks.

To the Honourable Convention of the State of New York.

The Memorial of Stephen Hogeboom of Claverack in the County of Albany in behalf of himself and Peter Hogeboom and Thomas Storm of the same place owners of the Sloop Middlesex, Humbly Sheweth,

That your Memorialist and the other owners of the said Sloop sent her down to the City of New York in July last laden with flour for the use of the Continental Army. That before her Loading was Discharged the navigation up Hudsons River was obstructed by two ships of War of the King of Great Britain sailing up as far as Terrytown. That thereupon Peter Hogeboom one of the said owners after having discharged his Cargo carryed the said Sloop up the Sound to Horseneck for safety. That in August following your Memorialist hearing that the Ships of War were sailed out of Hudson River brought his Sloop back to New York with a design to proceed with her to Claverack, but was prevented from proceeding by Coll Wardsworth and Commissary Hughes who ordered your Memorialist over with the Sloop to Long Island Ferry, where she was used to carry off the Troops and Stores, after the unfortunate retreat on the 28th of the said month. That your Memorialist seeing no prospect of bringing the said Sloop to a place of safety while she continued in the Continental Service thereupon quitted her. That the said Sloop was afterwards carryed up with stores of the Army thro' the Sound to Kings Bridge where she was used as a Store Vessel by the Continental Army until the Retreat from the Island when she fell into the hands of the Enemy. That your Memorialists have lost the said Sloop by her being taken into the Continental Service, your Memorialist therefore prays that the House will take the premises into cons<sup>dn</sup> and grant unto your Memorialist such relief in the premises as shall appear reasonable.

FISHKILL, January 5th 1777.

To the Honorable Congress.

GENTLEMEN: The boldness I take at present in addressing you I hope your Honours will forgive when you consider my case. I belong'd last year to Colonel beetels Regiment and was taken by the indians up at the norward at the seder swamp where I was wounded Gentlemen in my Leg and stript of watch, close and every thing else. I then had the good fortune to escape from them and remain'd in the woods for nine days till some charitable persons supply'd me with food and raiment to cover me with for which I had suffered great hardships. I cannot but think it very hard Gentlemen that I never for three months recieved any pay nor a copper of money to make up any of my Losses which was very considerable. I had almost forgot to mention my Capt<sup>n</sup> name which was Ossgood. I then traveled to New York where I listed in General M<sup>c</sup>Dougal's Reg and do now belong to Colonel Willets and Capt. Tiebout Company and do the duty of Serjent. I have always behaved as a good soldier which I leave to all that knows me. I will not trouble you any further Gentlemen only I beg it as a favour that you will consider what I have sufferd and I do not then doubt but what I shall be recompenced for what I have lost and undergone. I now beg leave to remain with the greatest respect, Gentlemen, [See Jour. Prov. Cong. I. 808 for Mr. Duer's Letter to the Convention transmitting following documents.]CROMWELL'S 6 Feb<sup>r</sup> 1777.

SIR: I have agreeable to your request communicated to the Committee of Convention now in this County the two points which you have thought proper to Submit to their Consideration; the first respecting the Number of Troops which in their opinion would be Necessary to cover the foraging Waggons; the Second, the propriety of destroying the Hay and Grain in such parts of the County of Westchester which are more Immediately exposed to the Depredations of the Enemy.

With respect to the first point the Committee are of opinion that a body of at least Twelve Hundred Men whose Term of Inlistment is of five Weeks duration will be Necessary in order to Execute the Business of foraging with Safety and Ease to the Men as from the best Intelligence we can obtain the strength of the Enemy at the Bridge and to the Northward of it Including the Garrison of fort Independence cannot fall short of Eight Hundred Men.

With respect to the Second point the Committee are of opinion that it will be Essential to the public Service to destroy all the forage and Grain to the Southward of the post Road from New Rochelle to Eastchester from thence South westerly of the Road from Eastchester to Benjamin Hunt; from thence Southwesterly of the Road from said Benjamin Hunt to Coll. Phillips excepting so much as the foraging Teams may be able to Carry off on the day on which this business is to be Carried into Execution.

This advice the Committee are Induced to give for the following Reasons: first because they are of opinion that there is more forage in the Country which lies to the Northward of the bounds last mentioned than Teams can be procured to carry off for the space of six weeks; Secondly that as the forage is of a very inferior quality and in situation much exposed not only to the Enemy's Troops but shipping it would neither be Consistent with good Economy or the safety of the foraging parties to attempt removing it even if a sufficient number of Teams could be procured.

It will be necessary that the parties to be Employed in Destroying the forage in the Lower parts of the County should have pilot and that they should by no means Destroy any Buildings whatsoever excepting such as contain quantities of forage & Grain in the Straw which cannot be removed — the Committee will cheerfully give their assistance in furnishing proper pilots and in co-operating with you in every other measure which you may deem advancing of the General Welfare — from Intelligence rec<sup>d</sup> by the Committee the Character of one Moses Quimby who proposed to you this day an Extraordinary Scheme of Commerce between us and the Enemy, the Committee are of opinion that he is a person of a very suspicious Character and that he ought immediately to be Seized we have therefore to request the favour of you that you will immediately Detach a small party to Apprehend him. In Case he is not at your Quarters he will probably be found at the house of Uriah Field to whom he is nearly Related. I am—Sir—By order—Your H<sup>ble</sup> Servt,

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 280.]

KINGS STREET, Feb<sup>r</sup> 7th 1777.

SIR: I have just received yours of this days date and could still wish that the Forage may be set on fire by persons appointed by you for that purpose, a small number will be sufficient. I have ordered 200 Men to Phillips's, 500 to Wards and 300 to Pells near East Chester as this covering party is large and the Troops after tomorrow will be filing off.

I beg your utmost Exertions, to Collect as many Teams as possible — Query — whether the Limits, you have mentioned within which the forage is to be burnt is not rather large — you are however the Best Judges.

I have Ordered General Lincoln's four Regiments over the River about 1000 Men to Peek's Kill, and the Connecticut and New York Militia to remain in this Quarter to Cover the forage &<sup>c</sup> you know the Number of your own Troops; the Connecticut Militia Consists of upwards of 1000 — out of which a Guard must be posted at Saw-pitts and a post Established at or near Rye, others of them must be thrown this way. I should be Glad of your opinion where they can be best Quartered to answer the end proposed as I must this Evening make Disposition of them.

GENT<sup>r</sup> In Consequence of Orders from his Excellency General Washington, I am making a New Disposition of the Troops on this Side of the North River.

The Militia of this State now in Westchester County and the New Levies from the State of Connecticut, are to remain in this Quarter for the purpose of Harrassing the Enemy, and Securing the forage. I have wrote Gen<sup>l</sup> Wooster to post them in such manner as will best answer these purposes, and have recommended to him to advise with you in the Disposition of them—I shall leave about 1000 men at Peek's Kill—the remainder are to pass the North River Immediately and Join Gen<sup>l</sup> Washington—the New-York and Connecticut Militia will make 12 or 1300 men at the least including Officers with these I hope you will be able to Secure the forage &<sup>c</sup>

I think the present Magazine is by no means far enough from the Enemy, as Magazines ever Engage their attention and the more as they grow Considerable. I would therefore advise that as soon as possible the forage should be moved back to some Interior part of the Country beyond all Danger of the Enemy.

I shall in an Hour or two Sett out for Peek's Kill.

Committee of Convention of the State of New-York

(No. 4.)

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 274.]

In Committee appointed by the Convention of the State of New-York—Cromwells, 10th Feb<sup>r</sup> 1777.

Present: Mr. Tompkins, Mr. Landon,

Mr. Duer,
Mr. Sackett.

SIR: I have laid before the Committee your two letters, of Feb<sup>r</sup> the 7th and 9th in which you Inform them that you have left the Connecticut Militia under the Command of Gen. Wooster, together with the N: York Troops to harrass the Enemy and to Cover the teams Employed in foraging in this County, that this force would Consist of about 1200 or 1300 men Including officers, and that out of this Number a post is to be Maintained at the Saw-pitts and another at Rye.

When you thought proper to advise with this Committee Concerning the number of Troops which they Conceived Necessary for the purpose of protecting the foragers, in this part of the Country they give it as their Opinion, that a body of at least 1200 Men would be requisite for that purpose. In forming this opinion, they had not in Contemplation to Include Officers, neither did they Conceive that any post whatsoever were to be maintained out of that Number. They meant to Confine themselves, solely to the Number, which they Conceived Necessary for doing forage Duty, in Such a manner as Should be most Safe, and least harrassing to the men Employed in that Service. They did not mean to Include even the Guards Necessary for protecting the magazines of forage, w<sup>ch</sup> Considering the Neighbourhood it is in, and the great Object it must be to the Enemy—Should in their Opinion Consist of at least 1100 men under the Command of a Watchfull and Spirited Officer. In your letter of the 9th Instant, you are pleased to inform this Committee that you propose leaving about a Thousand Men at the post at Peeks Kill. With great deference to your judgment in this Matter—the Committee are of opinion that a Considerable part of this force, if removed Lower down would answer purposes much more beneficial to the public Cause, than they Could do by remaining at Peeks Kill—It appears to us that the following points ought to be the grand object of our attention in this Quarter. The first is the Securing all the forage we possibly can between this and the opening of the Spring Campaign, in Order to form magazines for the use of the Continental Army: The 2nd the Destruction of all the forage and Grain in the lower parts of this County, which from being Contiguous to the Enemy's posts and in many places Exposed to the fire of their Shipping Cannot be Removed without very Great risque, fatigue, and expense:—the 3<sup>d</sup> the Cutting off the Communication with the Enemy, in Such a manner as to prevent their being Supplied with provisions or Joined by the Disaffected, whom they have Inlisted in this State, and that of Connecticut, the 4th the Disposal of the Troops in such a Manner as is best calculated to give protection to our friends in the County of West Chester, and to make a Saving in the long Carting and Consumption of forage, which attend their staying at Peeks Kill.

The first object cannot in our opinion be Effected with the Number of Troops you have Destined for this Service, (Deducting those which are to Maintain the posts at the Sawpitts and Rye) even should Gen. Wooster agree with the Committee in the Disposition of the Troops much less do we Conceive them Adequate for Destroying the forage within the limits we have proposed or for Cutting off all Intercourse betwixt the Enemy and our domestic foes and giving protection to our Suffring friends in the Manor of Phillipsborough, and the Country adjacent to it— By the removal of Gen' Lyncoln's Division, a great chasm is Left open thro' which the Enemy will undoubtedly receive Supplies both of recruits and provision, and many Strenuous Advocates for the Cause of their Country will be exposed to the redoubled resentment of the Enemy's Rangers.

We humbly Conceive that if four Hundred Men were Stationed at Peeks Kill in order to Guard the Stores, the remainder might be at Dobbs Ferry, and in the Mile Square Road in such a Manner as would answer in a great degree all the Objects we have mentioned but were no other purpose to be answered by this Disposition than that of making a Prodegius Saving in forage and of Consuming provision, which may be purchased in this Quarter, and which may otherwise fall into the hands of the enemy, these we Conceive would be a Sufficient Justification of this Step.

We by no means Conceive that the Post at Peeks Kill will be in the least Endangered by this manœuvre—Should the Enemy make an attempt to advance to that Quarter, either by Land or by Water, they will undoubtedly be soon observed, and the Troops at Dobbs Ferry would be Able to retreat to maintain that post; at all Events timely Succour can be Thrown in, from the Troops now Stationed at the Fish Kills.

We flatter ourselves that the Freedom with which we give our opinion will not be displeasing to you as it is dictated by a Regard to the General Cause—and as you have frequently been pleased to Consult us on Matters relative to the Military Operations in this County. From these Considerations, and from the Reason which this Committee have to think that it is the wish of his Excell<sup>ty</sup> Gen' Washington, that as much of the lower parts of this County as possible be Covered by the Troops which are left to this State, We have been Induced to Communicate our Sentiments, not Doubting but you will use such measures in Consequence as shall appear to you on a Mature Consideration best adapted to promote the public good.

I am Sir, By Order, Your Hbb<sup>le</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

PEEKS KILL, 11th Feb<sup>r</sup> 1777.

GENT<sup>l</sup>: I have just received your favour of yesterday's Date — I conceived the Connecticut and New-York Troops to be fully equal to the Number which you proposed to me, and for the purpose for which they were intended. A small guard will be sufficient at the Saw-pitts, — those posted at Rye must be Considered as making part of the Chain, and if they are too far back must be advanced.

I wrote to Gen' Wooster before I left Kings street that his Troops must be Quartered in such Manner as best to answer the purpose of covering the foragers, &c., and that I would have him Advise with you on the Disposition of them, — and that in Consequence of General Lyncoln's Division moving off, His must move to the Right — I would have you therefore conferr with him as soon as possible, that the Troops may be so posted as will best answer the before mentioned purpose, and Serve to harrass the Enemy — I have again wrote him on the Subject — the 1000 Men which I have ordered to remain here Gen' M<sup>c</sup> Dougall thinks are full little enough for the several passes and Forts, — I have however desired him to afford you all the aid in his power by Sending a Guard to the Magazine, or otherwise, as her Number will admitt.

The forage is undoubtedly an object of great Importance and should be attended to as such.

But I think it should be removed as soon as possible much further back than Wrights Mills — His Excellency Gen' Washington in a letter to me of the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant is pleased to express himself in the following manner: "I would by all means have the forage, and provisions removed to some Interior parts of the Country — entirely out of the Enemy's reach — for altho' the removing will be attended with greater Expence, than the same Quantity could be laid in for, nearer the grand Magazine, yet the loss of it to the Enemy will vastly more than counterbalance that consideration."

And in another Letter of the 9th Instant, which I have just received, "Proper places are pointed out already to M<sup>r</sup> Hughs at Peeks Kill for the Public Magazines, to them all Stores of every kind must be removed, the forage and provisions taken by any of your parties in the Vicinity of the Enemy should be sent to them." As your Magazine becomes Considerable, they will more and more attract the attention of the Enemy, who will run many Hazards to destroy them, they should therefore be at a Distance and well guarded. I am Gent<sup>l</sup> Your most H<sup>ble</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

W. HEATH.

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 270.]

SIR: M<sup>r</sup> Doughty Informs the Gen<sup>l</sup> that the duty on your party is excessive hard, occasioned by furnishing the Guards at Wards, the Scout and foraging parties, &c.

Gen<sup>l</sup> Wooster proposes to remove all the Troops in this Division into a line from Mamaroneck to Saw-pitts and Rye, and extend them to Kings street. The Gen<sup>l</sup> thinks it best that your Troops Including Major Fish's should take Quarters some where between White Plains and King Street, as near to those of this Division as possible, and that you should remove the Advance Guard from Wards farther up towards White Plains, he supposes you are better acquainted with the ground and the places where Troops may be Quartered than any person here, and if you find this plan Impracticable you will Inform him.

As to Duty the Guards both on that Road and this must be furnished by both Divisions in proportion to their Strength, and when ever the Committee want foraging parties they are to give Notice to the Gen<sup>l</sup> and Suitable Details will go out by his Orders, without which he does not direct you to make out any parties for that purpose.

M. LEAVENWORTH.

CROMWELLS 14th Feb<sup>y</sup> 1777.

GENT<sup>l</sup> We send you a Copy of a letter from us to Gen<sup>l</sup> Wooster relating to the disposition of the Troops for the purpose of Covering the foraging party and Cutting off the Communication betwixt us and the Enemy.

We desire to know your opinion Concerning the plan we propose. If you think any more eligible or efficacious can be formed, you will be pleased to Inform us as soon as possible.

JONATHAN G. TOMPKINS.

SIR: We this day sett off from this place, with an Intention of calling on you at your Quarters, in order to Conferr with you Concerning the Disposition of the Troops, for the purpose of protecting the foraging in this County; when we were within two miles of your Quarter we were informed that you were gone to Horse-neck in Consequence of which we returned to this place, having staid at the Saw-pitts till near 5 o'clock in the afternoon expecting your return in the afternoon that way. In Consequence of Gen<sup>l</sup> Heath's request to us that we would Communicate to you our opinion Concerning the New Disposition to be made of the Connecticut and New-York Troops as Early as possible; we think proper to Inform you that the greatest part of the forage lies in East Chester, West Chester and a little to the Northward of Milesquare and therefore that it will in our opinion be Necessary to have at least 500 of the Connecticut Troops Stationed betwixt the Towns of New Rochelle and Eastchester in the most compact manner possible, under the Command of a sperited and Vigilant Officer.

The New-York Troops Consisting of about 350 men (Including Capt<sup>n</sup> Delivan's Company of Rangers) to be posted from the House of M<sup>r</sup> Stephen Wards to the House of Benjamin Drake and that the remainder of the Connecticut Troops, exclusive of the Guard which Gen<sup>l</sup> Heath Informs us is to be left at the saw pitts, we recommend to be posted at Turkehoe. As we are informed from Gen<sup>l</sup> Heath that the Number of Connecticut Troops under your Command is betwixt 1200 and 1300, and that a small Guard will be sufficient at the Saw-pitts. We suppose that you will be able to spare betwixt 4 & 500 Men for the post last mentioned—from this Disposition of the Troops the foraging can be Effectuated with much greater Safety and ease to the Men, than if they should be posted farther back, for as the Chief part of the forage lies very Contiguous to the advanced posts, the covering parties will not only have a very little way to march, in order to protect the Teams, but even a smaller Number of Men will be sufficient than would otherwise be requisite.

If patrolling parties are kept Constantly out from Turkehoe to Wards, and from Wards to Benjamin Drakes, We Conceive that no one post can be attacked without timely notice being given to another. Exclusive of the advantage of foraging with more facility by means of this Disposition of the Troops, it will be attended with another, which appears to us of great moment, and that is, it will in a great measure prevent the Enemy's Army from being Supplied with provisions or joined by the disaffected whom their Emissaries are daily Inlisting.

We will do ourselves the pleasure of Waiting on you to Morrow Evening in Order to Converse with you more fully on this, and on other Matters, which we think Conducive to the General Welfare.

JONATHAN G. TOMPKINS,
JN<sup>o</sup> SLOSS HOBART.

Hon Major General Wooster.

GENTLEMEN: We having (agreeable to your Request) examined the Plan for the Disposition of the Troops for the Purpose of protecting the foraging in this County—recommended in your Letter to the Honorable Major General Wooster are fully of opinion with you; that the foraging Business in this County may be conducted with much more facility and ease to the Troops, than by any other that is equally compatible with their safety; and that it will prevent the Enemy's Army from receiving many Supplies of Provision which from any other Disposition more remote from them they might receive.

We have the Honor to be Gentlemen your most obedient humble Servants,
CORNELIUS HUMFREY,

SIR: Yours of this date came safe to hand. — I have to inform you that I have ordered the troops to march to morrow morning to take post in New-Rochelle, from thence towards the house of Stephen Ward agreeable to what was proposed last night.

Feb<sup>y</sup> 7th 1777.

Your Committee to whom was referred the Dispatches from Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler beg leave to report:

As to the first your Committee submit the two following Resolutions to wit:

Resolved that Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler be and he hereby is impowered if he shall judge the same necessary to Draft or cause to be drafted under Officers to be appointed by him upon the Nomination of the several Brigadier Generals of the respective Counties, one fifth part of the militia of the counties of Albany, Tryon, Charlotte, Gloucester and Cumberland to be embodied into such and so many Regiments as he shall think proper and to continue in Service untill the last Day of April next under the Command of the said Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler or other the Commander in Chief for the Northern Department and that the said Drafts hold themselves in readiness to march—but that they be not ordered to march except in case of the most urgent necessity and that they be dismissed as soon as such necessity shall cease. That such of the said Drafts as are unprovided with arms and accoutrements be armed and accoutred from among the Militia of the said Counties and to be entitled to Continental Pay and Rations and the Captain of the respective Companies out of which such Drafts shall [be] made is hereby authorized & directed to impress such Arms & accoutrements as may be necessary for compleatly arm<sup>d</sup> & accoutring such Drafts of the Militia as afores<sup>d</sup> and every of the Captains who is to command a Company of the such Drafts is hereby directed to give Receipts for the Arms and accoutrements which may be procured as aforesaid for the use of any of the Men in his respective Company to be accountable for such Arms to the respective owners of the same.

Whereas it hath been suggested to this Committee of Safety that divers Persons with evil Design have engrossed large quantities of Grain to the great Hindrance & Damage of the American Army and to the grievous Oppression of the Poor,

Resolved therefore that in all such Cases the honorable Major Gen<sup>l</sup> Philip Schuyler shall be and he hereby is impowered to take such Grain for the Use of the said Army he paying therefor such Price as he shall think reasonable and just that is to say such as will be a Compensation for the Labor of purchasing and securing said Grain and for the prime Cost of the same.

And as to the third Matter of the said Dispatches your Committe report the following Resolution:

Resolved that in the Opinion of this Committee it will be of great service to the American Cause to apprehend Joseph Brandt, wherefore no Cost should be spared for that purpose and that it will be of use to recommend to Gen<sup>l</sup> Schuyler M<sup>r</sup> John Harper of the County of Tryon as a proper Person to be employed in that Service the said John Harper being as this Committee are well informed very intimately acquainted at the Oneoghquage Castle and warmly attached to the American Cause. (Indorsed.) Recommended & another report was made instead thereof by Gen<sup>l</sup> Scott, 9 Feb. 1777.

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 197.]

TICONDEROGA 13th Feb<sup>r</sup> 1777.

DEAR GENERAL: An Express came in from one of our scouting parties about twelve o'clock last Night, with Intelligence that they had taken two French Men, who were then under Guard about five miles North of Crown point, they arrived here about an Hour since and turn out to be a Lient Guio late belonging to Colo: Livingston's Canadian Regiment and his Guide John prapliste pero—They profess themselves fast Friends to America and say they flew from oppression—Guio being but a few days released from 24 weeks Confinement in Irons—They agree in the following account viz' after the Retreat of the Enemy they took post 150 at Montreal where General Frazer commands.

550 at St. John's, including the Sailors &amp; Marines.

20 at point au fair.

The Remainder of the British Troops are billeted two or three in each House in the Vicinity of Montreal, Chamille [Chambly] &c, and that all the German Troops are cantoned in & below Quebec—that no part of them are gone out of that Country, but that all who arrived last Spring are yet there—That Generals Burgoine & M<sup>c</sup>Clean are gone to Great Britain for a large Reinforcement against next Spring.

Provisions and Cash are scarce in Canada,—They give Notes in place of Money and that the Germans are mutinous for want of pay and necessaries.

They further say that being at Chamble seventeen Days since—a great Number of Indians were then ready to set out against us and that he heard Gen<sup>l</sup> Paoli give them part of their orders, which was to proceed to this place and make prisoners with a promise of twenty half Joe's per Head.

Lieut. Guio and his Guide then began their March for this post and on their arrival at le grand Isle (ten Days after) they discovered one hundred Indians with a few Regulars one half on the East the others on the west side of Lake Champlain—That five Days since they discovered the same parties about half-way between that and Crown Point and that we may expect them every Hour—They also agree that the Enemy have four Top Sail Vessels carrying twelve Guns each and two Row Gallies and no more, but that they are busy in building four more large Vessels and have about 800 Canadians employed in the different works.

Whether this Account of the Indians is true or false I shall be prepared to receive them and will be answerable for the Defence of this post until you can have Time to send me succours. Interim I am Dear General

ALBANY COUNTY COMMITTEE CHAMBER 13th Feby. 1777.

GENT: Upon a late order of this Committee for the Rangers to march to Tyconderoga for the purpose of Strengthening that Garrison, they have refused to perform that Service. They have also refused to do Garrison Duty, and have disobeyed the Commands of this Committee in several other instances.

If they are not to do the duty of Soldiers in General we presume they can be of no service to the Country at least we are assured the advantage we can receive from them cannot be equal to the Vast Sum expended for their Pay and Subsistance, with Submission to you we think as they have received a Bounty that they ought to be annexed to some Regiment, or that they be discharged upon their delivering up the Bounty given them, or at least part thereof.

We are Gent, Your Very humble Serv<sup>t</sup> By Order,

JOHN BARCLAY, Chairman.

Petition of Assistant Commissary Cregier.

[Petitions, 33: 620.]

To the Honorable the Representatives of the State of New York.

The Memorial of Cornelius Cregier, Humbly Sheweth that the Committee of the honorable Convention appointed to procure Cloathing for the Continental Army placed your Memorialist in the cloathing Store as their Store Keeper. That your Memorialist has with his utmost diligence and great fatigue frequently during nights as well as the days executed that Trust. That your Memorialist has a very Minute Knowledge of the Business of the said Store hitherto, and humbly conceives that in a few weeks the Cloathing for the troops will be principally collected, That your Memorialist by his removal from the City of New York to avoid falling into the hands of the enemy, has lost the most part of his property, and that he has a wife and seven children. That your Memorialist is informed that the Committee who superintend the said Store will speedily remove, and that a Commissary will be appointed to superintend the same. Your Memorialist therefore humbly prays that he may be appointed Commissary of the said Store, if the Convention in their wisdom shall think fit, or otherwise that he may be continued therein in such situation & with such order as to have some fixt allowance for his continual attention, Trouble & fatigue and be removable only by the order of the Honorable the Representatives or some Committee of their appointment. And your Memorialist shall ever pray.

Your Committee appointed to confer with Capt. Samuel Tudor and M<sup>r</sup> Burling, Do report,

That in the course of the Conference Cap<sup>t</sup> Tudor says that about Five Tons of Iron is still wanting for the Continental Frigates now at Esopus, without which they cannot be completed by the Spring, and that he is at a Loss how to procure the same without the Assistance of this House.

He also says that he is in want of the following Articles for the purpose aforesaid, to wit: 25 Copper Ladles for 12 Pounders, 1 Box of false fires, 2 Copper Drifts for false fires, 2 ditto for Fuses for Hand Granades, 12 lb. of steel Dust, 100 lb of Sulpher, 8 Cegs of white Lead, 6 doz Lanthorns, Muskets, Pistols & Cutlasses, he also informs your Committee That he cannot supply the Ship Wrights with Rations at the Rate of 10<sup>½</sup> p<sup>r</sup> Ration occasioned by the advanced price of Provisions. But is willing to purchase provision on the lowest Terms, and furnish the Ship Wrights therewith, he receiving the amount of what the Rations shall Cost him. At the same Time both Capt. Tudor & Mr. Burling recommended to the Committee as the Easiest and most Satisfactory method to advance the wages of each Sphipwright 3 shillings p<sup>r</sup> Day in Lieu of Rations. Your Committee do further report that Mr. Burling informed them that he is in advance for Provisions furnished the work men on Board the Ship Congress, and that he stands engaged to them for their Nights work in bring<sup>g</sup> up the said Ship from Poughkeepsie to Esopus which Captain Austin Lawrence absolutely refuses to pay.

Your Committee are of opinion that a Letter from this House Directed to Col<sup>o</sup> Robert Livingston at the Manor Requesting him with all convenient speed to furnish the aforesaid quantity of Iron will be the most effectual means to procure it. Your Committee are further of opinion that the likest means for obtaining the Copper Ladles, and sundry other Articles before mentioned will be by application to the Continental Marine Committee;

Resolved, That 10<sup>s</sup> 6<sup>d</sup> ought to be allowed to the Carpenters on board the Continental Ships built at Poukeepsie for pay and Rations, and 13s 9d to the foremen for pay and Rations, and that it be recommended by the Superintendants of the s<sup>d</sup> Ship to pay them from the Date hereof at that rate.

Your Committee are further of opinion that the said Lancaster Burling and others who have supplied the men on Board the Ship Congress with Provisions, return to this House a true account of the Number of men victuled and the amount thereof, which account ought to be proved upon Oath or affirmation, to be just before the Chairman of the Committee and the Town of Kingston, or the Chairman of the Committee of the Precinct of Poughkeepsie who should be required to Certify the same, and that the said account thus proved be transmitted to the Convention of this State to be delivered to the Auditor to be audited for payment.

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 191.]

Mr. Abraham A. Lansingh of Stonerabia in the County of Albany appeared before this Board, and Complained against Jillis De Garmo and others for refusing to take in Payment on Bond the Continental Currency, and whereas sundry Complaints of the same Nature have been preferred to this Board, and no salutary mode prescribed to this Committee how to proceed in a Case so Circumstanced and being greatly alarmed at the approaching evill which will unavoidably ensue,

Thereupon Resolved that Mess<sup>rs</sup> John M. Beekman and William Thorn be appointed a Committee immediately to repair to the Convention of this State now Sitting at Kingston, and there make personal application to that Honorable Body, for some Salutary Resolve to be by them passed to relieve us from the approaching apprehensions respecting the Continental Currency and that the said Beekman and Thorn do not return untill they obtain if possible such a Resolve.

[Miscel. Pap. 38 : 258.]

NEW WINDSOR, 23<sup>d</sup> February, 1777.

DEAR SIR: On my arival Home last Night I received a Letter from his Excellency General Washington, of which the enclosed is a Copy. By this you will find that more is expected from me than is in my Power even tho' the 500 Men ordered to be raised in Dutchess & West Chester were compleated, unless they were to join me on this Side the River and then I should be able to afford but a very inconsiderable Reinforcement to the Main Army (if any at all) after posting sufficient Detachments at the Pass, for effecting the Business more particularly recommended in his Excellencys Letter. Col<sup>l</sup> Pawling's Regiment consists now only of 361 including Officers, and they occupy three different Posts, to wit: Sydman's Bridge, Cloyster & Hackensack, all equally if not more necessary than that mentioned by the Gen<sup>l</sup> and I dont imagine he means they should be abandon'd — I fear that sending a Detachment out of this small Force (already much divided) to Passaiack Falls will be indangering the other Posts, at any Rate it will render the Duty on the men exceedingly hard. I will however order a Lieutenants Party there for the Present, in hopes that some Way may be devised to supply this Place — Useless as the Rangers have been, would it not be best to annex to Belknaps & D. Witts Companies to Col Pawling's Regiment on this Occasion — I have issued orders to the Militia Colonels to Compleat their Compliment of Men which they were to have raised, Some of whom have been much more deficient in this Respect than I could have thought.

This and the Number that have enlisted out of Col<sup>l</sup> Pawlings Regiments in the Standing Army, and some Desertions of Tory Drafts to the Enemy are the Reason why it falls so much short of its Complement.

Mr. Connoly the Bearer hereof will wait upon you with Daniel Isaac Miller, who left New York on Thursday last and can give some Satisfactory Information,

I am, with due Respect, Your most Obed<sup>t</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>

GEO. CLINTON.

To the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the President of the Convention of the State of New York.

General Washington to General Geo. Clinton

[Miscel. Pap. 38 : 256.]

SIR: Information being lodged That many of the Inhabitants living near the Passaiack Falls, are busily employed in removing their Provision & Forage within the Enemy's reach with a Design of supplying them obliges me to beg the favour of you to let me know what Success you have experienced in collecting the Troops voted by the Convention of the State of New York. The Presence of some men in that Neighborhood would be attended with much good, add to this the well grounded probability that the Enemy (being lately reinforced) will make some movement soon — And you will I am satisfied use your utmost Exertions to bring a reinforcement to our Assistance. At present I cannot check the above mentioned Practice least the Detachment sent that way be more wanted for other Purposes than this — I therefore hope that some of your Troops will take that Duty off my Hands, and that you will further enable me effectually to oppose any Designs of the Enemy.

John Hancock to the Convention.

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 225.]

GENTLEMEN: In Consequence of Intelligence from Gen<sup>l</sup> Washington received yesterday by Express, that the Enemy at Brunswick were considerably reinforced by the Junction of the Troops from Rhode Island under the Command of Gen<sup>l</sup> Clinton, the Congress immediately came to a Resolution that it would be highly agreeable to them, that Gen' Washington should call to his assistance such of the Troops under Gen' Heath, as he might think necessary, and I have this Day wrote to him to inform him of this Determination. But as the Absence of the regular Troops may leave the Passes in the Highlands unguarded, I am directed by Congress to request that you will station as many of the Militia at those Passes as will be sufficient to defend them against the attempts of the Enemy, it being the earnest Desire of Congress to make the army under the immediate command of Gen' Washington sufficiently strong not only to confine the Enemy within their present Quarters, and to prevent them from drawing Support of any kind from the Country, but by the Blessing of God to subdue them before they can be further reinforced. I have the Honour to be, Gentlemen, Your most Obed<sup>t</sup> and very hbl<sup>e</sup> Serv<sup>t</sup>,

Gen. Ten Broeck to John Hancock

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 183.]

SIR: Your favour of the 25th of February I have had the Honour of receiving and laying before the Convention. It is earnestly wished that the Army under the more immediate command of General Washington was augmented to the number intended by Congress; and that it was in the power of this State to station a competent force in the High lands and Westchester County, to defend the passes and protect the Inhabitants from the Insults of the Enemy; This State Sir has cheerfully sustained Burthened during the Summer and Winter Campaigns far beyond her strength. Her Losses of Men and Labour are severely felt; and the incessant calls upon the Militia have become a Grievance which is no longer tolerable.

The Convention flattered themselves that the large army provided for the Defence of the United States would have rendered their Services except on very urgent and Sudden Emergencies unnecessary and have given Repose to the Husbandman & the Artificer; It is therefore with equal Pain and Disappointment that the Convention views the Resolution of the honourable Congress to draw all the Continental Battalions raised in this State to the Westward and to leave our Militia to the accumulated Charge of garrisoning the Passes, and of defending the Country against the Inroads and Ravages of the Enemy who from Fort Independence & Kings bridge continue to carry a predatory war, to captivate and carry off our best friends, destroy their Effects, and beat off the feeble Guards which we are able to maintain. No less than sixty of our Rangers Surprised by a Superior Force, fell into their Hands this week; besides the Chairman of the County Committee & several of his Friends & Family. what, Sir, under these circumstances must be the Feelings of our Inhabitants should their Quota of the Continental Troops according to the Proposition be drawn of from their Assistance, At a time too when it is generally expected that a more vigorous attack will be made upon the exposed Frontiers of this State.

DR. SIR: Your fav<sup>r</sup> I received for w<sup>ch</sup> I'm your debtor. I've sent pr. Post 6 Articles of War. I sell them at 2s 8d a p<sup>e</sup>—the price is high, but we printed only about 200—Paper I formerly bought in Phil<sup>a</sup> at 14 pr. Ream, I pay 42s for now pr. Ream, and more than treble the Cartage cost. By next Weeks Post, I will send you the Almanacks and shall make out a list of what School Books I have on hand in this place. I sent nearly the whole of my Books to Norwich two months before I left the City.

You will see the Parliamentary debates in this Weeks Paper. I have forwarded a packet of Papers &c from other Officers, to Convention, pr. Post. Coll. Willett just now informed me that last Sabbath a party of our Troops attacked a large Body of the enemy's, between Brunswick & Amboy, killed more than 50, & took a few. We lost about eight and some wounded. Another party the same day killed 8 of the Enemy; wounded two Waggon load, & took a considerable number. Tis said, and that on good authority that the dissatisfaction is almost universal among the soldiers in New York—Four of Roger's Rangers came off to Gen<sup>l</sup> McDougall this morning; more may be expected; opportunities of escape, they say, are rare, they brought off their Guns. The Dutch Address will go on next week & will soon be finished. I thank you for your kind offer—respecting my Paper. Report of the Committee on Indian Affairs.

[Miscel. Pap. 36: 586.]

Your Committee to whom it was referred to enquire and report the best ways and means for managing the Indian Affairs of this State have agreeable to order considered thereof; and beg leave to state the following Facts.

That the Colony of New York ever since it became an English Plantation hath maintained a strict alliance and connection with the Six nations whose territories are comprehended within its jurisdiction.

That Commissioners have for this purpose been uniformly appointed under the authority of its Legislature, and maintained at its Expen<sup>ce</sup>.

That Treaties from time to time have been concluded with these Nations, Forts erected, and trading houses established in the Country which they occupied at a vast expense to the Colony. That all contracts for the sale of the lands of the said Indians within the Jurisdiction of this State have been under the immediate Authority of the Governor and Council of New York, and all grants and confirmations thereof have passed under its great seal.

That by virtue of such purchases and grants, many of the Inhabitants of this State have so sated themselves that several of the principal settlements surround, and others extend beyond some of the Indian Castles and Villages; and that for the security and good Government of the Inhabitants thereof, counties have been established, Courts Instituted, and justice administered by the authority of the Legislature of the same Colony.

That since the late peace between Great Britain and France the King of Great Britain for the most arbitrary purposes which tho then concealed are now fully manifested, assumed the appointment of a Superintendent of Indian Affairs exclusive of the Legislature of New York. But nevertheless all purchases of Indian lands within its jurisdiction continued as usual to be made by the authority of the Governor and Council, and to be granted under the great seal of the said Colony.

That disputes have frequently happened and do now exist between the said Indians & other Inhabitants of this State concerning the Titles of land; an instance whereof is now before the Convention in which the Indians sue for Redress and jealousies and distrust of the Intentions of this State towards the said Indians are propagated by the disaffected.

That it is incumbent on Convention to appoint Commissioners to examine into these and other complaints and causes of disquiet, to detect Frauds, prevent impositions, defeat the malicious slanders of its insidious adversaries, and to preserve and maintain that good Correspondence and friendly Intercourse between the Indians and other inhabitants which from their proximity to each other is indispensable to their mutual happiness and the publick repose, and which will greatly conduce to the success of the common cause of the United States of America.

Upon these considerations your Committee submit the following Resolutions:

1st Resolved, That this Convention is loudly called by the strongest motives of Justice and Policy to provide ways and means for removing the complaints, quieting the minds, and preserving the Confidence and affection of the Indians inhabiting this State.

2nd Resolved, That for these salutary purposes Commissioners for the Indian Affairs of this State ought to be appointed.

3rd Resolved, That it shall be the Duty of such Commissioners to hold Treaties with the Indians inhabiting this State; to dispense the Publick Gifts and Presents of this State which shall be provided for their sustenance and Relief; to examine into their complaints; to represent their grievances to the Legislature; to point out the means of Redress; to correspond with their chiefs, sachems and Councils; to prevent trespasses and intrusions into their lands and possessions; as well as fraud and abuse in the Trade between them and the other Inhabitants; to take care that all Laws for regulating such trade be observed; to negotiate all contracts and sales for Indian lands which shall be authorized by the State, and consented to by the Indian proprietors in their Councils; to prevent and defeat purchases which may be attempted to be made clandestinely or without such authority and consent; to appoint and instruct suitable Agents and Messengers to be employed among the Indians at the Expence of the State; to recommend and enforce wise and salutary expedients for procuring the Friendship, Confidence and affections of the said Indians; relieving their necessities, and increasing and securing the Indian trade heretofore so beneficial to this State; and in general to superintend, manage and direct all Publick Business and concerns between them and this State.

Petition on behalf of Peter Van Schaack and others.

[Petitions, 33: 454.]

To the Honorable the Convention of the State of New York.

The Petition of the Subscribers Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Albany, Humbly Sheweth,

That by a late order of the Committee for detecting Conspiracies &c Mess<sup>rs</sup> Cornelius Glen, John Stephenson and Peter Van Schaack have been sent to the Town of Boston to remain confined to the Limits of the said Town on Parole untill the further order of the Honorable Convention. Your Petitioners being personally acquainted with the Prisoners, know them to be of good characters. Report of the Committee on Letter from Bedford.

[Miscel. Pap. 39 : 323.]

Your Committee to whom was referred a Letter of the Committee of Bedford in Westchester County and also Sundry Resolutions entered into by the Said Committee—have considered the several matters contained therein which your Committee beg leave to State in their Order and thereupon your Committee's Opinion—Nevertheless humbly submitted.

As to the Requisition contained in the said Letter may be reduced to the following two points:

1st That a Company of Raingers has been raised by Cap<sup>t</sup> Hezekiah Gray upon the Verbal Order of Col<sup>o</sup> Drake and that doubts have arisen whether the said Company are Entitled to pay, &<sup>c</sup>

2nd That a Resolution lately issued by the Committee of Safety requiring all the Inhabitants in Westchester County to take an Oath of Fidelity to the State had Expired &c.

With respect to the Company raised by Hezekiah Gray—Your Committee are of Opinion that the said company can only be considered as a part of the Militia out on duty and that they ought to be allowed pay & Rations for the Time they have been in actual Service.

As to the Expiration of the late Resolution prescribing an Oath or Affirmation to the Inhabitants of the County of Westchester, your Committee are of Opinion that it will have a good effect to have the same continued to some further Day.

With respect to the several Resolutions entered into by the said Committee of Bedford (to wit) That of a Bastard Child, That of Collecting the Excise on Strong Liquors and that of appointing or Restricting Tavern Keepers—all which are convincing proves to your Committee the necessity of forming the Constitution for the Government of this State.

Report of Committee on the Petition from Bedford.

[Miscel. Pap. 39 : 325.]

Your Committee to whom was Referred a Letter from the Committee of Bedford in West Chester County Dated — Day of — beg leave to Report that they Consider it Reasonable the Company Raised in said County under Captain Hezekiah Gray should be considered as part of the Militia and are Intitled to Pay & Subsistence (Gen<sup>l</sup> Scott dissents) equal with the other parts of the Militia that were last called into service, for the time they have actually been in service.

Your Committee further Report that they are informed that Capt. Gray is willing to Join. the Continental Troops in Westchester County or the Troops under Gen<sup>l</sup> Geo Clinton—thereon your Committee beg Leave to Report the following Resolution.

Resolved that Capt. Hezekiah Gray with his Company of non-Commissioned officers & privates with Commissioned & non-Commissioned officers in proportion of one Capt., 2 Lieuts., an Ensign & Eight non-Commissioned officers to the 75 privates, Join the Continental Troops in West Chester County and be under the direction & Command of the Commanding officer at Peekskill until the 31 day of March next unless Genl Geo. Clinton shall sooner call for that company to join the troops under his com<sup>d</sup> provided always that if Capt. Gray do not within eight days join the said Continental Troops with at least 40 privates of his company, that he be not taken into the service.

Your Committee further Report it as their Opinion that it will have good Effect to allow a further Time for the Inhabitants of West Chester County to Take the Oath or Affirmation to this State Required of them by the Resolutions passed on the 25th Day of Dec<sup>r</sup> last, therefore submit to the Committee of Safety the following Resolution.

Whereas this Committee of Safety are Informed that many of the Inhabitants of West Chester County did not Receive timely Notice of the order of this Committee of Safety passed on the 25 Day of Dec<sup>r</sup> last Requiring the s<sup>d</sup> Inhabitants to take an Oath (or affirmation) of Fidelity to this State untill the time allowed for that Purpose expired; and this Committee being wiling to give every opportunity Necessary to the good People of s<sup>d</sup> County to comply with the said Requisition, therefore

Resolved that the Inhabitants of West Chester County be allowed the further Time of thirty Days to Take the Oath or affirmation Required by the Resolutions of the Committee of Safety passed on 25th Day of Dec<sup>r</sup> last.

Resolved that the Chairman & Deputy Chairman of the County Committee of the County of West Chester & the field officers & Captains of the Militia in the said County of West Chester do return to the Convention or Legislature of this State with all possible Dispatch after the Expiration of thirty Days from the Date hereof Lists of the Names of all persons within the Districts in the Said County who shall have neglected or refused to take the said oath or affirmation.

Ordered that the Secretary transmit a copy of these Resolutions to the Chairman of the County Committee of West Chester who is also Required to give the Inhabitants of s<sup>d</sup> County Proper & immediate Notice of the Same.

Report of a Committee to prevent the Depreciation of the Continental Money.

[Miscel. Pap. 39 : 333.]

[Feb. 1777.]

Your Committee to whom was referred the Consideration of Ways and Means to prevent the Depreciation of the Continental and State Currency, and to prevent Extortion in furnishing Supplies to the American Army, beg leave to report

That as money is the Representative sign of all that Property of a State which is in the Circle of Commerce the several articles of which Property will, generally speaking, bear the same Relation to the respective Prices of the Same which the whole Property to be transferred does to the whole Quantum of Circulating Specie, wherefore, when ever the Circulating medium is too great it will suffer of necessity a consequent Depreciation.

That as money is the Medium of Commerce it will always most abound, and be most necessary in a Commercial State, and where there is much money and little trade it will always be of trifling value, and

That whenever a State issues a Paper Representative of Specie it will loose of its Value in Proportion as the People loose their Confidence in the Government, and Rise in Proportion to their opinion of the Vigor and stability of such Government to obtain which opinion, nothing is more necessary than Wisdom in the Legislature, and a steady, severe, and impartial Execution of the Laws by the Persons appointed for that Purpose,

From whence your Committee do deduce the following Causes of the Depreciation complained of, first, the Quantity of money ; secondly, the want of Commerce, and thirdly, the fluctuating state of our political affairs.

For Remedy of the Evil therefore as to the first Cause they do propose,

First, To lay a very considerable tax and for that Purpose immediately to order the several Counties to chuse Supervisors, Assessors & Collectors.

Secondly, To pass a Resolve ordering the Payment of all monies due to the Loan office, and to encourage the Receipt of the whole Sum formerly lent.

Thirdly, To pass a Resolution that all Persons within the State owing money to Persons out of the Same shall have Liberty to pay the same into the Treasury, and that the Treasurers Receipt shall be a full Discharge of such Debt and the State account hereafter to the Creditors for the Sums respectively received.

Fourthly, To institute a Lottery of 100,000 Tickets at three Dollars each, with a Deduction of 50,000 Dollars to be invested in the Purchase of 500 Tickets in the Lottery of the United States, and Fifthly, To appoint two proper Persons within this State to receive money on Loan on account of the Continent.

For Remedy of the Evil as to the second Cause, namely, the want of Commerce, your Committee can only observe that every Restraint on Trade should be removed excepting a Tax upon the Consumption of those Articles which are unnecessary or pernicious. And

As the third Cause, namely, the fluctuating state of our political affairs, your Committee do propose as the most adequate Remedy to institute as soon as possible a Form of Government for this State, to organize the same, and tender an Oath of allegiance to the Inhabitants.

In order to prevent Extortion in supplying the Continental Army, your Committee do propose :

1. To cause with the assistance of the several County Committees an Exact account to be made of the Grain now in the Possession of every Individual, the Quantity necessary for the use of every Family, and the Contracts made for the sale thereof, or any Part thereof.

2. To compel those Engrossers who have purchased considerable Quantities of the same, to sell to the Quarter Masters and Commissaries at a certain limited Price. And

3. To publish the Resolution of Congress empowering Gen<sup>l</sup> Washington to take for the Army such things as they may want.

Orders to Capt. Elijah Hunter.

[Miscel. Pap. 39 : 237.]

SIR: You are Desired to call on the Secretary of y<sup>e</sup> Convention for the following Resolves viz one Respecting Engrossers of Grain and other provisions.

Petition of Commissioners of Ulster County.

[Petitions, 33: 244.]

The Petition of the Commissioners for Ulster County to the Honourable the Convention of the State of New York, Humbly Sheweth,

That whereas in the execution of their office such difficulties seem to arise as render it almost impracticable for them to execute with faithfulness the trust reposed in them 1st from their not knowing certainly who have deserted to the enemy, and 2<sup>d</sup> where the goods and Effects of such persons are lodged.

Your Petitioners therefore humbly pray that the Convention would be pleased to direct the Committees of the different precincts Immediately to take an Inventory of the Personal Property of those within their Districts who have gone over to the Enemy, as also that the Commissioners upon Requesting be furnished with a copy of such Inventory and other knowledge as the different Committees may be possess'd of Relative to those persons specify<sup>d</sup> above and your Petitioners as in duty bound shall ever pray,

Petition of Nathaniel Platt.

[Petitions, 33: 278.]

To the Honorable the Convention of the Representatives of the State of New York.

The Memorial of Nathaniel Platt, Humbly Sheweth

That your Memorialist was last summer appointed agreeable to a Resolution of this Honorable House by the Committee of the County of Suffolk to the Command of a Company in the Regiment whereof Josiah Smith was Colonel, raised for the immediate Defence of Long Island.

That your Memorialist after the Company aforesaid was formed supplied many of them with Guns, Bayonets, accoutrements, clothing and other things necessary for the Campaign, and also paid for the subsistence of Part of them while on Long Island, the whole being more in fact than the amount of their wages.

That shortly before the Enemy landed on the Island aforesaid your Memorialist received orders from the Colonel aforesaid to march to Brooklyn to join the Army in that Quarter, that your Memorialist communicated these orders to his men and expected they would have been obeyed. But your Memorialist to his great Concern found when he came to Execute them that the men refused to march unless they received the remaining Part of the Bounty, allowed them by this Honorable House at the Time of Inlistment.

That your Memorialist conceiving it absolutely necessary for the Good of the Service to proceed to Brooklin with his Company aforesaid without Delay, advanced five Dollars to each man, being the Remainder of the Bounty aforesaid that was still due.

That your Memorialist finds it impracticable to get the monies he has so advanced returned him by the men aforesaid as a great number of them are now on Long Island, by which means your Memorialist must sustain considerable Loss.

Your Memorialist therefore humbly refers his case to the consideration of this Honorable House not doubting as he acted from the purest motives of Regard to his Country that this Honorable House will grant him ample Redress.

That whereas there is an ancient patent of Lands lying & being at Kinderhook in the County of Albany, which patent was granted by Richard Nicolls Esq<sup>r</sup> on the fifteenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and sixty seven to Captain John Baker and Jacob Jansen Flodder, and whereas your Petitioner has the sole right and property of the said Lands vested in him and his heirs by virtue of a conveyance and power of Attorney which he has honestly obtained from the heir at Law, and as your petitioner can now prove the boundaries of the said lands by several ancient persons—whose decease might hereafter cause him to Loose his right thereto, and be of very great damage to him and his family, if such decease should happen before the said proof could be made. These are therefore praying your Honourable House to appoint some proper person or persons to examine the said ancient evidences that the same may be recorded and your petitioner freed from the great risque of losing the benefit arising therefrom in any future Court of Justice, Either of Law or Equity, and for the prosperity of the Convention of the State your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray

The memorial of William Malcom on behalf of himself & the other owners of the Brigantine called the Janet, Humbly Sheweth,

Report.

Your Committee appointed to confer with M<sup>r</sup> Robert Boyd & M<sup>r</sup> John Griffith relating the Hire of the Furnace of the Forrest of Dean, do report

That M<sup>r</sup> Griffiths informs them that the lease by which M<sup>r</sup> Patricks held the Furnace Expires about the last of October next, so that one blast only can be performed during the lease, but thinks it may still be continued in the Public service if found necessary, he also informs that the said M<sup>r</sup> Patrick died intestate.

Your Committee have also carefully Exam<sup>d</sup> the Estimate of the sundry articles &c., as per inventory and having taken the advise of M<sup>r</sup> Griffiths are of the opinion that the Prices annexed to the several articles is their true value, Except the Water wheel, which your Committee thinks ought to be considered as part of the building.

Mr. Griffiths further informs your Committee that he is of opinion the metal is good for Castings of all kinds, and that Two swivels were tried in N. York and proved good, of which a certificate was obtained. Mr. Boyd is of the same opinion M<sup>r</sup> Griffiths is further of opinion that if the House should determine to try this Blast, it must be begun without delay, as the season for cutting wood and other necessary preparations will soon be past.

Your Committee applied to M<sup>r</sup> Griffiths to superintend the said Blast, if the House should determine to prosecute it, but he declined it by reason of the unhealthy situation and his inexperience in Casting, and recommended M<sup>r</sup> Robert Boyd as a proper person for that business all which is humbly submitted.

[Mil. Commit. 25 : 742.]

IN COMMITTEE, CLAVERACK DISTRICT, March 21st 1777.

An Information being lodged against John Van Allen Lieu<sup>t</sup> Col<sup>l</sup> in the Eight Regiment of Militia for the County of Albany and one of the members of this Committee that his late Behaviour had been such as to give Just grounds to suspect that his Sentiments were not altogether Friendly to the Liberties of America, Whereupon a Meeting of the Committee of this District was Ordered to be held this day, to take said Information into Consideration & to proceed to Examine such Evidences as shall be offered on the subject in Consequence of which nine members appeared for that purpose.

Ordered that the Examination of the Evidence in the Case of Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen, be forthwith proceeded upon, and that he be requested to be present, & he attended accordingly.

Gerrit Herdick being duly sworn upon his Examination Saith, that about 2 or 3 weeks ago Col<sup>o</sup> John Van Allen, Aaron Van Derkar & John Herdick, were at the deponents House, that John Herdick Observed that he had heard Cornelius Clapper was gone to New York, Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen answered he had heard so, from the Girl (meaning Cloppers daughter) upon which the deponents wife Said, There are now many that are disposed to Turn their Coats, or change Sides and Leave the Poor Congress to loose their Heads—That Van Allen answered thereupon that he did not care how many or what became of it, if we could but have peace, & said is that not better than that so many Thousands must die? furthur said there were people that would Lay their Heads upon a Block if we could but have peace; That he always formerly found & Looked upon Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen to be a friend to his country, that he was much surprised to hear such Expressions from him.

John Herdick being Sworn Saith that being at the House of Garret Herdick some time ago he saw Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen there, that observing to him that he had heard that Cornelius Clapper was gone to the Enemy Received for answer, he did not know. that thereupon the wife of Garret Hardick lamented the Situation of the Congress and said they would perhaps yet be obliged to flee, or loose their Heads, thro' such men, That Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen answered, I dont care a Donder or Hagel, about it, if we could but have peace; otherwise it would yet perhaps cost the lives of Thousands.

William Herdick being Sworn upon his Examination Saith, that coming at the house of Gerrit Herdick, he found Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen with others there, that he Heard his Aunt Maritje Herdick observe that the Poor Congress, (or words of that sort,) were exposed to loose or that it would come upon their Heads if the Enemy overcame, That Col<sup>o</sup> Van Allen answered thereupon he did not care what became of it, if we could but have peace.

In Committee March 23<sup>d</sup> present Nine Members.

The Committee having duly considered the foregoing proofs, and other Circumstances that have been offered & that have appeared against said Van Allen Do

Proceedings of the Committee on Conspiracies.

[Miscel. Pap. 35: 207.]

CONNORS TAVERN, FISHKILL, Tuesday November the 19th 1776.

Present: William Duer, Chairman. Nathaniel Sackett, John Jay, Esq., Coll De Witt.

Whereas a number of Persons principal Inhabitants of this State who for some time affected a Neutrality of Conduct in the Present Contest have lately joined the Enemy's Army & have been privy to aiding or assisting in their wicked conspiracies against the libertys of the United States in violation of the sacred engagements which many of them had entered into to observe a peaceable & inoffensive conduct.

And whereas it appears unquestionably to this committee that many companies of men in different counties of this state have actually enlisted in the Enemys Service many of which persons are intimately connected with or dependent on persons of suspicious or equivocal characters And whereas this state is at present invaded with a powerful army who have already penetrated into the County of Westchester and whose ships of War occupy the navigation of Hudsons River. Inasmuch therefore as it is reasonable to suppose that many persons who affect a similar neutrality of principal only wait an opportunity of persuing a similar Conduct with those who have at length thrown off the mask and taken an active part with our open enemies and as it is inconsistent with the high trust reposed by the convention of this state in this committee to hazard the general liberties of America dependent in so high a degree on the preservation of this state by an Illtimed lenity to individuals who have either with artful & wicked designs or from interested motives shrunk from the duties they owe their country

Therefore Resolved that it is the duty of every virtuous citizen when a mortal blow is aimed at the liberties of his country to stand forth in an open & spirited manner & to assist by his example by his council or by his arms in vindicating and defending her cause.

Resolved that it would endanger the safety of the state & the general liberties of America to permit persons of influence & of equivocal characters to remain within it at this alarming Crisis, more paticular on the Frontiers & in such other Counties where conspiracies are actually forming to aid & abett our open enemies & therefore that all such persons ought forthwith to be removed to one of the neighbouring states.

At a meeting of the committee at Connor's Tavern the 25th of Nov. 1776.

Present: W<sup>m</sup> Duer, Esq., Chairman. Nathaniel Sackett, Esq., John Jay, Esq., Zepheniah Platt, Esq.

Whereas Cadwallader Colden of Ulster Co Esq hath been represented to this committee as a person who hath long been notoriously disaffected to the American cause and who from his disposition & influence as well from his vicinity to the enemy may justly be considered as too dangerous to be permitted longer to remain at his present abode and the more so as this committee have reason to believe that he hath Countenanced and abetted measures prejudicial to the rights of America— Resolved therefore that he be forthwith apprehended & brought before this committee.

Ordered, That Capt Lush do forthwith apprehend the said Cadwallader Colden, Esq., and bring him before this Committee, that he carefully and diligently examine all his papers, and that he secure all such as may have any reference to the Contest betwixt Great Britain & America in order that the same may be examined by this Committee—

IN COMMITTEE the 27th day of Nov. 1776.

Capt. Lush returned and brought to the Committee Cadwallader Colden, Esq., who was order'd to be apprehended on the 25th inst. On his giving his parole of honour that he will not depart this place, but appear before this Committee To-morrow morning he was permitted to seek for Lodgings. Capt Lush delivered to the Committee a number of Letters & Papers which he found in Mr. Colden's custody, to wit:

A note from Mr. Dubois to Major Colden.

A long letter from Peter Dubois, directed to Cadwallader Colden, Jun. Esq., in Ulster Co. This letter contains the intelligence & account of the movements and proceedings of the two Armies, beginning Monday morning Sept<sup>r</sup> 16th 1776, and ending the Wednesday following, dated at Second river.

A note from some Scotch Gentleman at Esopus, directed to Mr. Colden, dated August the 3<sup>d</sup> 1776.

A small paper containing notes of Mr. Anans Sermon on Politicks.

A paper containing a list of the Continental & Ministerial Fleets with their number of men and guns, (this is supposed to be the Fleets on Lake Champlain).

A Copy of Lord Howe & General Howes declaration of the 19th of Sept. 1776.

A Protest against the measures of Congress neither dated or sign'd.

A manuscript piece of Poetry reflecting on the measures pursued by the Americans.

IN COMMITTEE & FISHKILL the 28th Nov 1776.

Mr Colden appeared & being examined by the Committee said that he conceived the former oath of allegiance which he had taken to the King of Great Britain to be binding upon him & professed a desire of being permitted to observe a state of Neutrality,

Resolved that he be forthwith removed to the town of Boston in the State of Massachusetts Bay there to remain at his own expense on his parole of honour under such restrictions as the Select men or Civil Authority of that Town shall prescribe.

Resolved, that the said Major Colden be permitted to return home in order to take leave of his family & to prepare for his Journey for the space of 10 days on his pledging his parole of Honour to appear before this committee at the expiration of the said term—

Major Colden appearing before the committee was asked whether the paper containing reflections on a Sermon preached by the Rev Mr Anan was his own hand writing— confessed it was. he further pledged his parole for his appearance at the time mentioned.

Extract from David Pembrooks examination.

The James Robinson mentioned in the preceeding abstract is a dangerous emisary from the enemy & hath industriously attempted to seduce divers of the Inhabitants of this State from their allegiance thereto and enlisted men in the Service of the enemy.

FISHKILL CORNERS TAVERN Jan<sup>y</sup> 6 1777.

Present: John Jay, Esq., Chairman. Egbert Benson, Chairman of Dutches.
Zeph. Platt, Esq. General Morris.
Nathaniel Sackett, Esq.

The Committee proceeded to take into Consideration the proposals of Cadwallader Colden Esq referred to them by the Committee of Safety on the 3<sup>d</sup> inst and thereupon came to the following resolution—

Resolved unanimously, that the said proposals in the opinion of this Committee ought not to be complied with as the reasons upon which the resolution of this Committee for removing the said Cadwallader Colden to the town of Boston was founded still exist in full force.

These are all the Proceedings & Papers of this committee respecting Cadwallader Colden Esq. By order of the Committee

Major Colden's Proposal.

[Miscel. Pap. 38: 533.]

If the Honourable Convention are Pleased to look upon M<sup>r</sup> Colden in the Light of a Prisoner to the State of New York, in that Case he then Humbly Begs Leave to Propose, That, on his Parole, or any other Security the Convention may think Proper (of which he is able to give the most Competant) he may be admitted to Remain on his own farm, or Rather within a Circuit of ten Miles around it, upon his Engaging in any Manner they may think Proper, Not to take up Armes against the State, Nor in any ways to aid or abett the Ennemies of the Said State Either by word Deed or Writing—and that he will at any time when required by the Convention appear before them, and Submitt to any further Controle they may think Proper.

Col. Colden's Defence & resolutions & proceedings respecting him.

[Miscel. Pap. 39: 546.]

Cadwallader Colden Esq<sup>r</sup> according to his Petition and the Order thereon made appeared before this House and made his Defence he was thereupon desired to withdraw and after he had so withdrawn upon mature Consideration,

Resolved that in the opinion of this House the said Cadwallader Colden is and claims to be a subject of the King of Great Britain with whom this State is now at open war.

Resolved that according to the Laws of Nations the said Cadwallader Colden ought to be treated within this State as the subjects of this State are treated by the agents and adherents of the King of Great Britain.

Resolved that altho many of the Subjects of this State are now confined by authority derived from the King of Great Britain in Prisons and otherwise cruelly and inhumanly Treated to compel them to take an oath of Allegiance to the said King contrary to their Consciences without Regard to the Dictates of Humanity or Religion, yet this Convention ever attentive to the Rights of human Nature and willing to relieve the Distresses of mankind will not unless in Cases of absolute necessity imitate so wicked and infamous Example.

Resolved therefore that the said Cadwallader Colden be confined on his Parole of Honor within five Miles of his usual Place of abode he the said Cadwallader first making Oath that he will not either directly or indirectly countenance or commit any act matter or thing whatsoever against this State its Rights and Liberties or against the Rights, Liberties & Independence of the united states of America but that he will discover all Designs and Conspiracies against the same which shall come to his knowledge.

That on His arrival there he was disappointed in getting the Rum, and from thence he set out from Westchester County in quest of Barnes Hatfield for whom he was bound in a considerable sum of money. That he went to the White plains, and not finding him there he went to Isaac Williams near Brunk's River, who had married his Cousin, that he Lodged there and was taken out of Bed there by a party of Roger's Rangers, that they carried him to a Fort near one Valentines, and the next Day they sent him to a Major, who's name he has forgot, in the neighbourhood of Kings Bridge. That the Major asked him how he could clear himself from the Rebel Pass that was found on him. That he said he had come down on a particular Errand from Capt. Alex<sup>r</sup> Grant's wife to him, and that if the Major would send him to Capt. Grant, or Capt. Archb<sup>d</sup> Campbell, who were his old neighbours, he would prove his Character. That thereupon the Major sent him under Guard to Capt. Campbell's Quarters at a White House of Mr. Frederick Van Courtlandts. That on his arrival there he told Capt. That the said Captain Campbell entered into Free Conversation with him, in the course of which he understood from the said Captain Campbell that Malcom Morrison had engaged to raise a Company of men for the Enemies Service, and that he the said Campbell wished he would be speedy about it. That the said Captain Campbell further told him, that when he left Fredericksburgh, he delivered his writings to Alex<sup>r</sup> Kidd. And this Deponent further saith that Capt. Campbell gave him a pass to return home, and said he would be at the Deponents House in about Six weeks time, and that as he was going away, he met Allen Cameron who had formerly resided in Fredericksburgh, and with whom he had been acquainted. That he entered into Conversation with the said Cameron, and that Cameron among other things told him, that he had given a Bill of Sale for his Estate to Malcom Morrison to save his property. And this Deponent further Saith that Barney Kain, a brother of John Kain is a Lieu<sup>t</sup> to the said Campbell, and that this Deponent also understood from the said Capt. Campbell, That Malcom Morrison after he had raised his Company was to be under Gov<sup>r</sup> Brown.

That this Deponent made the best of his way home, that on his arrival there, he delivered the protection aforesaid directed to Malcom Morrison to him, that the said Morrison read the same and appeared much pleased, and gave this Deponent two Dollars for his trouble and care in delivering the same. That the said John Kain appeared shy about it and in the Evening of the same day called at this Deponent's House for it, and this Depon<sup>t</sup> accordingly gave it to him. That the said Kain asked this Deponent where he got the said protection, & this Deponent told him he had got it from Cap<sup>t</sup> Campbell. This Deponant further saith, that he never Delivered the other protections to the persons for whom they were intended as aforesaid nor has he spoken to either of them about it except to Matthew Patterson who refused to accept it. That one Hetty Street a sister of whom lives with the Wife of Lemuel Wilmot, who has lately gone to the Enemy from Fredericksburgh, told him, That Malcom Morrison had sent a Little Girl to their House to show them the protection he had received. And this Deponent further saith that some Time after the said John Kain came to his house, and told him that Malcom Morrison had divulged the affair of the protection, & that the said John Kain would fall out with this Deponant & vilify him, but that he must not mind it. This Deponant also saith that he gave the said John Kain one of the printed papers above mentioned, and asked him what he should do with the other, & that the said John Kain advised him to burn them both, which he accordingly did. And further this Dep<sup>t</sup> saith not.

Matthew Patterson appearing before the Committee and being Examined under Oath, Saith that on last Tuesday se'ennight, Malcom Morrison, Roswell Wilcox & David Akins, were at his House. that Morrison showed him a protection which he had received from the Enemy, & asked the Examinant what he thought of it; that the Examinant answered that he did not know what to think; that many People passing & repassing in the House, nothing more in particular passed. That in the Evening David Akins called this examinant out of his House telling him that he had something to communicate to him if he would call at Akins's House. that the Exam<sup>t</sup> asked what it was, and told if it was anything to his Benefit he would be glad of it, upon which Akins said it was a protection from Great Britain. that the Exam<sup>t</sup> answered that he was once known in Great Britain, but that he chose to be Governed by those who were his representatives; that the protection was never applied for by him, and it was a matter he could not see through. That Akins replied, if they had not been applied for they would not have been got. The Examinant further says that he told Akins that he did not chuse to have any thing to do with such things, and further saith that there was a man in the Room, meaning Col: Luddinton— who if he knew what Akins said, would immediately send him to Congress, but did not deem it expedient to mention to Col. Ludington and this Examinant further says that he was told by Malcom Morrison, that John Kain and several others had received protections, & likewise that he on or about Monday or Tuesday last saw John Kain. That the said John Kain asked him what Bluster there was about protections— That the Examinant told him that he supposed he knew as much about the matter as he did. that on this the said John Kain called God to witness that he never had seen any such protections, and that he knew nothing about it. Matthew Patterson, John Youngs & Roswell Wilcox appeared before the Committee and requested the Enlargement of Malcom Morrison unless the charges against him were such as rendered it inconsistent with the safety of the State.

Ordered that the said Gent. be informed of the several charges and evidence against the said Morrison.

Resolved that the enlargement of the said Malcom Morrison, would be highly inexpedient and improper, and would greatly impeach the impartiality of this Committee.

Roswell Wilcox of Fredericksburgh in Dutchess County, being sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God, Deposeth and saith,

That on last Tuesday week he was at the house of M<sup>r</sup> Matthew Patterson in company with Malcom Morrison, John Youngs, and Divers others, that this Deponent Sat next to the said Malcom Morrison by the Fire side, that the said Morrison asked him in a whisper, whether if the Regular Army was to come into those parts he should not want a protection, to which the Dep<sup>t</sup> answered indeed he should, on which the said Morrison replied that he could get one for him, that this reply gave the Dep<sup>t</sup> a good deal of thought. That afterwards when this Dep<sup>t</sup> was going out of the House in order to go home, the said Morrison followed him, saying he wanted to speak to him, and that they went together into Matthew Patterson's back Room, that the said Morrison then pulled a printed paper out of his pocket and read it to the Dep<sup>t</sup>. That the said printed paper was styled a protection, and purported to be an Order from the Commander in Chief of the Enemys army to all his Officers, soldiers and others not to molest or injure the said Morrison in his person or property, and that the said paper bore date at the White Plains in the month of November. That this Dep<sup>t</sup> was much shock'd at hearing the said paper read and asked the said Morrison where he had got it, upon which he answered that he had got and could get one for this Dep<sup>t</sup>. That this Deponent remonstrated to him on the danger of having such protection, observing, that would compel those having them to fight for the Enemy which he would rather Die than do, upon which the said Morrison said, so would I, adding that the meaning of the said protection was only to save his property from Plunder. That this Deponent then look'd upon the said Morrison to be in liquor, and told him he would speak to him about it the next Day, that he accordingly saw the said Morrison the next day, and told him that the protection he had shown was a bad thing & of bad Consequence, and had given him the Deponant much uneasiness, and said it would be better for him to reveal it to this Committee and that said Morrison said, what, have I shown it to you? and proceeded to say he wished he had never seen it, and that he had understood that Akins & Patterson had had some difference about the plagued thing, that he did not know what he should do, that this Deponant expected to have some further conversation with him upon the subject, but said Morrison's going from Home, and continuing out so long, that he and some of his Neighbours communicated it to this Committee, and this Deponent further saith that David Akins of Fredericksburgh, is generally reputed to be very disaffected to the American cause & that he has told this Deponent that he had signed the Association because there were so many People travelling that he did not conceive himself safe, and that his Moral Character is very suspicious and questionable, and further this Deponent saith not.

Affidavit against Hugh Wallace and others.

[Miscel. Pap. 36: 751.]

State of New York, ss.

In Committee, for enquiring into, detecting and Defeating all Conspiracies which may be formed in this State against the Liberties of America. Fish Kill, February 15th 1777.

Henry G. Livingston being Sworn, saith that about the middle of December last, this Deponent went to Connecticut that he there fell in Company with Hugh Wallace, Esq., that the said Wallace told him that this Country would soon be conquer<sup>d</sup> and that less than a month General Washington's Army would be Dispersed, and that the sooner this Deponent took the Benefit of Lord and General Howes proclamation the better, and advised him to go to New York to see how things were circumstanced, and if he was so inclined, might come out again without interruption, and that he would give this Deponent a Letter of Recommendation to Captain Wallace and Captain Parker of the Navy. That he accordingly gave this Deponent such a Letter with which he set out for New York and arrived there on or about the Twenty fifth day of December last, but never delivered the said Letters, that after having been two days in Town he waited on General Robinson and subscribed a Declaration mentioned in Lord and General Howes Proclamation in pursuance of the advice of a friend who informed him that the Enemy were informed of his being in Town and suspected his being a Spy. That the day after this Deponent not being pleased with his situation, attempted to Escape by the way of Kings Bridge where he was stoped by the Hessian Guard. That he returned to the City and lodged for three or four days at the widow Hamilton's, in which house a Scotch Gentleman of the name of Barclay also lodged. That this Deponent formed an intimate acquaintance with this Gentleman and frequently after had had Confidential Conversations with him. That in the Course of these Conversations the said Barclay informed this Deponent that two members of the Convention of this State would in less than a month be in Town and that the Enemy were constantly acquainted with every thing that passed in the said Convention. That this Deponent thereupon expressed great doubts respecting the truth of the said facts, whereupon the said Barclay swore by God that they were true. That this Deponent asked him the names of these two members, to which the said Barclay answered that one of them was called Roosevelt, and gave this Deponent to understand that he did know the name of the other. That M<sup>r</sup> Peter Stuyvesandt has also told this Deponent that M<sup>r</sup> Isaac Roosevelt wou'd come to Town as soon as he conveniently cou'd and that Letters had been Written to the said Roosevelt for that purpose. That the said Barclay further informed this Deponent that by means of their Emisaries they were informed of every thing that passed among us and that Women were the most proper persons for that purpose. That Great Britain had made a Contract with the Empress of Russia for Eighteen Thousand five hundred Russians and that General Clinton was gone over to take the Command of them and that they were Destined for Boston. That as soon as the Ground should be fit for travelling General Howe would march to Philadelphia and after securing that place wou'd bend his Course to Hudson's River and attack the forts there by Land and from thence pass up the River in flat Bottomed Boats and form a junction with the Army from Canada and that the two armies so joined wou'd then invade the New England States. That this Deponent was informed by several persons of Credit in the City that a great number of flat Bottomed Boats were Building there and that they were designed for the Delaware. That this Deponent took great pains to inform himself of the number of troops on York Island and that partly from the Information of the said Barclay and one Lieut<sup>t</sup> Collonel Woolsey of the Canadian militia and his own observations he has great Reason to believe that the following was a true State of the British Army on York Island at the time this Deponent left it which was on Sunday the Ninth instant to wit,

In the City and Bowry,.....	2,500—mostly Hessians.
At Harlem 64 th & another Regt,.....	800—under Gen. Agnew.
at and about fort Washington,.....	1,200—Hessians under Gen. Kniphauss.
at and about Kingsbridge,.....	180—lately under Rodgers; now under Major French.
Do.....	50—Tories under Cap <sup>t</sup> Campbell.
Do.....	20—Negroes.
Do.....	60—Light horse.

4,810

That this Deponant was also informed by the said Barclay, Lieut. Collonel Woolsey, M<sup>r</sup> Bell a Clerk in General Howes office, and others that the British Army then in Jersey at or about the time of the Battle at Trentown Consisted of about Thirteen Thousand men. That about ten day or a fortnight ago a number of troops from Rhode Island Consisting of a Regiment of Hessians and a Brigade of grenadiers and light Infantry amounting in the whole to about three thousand passed through the East River on their way to Amboy and that he obtain'd this intelligence from the said Barclay, Bell and Woolsey and others that it was generally reported and believed in the City that General Burgoine was gone home. That this Deponant did not learn that any more British or Irish troops were expected but that Recruiting Officers from the Royal Irish Regiment had sailed for Ireland. That this Deponant inquired of the said Barclay and others whether an attack wou'd be made this Winter on Ticonderoga and was given to understand that nothing wou'd be done there till Spring but that the Indians wou'd then be let loose. This Deponant further saith that he was inform'd by the said Barclay and others that two Companies were Station'd at Powles Hook and the Brigades of General Delancey and Governor Brown on Long Island and that those two Brigades did not together amount to one thousand men and that this Deponant had heard the said Barclay frequently say that he did not believe that there were more than a thousand Americans in the British Service. That this Deponant was informed from good authority and has no Doubt of its being true that Governor Franklin is employ'd by the Enemy to grant protections and pardons in Connecticut and that a very great number of the Inhabitants of that State had accepted them and further that one Shacler in Middletown held a Correspondence with Miles Sherbrook which Information this Deponant receiv'd from the said Sherbrook's Clerk. This Deponant further says that one Shaw an Irish man from or near Morris Town in New Jersey who said he knew Treasurer Lott told this Deponant that he had a Captain's Commission to raise a Company in the Enemies Service and that he expected to pass unsuspected as he had a Brother an Officer in the American Service with General Washington. That John Bayard as this Deponant was informed was a Lieut Collonel in a Regiment to be raised in America and that he expected to receive a hundred and Seventy Recruits who were to meet him at Hobooken and that he had gone there to receive them and after waiting four or five days Returned without them they not being able to get down by reason of some American troops, stationed in that Neighbourhood. That this Deponant has heard from a person of veracity whose name he wishes to conceal as he is a good friend to the American Cause, that Stephen Rapelye had served as Pilot for the Enemy on Long Island, and that he was gone from the City of New York towards Esopus with a large sum of money and that the said person looked upon him to be a Tory. And this Deponant further saith that the Enemies Officers and others with whom he has convers'd frequently say that a General disaffection prevails throughout America, but that the Southern people were more unanimous in supporting the measures of Congress than the Eastern and that they hold the Eastern Troops in the most Sovereign Contempt: That they were much surprised at the Exertion of this State against them and are particularly and greatly incensed against this Committee for the manner in which they have treated the friends of Government in this State. And this Deponant further says that the M<sup>r</sup> Barclay herein before mentioned was formerly an Inhabitant of the City of Philadelphia that he is very intimate with Lord and General Howe and appears to have great influence with them. That when this Deponent left New York Beef was sold as he heard for Eighteen Pence a pound, Butter for four Shillings

Wood for,.....	£5	p <sup>r</sup> Cord.
Salt hay,.....	9s	pr hundred weight.
Fresh hay,.....		not to be had.
A Turkey,.....	10s
Mutton & Veal,...	1s 6d	per pound.
Cabbage,.....	2s	per head.
Milk,.....	1s	per Quart.
Damaged Flour,...	32s	per hundred.
No Wheat, Indian Corn, or Oats to be sold.

And this Deponent further saith that Hugh Wallace Esquire, James Jauncey, Jun two members of the Council, & Thomas Jones one of the Judges of the Supreme Court who had been sent to Connecticut were in the City of New York as this Deponent understood by permission of Governor Trumble; that this Deponent was credibly informed that Beverly Robinson Jun had lately been to the City of New York. That Cornelius Clopper was also there, and had been Closeted by General Howe, also John Seabring, Isaac Low, John A. Remson, Joseph Hallet, three Sons of John Beekman deceased Viz<sup>t</sup> James, Thomas, and Gerardus Beekman, Lawrence Kortwright, Isaac and Nicholas Ogden of New Jersey. That this Deponent has never heard that Coll Ritzma had been in the City of New York till this Deponent came out of it and does not believe that he has been there since it was in the possession of the Enemy. That many of the Inhabitants of the said City are much discontented with the enemy; that Stephen Delancy Jun is Lieut Colonel of his Father General Delancy's Regiment; that St<sup>r</sup> John Johnson is in the City of New York and that Lady Johnson had lately made her Escape to that place & brought a copy of General Washington's proclamation with her of which no secret was made; that Stephen Watts is a Captain in the Regiment of Royal Emigrants and that John Watts Jun<sup>r</sup> wore a cockade. That Collonel Rogers had been broke for fraud. That this Deponent heard the said Barclay and Woolsey and several British Soldiers Damn the Hessians and say they could have done better without them. That the Hessians wou'd be remov'd to New York and kept there untill the opening of the Campaign. That this Deponent has heard and believes that the Enemies Army in Jersey Remains under the Command of Lord Cornwallis & that General Howe has been lately sick and remains in New York. That a great number of Horses lay Dead on York Island; that a multitude of Carts were in constant employ in the City and that the horses are very poor and out of Order as this Deponent supposes for want of Forage.

That General Lee was confined in the City Hall Guarded by an Officer and fifty men but in other respects well treated as this Deponent understood. And this Deponent further saith that the prisoners taken by the Enemy are most cruelly and Inhumanly treated, confined in Churches without fire, and Dying in great Numbers.

That they spoke very Disrespectfully of all the American Generals excepting General Mercer.

That Governor Tryon had given orders for all the Inhabitants of the City & County of New York to appear and take the Oath of Allegiance to the King of Great Britain; that this Deponent did not appear or take it but after various attempts effected his escape in a Boat from Harlem to the Jersey shore from whence he repaired to General George Clinton's Quarters and before him took an Oath of Allegiance to the United States of America agreeable to the directions of General Washington's proclamation. A Certificate of which under the hand of General Clinton he now produces to this Committee by which it appears that he had in all things complied with the terms in the said proclamation. And further this Deponent saith not.

That while he tarried in the City at that time he lodged at the house of William Scott near the City Hall. That he went into the City in Company with Alexander Crookshank of Albany, Hugh Denniston of Catts Kill, John Thompson of Tyron County (as the deponent was informed) and a young man named Hunter and a Lad or young man named M<sup>c</sup>Vickar. That the two last joined them at Hackensack. That Hunter said he had lately come from Philadelphia, and that he had formerly been employed in the management of a Flax Manufactory. That in the City of New York on the first morning after his arrival (by Directions of Burroughs the Ferry Man) he waited on General Robertson and informed him where he this Examinant and the other persons who went into the City with him lodged. That Deponent informed him that he had heard reports that the American Army consisted of 40,000 & that other reports mentioned 50,000 to which General Robertson replied that they knew better. That General Robertson directed the Deponent to go into another Room to his Clerk & that he went accordingly. That the said Clerk asked the Deponent if he came to sign a Book which lay there; that he answered he did not & asked what Book it was; that the Clerk called it the Rebel Book. That on his the Deponents declining to sign it the said Clerk asked him if he had not signed the Association or trained under some officer or born arms. That in the City of New York he the Examn<sup>t</sup> was at different times in Company with Colo Allen McLean who informed him that there were then on the Island of New York about 6,000 Troops, about 7,000 British Troops in New Jersey and about 7,000 at Rhode Island. That the whole Number of British Troops in New York, New Jersey, Long Island, Statten Island and at Rhode Island consists of about Twenty five Thousand Men. That he does not know whether the New Levies raised in America were included in the Numbers above mentioned. That his the Deponents half Brother Sir James Grant informed him that one of Brigadier General Delanceys Regiments were near full and they were recruiting the other Regim<sup>t</sup> of that Brigade pretty rapidly. That they had enlisted in that Brigade many prisoners & others who had been disaffected to the King and in the Continental service. That the Regiment of Col<sup>o</sup> Fanning (late Governor Tryons Secretary) consists of about seven hundred men. That in this last mentioned Regiment they did not enlist any who had been in the Continental service. That some of the inhabitants of Long Island (of which Col Fanning was said to be a native) had contributed three hundred and seventy pounds to encourage Recruiting of Colo Fanning's Regim<sup>t</sup>. That he expected Cap<sup>t</sup> Alexander Grant's Company consisting of 120 or 140 men (the dep<sup>t</sup> is uncertain which) and then stationed near Kings Bridge and also Cap<sup>t</sup> Archibald Campbells Company would be added to Col Fannings Regiment and that the said Alexander Grant would be made Lieutenant Colonel of that Regiment. That Colo Allen M<sup>c</sup>Lean also informed him that he & Sir John Johnson & some other gentlemen were soon to set out for Canada by water in order to join about 25,000 British Troops & 25,000 Canadians and Indfians there who were to make a Desent into the State of New York by way of Ticonderoga as soon as the Lakes opened. That Major Small went with the Examinant to Colo M<sup>c</sup>Leans and was present at the above conversation. That he the Deponent waited two or three days in the City for the arrival of Troops from Rhode Island as he had business with some Gentlemen daily expected from thence but that no Troops had arrived from thence to his knowledge when he left the City. That Colo M<sup>c</sup>Lean and M<sup>r</sup> Abraham C. Cuyler of Albany both informed the Deponent that General Howe designed with his Army to pass to the Northward and join or meet the Northern or British Army at Albany as soon as the Northern Troops could meet them there; that M<sup>r</sup> Cuyler informed him that Lord Howe intended to publish another Proclamation as soon as he should come up to the North side of the High Lands. That he understood that they did not expect any person above the Highland to come in on the last Proclamation. That he did not hear anything said of Paoli the late Corsican Chief. That he the deponent was informed by Colo Allen M<sup>c</sup>Lean that twenty five thousand Russians were expected early this Spring and were destined for Boston. That from some person in the City of New York (he can't recollect the person but knows it was not Colo M<sup>c</sup>Lean) he was informed that fifteen thousand British Troops were expected this Spring to arrive at Canada. That to the best of his Remembrance it was Cunningham the Captain of the Provost Guard who mentioned this last circumstance at his the Deponents Lodging. That this Deponent left the said John Thompson of Tryon County at Hoboke Ferry to return to New York. That the said Thompson refused to return with them. That the said Denniston & Crookshank returned with the Deponent. That another person came out with them who passed by the name of Thompson. That he had a slay waiting for him at this side of Hoboke Ferry, Which the Deponent imagines was the slay which carried in Lady Johnson to New York. That the said person by the name of Thompson was then unknown to the Deponent. That he traveled with them to Smiths in the Clove and from thence left them pretending business at one Ellisons. That he the Deponent did not learn that his real name was Colden while he was in company with the Deponent but has since been informed by Cadwallader Colden Esq<sup>r</sup> that the said last mentioned person who passed by the name of Thompson was the son of him the said Cadwallader. That he the Deponent had not a pass to go in or come out of the City of New York. That he expected to go to New York when he left home if he could get into the City, and expected to get in from Newark. That he had applied for a pass to go to the City before he left home and was refused. That Major Small informed the Deponent that Colo M<sup>c</sup>Lean had appointed him first Captain in his Regiment. That the Deponent then informed Major Small that he had given his promise not to take arms against the Country. That they had used him well and that he would by no means think of engaging in the service. That Colo M<sup>c</sup>Lean afterwards told the Deponent that Major Small had mentioned his the Deponents sentiments and that he (M<sup>c</sup>Lean) knew it was in vain to press him on that subject or words to that effect.

That some time about the latter End of January last he set out from his own House in company with M<sup>r</sup> John Cummings, M<sup>r</sup> Alex<sup>t</sup> Crookshanks and John Thompson. That he did not know that Thompson was to be of the party untill the morning they set off. That he agreed to go with Cummings and Crookshanks at their request. That they proceeded to Hackinsack and tarried there at least two nights where they met one Hunter late a Clerk or Manager of a Linnen Manufactory for the Provincial Congress of New York and a young man of the name of M<sup>r</sup> Vickar. That all the Persons above named went into New York and that the Examinant went in with them by the way of Hoboke Ferry. That the Examinant lodged a few nights at John Marshall's one night at William Scotts and the residue of the time he was in the City he lodged on Board of a schooner commanded by Cap<sup>t</sup> M<sup>c</sup> Roberts. That he saw some large Brass cannon landing at New York from on Board a Transport near the old slip from whence they were taken away up thro the City. That Cap<sup>t</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Robert shewed him a great number of vessels lying from White Hall to the upper part of Rotten Row which he said were prize vessels. That M<sup>c</sup>Robert is an acquaintance of him the Deponent. That he heard and has no reason to doubt that a Brigade from Rhode Island landed at New York the day before he left that; that Capt Fingle told the Deponent that he saw them Land about the shipyards; that he was informed that a Brigade consists of about 1800 men. That he the Deponent was informed by Cap<sup>t</sup> M<sup>c</sup> Roberts & also by John Kelly the Land Jobber that the British Troops intended to conquer the Colony of New York this Spring and to pass up Hudsons River as early as possible; that Colonel Allen M<sup>c</sup>Lean, Sir John Johnson, Guy Johnson & Benj Hylton of Albany were to go round by the way of Quebec to come with the British troops there by Ticonderoga; that they expected to be in Albany by the middle of June; that he saw also — Gomersal of Albany there; that he is a Captain in the British Service & understood he was to go to Quebec; that Gomersal told him he expected to be at Albany by the middle of June. That he heard some persons talk of 24,000 or 25,000 Troops in Canada exclusive of Canadians and Indians and of an equal number of Canadians and Indians. That Cap<sup>t</sup> M<sup>c</sup>Roberts appeared not to credit these reports of the numbers in Canada. That John Kelly & others he conversed with appeared confident of the aid & assistance of the Indians.

That he heard from Gomersal, M<sup>c</sup>Roberts, Kelly & others that 25,000 Russians & 15,000 British Troops were expected in the Spring and that they had heard the Russians were destined for Boston. That they inquired of him the strength of General Washingtons Army, they spoke of the Verginia Troops as if they would give them trouble & called them Irish Rebel rascals but appeared to despise the New England Troops. That he went with Mess<sup>rs</sup> Cummins, Crookshank and Hunter (and M<sup>r</sup> Vickar to the best of his Remembrance) by Directions of Lawrence Burrows to General Robertsons office on the first morning after they arrived in Town. That Mr Cummins & Crookshank went into the House; that he the Examinant tarried at the Door & that Cummins told him when he came out that they delivered in the place of their Lodgings; that they lodged at Scotts & would be sent for if wanted. That Cummins appeared to have great Interest & to be much caressed by Col M<sup>c</sup>-Lean & the other Military Gentlemen in New York. That he verily believes the persons who informed him that the British Troops would attempt to force up Hudson River & conquer New York and join the British Northern Army spoke their sentiments & gave him the Information they had heard; that he understood they intended [to move] up the Hudson River both by Land & water.

That he the deponent when he set off from home did not intend or expect to go into the City of New York; that at Hackinsack Hunter and others persuaded him and that he there determined to go into the City of New York. FISH KILL, 24th March 1777, 7 O'clock, P. M.

SIR: Mr Jay is Exceedingly unhappy about the 27th paragraph of the form of Governm<sup>t</sup> which puts the appointm<sup>t</sup> of the Clerks of Courts in the power of the respective Judges I do not recollect to have seen so much dissatisfied about any other part of it. He alledges that 'tis putting in the power of the respective Judges to provide for Sons, Brothers, creatures, Dependants, &c<sup>e</sup> That it will prevent obtaining Evidence against the most wicked Judge should such be appointed. Corrupt Bargains may be made for appointments to those offices. If the Tenor of the office should render it too precarious to be purchased yet the grantee may appoint upon conditions to receive part of the profits By the second sentence of the paragraph every attorney & counsellor must be licensed in every court in the state in which he may incline to practice. The Beginning of the 28th paragraph is "And be it further ordered" it ought to be ordained. This last alteration can be got for asking—I almost presume to alter it. As M<sup>r</sup> Jay from the state of the Family cannot go to convention immediately & says he will give notice and move for the reconsideration of the 27th paragraph as soon as he shall arrive at Kingston that the Records may at least bear his Testimony against it. Would it not be best to reconsider the paragraph immediately & if any amendment should be made it might arrive here on Saturday.

The election of Town Clerk &c and the appointment of Loan officers &c together will form the 29th paragraph. The giving council to Criminals not being necessarily connected with the power of Impeaching which precedes it will be a separate paragraph. The paragraphs forty two in Number the first half sheet will be printed on Friday morning. Shall the Title page be the Constitution of the State of New York? Shall it appear to have any date?

On Sunday last a party of the Enemy attacked the picket guard of American Troops made prisoner & carried off one of the Light Horsemen. The Enemy met such a reception as obliged them to retreat speedily leaving five killed & two or three wounded.
